Election Set In Madison

Township Clerk Mary M. Brown is putting the final finishing touches for the November 8 election. The running of an election in a township the size of Madison presents somewhat of a problem which is not encountered in smaller sized communities, however, the capable Mrs. Brown has seen more than a score of election in her time as tenure as the Township Clerk.

The November 8 election which is Tuesday is expected to see little contest in the Township as there are no local candidates on the ballot. Democratic Municipal Chairman Joseph Pandozzi and Harold G. Smith local campaign manager for Warren Wilentz will scan the voting sheets to perhaps determine if there is a trend to "Sink Case."

It has been reported from a reliable source in the Republican Party in Madison Township that a concentrated effort will be made to "dump" Case. It is well known that certain political elements in the local Republican Party were not pleased with the stand that Case took when Barry Goldwater sought the bid as Republican Candidate for president.

If Case receives less votes than Coleman, then there will be no doubt that the dissention in the ranks of the local Republicans was primarily the blame. The local Republican Party as well as the County Republican Organization have been rocked by "revolutions" and financially they are in poor condition to wage any strong support for the national, state and county candidates. While it is not known that support will be given to Wilentz by many of the local Republicans there are strong indications that many of the Republican voters will skip over Case or in some instances conduct a write-in campaign.

Bank Offers Additional Service

In addition to serving depositors and borrowers, The First National Bank of Middlesex County has now opened its doors to travelers.

Joseph G. Mark, president, announced today that the bank has opened a full new department to render world-wide travel service. Mark noted that the departure from conventional banking services brings eight travel offices to middlesex County all at once, since each of the bank's eight locations will serve travel customers.

"We pride ourselves on full-service banking," said Mark, "and we are delighted to be able to introduce this exciting new service to our customers and friends."

Mark pointed out that the new department not only provides the bank with a unique opportunity to expand its services "but should prove to be a valuable and convenient service to the residents of Middlesex County in this age of booming travel."

Mark announced that the new Travel Department will be headed by Richard N. Kalfayan, who has joined the bank's staff after more than ten years as a travel agency executive in positions in both this country and abroad.

As general manager of the Travel Department, Kalfayan will direct the service from the main office of The First National Bank of Middlesex County on Route 18 in East Brunswick. All seven of the bank's other offices will also provide the travel service.

Kalfayan said the department is now prepared to render a world-wide travel service including air, steamship, rail, motor coach and hotel reservations.

He said the Travel Department will place special emphasis on all types of domestic, foreign and around-the-world tours, including tours especially arranged for students, organizations and industrial group.

Kalfayan joined the bank to establish the Travel Department from the Four Winds Travel, Inc. in New York where he was manager for the development of "Visit U.S.A." tours.

He also held several travel and tour positions in Egypt and Lebanon. Kalfayan has traveled throughout the world and is a graduate of the American University at Cairo.

Kalfayan reads and writes five languages and can speak seven tongues.

The First National Bank of Middlesex County is one of the largest commercial banks in Central New Jersey. In addition to its main office in East Brunswick, the bank has community offices in Jamesburg, Leisure World, Parlin, Sayreville, South River and Spotswood. A second East Brunswick Office opened a year ago at Ryders Lane and Cranbury Road.

Gift Baskets

The spirit of Thanksgiving is being rekindled in Madison Township this year by the collective efforts of local merchants, civic leaders and fraternal organizations. A significant number of brimming Thanksgiving baskets will be distributed among deserving families of Madison Township on Thanksgiving Day. These baskets will contain both cash and product donations. The entire program was conceived, initiated and is being administered by the Friendly Sons of the Shillelagh. The program has the endorsement and support of honorary Chairmen John Phillips, Middlesex County Freeholder, and the entire slate of township commissioners, including Mayor Harry Messenger.

Chairman Edward Hussey reports an enthusiastic response to date, from those groups solicited for donations.

