Hoff Guest Speaker At Harbor Democratic Club

Joseph Hoff, Democratic Candidate for Township Committeeman was the guest speaker at a recent meeting of the Laurence Harbor Democratic Club. Hoff praised the work of the local Democratic club and expressed thanks to the group for submitting his name as a potential candidate to the Democratic County Committee for screening.

Hoff who will be seeking election to the Township Committee with his running mate, Mayor John Phillips, said "We intend to point out to the residents of Madison Township, the poorly run operation of the previous G.O.P. administration headed by John Chamberlain. The candidate went on to add "The Republicans are in the middle of a inter-party fight and their ranks are torn with strife, there is fighting among the leaders of the Republican Party in Madison Township. Many sincere Republican voters will "switch" their votes and vote Democratic locally as a protest against the Chamberlain - Macrae - Massom combination. Already several high ranking local Republicans including a former candidate for Middlesex County Freeholder have announced their intentions of

"bolting" from the G.O.P. ranks because of this "trio", many more will follow the actions of their leaders."

The Democratic Party is here to stay in Madison Township, we can only offer the people of Madison Township good government, financially sound planning, improved governmental services and closer communication between all departments, these will result into tax savings for the residents of Madison Township.

President Gilbert O'Tier presided at the meeting at which over 50 members of the group attended.

He Is Risen!

At dawn on Sunday, Mary of Magdala and Mary, the mother of Jude and James, came to the tomb in the garden to pray.

As they drew near they saw that the great stone at the entrance had been moved and they wondered at this.

"How is it that the stone has been rolled away?"

"Have his enemies come here and taken him from his tomb?"

With these thoughts of fear, the faithful Marys approached the dark entrance. And, behold, within the tomb they saw an angel!

They were frightened.

But the angel called to them and said: "Fear not. I know that you have come seeking Jesus, he that was crucified. But he is not here for he has risen from the dead . . . Go quickly and find his disciples and tell them that he goeth into Galilee and there they shall see him."

The two Marys were filled with a mingling of fear and joy. They turned from the tomb to bring the news to the disciples as the angel had said. And as they walked across the garden they wondered where they would find the disciples, for the city was large and crowded. But their faith was such that they knew they would somehow find those they were seeking. They would be shown the way.

And as they walked through the garden with these thoughts in their minds there appeared before them a figure. And they recognized him as their beloved Teacher, Jesus. They ran to him and fell at his feet and worshipped him.

Then Jesus blessed them and, repeating the words of the angel, he told them to go to his disciples and announce his Resurrection. "You will find my disciples gathered together in the upper room of a certain house near the wall of the city. It was in this room that we celebrated the Passover."

When these words were spoken, he vanished from their sight.

The two Marys did as Jesus had told them. They found the house near the city wall and they climbed the stair to the upper room. Here, as Jesus had said, were the eleven gathered together.

Then before all, the two Marys related what had happened. They said that Jesus had risen from the tomb and that they had met him in the garden. And they also told the disciples how he had sent them here with a message, that they should all go to Galilee and he would come to them. Then they told of the great stone that had been rolled away from the mouth of the tomb, and of the angel they had found sitting where Jesus had been placed.

All this they told to the eleven disciples. And there were some who believed but some could not believe.

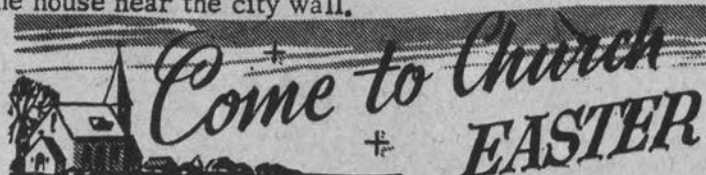

Then, to convince those who could not believe, Peter, James and John revealed the promise that they had made to Jesus on Mount Hermon. They told of the vision which they had witnessed, of how they had seen Jesus with Moses and Elijah and how they had heard a great voice that filled the sky: "This is my beloved son."

So it was decided that they should go with the two Marys to the tomb in the garden.

When they came to the tomb it was as they had been told. The stone had been moved away and the tomb was empty. But the angel was now gone. And neither did they meet Jesus in the garden.

And so they reasoned that the story that the two Marys had told was false; that Jesus had not risen from the dead, but that someone, either friend or enemy, had moved the body elsewhere.

Reasoning and doubting in this way, they slowly returned through the streets of Jerusalem to the upper room of the house near the city wall.

V.F.W. Social Highly Successful

Robert Knight, Chairman of the recent Social of the Hoffman-Prince V.F.W. Post #2672, Laurence Harbor termed the affair a huge success and was informed by many of the residents attending to keep up the good work and we'll be back again.

