Board Unveils Proposed School Budget -- Wow!

Local School Budget Highest in History Of Township---More Teachers More Students---More Money

The Madison Township Board of Education unveiled its record breaking school budget for the School Year 1963-64 and needless to say the budget has increased.

The budget anticipates enrollment in the school system of 8,150 pupils in the 1963-64 term. Anticipated enrollment in the 1962-63 term was estimated at 7,449. Actual enrollment in 1961-62 term was 6,533.

Salary increases in all departments make up the greatest increase in the school budget. Under Administration (1963-64) $95,544 compared to only $73,780 in the 1962-63 budget.

Instruction salaries show an increase from $1,619,740 in the 1962-63 budget to $2,072,026 in the 1963-64 budget or an increase of $450,000.

Operation salaries show an increase in the 1962-63 budget $117,600 to $143,100 in the 1963-64 budget or an increase of $25,500.

Decrease in the budget is shown in outside tuition which went from $109,500 in the 1962-63 budget down to $8,075. This is the first year that Madison Township High School will operate with four full terms. The other figure is for special educable classes and retarded instruction in other school districts.

The textbook account decreased from $38,000 in 1962-63 down to $37,000 in the 1963-64 budget. Heat for the school shows a decrease of $4,800 in the 1963-64 budget.

Transportation in the 1963-64 school budget shows an increase from $151,700 in the 1962-63 budget to $201,500 in the 1963-64 school budget.

Health salaries (nurses etc.) in the 1963-64 budget amounts to $54,300 as compared to only $44,500 in the 1963-63 budget.

Teaching supplies show an increase from $76,900 in the 1962-63 budget to $95,220 in the 1963-64 budget.

The complete budget of the board will be available for examination by the general public at the office of the secretary of the Board of Education at the Madison Township High School, Route 516 from January 17 until the day of the school budget hearing which will be held on Tuesday, January 22, 1963 at the Madison Township High School at 8:00 p.m. The budget may be examined during regular school hours only at the office of the clerk of the Board of Education.

The budget hearing is held according to state law and the residents of the voting district have the opportunity to protest or support the proposed school budget. In past years these budget hearings have been stormy, many residents argue that the budget should be increased and there are many attending the meetings that ask for reduction of the school budget.

The local board of education has been fortunate for the past few years the local school budget has been approved by a majority of the voters without too much trouble. In neighboring communities in Middlesex County school budgets have suffered defeat at the hands of the voters.

The budget is presented to the voters of the Township at the school board election which is set for February 14. If the voters reject the budget the budget is resubmitted. The members of the Board of Education may at that time "cut," the budget, or may place the exact budget up for approval, however they cannot increase the amount of money requested following defeat at the polls.

If the budget is defeated for the second time at the polls, then the budget is turned over to the Township Committee and they may pare the budget or approve it as it stands. The Township Committee has ten days in which to act on the approval of the budget following defeat at the polls if the Township Committee fails to act on the budget the State Board of Education can approve the budget.

In recent special school elections proposals made by the Board of Education for the approval of Junior High School construction met with defeat at the hands of the voters.

It must be noted at this time that the proposed school budget is merely for the operation of the schools and does not call for the construction of any additional schools or classrooms.

Harbor Lions Make Donation To Blind

At the recent Ladies Night sponsored by the Laurence Harbor Lions Club held at Jim's Lounge, Route 35, Morgan, President William Trinkner on behalf of the Harbor Lions presented George E. Burck, president of the Middletown Lions Club and the treasurer of the New Jersey Blindmens Association a check in the amount of $100. The association operates and maintains "Camp Happiness" at Leonardo, N.J., a home for the Blind.

In accepting the donation Mr. Burch lauded the local Lions Club for their continuing efforts and accomplishments within their state, district and community. Mr. Burch stated "I realize brother Lions that in order for you to successfully continue your numerous services and activities in your community you must have the cooperation and support of not only the membership of the Lions Club but also the support of the local residents. On behalf of the New Jersey Blind Mens Association and "Camp Happiness" I thank each and everyone of you, and thanks to all the wonderful people in Madison Township that so freely helped the local Lions."