Families will be selected by an interdenominational group of religious and lay civic leaders. Those families receiving baskets will, of course, be chosen regardless of race, creed or color.

There is a rumor going around that the baskets will be delivered during the pre-dawn mist by wee people dressed in green leotards and pointed hats.

New Police Officers Sworn In

John Barbergalato who made the appointments following an examination conducted by the New Jersey Chief of Police Association. The newly appointed police officers will serve the necessary probation period and will also attend a police school.

And So It Goes

On Tuesday, November 8, the voters of Our Town will have the opportunity to go to the polls and vote. -- True there aren't any local candidates on the ticket but the election is most important to the residents of Our Town. We urge the residents of Madison Township to vote a straight Democratic Ticket by voting the "B" Line -- Leading the Democratic Ticket is Warren W. Wilentz, for U. S. Senator. -- Wilentz has a long record of public service -- former Middlesex County Prosecutor -- counsel for Middlesex County and a combat veteran of World War II. -- James J. Howard -- For Member of the House of Representatives, Third Congressional District -- Howard has attained for the residents of the Congressional District he represents tremendous achievements -- he has proven to be capable, sincere and hardworking. For Members of the Board of Chosen Freeholders we find Thomas Lee and George J. Otowski -- the accomplishments of the Democratic County Board of Freeholders should be explored -- we have one of the finest Vocational School Systems in the State -- the Department of Parks is one of the finest to be found -- Roosevelt Hospital -- operated by the County. This is the Democratic Ticket -- Warren Wilentz promises vigorous fighting leadership in the Senate -- he pledges leadership for educational opportunities -- he has imagination -- he has ability and he has a great desire to serve the people of New Jersey -- This leadership is lacking at the present time -- the voters of Our Town can help do something about it by voting for Warren Wilentz and the Democratic Ticket on Tuesday, November 8 -- Vote the "B" Line.

We challenge the Board of Education to let a group of citizens tour the various "buildings" used as warehouses for school supplies and equipment. We challenge the Board of Education to let this writer into some of the storerooms with a camera to disprove claims from some of the residents of the township that these "warehouses" are loaded down with school supplies and equipment. If this is true then there is no wonder that many of the residents in the Township are complaining about lack of books and shortages of paper and other supplies. We wonder if the Board of Education has ample fire insurance on the equipment and the buildings. We wonder if the Board of Education maintains an inventory of school supplies on hand? We wonder if the supply lists aren't just copied year after year ordering many supplies which are useless or that they already have attained tremendous surpluses? We wonder? A tour of these supply buildings could clear up a lot of wondering?

Take Five

"Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." Galatians 6:2.

When there has been a death, most of us find it hard to know what to say to the members of the family. This is understandable. Death makes us feel so helpless that we are apt to say most anything just for the sake of saying something. But I would like to make a point of urging that we don't use words that oversimplify the mystery of suffering and death. I think of words you often hear such as "It was God's Will," or "The good die young." When you say this to someone their natural response might be,

"I can't believe it was God's will," or "If it was God's will I think God is terrible," or "What a horrible place this world is, where the good people die young." Such words rarely comfort, and can even do a great deal of harm.

There are many times when it is enough to show your concern by a handclasp or an embrace and not to speak at all. It is better to let the bereaved tell about how they feel, than for us to give a pat explanation of why it has happened. We best share the burden of another's grief when we listen sympathetically. Our listening does much more good than anything we can say. It is not our responsibility to tell why death has come, a job that the greatest minds and spirits of the centuries have felt incapable of doing. We can help people by letting them speak and then telling simply how our faith has helped us in time of sorrow.

Prayer: Lord, teach us the wisdom of being silent before life's great mysteries. Amen.

