Pine Lashes Out At Proposed School Site

100 YARD DASH: Youngsters from the Knollcroft area might have to do a "hundred yard dash" daily on the way to school if the proposal by the Board of Education is approved by the voters in the Township. Pictures above is a general view of DANGEROUS Route 35 near the Knollcroft Shopping Plaza. In 1961 and 1962 there were six pedestrian fatalities on this dangerous highway. Richard Pine candidate for the Board of Education lashed out against the Board's proposal.

Richard Pine, member of the Board of Education seeking reelection lashed out at the recent proposal presented by the Board of Education for the erection of a school in the Cliffwood Beach area.

Pine who is conducting a "grass roots" campaign stated at a meeting of workers held at his home on Disbrow Road, Cheesequake "the majority members of the Board of Education have once again shown a complete disregard for the safety of Madison Township youngsters. The Board proposes that a school be constructed on the site of the once proposed 'Golden Circle Industrial Park' on the west side of heavily traveled Route 35. The Board candidate estimated that approximately 95% of the homes in the Cliffwood Beach area were located on the opposite side of the dangerous highway, this would necessitate several hundred children crossing the dangerous highway daily.

Pine cited that in the years 1961 and 1962 there were six pedestrian fatalities on Route 35, if anyone doubts the record they should check with the local police department, the information is available. "We cannot sacrifice the life of one youngster for the construction of a school."

Pine a former resident of Ocean Blvd., Cliffwood Beach continued "while a school for the Cliffwood Beach area is needed, I doubt that one parent would chance life or limb of any one youngster, our children are too precious to endanger by letting them cross dangerous Route 35 enmasse. There are many that will claim that the traffic light is protection for the youngsters crossing Route 35 and that the Township Committee will provide police protection at the crossing. True, but I wonder how many remember when Captain William Wallis of the Madison Township Police Department was struck and severely injured while on traffic duty on Route 35."

There is no reason in the world why the Board of Education cannot obtain property near the Knollcroft Development on the same side of the road. Pine continued "I think that this is one of the reasons that the previous Junior High School referendums were defeated.

Members of the Board of Education might tell you that they will propose to the State Highway Department to build a "foot-bridge" over Route 35. Chances of the construction of such a foot-bridge to cross the highway should be forgotten. Recently the State Highway Department refused to construct such a bridge in the Keyport area, hundreds of youngsters from Keyport proper have to cross at the "Six Corners" on Route 35, Keyport to attend St. Joseph's Parochial School, if the State refuses to build a bridge at this location how can we expect them to construct a footbridge in Madison Township?

What if the State Highway proposes to construct a "concrete safety barrier" down the middle of Route 35, will the youngsters "hurdle" over the barrier on the way to and from school. The residents of the Cliffwood Beach-Knollcroft area should realize the dangers that will be presented to their youngsters crossing this dangerous highway.

Pine addressing a group of twenty "Workers For Pine" concluded "I am conducting a vigorous 'grass root' campaign. I have already contacted many residents of Madison Township directly, giving the people the opportunity to hear my views pertaining to Board of Education policies. Everywhere I travel in Madison Township, I hear complaints of school costs, water rates, sewerage installation fees. We can only obtain a certain limit in the amount of taxes that the average person can pay in Our Town. This is why I proposed that a substantial amount of "free balance" or surplus funds be used to lower the present budget. This money has been collected from the taxpayers presently living in Madison. Let future school expansion programs be supported by present and future residents tax dollars. President Kennedy has proposed Federal Aid for construction of schools we have waited this long for additional school rooms why not wait just a few months longer. I say present the school building program to the residents of Madison Township soundly and wisely and the people will give the necessary approval.

Fund Raising Set

Seymour Phillips, chairman of the fund-raising weekend to be held at the Fallsview Hotel, Ellenville, N. Y., on March 8, 9 and 10 by Congregation Beth Ohr is expected to be a sell-out.

Valentine Dance

A Valentine dance will be held on February 16 at the post headquarters of the VFW Post 7508, Browntown Avenue, according to Mrs. Michael Gashgo, president of the auxiliary.