Also on the program was Lion Herman Treptow, candidate for District Governor 16D. Treptow showed movies of the Lions International Convention held in Nice, France this past summer. Over 76 countries were represented at the affair. Representing the Harbor Lions were Lion and Mrs. William Kock, zone chairman area 16D.

James Coogan, chairman of the Christmas Decoration Contest sponsored by the Harbor Lions presented certificates of appreciation to the winning families in the Laurence Harbor - Cliffwood Beach area. The winners were also guests at the annual Ladies Night. Winners were Mr. and Mrs. William Robertson, 65 Woodshore West, Cliffwood Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Krebs, 15 Blvd. East, Cliffwood Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly, 114 Norwood Avenue, Laurence Harbor.

The Club president presented a certificate to Mrs. Martin Flohs for outstanding service to the local Lions Club.

Lion Izzy Garber presented the local club with a bronze and mahogany wall clock. Others attending the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Hood, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur S. Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. John Kazinski, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Samolyk, Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong and Lions William Meggison, Alfred Sousa and John Huber.

"Screening" Committee Continues To Screen

Members of Madison Township Citizen's Committee for Better Education meet at home of Mrs. Betty Taranto of Old Bridge Estates to discuss candidates. Seated l. to r. are Herb Gordon, John Partridge, Eric Schniemer, Seymour Marks and Harry M. Anger, president.

The Madison Township Citizen's Committee for Better Education has completed interviews on six of the candidates running for election to the Board of Education.

Harry M. Anger, president of the organization stated, "We are highly gratified by the almost unanimous response to our request for interviews from the candidates. To date, we have received affirmative replies from Gerard Gower, Dr. Margery Turner, Lyndly Higgins, William Joyce, William Kerr, Al Stein, Bernard Herman, and Mishel Aisenstock. We are presently attempting to finalize arrangements with Richard Pine. The only candidate who has refused to meet with us is James Garland. As a matter of fact, we have already completed interviews with six of the candidates and should be able to release our endorsements shortly."

The Citizen's Committee, now 3 years old is a non-profit organization of residents from all parts of Madison Township. Members of the interviewing committee of the group includes: Herb Gordon, Kitty Linville, Seymour Marks, John Partridge, Herb Pedersen, Eric Schreiver, Ralph Steinhardt, Betty Taronto and Phil Untersee.

Magistrate Declares "War" On Speeders

Madison Township Police Magistrate Samuel Sladkus visibly disturbed over the tragic death of a 17 year old youth alleged to have been speeding in a "souped up" car, declared open warfare on speeders in Madison Township.

The Madison Magistrate said "that too many motorists are of the opinion that you can walk in a court room and pay a fine for speeding and walk out. We are not interested in running a "cash register" court and the collection of fines, we are interested in reducing traffic accidents because of speeding. If this means handing out jail sentences, then it will be jail sentences."

The magistrate continued "I have conferred with Mayor John Keating, Police Chief Charles Boice and Police Chairman Victor O'Brien. We owe it to the citizens of Madison Township to reduce this carnage on the highways. There is no need for excessive speed on the highways and roads in Madison Township. There certainly is no need of tragic and untimely deaths because of speed. Let it be known now that the police department of Madison Township and the courts of Madison Township have declared "open war" on speeders. No longer will "excessive speeders" just pay a fine and lose their driving privileges for a few months, they are going to receive jail sentences.

Following the address by the police magistrate in Municipal Mrs. James Armstrong and Lions Court, jail sentences were meted out to two violators of the Motor William Meggison, Alfred Sousa and John Huber.

We Agree

James B. Garland, candidate for the two year term on the Madison Township Board of Education recently announced his opposition of any endorsement of a "screening committee" appointed by any organization for the sole purpose of endorsement of candidates.