FEUDING AND FUSSING: Rumor has it that Frank Gordon the GOP Municipal Chairman will resign shortly after Tuesday's Election. His replacement is supposed to be no other than Thomas English former Tax Collector. While there is supposed to be harmony in the ranks of the GOP from where we sit this isn't the case. Understand that several top ranking members of the local GOP will bolt their party and vote for Wilentz. The feuding and fussing still continues. Meanwhile back at the ranch, the Pandozzi Ranch things are fairly quiet and they expect a good Democratic turnout on Tuesday.

POLICE DEPARTMENT: Well we see where the police department has two new members in the ranks. Understand that there will be at least two more promotions. Several of the fellows already have "buck" fever at least one officer feels that he will have to wait at least two years before he receives any promotion. We have news. Many of the officers appointed recently won't be promoted for sometime. In fact a couple of the troops with several years of service won't even make the grade. Oh well, that's the game.

BOARD OF EDUCATION: We get the story from one Board of Education member that another Board of Education member would like the job of Supervisor of the Custodial Staff. The present holder of the job isn't a member of the Board of Education and the way we get the story lately he's been getting the pressure. There aren't any politics on the Board of Education they are just interested in the welfare of the children. Ho Hum! When it comes around to a job that pays in the neighborhood of $9,000 forget it, it suddenly becomes a very nice neighborhood especially to some Board of Education members.

WORD OF WARNING: During the past few weeks, Madison Township has been visited by several A.B.C. agents. One place was pulled in for selling liquor to a minor. Now you know that it just doesn't happen they have been looking around the Township taverns for sometime in order to come up with a deal like that. They just didn't happen to drop by. So a word to the many tavern owners in the township. Watch out! That fellow or woman at the end of the bar could be an A.B.C. agent. We know that you aren't doing anything wrong but they certainly can find something if they want to!

INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION: We still haven't heard anything more about Mr. Fox's great industrial find? Wonder what happened? Did Mr. Fox out-fox himself or is he intending to build himself up in order to be a candidate for councilman in the primary election. If so, he can expect a lot of competition from all camps. We talked to another member of the Industrial Commission about the huge industry and the funny thing about the entire situation was that this member knew of no such industry. Wonder when they hold their meetings and if they keep a record of any meetings that they hold?

SEWERAGE AUTHORITY: Rumor has it that Walter Zizik, presently serving as Director of the Madison Township Sewerage Authority will resign in the very near future. Understand that he has lined up another job in another township and expects to go full-time very shortly. We hope his replacement will know where all the sewerage lines are in the township, because it is a problem at times trying to find sewerage lines. Zizik has served as director of the Sewerage Authority for several years and through several administrations.

Oppose Proposed Constitutional Amendment On Reapportionment

The League of Women Voters of Madison Township, in agreement with the State League Board, opposes the proposed constitutional amendments on reapportionment of the New Jersey Legislature.

Mrs. John Koloski, Reapportionment Chairman, has been actively informing residents of the league's position on this question as guest speaker during the past month at meetings of organizations in the township. Mrs. Koloski advises the voters that the principles that will direct the course of reapportionment and the value of the individual's vote, now and in the future, are being established. The league sees no implicit or explicit principles of good representation guiding this plan. The league, therefore, urges a "NO" vote on November 8.

Elections Set

Many Republicans in the State and county blame the disunity in the State of New Jersey Republican Organization on Clifford Case.

The Democrats under the leadership of Joseph Pandozzi, Democratic Municipal Chairman and Harold G. Smith, Campaign Manager for Warren Wilentz have already lined up their workers and will conduct a normal Democratic Election. Madison Township in the past election have offered National, State and County candidates heavy Democratic majorities, in most instances the National, State and County Candidates have polled higher majorities than the local candidates on the Democratic Ticket.