Music will be furnished by the Sportsmen. Tickets, which include a buffet supper, can be obtained from Mrs. Andrew Mazer or Mrs. John Suchon.

Steps Out As Health Head

Joseph G. Hoff

George Fiore, Madison Township Tax Assessor, and president of the Board of Health, notified the body that due to the press of work in the tax assessor's office, it was impossible for him to accept the office again. This announcement came at the reorganization meeting at the Town Hall.

Joseph G. Hoff, present member of the township committee was named the new president. Hoff, a resident of Laurence Harbor, is serving his third year as township committeeman. Hoff isn't strange to the office of president, however. In 1960, Hoff was president of the Madison Township Board of Education. He succeeded Richard Pine who was president of the board in 1959. Hoff was a board of education member for five years before resigning to accept his present position as township committeeman.

Hoff was chief building inspector of Madison Township and has lived here for 23 years. He graduated from Matawan High School. He also attended the Newark College of Engineering for four years.

Harry Messinger was renamed secretary of the board. He is also a township committeeman.

Robert McMann was reappointed chief plumbing inspector. Arnold Lauer, Joseph Sanzone and Michael Kase were reappointed assistant inspectors.

Dr. Alan Weinstein, board physician was called upon to outline plans for a public health and welfare program. It is estimated that the program will cost from $4,000 to $5,000 per year. The program will provide assistance to the elderly and indigent residents through an arrangement with local pharmacists for a price reduction of 20 per cent on all prescriptions. Fiore, who might be called the father of this program, was working on plans for this type of relief for the elderly and indigent, prior to his resignation.

Calling All Plumbers

Robert Mc Mann, Madison Township Chief Plumbing Inspector, announced that a test for plumbers who wish to be licensed in the township, will be held on February 13. Forms may be obtained from the plumbing inspector.

Residents of the Old Bridge, Cliffwood Beach and the Laurence Harbor areas have been complaining that there have not been enough licensed plumbers in the township able to install the new sewer line hook-ups to the hundreds of homes in those areas. This test will enable additional plumbers to gain a local license.

Board Candidates More "Heated" Than Voters

Candidates for the Madison Township Board of Education have shown more heat and interest than most voters of Our Town. Attendance at recent "candidates nights" have been far below expectations.

While things on the outside may be cold in "sub-freezing weather" as the program progresses and Board of Education candidates hurl charges and countercharges back and forth, the meetings have been "warm".

We understand that at one meeting things really got hot and heavy and the "candidates night" turned into a near "doney-brook".

Regardless of the outcome of any school election the problems facing the Board of Education are great. We feel that more could be accomplished if the Board of Education was appointed rather than elected. Many business and professional persons would give of their time freely for the benefit of the youngsters of Our Town. We feel that some Board of Education members interject themselves in the "teaching programs" etc. of the school. We believe that policy should be established by the Board of Education and that the Superintendent of Schools and his various aides be responsible for the educational training in the schools.

We would also like to see the Board of Education adopt a policy of not hiring close relatives as employees of the Board. We can't imagine a Board of Education member voting against an increase in his wife's salary. We firmly believe that this constitutes a "CONFLICT OF INTEREST" and should be eliminated.

We Certainly Hope So

SEALARK HOLDING, INC., of Irvington, New Jersey are requesting a variance in the zoning ordinance of the Township to permit construction of "multiple family dwellings" or "Garden Type Apartments".

We certainly hope that the members of the Zoning Board of Adjustment will see fit to grant approval of the variance. The "apartments" are to be constructed on Route 516, in the vicinity of the Simpson Methodist Church.

If approved this would be the first attempt to construct apartment housing in Our Town. Neighboring Matawan has enjoyed the "fruits" of apartment housing for years. Many reports compiled by Planning Boards and other agencies have shown that "garden type apartments" have a much lower rate of children attending school than comparable housing development.

Not only will the apartments prove to be a valuable asset as far as a tax ratable is concerned, but they could solve one of the problems for the Superintendent of Schools in obtaining new teachers.