The social, the first of its kind in the history of the newly organized veteran's group was held at Byrnes Hall, Route 35, Laurence Harbor. Helping to make the program a success were Bob McKinnon and Pat Shannon, well remembered as vaudeville greats, in days gone but not forgotten. The entertainment was great and brought peals of laughter seldom heard, in this day and age, tears were also mingled with the laughter.

The chairman of the affair gave special credit to members of the Ladies Auxiliary for all their work in the preparation and serving of the delicious buffet supper, which was enjoyed by all.

Future socials are planned in the very near future. The officers of the V.F.W. Post wish to take the opportunity to thank all who turned out to the affair.

Under The Fence

UP IN THE COUNTY: We hate to say we told you so but several weeks ago we reported in this column that Warren Wilentz would resign as Prosecutor and take the job of County Solicitor when Sam Convery was appointed judge. Just like we said, Mr. Convery was appointed Judge and Mr. Wilentz resigned and was appointed County Solicitor. Dolan will be named prosecutor. Congratulations we are sure that everyone will be able to handle their new jobs. Remember you read it first in the Madison American.

ROAD DEPARTMENT: Understand that there is quite a feud in the making in the Road Department. Seems quite a bit of fuss going on between the Chairman of the Department and the Road Supervisor over the hiring and firing of help. The way we get the story the Road Department Supervisor would like to hire the help and also fire the help. Rumor has it that the Supervisor feels that anyone not doing his job should be replaced and not fool around with them. Understand that there is a petition circulating in the Township for the Road Department Workers to put them on Civil Service. We think the idea is fine. We also agree with the Road Supervisor that he should do the hiring and the firing of help. After all he is in a better position to know who is working and who is just plain "goofing off".

WRECKER PLAN ALMOST WRECKED: Garagemen in the Old Bridge area are a little more than upset about the Police Department's Rotation Plan of handling wrecks. Many are complaining that evidently something must be stuck with the rotation, because it never seems to rotate. We also hear that several of the wrecker truck operators will soon band together and present the Township Committee with the whole problem. If no action is taken by the committee then the garagemen will all be on their own, picking up wrecks, when and where they happen. We still don't think much of the present set up, seems kind of ridiculous. If a wreck happens in front of one garage, why call another a mile away to pick up the wreck? Local police should just be interested in the speedy removal of the wreck from the road, if it is impairing traffic or is in a dangerous position. And THAT'S WHERE THE POLICE AUTHORITY SHOULD END. Many feel that the township committee should adopt a local ordinance covering rules and regulations on the operation of wrecker trucks within the township with perhaps a fee basis included.

FEUDING AND FUSSING: Republicans are still at it. Understand that a pamphlet was circulated in the Cliffwood Beach area denouncing Thomas Miller of Old Bridge. G.O.P. is certainly worried about Mr. Miller, who is running in the G.O.P. Primary Election as a Republican. Miller has constantly heckled the G.O.P. machine. He has beaten them in the Old Bridge area on several occasions, so they should worry. Bets are being made that Miller will take District #2 by a landslide. Democrats are having no major battles, just a couple of minor campaigns. These are for County Committeemen in the various districts. Big news will be made soon when a very well-liked Republican will come out openly in support of Mayor John Phillips.

HOMEOWNERS BEWARE!! Madison Township is once again bothered with "Lawn Furniture Salesmen" peddling their wares from unmarked trucks. Residents are urged to co-operate with the local police in reporting these peddlers. In most cases the peddlers are unlicensed. It's very wise to know what you are purchasing. Don't get stuck for any fast talk, if it's not down in black and white, in most cases it won't be done. When you sign your name to the Conditional Sales Contract, brother, it's too late then. Read what you are about to sign, if you have any doubts take it to a lawyer, might cost you a couple of dollars, but might result in saving you much more than money.

GARBAGE DEPARTMENT: Signs all over State Highway and various roads point out the fact of a campaign to keep New Jersey roads clean and free of trash. Signs read "No Littering $50 Fine." So what happen! If Madison Township had to pay a $50 fine for each piece of paper that flew out of the township truck collecting garbage, the total fine would have run into several thousands of dollars. We also understand that when they were asked to clean up some of the mess they said let the county pick it up. The same condition existed in Madison Park as Township Garbage Collectors emptied cans and paper was blown all over the roads and lawns. Some of the trouble results because evidently one of the regular garbage trucks is in for repairs (again?) and the garbage department is using one of the road department dump trucks which was never designed to haul garbage. How about placing a canvass over the top of the garbage on the way to the dump and being just a little more careful when dumping the cans.