Smith has prominently figured in some of the heaviest campaigns in the Township and according to Smith and Pandozzi, Wilentz should do very well in Madison Township. The future of the Smith and Pandozzi team might well be put on the line as a result of the Case-Wilentz campaign. In the 1967 election three seats will be up for grabs on the Township Council the seats are presently held by Republicans. While there has been no confirmation of support by either Smith or Pandozzi for Councilman Donald Macrae in the event that he should seek election as a Democrat in the primary election there have been no denials. It was reported that one poll taken of Democratic County Committeemen and County Committeewomen that Macrae had considerable support in the ranks of the Democratic organization. More than one Democratic Councilman also are in favor of supporting the popular Republican Macrae as a Democrat. In the past several other Republicans have made the "switch" in the Township and have been successfully elected in the primary election and the general election.

Warren Wilentz is considered to be the underdog in the present campaign but he has made tremendous in-roads all along the line. The election is set for Tuesday, November 8 and the polls open at 7 a.m. and remain open until 8 p.m. See you at the polls.

Homemaker's 40-Mile Tightrope

The homemaker who dries her wash on a clothesline lugs an average of two tons of wet wash, walks an extra 40 miles and spends up to 300 hours each year doing it, the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association has found.

For more than 4,500,000 American women, the gas clothes dryer has not only eliminated this labor, it has greatly reduced ironing and has reclaimed the backyard for living and landscaping.

A gas dryer unties you from the clothesline. You can dry your wash indoors in any weather and forget about the hazards of sun fading, insects and dirt in the air.

As a result, clothes and linens can be used more often, storage space is increased and fewer purchases are required.

The troublesome lint that washing often leaves is removed by the gas dryer, and since you can even freshen blankets, curtains and small rugs to remove dust and odors and restore resilience, further savings are realized.

The new automatic gas dryers are equipped with heat or moisture sensing devices, says GAMA, and settings that allow you to dry all fabrics to exact specifications. The makers of permanent press fabrics recommend dryer- rather than drip- or clothesline-drying, and many gas dryers now include permant-press cycles so that no ironing is needed.

That patio or play area you had no space for will suddenly appear once you remove all the clothesline paraphernalia. And your neighbor no doubt will appreciate your wisdom: flanks of hanging wash are not the most gratifying sights to be seen from his picture window.

A gas clothes dryer can be operated on natural gas, or on LP-gas if you live beyond the city mains. It is one investment that has really earned the title of "work-saving" appliance.

WILENTZ MAKE SENSE FOR U.S. SENATOR

On these critical issues...

"I'LL FIGHT FOR NEW JERSEY!"

VIET NAM "Our commitment to peace without surrender in Viet Nam must receive the same emphasis as our military commitment. We must stand ready to negotiate an internationally-supervised cease-fire since an overriding priority of our policy should be to move from battlefield to conference table."

MINIMUM WAGE "The recent increase in the minimum wage to $1.60 per hour is a giant step toward economic justice for our citizens. But we must continue to move ahead. We must be prepared to provide employment for every man who is able and willing to work and we must provide him a living wage for his labors. I believe a $2 per hour minimum wage would not be excessive."

GUN CONTROL LEGISLATION "We must take action to implement federal legislation to control the interstate mailing of guns. We have a solemn responsibility to keep firearms out of the hands of criminals, mentally unbalanced individuals, and other unstable persons. We cannot tolerate conditions which lead to the gunning down of law enforcement officers and helpless citizens. I intend to lead in the fight to have this important legislation enacted."

FAIR HOUSING "The United States needs a fair housing law as strong as New Jersey's—the right to decent housing, without discrimination, for every citizen, is an American right which should prevail not only in New Jersey but in every state in the nation."

COST OF LIVING "I believe we must have an expanded federal action program to halt the rise in consumer and food prices. The sharp increase in the price of food has caused great strain on the average family's budget. We must take immediate corrective action, for we cannot tolerate rapidly increasing food prices which hit hardest at the pocketbooks of middle and low income families. Prompt action must be taken against high interest rates which bar families from buying homes."

HIS OPPONENT'S RECORD "After 12 long years, New Jersey has a senior senator who has a low rank on two committees and has represented our people at a distance. I intend, however, to make it my business to establish close relationship with the people. I promise to fill the vacuum which has long existed while our present senator has been content to deal only at long distance with his constituents, limiting his communications to press releases and tape recordings sent from Washington."