The lack of adequate housing facilities for young unmarried school teachers often presents a problem. Many teachers turn to other communities for employment because of this shortage.

Industrial expansion in the Township could also be aided by the erection of apartment housing. Many times industry has refused to locate in an area because of the lack of adequate housing facilities. In the construction of early stages of industrial construction the various preliminary workers often have to be housed temporarily, apartment housing could also fill this gap.

Madison Township needs additional tax ratables, we certainly hope that the variance is granted.

Under The Fence

FEUDING AND FUSSING: It looks like Donald Tierney of Madison Park may be priming himself for a spot on the G.O.P. ticket. The Parkite has been leading the "charge" against the Madison Township Utility Commission over the increases in water rates. Tierney previously sought election with the G.O.P. for Township Committeeman, he was defeated by a scant margin. Since then he has "mellowed" considerably and understands many of the problems facing Our Town than on his first attempt which was way back in 1957 or 58? We predict that he will be a hard man for the Democrats to beat if he decides to run. He's young and aggressive and makes a nice appearance. He has been active in many civic affairs in the township and has built up a considerable following. WATCH OUT! Democrats are being "plagued" with a surplus of candidates. There are only seven seats open and it looks like all the present members of the Democratic Township Committee will seek re-election (to no ones surprise). With these problems it's no wonder why a municipal chairman's hair can turn to silver. The primary fight could be a "bloody" one for both the G.O.P. and the DEMS.

BOARD OF EDUCATION: Rumor around the town that the High School Football coach might get his "walking" papers. We don't quite understand it. We've talked to many members of the team and they all seem to have high praises for the "coach". Could it be that someone else wants to carry the "ball"? Board of Education members have to admit he's working under some trying conditions. Wonder when the NEW High School Athletic Field will be completed? The thing looks like the army planned a training course for "amphibious" tanks. One mother who has a youngster in kindergarten remarked after viewing the "prize package". "Heavens! Little Johnny will be a college graduate with a family before that thing is completed" You know something she could be right. Wonder how come the Board of Education is hiring "out-of-town" residents to drive school owned vehicles? Wonder how many Madisonians could use the extra loot for things like Christmas Shopping and paying school taxes? We know a camel driver in Iran who happens to be out of work, wonder if he'd do. No, he's not related to any board member, so I guess he'll stay out of work.

WATCH OUT: Understand that one fellow in town might sign a complaint for Assault and Battery against his wife. If the case comes before Judge Samuel Sladkus in local municipal court it might prove better than a television spectacular. We don't know the "background" of the case but the husband weighs in at around 180 pounds and his wife might weigh in at 120 pounds if she was holding a twenty pound box of candy in her hands. I cried for you says "W. S." of Cliffwood Beach now it's your turn to cry over me. This message is delivered at no expense to "F. T." of Old Bridge and she says to take her initials off the bumper of your car. So there you've been told.

WHOLE LOT OF SHAKING GOING ON: Wonder what all the excitement that is going on in the township regarding property in the meadow area of Our Town. Seems like everybody and everybody is interested in the property. Some are running to the County Court House almost daily and some have been talking to some of the old timers about property descriptions in the area. Could it have something to do with the "Green Acres" program? Is the highway department going to build a road between route 35 and route 18? Will an oil company move in and start constructing oil storage tanks in the area? Oil tankers could "moor" off shore in the Morgan Beach area of "tank farm". Will the Laurence Harbor meadows become another "Bayway"? Is this the "industrial growth" predicted for Our Town?

POLICE DEPARTMENT: Understand that the Police Department will "crack" down on garage operators that have their "wreckers" on the scene of an automobile accident when they are not called by the police. Township Police have been using a rotation system of obtaining "tow trucks" to the scene of the accident. Local police feel that too many tow trucks at the scene of an accident only complicate removal of the wreck or injured persons. Many of the garage operators are tuned in to the local Police Radio Band and sometimes used to get to the scene of the auto accident before the police arrived. Understand that one garage operator has already received a letter.

