"Independent" Hits At Industrial Commission

The candidates were there, the newspaper reporters were there the only thing lacking at the recent township committee meeting was a good old hot "donney-brook". Several spectators left the meeting mumbling they had expected to see fireworks at the meeting. Township committee meetings in previous election years have been "political battle-grounds" where anything and everything goes.

Robert "Jack" Sapir, running as a Independent Candidate for the Township Council claimed that Phillip Romeo and James Tortorice had "conflicts" of interest in holding their appointments on the Madison Township Industrial Commission. Sapir quote a section of a law which he said applied to the situation.

Mayor John Keating instructed Township Attorney Harold G. Smith to investigate the charges and report his findings to the Township Committee.

Sapir also questioned the Township Engineers fees, to this Keating replied that the engineer was hired on a $1,200 per year retainer fee.

Township Attorney Harold G. Smith further clarified the question of the acceptance of the land. Smith said that the township committee could accept the land only if the property owner certified to the fact that he was the sole owner of the property involved.

The Township Committee awarded a bid on road material to the Manzo Contracting Company of Matawan. The Manzo firm was the sole bidder on the road material and the acceptance of the bid, hinged on the approval by the State of New Jersey.

Township Committeeman Joseph Pandozzi reported that new type lights had been installed on Throckmorton Lane to give better lighting in the area so that youngsters walking to the Madison Township High School would be able to see better.

G.O.P. candidate Robert J. Gavlin questioned Mayor Keating about the Industrial brochure which was reported at the last meeting. Keating seemed to have the edge on the G.O.P. candidate and angered Gavlin on several occasions by mispronouncing his name at one point Gavlin spelled out the name as G-A-V-L-I-N.

The G.O.P. candidate wanted to know what was taking so long with the Industrial brochure and questioned "do we have special ground or something or maybe uranium or possibly uranium.

Keating replied that part of the brochure had been completed and that information had already been made available to several prospective industries. Keating again stated that the brochure was not for distribution to everyone but would upon completion be made available to realtors and industrialists interested in locating in Madison Township.

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 9:15 p.m. making it one of the shortest on the record. One spectator in leaving the meeting mumbled "well I guess I have to get my television set fixed there's nothing hot going on around here".

ROBERT "JACK" SAPIR

Thomas Miller, a G.O.P. candidate for Freeholder and former Township Committeeman questioned the payment of a bill for less than $50 for bottled water service. Miller remarked "at these prices it would be cheaper to drink Scotch".

A resident of the Old Bridge area complained about a junk yard operating in the Old Bridge area. Mayor Keating replied that Mrs. Mary M. Brown had taken care of the matter and that the police notified the owner to cease operations immediately.

Township Committeeman Harry Messenger in answer to a complaint from a resident of Central Park regarding a area of land that was supposed to be turned over to the township by the developer, that the recreation committee had plans to make the area a walk through park complete with grass and shade trees. However the township committee has yet to get a certified title to the property.

Messenger Bounces Back Hits G.O.P. Statement

It is interesting to note that the GOP labels my statements about the Knollcroft and Central Park developments as inaccurate. Obviously they are in agreement with the remainder of the article. The fact remains however that both of these developments were built or brought in under these same GOP people who supposedly are dead-set against mass housing developments. If Mr. MacRae did object to the water condition in Knollcroft, why did he not object to the lack of school and recreation land for this development or did he not think schools and recreation are as important as water? When these so called clear thinking republicans "extracted" school commitments from the developers, why didn't they get property that the schools could have been built on, not that the people in Knollcroft would pay their monies for schools to be built elsewhere, and so have their children be made to travel long distances to get to school. Wasn't it these same clear thinking republicans that enacted the consent agreement that caused some 1700 homes to be built in a single year, is this how they would ease our school burden?

Speaking of final and other approvals, these homes received final approvals through these consent agreements, signed by the GOP. If the GOP candidates will re-read my press release, they will find that there are no "mis-statements" only where they have tried to twist meanings. As for a recent release, the "Girls Softball Teams" are things that have been talked of for several occasions and now with the proper ground work done we feel that we can make them a fact this coming spring. If this is a campaign promise, remember when I last ran I announced that we would have "POP-WARNER Football" today more than 250 boys comprise eight teams in our town, this through the aid of many individuals both DEM AND REP., so don't criticize, come out and help and people will think more

Dem Meeting Held

Members of the Districts 1 and 11 Democratic Clubs jointly sponsored a "Candidates Night" Wednesday, October 9, 1963, at the Cheesequake Firehouse, Route #34.

Attending the meeting were the 7 Democratic Candidates for Municipal Council: Joseph Hoff, John Keating, Vincent LaManna, Harry Messenger, Victor O'Brien, Joseph Pandozzi, and John Spellman.

