OPERATION SNO-FEUD:

Madison Township was hard hit by the 17 inch snowstorm that fell on Sunday and on into Monday. Road department workers started clean-up operations on Sunday evening around 10:00 p.m., but powdered snow, road scrapers were fighting a loosing battle.

Cars and trucks were stalled and many left unattended on main traffic arteries, Routes 35, and 9, and 18 saw automobile traffic I virtually at a stand still and only a few cars equipped with skid chains braved the snow swepted highways.

Madison Township Road Department workers under director of Mayor John Phillips and Road Department John Keating attacked the falling snow, many of the main arteries of travel in the developments were some sections of the township saw little of snow removal equipment.

Dr. William Sample, Madison Township Superintendent of Schools after conferring with other area school heads decided to close school for the Monday session at approximately 11:30 p.m., Sunday evening, the various radio stations and local police department as well as bus contractors serving Madison Township were notified of the decision.

School was also cancelled on Tuesday after a tour of surrounding areas and Madison Township itself proved that it would be virtually impossible for students to arrive at school with the utmost of safety precautions.

Marthon Bus Company serving Laurence Harbor and Cliffwood Beach to Perth Amboy suspended bus operations on Monday, one company official stated that this was the first time in his memory that bus service along Route 35 had to be cancelled by the com-

Madison Township police were on a near emergency setup, with police cars equipped with chains, patrolling the various developments and aiding stranded motorists to get to shelter. Several local residents were re-turned to their homes by police patrol cars, after they had become stranded in their attempts to reach work. Bread and milk deliveries in the area suffered and many area stores were without fresh supplies because of the heavy snowfall, Several smaller milk trucks that managed to get in the area were doing a "booming" business over the counter.

Telephone service in the area was uninterrupted by the storm but delays in getting dial tones were encountered because of the heavy use of the telephones in the area. Telephone repair trucks equipped with heavy duty tires and chains helped more than one stranded motorist to get his vehicle out of the snow banks.

Only a few minor accidents were reported, most residents of Madison Township left their cars home and obtained other transportation or pooled up.

Madison Township road department scrapers were brought into action after attempts to have streets cleared in the Knollcroft development in Cliffwood Beach proved fruitless.

Many of the homes in the township are heated by gas and fortunately few homes were without heat in the below freezing temperatures.

If residents in Madison Township think that the snow removal job was poor, they should listen to some of the complaints that beseiged the Madison American.

One Madison Park resident reported that he left Madison Park at 6:00 a.m. for New York, he managed to get to the Lincoln Tunnel and New York and had to turn around and come back.

Two Laurence Harbor residents automobile became stranded on Bordentown Avenue, Sayreville and they walked over five miles to Police Headquarters on Route 9, where they were transported to their homes.

One Old Bridge resident reported being stuck in a traffic jam in Elizabeth for over six

A Word To The Wise

The weekend snow storm really complicated travel in and out of Madison Township. Road department snow equipment did a pretty good job on plowing the streets, but as they plowed the street, and as the wind blew the light powdered snow, into drifts several feet high, many fire hydrants completely disappeared from sight.

We were fortunate that there were no serious outbreaks of fire apparatus arriving at the scene would have a difficult time finding the hydrants.

We would sincerely suggest to the Township Committee that light poles or stakes with small flags or other marking devices be erected near each hydrant to mark

Residents of the township could also be of great help if they would dig out the hydrant nearest to their home, they would probably be able to find it much easier than

It's just a suggestion, we feel that residents would have been out of luck, if a hydrant had to be located during the height of the storm.

Dear Sir:

Will you please print this letter, so the public can read of some good that a group of fraternity boys are doing. Some of these boys are our own local The Frat is Pi-Kappa Phi from Newark College of Engineering, Each Christmas they plan a party for St. Peter's Orphanage, they supply the food, presents, tree etc. Each boy hosts a few youngsters and even do the cleaning up after the party.

I know the public frowns on frats for their hazing and drinking but lets give them a small pat on the back for the good things they do, even when their schedule is a busy one they make the time for some good.

They want no publicity or thanks for what they do, but I as a mother of a fraternity brother, think it should be known.

None of the boys including my own son, know I am writing this

> Mrs. Ed Benz Laurence Harbor, N.J.

Editors Note:- We certainly appreciate receiving your letter, unfortunately few newspapers or other publications would think it newsworthy enough to print, but let the group be involved in a "panty raid" or "drinking party" and it would make the front pages. We hope that the group continues to aid others.