ROAD DEPARTMENT: "Tatter" Bastedo, the Superintendent of Roads, (that's a nice title) really did a good job with his road gangs in removing the snow that struck suddenly Saturday evening. The Road Foreman got his crews out and working and by early Sunday morning had most of the roads clear a very good job. Cause they had some help when it started to rain. No one can complain about the snow removal job? Word to the Wise: If you remove snow from one churchyard in the Township why not all the churches.

Aisenstock Hits Budget

Mishel Aisenstock

Mishel Aisenstock, a candidate for the Madison Township Board of Education, who resides in Old Bridge, has been in frequent attendance at board meetings over the past year.

Aisenstock, a 44 year-old inspection foreman and quality control engineer with the Airborne Accessories Corporation, Hillside, lives at 16 Woodcrest Drive, Old Bridge. He has a son, Barry, a junior at Madison Township H.S. and daughter, Jerri, is a seventh grader at the Miller School. His wife, Judith, keeps the home fires burning for the whole family. He has been living in the township since 1957. He formerly lived in Newark where he graduated from West Side H. S. in 1934. He attended Rutgers University, Newark College of Engineering and received a B. S. degree in chemistry from the Urban Division of Seton Hall in 1954. At present he is attending the graduate school of Rutgers University's College of Education.

During the past 20 years he has held various supervisory positions in chemical, pharmaceutical and mechanical plants. He has been in his present employ for the last ten years.

Aisenstock is a member and Trustee of the Jewish Community Center of Madison Township and Temple Beth Ohr. He is committeeman for Troop 3, Old Bridge Boy Scouts of America and a member of Miller School and the high school PTA.

Aisenstock's statement and platform follows:

I am now and always have been in favor of neighborhood schools. These schools should be two storied and have basements. These buildings should be flexible and sufficient for the area. The design to be economical, should be modular so that the same basic design can be used all over the township. The basement would be used for shops, gym, and regrettably for a bomb shelter.

The Board of Education of Madison Township should be informed of area construction costs and methods. The willingness of the present board, including those that are running for reelection and Mr. Gower to take the "recommendation" of the State Board and the architect as "Holy Gospel" is both aggravating and costly. Nearby communities have rebelled and saved the taxpayers money. Classrooms are being built for about $17,000 each, less furniture, all around us but we will pay $30,000 each with furnishings, $13,000 to fit out a classroom. This the present board says is reasonable.

The entire system should be put on single session as rapidly as possible even if this means renting space throughout the town. The high school scheduling should permit use of the building for the entire day not for just six hours, this is not double session but single session on a stagger system. The high school students could also go summers so that more students would use existing facilities.

The budget that will be presented to the voters for their approval on February 13, 1963 could easily be pared by 70,000 to 100,000 dollars, perhaps even more. The raise that is given to teachers, over and above their normal raise, is averaging $430.00. Why couldn't this have been spread over two years."

For a small state—a big role in American communications

The telephone industry has created more than 59,000 jobs for New Jersey people. It will spend $655 million here this year — for everything from stationery to salaries to satellite components.

That's quite a boost to our state's prosperity. You might call it our most important by-product.

Our main product, of course: the finest telephone service in the world.

Did anyone besides this column catch that notice in the paper recently, about the proposed Gas Station for Cindy Street? This will be the third time that this issue has been raised. Aroused residents came out in force twice before to defeat the proposition and they will be there again for this annual event. While recognizing the desperate need for ratables in our town, we feel that one more Gas Station (in a residential zone) is not the type of Industry we have been waiting for. Our tax structure certainly won't be affected one way or the other but the people living on Cindy Street will. The Zoning Board of Adjustment will decide on Wednesday, February 6 at 8 P.M. BE THERE!! TOWNHALL, Route 9.

ORT ACTIVITIES

Last Friday, a North Central Jersey Region Board Meeting for all Chairmen was held at Graulick's in West Orange.

The following couples residing in SWS will attend the "Raleigh Weekend" - February 1, 2, and 3: Mr. and Mrs. Norman Paley, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berkowitz, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Klein and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Danab. There are still a few vacant rooms available. Anyone interested in attending should contact Mrs. Danab at PA 1-6676.

