Congratulations to Keyana Traniece Reamer!!!

Our words just cannot describe how extremely proud we are of you. You are an amazing individual that we had the pleasure to raise and watch grow into a fine intelligent, generous and caring young lady. Your academic accomplishments solidify who you are.

It seems like only yesterday when you wore the yellow school bus tag around your neck as you waited for your first school bus ride to Kindergarten. Yes, we cried, and we will cry again, as you walk across the field to accept your high school diploma.

As you embark upon your next chapter in life, remember life is all about what you make it, and you definitely have what it takes. Your honor, respect and dignity to yourself and others will be a contributing factor in your decisions.

May all that you have achieved and that you strive for be great and blessed. Keep God in your life and no weapon formed against him shall prosper.

Thank you for filling our hearts with joy and giving us everlasting memories. Reach for the stars as the Sky is the limit for you sweetheart. You are truly a treasure and blessing from above.

Letter From the Editors

Class of 2010,

To an outsider, our class might seem like a typical senior class. We have students who like sports and others who like art. Ones who excel academically and others who take to the stage. Some students that want to be journalists while others would like to pursue the sciences. We all have unique perspectives, experiences, and goals for the future. In this respect, we may very well be an average student body. Despite this, any member of our senior class will say we are anything other than a typical or average senior class. This difference comes down to one minute detail: we have unity.

Together we walked through the front doors on the first day of freshman year hoping not to get lost. Together we faced the daily trials of a six hour school day. Together we triumphed when we won spirit week. Together we left our mark as The Dynasty. Together we laughed, cried, stressed out, relaxed, learned, grew, and made memories that will last a lifetime. Together we have made it through the past four years, and it is together that we will reach that podium and graduate as the Matawan Regional High School Class of 2010.

Individually we are bright young minds, exceptional people, and destined for success.

Congratulations Class of 2010!

Sincerely,

Erica, Chelsea, Heidi, Claudia, & Eddie

all you can think about
Sometimes in the end,

is the beginning.