POLICE DEPARTMENT: Local police are reported looking into another "teen-age" hotspot, and a crack down will soon be made. Sayreville and Madison Township Police have been confering for sometime about "bomb threats" in the Sayreville High School. Police will soon make an arrest in the most recent bomb scare. We certainly hope that they just don't slap the culprits on the wrist. They should be given the works. It is suspected that the culprits are from the Laurence Harbor area.

BOARD OF EDUCATION: A community theater group is forming in Madison Township several of the Board of Education members should attend. School Budget costs will soar and there isn't much that anyone can do about it. Unfortunately it costs money to run the schools and taxpayers will have to dig down for the added costs. . . One Board of Education member complains that he doesn't get reports. . . We wonder if he ever reads them when he receives them . . . Rumored around town that a new group called Citizens for Better Schools or some similar name will be formed?? This group will support certain candidates for election to the Board of Education. . . several Board of Education members are reported to be behind the whole set-up. Same old gimmicks! Probably same old candidates? Only thing new will be the name?...One rumor bouncing around the Old Bridge area is that an independent group will ask the State Board of Education for an investigation of the local Board of Education. Time will tell?

ROAD DEPARTMENT: Madison Township Road depart-ment workers worked around the clock in an effort to combat the heavy snowfall, we think they did a fairly good job. It could have been better, but the snow removal situation in other surrounding towns never even not off the ground. Road Department Foreman should be given an "A" for Effort. Things were pretty bad in the Old Bridge area, Many of the complaints resulted because the wind blew back the snow as fast as the streets were cleaned. . . then of course entire streets were missed. We'd still like to see snow plows attached to the garbage department trucks, in case of a storm like this the garbage truck drivers could also aid out, . . afterall they know most of the development roads . . . About the only good thing about the snowfall you can't see any holes in the roads! They are all full of snow.

FEUDING AND FUSSING: If appointments aren't to their liking one whole wing of the Democratic Party will bolt from Walter Staegers leadership and again try to dump him. Many feel that Staeger is doing a good job and some feel that he is not active enough in the local situation to know just what is going on. Much of his opposition will again come from Madison Park, however, they will be joined by segments of the Democratic Party from Sayre Woods South and Old Bridge. There might even be a "C" line in the 1961 primary.

LOVE AFFAIR: The recent snow-storm was one fellow's downfall in the Old Bridge area. Monday afternoon his wife went to work, like she always does. The only thing different was that the plant in New Brunswick had suspended evening operations, the woman returned to her home before 5:00 p.m. and lo and behold, caught husband dear with another woman. His attempts to convince his wife that she had become stranded and he was just doing the neighborly thing fell on deaf ears. Wifey-Dear warned him that if it happens one more time. He had it. We have news for her this has been going on for longer than you think.

Scouts Inspect Air Force Base

Cub Scout Pack #36 of Old Bridge invaded McGuire Air Force Base on Saturday, Captain Margolis escorted the scouts through the field hangar where the officer in charge explained the functions of the hangar,

The group also visited the weather station where they were shown how the weather was for-

The Cub Scouts also visited the Medical Evacuation Hangar where they examined an ambulantory plane and were briefed about it's functions by an Air Force Medical Officer.

All questions were answered patiently and courteously by the officers and men of the airbase the scouts appreciated being able to visit the base and greatly enjoyed the educational tour. The scout expressed thanks to all personnel who presented the tour and also appreciated the entertainment provided by Mr. Morgan and his accordian who entertained the scouts on the bus trip to and from the air base. The scouts participated in a song fest.

It was announced by Scout Leaders that on December 16th the Cub Scout Pack #36 will enjoy their Christmas Party at the Irwin School at 7:30 p.m.

The next outing of the group will be a roller skating party on January 14th, all children of all ages are also invited to attend.

Languages Offered

Both modern foreign language and classical language will be studied at the new Madison Township High School.

Offerings in this area of study will include 4 years of Spnish, German, French and Latin.

College admissions officers today are continuing to emphasize strongly the inclusion of three or more years of foreign language study in the high school programs of their applicants.

The determining of which language to elect is a task deserving of careful consideration. While most colleges do not specifically designate which, they often indicate a preference. At Madison High, foreign language study will be, by no means, restricted to those pupils preparing for college, but will be open to all who are interested and whose previous studies predict success