February 7 - Regular Board Meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Honig, 25 Kenneth Avenue, Old Bridge. Plans will be discussed for the forthcoming ORT Day in March.

February 23 is the date set for our Mystery Bus Ride. The charge is $12.50 per couple and a chartered bus will leave the Browntown Shopping Center at 8:20 P.M. - destination unknown. For further information, contact Mrs. Wm. Gottfried at PA 1-0972.

Our award of the week goes to our Road Department. While you and I were sleeping Saturday night, the snow plow came rolling in. It was a pleasure to look out the windows on Sunday morning and see that the roads had been cleared. Thank you Mr. Bastedo and company.

Governor Hughes signed the bill and now New Jersey will have Educational TV. Could this be the answer to our school problem here in Madison Township? If we carried this a step further, all the children could stay home for schooling. Think of the money we could save; on teachers, transportation, land, buildings and don't forget the lunches. Although most people pay to see a closed circuit sports-cast, somehow we don't think they would pay for a closed circuit Education and the privilege of having their kids around the house all day.

Edward McLane, President of the SWS Democratic Club, has appointed George Settlecowskias Vice-President, and Marc Gordon as Trustee. The Women's Auxiliary and the regular organization will hold a joint meeting on Tuesday, February 12. Candidates for the Board of Education have been invited and a second reading of a constitutional amendment will be given. The regular meeting (both at Hill Lanes) will be held the following Tuesday, February 19.

Tickets will go on sale next week for STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE, at the advance sale price of $1.00. They are available through CTP members or by calling Marty Press or Bob Garry (PA 7-0499, PA 1-6636) of Old Bridge. Community Theatre Players will again have their ticket booth and ticket "agents" at your local stores for your convenience.

Madison Township High School's basketball team, playing a varsity schedule for the first time, even though the Spartans lack a senior class, have been holding their own against superior and more experienced competition. Coach Joe Germain's hoopsters now sport a 5-6 record thus far this season. With many more games to go, it is believed that the local courtmen will end the season with a better than even record.

Leading the team in scoring is rangy Tom Jenkins, a junior who is currently in ninth place for individual scoring honors amongst Middlesex County high school players. He has already scored 178 points and is averaging 16.2 points per game.

Eddie Gallo who formerly held ninth place in the county standing, went into a tailspin recently and is now in sixteenth place with 147 points for a 14.4 average per game.

In offense the Spartans are particularly well off. For a young team in tough company like the Middlesex County schools, Madison rates eighth in offense. Jenkins, Gallo and Company have amassed a total of 764 points for an average of 58.4 points per game; Wayne Dopp, another outstanding young athlete, rounds out the big three of Madison basketball. Dopp has scored 142 points and stands in 25th place in the county scoring role.

Coach Germain has molded a fine scoring squad and given a little more time and experience, the Spartans will prove to be one of the finest teams in the country.

Outlines Three Point Program

Albert Stein

"Since the campaign began, I have proposed a three point program," stated Albert Stein, a candidate for the Madison Township Board of Education for a three year term. Neighborhood schools and classrooms in the current expansion program; a long range planning program to cover 5, 10 and 15 years to enable us to keep our school system abreast of future needs; a stronger liaison between the Board of Education, our townspeople and the various township authorities."

Stein also stated that he has not changed these proposals since the beginning of the campaign. "The people have shown by defeating the last three referendums that the Junior High School issue is dead at this time. Many parents have told me that they feel the need for schools is greater in the lower grades. They don't want their youngsters traveling long distances to and from school as is the case with hundreds of the children now."

Stein said he favored offering the township the program asked for --- expand our elementary school system to accommodate our present needs. "I go further," he said, "Plan for the future---NOW---Work with the township authorities, use all the forecasting tools available from public and private organizations to lay the groundwork for our future programs; give to the people all the information available so that they may be in a position to make a sound judgment when budgets and referendums are placed before them."

"As a parent, I am eager to work for the best possible educational facilities for our children," stated Mr. Stein.