Garland feels that any endorsement of a candidate for the Board of Education by an organization should only come following the presentation of a candidates views and qualifications before the entire membership of the group. We must certainly agree with Garland.

We would like to see a law passed banning formation of groups using "trick names" to fool and mislead the voters. Too many times around School election time we've seen "paper organizations" formed. Many of these have fine sounding names. We've heard of "Citizen's for the Advancement of Education and Betterment of the Schools". That's a real nice sounding name. What are the aims of the group, who are the members? Nobody knows, and yet this ficticious group could endorse candidates, programs and budgets. How about "Citizens for A Pay Raise for Teachers Below the Eighth Grade"? "Citizens for the Budget' or "Citizen Against the Budget'? There could be no end of 'trick names" and "dummy organizations", it could go on and on. The entire membership in the organization could be six or could be three, but yet when announced in the newspapers that the "so and so group" endorses Joe Blow it reads nice.

We feel that some sort of law should be passed that would put an end to such "trick-ery". We'd like to see it soon.

Attend School Budget Hearing

The Board of Education has announced its proposed School Budget for the 1963-64 school term. The general public have the opportunity to question the members of the Board of Education and the various department heads in regards to the budget at a Budget Hearing.

The hearing is set for Tuesday, January 22, 1963 at the Madison Township High School on Route 516, at 8:00 p.m. This budget hearing should concern every resident of Madison Township, whether you have children in school, or whether they attend private schools. School taxes account for the largest portion of the money collected in Our Town.

The Board of Education estimates the enrollment for 1963-64 at 8,150 students which could easily account for the increase in the school budget.

The Madison American will neither endorse the present proposed school budget or condemn it at this time, we will wait for the full explanation of the various accounts in the proposed budget.

We urge every citizen of Madison Township to attend the budget hearing and speak out, either in favor of the budget or against. Now is the time!

Under The Fence

FEUDING AND FUSSING: Rumor has it that the local Democratic Victory Dinner scheduled for Saturday is expected to be a complete sell-out. Let's face it: If every person on the Municipal Payroll, elected officials, appointed officials, building inspectors, plumbing inspectors, etc., each bought two tickets the "thing" would have to be a complete "sell-out". The interesting thing to watch is not who attends the Victory Dinner but who DIDN'T ATTEND. Tickets are only $5.00 per person and going fast. Township Clerk Mary M. Brown might be able to obtain tickets.

ROAD DEPARTMENT: Before the recent "freeze" residents of the Laurence Harbor area sat down and wrote new words to the song "Moon River". The new title was "Mud River", the new words go something like this:"Mud River, used to be a road, Was such a prety road and then, After the sewers, it isn't any road, Just Mud River.

We'd like to see the Township Committee go along with the recommendations of the Road Foreman for just one time. Why not finish off the small portion of Bushnell Road, into the Sayre-Wood South development and pave Cheesequake Road. Gad-zooks the holes are getting bigger all the time. Patching and repatching just make the project a lifelong job for someone to keep filling up the holes. That's one way to beat automation.

POLICE DEPARTMENT: Understand that the Chief of Police held a meeting with all police officers early Monday morning. The way we get the story the Chief laid the law down to some of the officers and directed them to shape up. Two special police officers on Patrol on Route 9 made a nice arrest the other night. We still feel that constant patroling and keeping the cars moving around pays off. Neighboring towns are being "hit" from everything to Breaking and Enterings to heavy vandalism. Understand that quite a bit of damage was done recentlt in South River--Sayreville had a streak of vandalism prior to Christmas Holidays. In Madison Township "out-of-towners" find out, you might pull one job in Madison and make a hit, but on the second they're pushing their luck. Our congrats to the Police Department "Keep Up the Patrols". Nobody ever stole a police station yet, tain't no need to watch the place?

