Once Upon A Time...

Teachers And Their Students

The student-teacher relationship at Matawan is very strong. The teachers are more than educators; they are friends. There is a bond that forms between the teacher and the student on the first day of school. bad, Matawan's teachers are always available to help students make the right choices. This is why it's so hard for us to say goodbye Through good times and and add this chapter in our lives to our "Once Upon A Time" tale.

A friend is defined as a person whom one knows, likes and trusts. For many of us these are just the fundamentals of friendship. Our friends are the ones who laugh with us, cry with us, and care for us. They are the ones who make the memories last a lifetime.

Certainly, friends are not uncommon at Matawan Regional. Everyone at Matawan has touched the hearts of one of their friends. We can only hope that these friendships will last a lifetime. We can only wish that we won't have to utter "Once Upon a Time" when speaking of our high school friends.

Friends from Home Economics.

As this would be the last time they would be celebrating Homecoming at MRHS, the seniors worked hard to accomplish the tasks at hand. Those tasks were to create both a hallway and a float in less than 24 hours. Well, by the end of the festivities they had accomplished their goals. They had stepped out on Broadway and graduated in one whole week while still managing to participate in the entire week of Homecoming activities including Silly Olympics and the annual dance.

A t one point in time we all entered Matawan High School to begin our careers. We all had great ambitions for the future and we are happy to say we are continuing to fulfill them. ### Teacher, Artist, Colleague, Friend

Diana Lynch-Firca graced the halls of Matawan Regional High School for the past four years. Her sense of appreciation for the beautiful things in life enhanced not only our Art and Italian programs, but also all who were privileged to know her.

Her gentleness and quiet charm will be sorely missed. Let us take consolation in that her spirit will continue to enhance the lives of all she touched.

"But flowers distill'd, though they with winter meet, Leese but their show, their substances still lives sweet."

Once upon a time, these women and men were new members of the MRHS family. Now they are leaving us after many years of dedicated service, and we relunctantly say good-bye to them. We will always remember the lessons they taught us. Their kindness and generosity will ensure that we will always smile when we think back on the times they shared with us at school.
