* Preface *

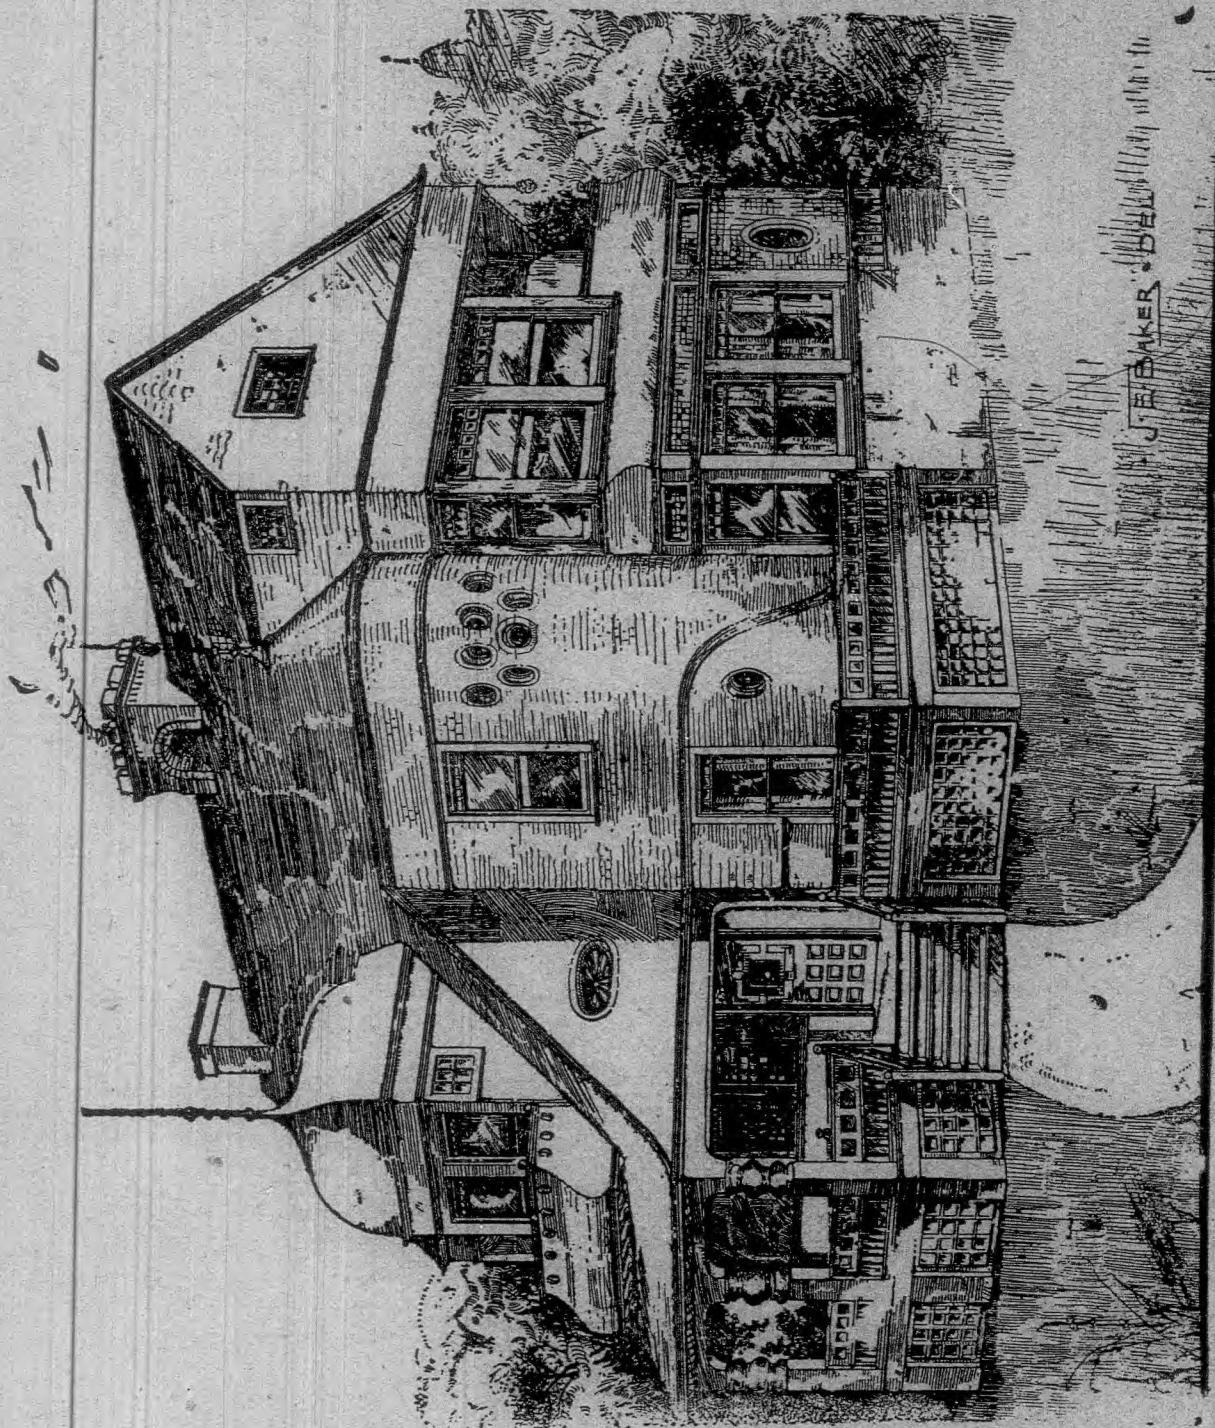

In presenting the third edition of this work to the elite of Bloomfield, Montclair and the Oranges, the publisher would state that a new canvass of the territory has been made and that the work has been thoroughly revised, and a comparison will show that nearly three hundred names have been added. Typographically the work compares favorably with its predecessors. The publisher is also happy to state that the Elite Directory is now coming into general use and that the public is appreciating it more as they become better acquainted with it.

As in former editions great care has been taken in selecting advertisements for this work, and none but leading business and professional men have advertisements in its columns.

The publisher hereby extends his thanks to all his patrons for the very liberal patronage he has received and hopes to merit a continuance of the same for the future editions of this work.