WE TOLD YOU SO: Several months ago this column predicted that a lawyer from Sayre-Woods South or Central Park would get the job vacated by Attorney Jack Salvest. At the recent meeting of the Zoning Board of Adjustment Jack Schnoll of SayreWoods South was appointed for a one year term. Our sincere congratulations on your appointment.

WORRY DEPARTMENT: DAVE WATSON, Township Tax Collector served as the Democratic Campaign Manager in the November election. DAVE was successful. Messenger and O'Brien were elected. The Change in the Form of Government was approved by the voters. Now it looks like they'll have to go through the same routine all over again. This time Mr. Watson will have more than just a passing interest. If the G.O.P. should win the election it's very doubtful that Watson would be appointed Tax Collector. Understand tha in approving the Charter Change the office of tax collector is no longer an elected position but rather appointive. Come to think of it, if he backs the wrong Dems in the Primary election --- he might not be appointed even if the Democrats win in November. Politics is a crazy business-some go "crazy" and some get the "business". Oh, well that's what makes horse players and card players. The thrill? One day you're IN--the next Out!

BOARD OF EDUCATION: We were just looking up and down the list of school board members and the candidates for the Board of Education. It might seem strange but there isn't anyone on the Boarc of Education or seeking election to the Board from the following areas: Laurence Harbor -Madison Park-Cliffwood Beach. No William Kerr is not from Laurence Harbor, he lives in Voting District 11. It's kind of strange not seeing anyone on the Board from the Harbor area? Funny thing about it, these are supposed to be Democratic Strongholds? Could it be that all potential candidates that might have decided to run for the Board of Education will throw their hats in the Democratic Primary election. Or do the Dems feel that an elected school board will be abolished in favor of an appointed one -- so why waste time, energy and money seeking election. Just wait and be appointed?

Letters

After reading many of your editorials and seething with anger, you have finally driven me to write a letter of protest. I am referring to the Editorial concerning the black-out of the N.F.L. Championship game between the Giants and Green Bay.

In the first place, it's not your prerequisite to demand that a privately owned club do anything. Certainly it isn't in the domain of any government, city, state or federal.

These clubs rely on the sale of tickets to survive. . . were they to televise their most important game then pro-football in New York would suffer the drastic consequences that probaseball is now feeling. It is rare these days to see Yankee Stadium filled to capacity when the Yanks are playing home. I say all this as an avid, dedicated Giant fan -- I want them to stay in New York--I can't go to the games but I'm content with viewing the "away" games and listening to the "home" games on W.N.E.W. If you are as loyal and enthusiastic fan as you claim to be then you too should be content with this.

Mrs. Virginia A. Woolf

EDITORS NOTE:

We think you're all wet concerning television ruining baseball. We feel that baseball itself ruined the sport. Overexposure!
How many persons can afford in this day and age to take the afternoon off and attend an afternoon baseball game? How many pro-football games are played or televised Monday thru Friday?
Most of these are on weekends... so they get a better turn out.

Pro-football is a very active sport, a team that might end up in the cellar, might also "clobber" the first place team. It's a game of action where anything can happen and usually does. Television has certainly helped pro-football. The sport has been around for many years but it is only in recent years and because of television that it is enjoying such wide popularity.

If you keep seething---stop reading.

Nun Guest Speaker At PTA Meeting

Sister Mary Pierre, president of Georgian Court College, Lakewood, was guest speaker during the monthly meeting of the Parent Teacher Association of St. Thomas the Apostle School.

Addressing the 317 members present in the parish auditorium, Sister Pierre spoke about "Mary Was Her Life", her published book.

The publication is a biography of the late Sister Maria Teresa of Jesus, a postulent in the Carmelite Sisters of Charity order of Madrid, Spain.

Sister Pierre explained that she first became acquainted with the subject of her book in the fall of 1949, when she had gone to Spain to study for a degree in Spanish literature at the University of Madrid. Friends of the young postulant had asked Sister Pierre to visit her at the convent. Many visits followed the first one, according to the American nun. Sister Pierre said she was very much impressed with "Tericita", as the postulant was called, and her dedication to the Blessed Mother.