No-bake Dessert Treat

An afternoon or evening coffee break would not be complete without something to satisfy the sweet tooth. When temperatures soar, you'll want to choose a dessert that needs no baking and is refreshingly light to eat. Honey Delight is just such a dessert—a honey-flavored gelatin filling between crusts made of cereal and flaked coconut. Make it in the morning to chill until serving time.

HONEY DELIGHT

- 1-1/2 cups crisp whole wheat flakes
- 1-1/3 cups (about) Baker's Angel Flake Coconut
- 1/4 cup butter
- 1 package (3 oz.) orange flavor gelatin
- 1 cup boiling water
- 1/2 cup honey
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 cup evaporated milk, chilled

Slightly crush cereal with rolling pin. Sauté coconut in butter until golden brown, stirring constantly. Combine coconut with cereal and mix well; press half of mixture in bottom of a 9-inch square pan. Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add honey and lemon juice. Chill until slightly thickened. Whip chilled evaporated milk and fold into gelatin mixture. Pour into prepared pan and top with remaining cereal mixture. Chill until firm. Cut in squares. Makes 9 servings.

Long White Potatoes Are Here!

The handsome California Long White, the variety which has put the Golden State into first place as grower of potatoes for the fresh market, is in top supply again. California provides a large volume of this potato from May through August, with peak in June and July. This is one of the most versatile of all potatoes, holding its shape well for slicing and yet equally suitable for mashing. Its consistent fresh flavor and texture makes it excellent for potato salads and, when mature, it is a favorite baker.

PARSLEY MASHED POTATOES

- 2 1/2 lbs. (about 5 large) California Long White potatoes
- 1/4 cup butter
- 1 cup milk
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh chives
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper

Cook potatoes in boiling salted water to cover until tender. Drain, peel and mash. Heat butter with milk; beat into potatoes along with parsley, chives, salt and pepper. Beat until fluffy.

YIELD: 6 to 8 servings.

DEVILED CALIFORNIA POTATOES

- 3 large California Long White potatoes
- 6 tablespoons milk
- 1 can (6 oz.) deviled ham
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper

Bake potatoes in preheated very hot oven (450°F) 60 minutes or until tender. Cut each potato in half lengthwise. Scoop out potato. Mash with milk, deviled ham, salt and black pepper; beat until fluffy. Refill potato shells. Place under broiler to brown lightly.

YIELD: 6 servings.

SAN JUAN:

SEEN FROM THE VANTAGE point of the bay, the city of San Juan on the tropical island of Puerto Rico rises white and cloud-like from a turquoise sea. But the old city of San Juan is not white once you are walking its cobble-stoned streets, its narrow winding ways. It is all color, vibrant Spanish reds and greens and blues mellowed by time and enameled by the sun.

POISED ON THE TIP of a peninsula in one of the most beautiful sites in Puerto Rico, the hotel is surrounded by the sea with each room overlooking either the sea or the lagoon. You may have coffee on your balcony while you watch a flaming sunrise, enjoy topflight entertainment in the hotel supper club nightly or take a sauna bath at any time of day.

THE OLD CITY of San Juan definitely is a bit of Spain in the tropics. Its balconies, iron grillwork, courtyards, blue tile paving and pleasant plazas could melt immediately into a Spanish background. When the day is finished, it is equally pleasant to return to the modern comfort of the San Jeronimo Hilton in the Condado sector between old San Juan and new Santurce.

TODAY, A SINGLE JET transport may whisk up to 92,000 pounds of cargo across the continent at 600 mph. That's Air Express really going modern! And almost anything goes along those jet-stream highways in the sky: Rare animals, electronic equipment for industry and for military bases guarding America's defenses, rare orchids for a girl's first dress-up date.