John Phillips, Democratic Municipal Chairman and Freeholder, was special guest for the evening, and Donald Clarick, Middlesex County Chairman of the State Citizens Committee for the Bond Issue was the guest speaker. Refreshments were served.

of you. In recreation and other fields, we do not make "Campaign promises", we state facts. I will repeat what I said before, the Democratic Party in Madison Township is pledged to bring the maximum service to the people delivered with the maximum economy, we will not compromise this pledge. I urge each and every registered voter regardless of party affiliation, to vote for the party that is pledged to take Madison Township forward with progress and a stabilized economy. Vote for the Democratic candidates, myself, Mayor John Keating, Joseph Hoff, Victor O'Brien, Joseph Pandozzi, Vincent J. LaManna, and John Spellman.

If Mr. MacRae was so concerned about adequate water for Knollcroft in 1956, why didn't he make sure there was adequate water supplied when the GOP signed the consent agreement for final approval in 1959? If Mr. Tierney is concerned about the Emerson Road problems, why doesn't he know what is planned by the county and what the problems are? Why hasn't he objected to the parking problem on this road, why because he is only interested as a candidate, not as a resident.

Meeting Held

St. Bernadette's Altar Rosary Society, Parlin, had their first meeting for the year recently with the new president, Mrs. George Sauer, presiding. The outgoing president Mrs. Lawrence Kennedy was presented with a gift from Father Thomas O'Dea.

Little Interest In Election
On November 5th, 1963, the voters of Our Town will be given the opportunity to go to the polls and choose seven persons for Township Council.

This year the election will have special meaning because the voters of Our Town will not again be able to vote for local council candidates until 1965.

The Democratic Candidates seeking re-election and two additional running mates are campaigning on the past record of the Democratic Party in Madison Township.

It is not quite clear what the Republican Platform is at this time.

Attendance at the various political rallies has been small, it appears that the voters of Our Town are not attending the various political functions.

We certainly hope that as the election date draws closer more of the residents of the Township will get out to the various political affairs sponsored by the G.O.P. and the Democrats and discuss the various issues facing our township.

Curfew or Not Curfew? ————— That Is The Question

Several local civic organizations have been discussing the possibility of enacting a local ordinance pertaining to a "Curfew Law" which would be aimed at teen-agers.

Various other communities have adopted curfew ordinances which establish the hour that teen-agers have to be off the street.

Acts of vandalism have been constantly on the upswing in Our Town, hordes of teenagers are becoming quite evident standing on corners and in front of various business establishments.

The cry of the teen-agers is there is nothing for them to do. Many civic groups have tried to promote recreational programs and dances the attendance at these affairs has been everything but fantastic.

We don't feel that a curfew law is the answer to the problem, we feel that the responsibility rests with the parents. Somewhere along the line something is wrong and a curfew ordinance is not the sure-fire cure.

LUCKY STAR: We see where several Madison Township merchants are using Lucky Star register receipts. If the star turns up on your purchase you are refunded the purchase price of the sale. Understand that there are 15 stars to each roll of register tape. Understand that by the end of the month quite a few additional merchants will be using the lucky star tape.

FEUDING AND FUSSING: Democratic Campaign braintrust has come up with Demo-Bingo. The way you play the game is that you attend political rallies and you are given stamps to paste on the Demo-Bingo Card. When you complete the game you win. The only trouble is that you are not eligible to play if you are an appointed or elected official or their families. Now this in itself presents quite a problem. You disqualify the seven candidates for Township Council, 22 Democratic County Committeemen and women, the police department, road department, zoning board of adjustment, planning board, water authority etc.,

TAKE FIVE
REV. JAMES SILVER
Pastor Laurence Harbor
Community Church

"As each has received a gift, employ it for one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace," 1 Peter 4:10.

Sometime ago in church a speaker said that one phrase explained why she was active in community and church life. The phrase was, "I seen my duty, and I done it." The grammar may not be correct, but the idea is.

No one is so lacking in talent that there is no job for them to do. It may be small, but each of us has a gift or ability that is uniquely ours. There is something we can do for our God, our church, our community, or our friends. If we neglect it, it may never get done.

In God's plans no one is useless. There are jobs for all. Our reward will not be based on whether the task was large or small, but whether we did it.

Prayer: Lord God, open our eyes to the work that needs to be done. Then help us to buckle down and do it.

Testimonial Set

Mrs. Thomas J. Tyrrell and a committee of Madison Township residents active in youth recreational activities are pleased to announce a testimonial dinner will be held in honor of Harry E. Messenger on Sunday, October 27, 1963 at the Turf Restaurant, at 7 P.M.

Reservations will be closed on October 19, 1963. For further information contact Mr. Robert Kirschman of Madison Park, Mr. Robert Knight of Laurence Harbor, Mrs. Abraham Greenberg and Mr. Hart Tendler of Sayre Woods South, and Mrs. Tyrrell of Southwood.