"Terecita" made her final vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience to God on Jan. 24, 1950 on her death bed, before her 20th birthday, Sister Pierre said.

In the winter of 1956 the Cardinal of Spain began investigations into the life of Sister Maria Teresa. Her biography was being written in many countries. Sister Pierre was asked to write the story for American readers.

"The next three years", Sister Pierre continued, "were spent in gathering material for the book. Spiritual notes written by Sister Teresa; the nun's diary; letters written to her parents, relatives, and friends crossed the sea from Spain". "Terecita's" friends wrote letters about her background.

Sister Teresa was born, Mary Teresa Quevedo in Madrid in 1930. Her father was a doctor. "One of the most remarkable phases of her life", said Sister Pierre, "was the bond between father and daughter". Dr. Quevedo, a deeply religous man, guided the spiritual training of his daughter.

Sister Teresa was a teen-ager of the 20th century, said Sister Pierre. She was captain of her basketball team in school; an expert swimmer and diver, she won many medals; she entered the finals in tennis matches in Madrid; she rowed a boat; drove a car; a natural leader, she was president of Our Lady's Sodality.

Her spiritual life, explained Sister Pierre, was the reason for the title of the book - "Her life was a total consecration to the Mother of God". Quoting from one of Sister Teresa's writings, Sister Pierre read, "When I made my first Holy Communion, I placed my hand in Blessed Mother's; and I have never withdrawn my hand". The book was finished in 1959. With a trace of humor the nun said, "My efforts at finding a publisher would furnish enough material for another book". She did however find a publisher in

Joint Committee For Fair Water Rates

The Joint Committee for Fair Water Rates recently distributed a "flyer" in the Madison Park area. The sheet attacked the proposed increase of the water rates for the Madison Park area. Residents of the area will be approached to sign petitions against the increase in rates.

The text of the "flyer" is as follows:

On December 6, 1962, The Madison Township Water Authority informed the citizens at a public hearing that they are proposing to increase the minimum water rate to $15.75 for 18,000 gallons per quarter, effective January 1, 1963. Although the amount of water is increased, Madison Park homes cannot use the extra quantity. This action taken by the Water Authority will increase the rates for Madison Park residents by 20 per cent. If this rate stands, don't be surprised if it doubles, triples or quadruples as the Authority purchases other more expensive water companies --- WHICH IS THEIR ANNOUNCED PLAN.

This is a "master plan" that we believe will harm the residents of Madison Park who will share the brunt of this scheme with Central Park, but also, of all residents of Madison Township who depend upon the Water Authority for their water.

We do not believe it is right from either a legal or ethical standpoint to tax one segment of the population to an unfair, degree in order to bring one of the numerous water companies in town under the control of the Authority.

To what benefit is it to switch from private to public ownership if it means a twenty per cent increase in rates? If this is. beneficial, let the Authority take their benevolences elsewhere.

There are many families of Madison Park that are holding onto their homes only by holding double jobs, or by having both husband and wife work. If this extra tax - and it is a tax stands, many of these same people will have to sell, or they may lose their homes.

This is an issue in which Republicans and Democrats can unite, because much is made of the fact that the Madison Township Water Authority is supposed to be bipartisan. The Authority is discriminating against Madison Park by unnecessarily imposing some of the highest rates in the Township, and this effects us all.

While we are fully aware of our responsibilities to our community in order to establish it as a better place to live, we still have in us an awareness to do what is fair, practical, constructive and prudent. We have an obligation to ourselves, our children, our neighbors and to the entire Township to investigate the situation before the Authority becomes too cumbersome and powerful to handle.

Faces Around Town

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Higgins Celebrate 60th Wedding Anniversary

This past week saw the gathering of the clan at the Higgins homestead on Higgins Road, Browntown. The occasion was the celebration of the 60th Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Higgins.

With 13 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren the affair was a huge success.

Mr. Higgins was born and raised in the same househelives in today, "Bob" is 83 years young and estimates that part of the Higgins home is over 100 years

Higgins served as Madison Township Tax Assessor for over 35 years, for many, many years Bob was the only Democrat ever to be continually elected by the voters of Madison. He claims that elections in Madison aren't won because a fellow is a Democrat or Republican but whether the residents of the Township like the man and whether he's doing his job or not. Mr. Higgins was founder of the Madison Township Board of Health which got it's start in 1920. With a "twinkle" in his eye the former 'assessor remarked "course we didn't have many Board of Health problems in those days, mostly a few sick horses, seems that the people didn't have too many problems concerning health in those days.

Higgins was a graduate of the Browntown School, according to Bob, each area supported it's own school and hired their own teachers for the school. Bob remembers chopping wood for the big "pot-belly" stove and pumping water from a well with a hand pump, there was no high school anywhere in the area at the time and any further education came from private tutoring things didn't seem as complex then as today.

according to Bob was the Morgan Plant explosion, it really shook the house but didn't do too much damage. He remembers that the guards at the Morgan Plant were all mounted on horses and following the explosion they just rode away. According to the Browntown resident several people were buried in a little cemetery off Ernston Road (near Madison Park). People were really hustling and bustling over that one. The South Amboy explosion wasn't as powerful as the Morgan Plant explosion, according to Bob, Central Park is situated on part of the Morgan Plant.

Madison Township's main occupation was farming, mostly tomatoes, corn and other garden vegetables were grown in the area and were transported by horse and wagon to the dock at the foot of Dock Road in Cheesequake or to Keyport where the produce was loaded aboard boats and taken to New York.

Speaking of the growth of Madison Township, Bob points out that a fellow could have made a fortune, property went for $50-100 per acre with no takers. Following World War II farming in Madison Township was no longer profitable, because strawberries and other garden vegetables were flown in from warmer climates.

Bob disagrees with the Madison Township Planning Boards attempts to keep out home developments and other businesses. According to the former assessor Madison Township has certainly profited because of the new people in Our Town. He says "heck, wouldn't be much of a town if only the old folk remained, can't fight progress and growth and what's more you shouldn't even try. The place is going to grow and grow whether they like it or not. Property values have continued to increase and so is everything else but then that's progress. I think sometimes that the "politicians" worry too much about the people, if the people don't like a town they'll move. like it here that's why I stayed on I guess for so many years.

Higgins retired from Township activities in 1956, he did not want to seek re-election as Township Tax Assessor with that "sparkle" in his eye and smile on his face. Bob said "sometimes I wonder if I did right, I could have made it one more time."

Knowing Mr. Higgins and his determination we know he could make it anytime he tries. Congratulations to you both on your 60th Wedding Anniversary and many more.

Plans are being formulated by the St. Lawrence Altar and Rosary Society for a St. Patrick's Day cake sale to be held on March 17. Mrs. Joseph Vullo is chairman of the event.

Plans are also in the making for the society's annual fashion show according to Mrs. Rose, Grasso, chairman. Assisting Mrs. Grasso is Mrs. Donald K. Boeger and Mrs. Joseph Walton.

Reservations are now being taken for the organization's annual trip to New York.

The Citizens' Committee For Better Education will hold a general meeting on Monday, January 21. The findings of the Screening Committee will be announced at this meeting, which will be at Hill Lanes Bowling Alley.

Residents seem to feel that it is time for a full time Dog Warden. The amount of strays reported running loose in SWS alone would keep someone busy all day long. Last week a large dog knocked over most of the garbage cans on Bruce Street. While he was busy dining residents were calling Town Hall. Unfortunately this happened in the morning and the Dog Warden is only available to Madison Township in the afternoon. The young lady who answered the phone at Town Hall recommended that they feed the dog and keep it in the garage until later in the day. Needless to say the dog didn't wait around for the Dog Warden. Are residents actually expected to entertain these wild, unlicensed animals until he arrives?