Barn Dance

The Madison Park Fire Company and Auxiliary are sponsoring a BARN DANCE, Saturday, Oct. 12 at 8:30 p.m. at the Madison Park Firehouse, Cheesequake Road. There will be square dancing entertainment and refreshments.

You may call PA 1-0822, PA 1-3274 or PA 1-3675 for tickets.

Rally Set

A township-wide Democratic party election rally will be held at St. Thomas Hall, Route 18, Old Bridge on November 2, at 8 p.m.

All seven Democratic candidates for the new council will be present.

The rally is open to the public. Refreshments will be served.

etc., so who's left to play the game. Come on Borst give it a try you might win.

UNDER THE FENCE SNOOPING: That 1962 Chevy that's been parked over in Central Park nights belongs to a private detective, that is working on a case? Wonder what they are looking for? Maybe somebody had stole the wedding ring? Understand that another detective agency has a man planted in one of the local stores, evidently too much stock has been missing and they can't trace it to the shop lifting, so maybe they figure, some of the employees are lifting the stuff?

POLICE DEPARTMENT: Understand that the Chief of Police will soon ask the Township Committee for permission to train school crossing guards in the basic fundamentals of directing traffic. We wonder if they are supposed to direct traffic at all? Whatever happened to the School Safety Patrols hell it was a lot cheaper and we don't ever recall anyone getting injured (except an occasional black eye) at a post manned by a member of the School Safety Patrol. Don't you believe it department. Despite constant rumors that this one made this mark and this one has got the job in his pocket, the township committee hasn't made up it's mind to appoint anyone to the police department. They haven't even released the marks made by applicants.

YE GAD'S: What's going on a local fountain-deli? It looks like Madison "Soda Pumpers", naw, we won't call them jerks are getting real classy with pale red shirts and black ties they look like the lost half of a bowling team. Other storeowners may follow suit? We know of one storekeeper who's so upset about the recent "Yankee" defeat that he went home and tore up his "Mickey Mantle" picture. This guy was a real Yankee Fan, right down to the end. In fact we hear he was selling tickets for Tuesdays game that never came off. Better stick to bowling.

INDUSTRY: It seems that lack of industry has been made a major issue in the November election campaign. Let's face it the only industry to locate in Madison Township in the past ten years was obtained under a Democratic Administration. Commercial ratables were also increased under Democratic Administrations. We understand that at one time in Madison Township there was an "iron mine" and refinery located in the township, guess the injuns must have burnt it or stolen it.

WELL, WELL, WELL: We see where the Madison Township Board of Education advertised for bids for the installation of a well at the Madison Township High School. Once again the Board of Education is out to unload some of the money of the taxpayers. We understand that this latest project is in the neighborhood of $4,000.00 which is a nice neighborhood. You can purchase a well of a lot of water for this price. Maybe they will hit oil and the taxpayers might be able to profit from the situation. Have you received your notice yet that your mortgage payments are being increased, don't blame it on the Bosa Nova blame it on the Board of Education. We can't see how the digging of a well will benefit the Madison Township youngsters? If they purchased additional books or used the money for additional school sites fine, but to drill a well, yoiiks.

Calls G.O.P. Candidates "Goldwaterites"

Madison Township Mayor John Keating and the six other candidates for the new council were the speakers at the regular monthly meeting of the Lawrence Harbor Democratic Club held at Byrnes Hall.

The meeting, which was conducted by Robert Knight, club president, heard Keating lash out at his Republican opponents and labeled them "Goldwaterites". He claimed that the local Republican candidates are mimicking the platform of the Senator from Arizona and that is not the type of leadership the American people wish.

Keating reviewed the Democratic administration over the past few years and said the administration established the municipal water authority which will eventually control the water companies in Madison Township and provide water to all residents at a reasonable rate.

Township Committeeman Joseph G. Hoff reviewed the strides the township has made in establishing an efficient immunization program through the local Board of Health. As road commissioner he has instituted a new patch test for streets and avenues.

Township Committeeman Harry Messenger claimed that the Republicans did not have any real issues, "for if they had, we would have certainly heard of them by now," Messenger said that we must go forward with the Democrats or go back 90 years

Mayor John Keating

Laurence Harbor and Old Bridge and also stated that the administration is planning a sewerage system for Madison Park with plans for this project now well under way.

Other speakers included four other Democratic candidates for the council, Township Commit-

Sand and a center plunge by Casey, Rickie Grogus, Sand and Casey added the extra points.

An effective defensive game for the victors was played by Johnny Leary, Larry Houghtalin, Joe Fuller, Frank Mantel and Kevin Murphy.

In the pee wee division, The Rams won over the Jets, 14-6. Allen Neilson and Richie Scarano scored for the Old Bridge eleven.