The PEEWEES held their dinner at O'Hara's Restaurant on Route 9 and it was a great success. The cheerleaders received hooded sweatshirts and the boys were awarded their letters. We hear Frank Frey who M. C.'d the affair did such a fine job that it has been suggested that he and Henry Muller team up as song and dance men. They could then play weddings barmitzvahs and super - market openings.

We were very glad to see that the Board of Education on a motion by William Schladabeck, voted to write the Township Committee recommending the installation of a civil defense warning siren on the new South Old Bridge Firehouse. Throckmorton Lane residents and their neighbors will be pleased. They would be even happier if a safety zone for pedestrians could be designated in the same area. Many children and shoppers are forced to walk in the street in the area between Route 9 and Bushnell Road where there is no sidewalk.

From our "Things Must Get Worse Before They Get Better" department, some S.W.S. resi dents are wondering why Mrs. Shirley O'Hara announced at the last Democratic club meeting that she is resigning as County Committeewoman from District 10. Some feel that if it was simply a case of not having enough time to devote to the job Mrs. O'Hara might have served out her term and then declined to run again? There has been quite a bit of speculation on just how coincidental was it for her resignation to have been submitted just two days after the re-organization meeting. There are some who feel that the fact that her husband Bob's name had been submitted for a position which he didn't get had more than a little bearing on her decision?? Strong possibilities as her successor are Mrs. Olivia Mc-

Lane, Mrs. Terri Settlecowski and Mrs. Ann Bartelheim.

Reigstration for the Adult Education Courses will be held at Madison High School, this Thursday, January 17th and Friday, January 18th at 7:30 PM. Classes will start the week of February Buddy Guarino who will be featured in the upcoming "Street-car Named Desire", is catching up on his sleep on the bus returning from New York. The Guarino's are expecting a baby in April and Buddy is trying to make the most of the hour ride. Please wake him up at Throckmorton. He's portraying "Stanley" in the play so you'll recognize him by the torn shirt he wears.

It is no secret that the 1962 Republican Convention held at Madison High, was far from the great success party leaders had hoped for. The school showed far too many empty seats and the word was out that Gary Murtha would get the nod. Who his running mate would be was in doubt and only the contest between Banks and Conover made it a convention. The results of the last election showed new gains for the Republican party and citing the many troubles besetting the present administration, they are predicting that they will turn the tide this November. SWS residents are wondering who the seven candidates will be. Mrs. Jean Hampton is moving and the Committeeman from District 9, Phil Segarra will not be available due to committments. Among those mentioned as possible candidates from SWS are: Schladabeck, Murtha and Viafora.

Candidates Night

Robert Gavlin, recently elected President of the Sayre Woods South Republican Club announced that the club has invited all the candidates for the coming Board of Education election to speak at its next meeting. The public is also invited to attend.

The meeting will be held Thursday January 17 at P.S. 19 in Sayre Woods South. The public portion of the meeting will start at 9:30 P.M. Each candidate will be given several minutes to state his qualifications and express his views. After all the candidates have made their presentations the meeting will be open for questions and answers.

Mr. Gavlin stated, "Our primary purpose in holding this open meeting is to provide a service for both the candidates and the community. Those of us interested in providing quality education for our children should make a special effort to attend this meeting at School 19. This presents an excellent opportunity for all voters to study the qualifications of the candidates before casting their votes in this important election."

Frank Viafora, the committeeman from the Republican stronghold District 10, seems to be the fair-haired boy.

As with most organizations, political and otherwise, intraparty friction could be their undoing. There are those who are not satisfied with the leadership-specifically Don Borst the Municipal Chairman. And there are those who say they would consider being a candidate but only under another Municipal Chairman. No one, to our knowledge, has ever suggested who Borst's replacement should be.
