Democrats Still 'Stunned'

The November Election has been over for almost two weeks but top "Democratic" leaders in Madison Township are still "stunned" over the loss. Despite the defeat at the hands of the G.O.P. the "majority" of the Democratic County Committeemen and County Committeewomen will stick with Joseph Pandozzi of Sayre Woods South, although it has been reported from one usually reliable source that a bid for leadership of the Democratic Party will be made by Freeholder John Phillips of Laurence Harbor. Phillips was unavailable for comment and in the past has continually denied any rumors that he would like to be the Democratic Municipal Chairman. Phillips served as Democratic Municipal Chairman following the death of Walter Staeger Sr., of Cheesequake. Phillips first came into the "political" ring in 1957 following the 1956 disaster which saw the Democrats swept from office, Phillips later served as Mayor and then became Madison Township's first Democratic Freeholder. The popular Laurence Harbor residents popularity has continued to grow and it is suspected that he has voting strength in the "Friendly Sons" and the "John Phillips Association" and several Democratic Clubs within the township, such as the J.F.K. Democratic Club of Cliffwood Beach.

Many rank and file democrats were not happy as the result of the November election, in order to retain control of the Township Council the Democrats must elect four Democrats in the next Council election, this means that the Democrats have control over the township for the next two years, whether or not the Democrats can keep a "tight control" over developments and garden apartments, will be questionable, it is a matter of record the number of garden apartments approved by the Republican Controlled Township Council.

It is expected that several resignations will be made prior to the re-organization meeting set for January, but these will have little to do with the results of the November election, ill health and better paying positions will account for several resignations before the first of the year.

If the Republicans gain control of the Township in the next Township Council election, and this they can do by electing only one additional councilman, it would result in mass firings of township personnel. The Democrats are expected to introduce a "tight personnel ordinance" in an effort to protect the "jobs". Councilman Ricard Dealy prior to the November election urged introduction of such an ordinance, the only trouble with an ordinance it can be abolished in the same amount of time it takes to create an ordinance.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wesp of 331 Raritan Blvd., Cliffwood Beach, announced the betrothal of their daughter Miss Mary Wesp to Thomas Okeson son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Okeson of 117 Digylo Pl., Kearny, N.J.

The couple plan a January 13th, 1968 wedding.

Attends Conference

Samsel of 5 Dogwood Lane, Old Bridge, Talent Search Coordinator at Middlesex County College, participated in the Curriculum Work Conference at the New Jersey Educational Association Convention at Atlantic City last Thursday (November 9th). Miss Samsel is actively engaged in the program of encouraging high school students to continue their education in order to better prepare themselves to meet the needs of the job markets.

This conference was held in Hadden Hall and had the theme "The Voice of the Learner."

Squad Report

The Laurence Harbor First Aid and Safety Squad answered 84 calls in October, Capt. John Di Giovanni said.

The calls included 31 emergency transports. The squad traveled 1,850 miles, used 5,011 pounds of oxygen and totaled 286 man hours, he said.

With Navy

Pran W. Quade

The loudspeaker blasts "Flight Quarters---man your Flight quarters". The chill of the hazy morning in the Gulf of Tonkin is forgotten as dozens of young plane captains, including Air Crew Survival Equipment man, U.S.N. Pran W. Quade of 271 Alpine Way, Laurence Harbor, N.J.

This begins their daily duty of readying their planes for air strikes against North Vietnam. Quade is attached to Attack Squadron 111 aboard the USS Oriskany, he attended Madison Township High School prior to entering the Navy in March 1964.

Affair Set

On December 17, 1967 at 8:30 p.m. Shlomo Carlebach will be presented at Temple Beth Ohr. All members and their teenage children are cordially invited. There is no admission charge for temple members.

Shlomo Carlebach is one of the most picturesque personalities on the folk singing scene. He is a most unusual artiste with a most unusual art form. An ordained minister, he left the pulpit to pursue a remarkable career of service through song. His inspiration in Torah, his inspiration is youth. His appeal is universal. Favorite of Jewish teenagers and collegiates from coast to coast and world traveled, he has appeared at the leading colleges and in concert halls in the U.S., London, Paris, Rome and Israel. Whatever the setting, a Carlebach evening is an unforgettable experience. The program committee of Temple Beth Ohr.

Receives Promotion

LAKEHURST, N.J. (FHTNC)--Marine Sergeant John K. Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis K. Warner of 45 Throckmorton Lane, Old Bridge, N.J., was promoted to his present rank while serving at the Marine Barracks, Lakehurst, N.J.

His promotion was based on time in service and rank, military appearance, and his knowledge of selected military subjects.

The Marine Barracks provides security for the base, parades, civic functions and honor guards for visiting dignitaries.

Sergeant Warner entered the service in September 1964.

Receives Training

(X0932) PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (FHTNC)--Marine Private Robert Galinski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Galinski of 89 Kensington Ave., Old Bridge, N.J., is going through recruit training at this Marine Corps Recruit Depot.

His first stop when he arrived here was the Depot's receiving barracks where all new recruits are processed. Here he received his first issue of Marine uniforms, the equipment he will use in training, and his first military haircut.

After being placed in a training platoon with other new recruits, he left the receiving barracks and began his formal Marine training under the close guidance of his Drill Instructors, or "D.I.'s". Until he graduates eight weeks after he entered "boot camp", these seasoned Non-Commissioned Marines will guide and supervise his progress in physical conditioning and development, rifle marksmanship, and other skills which he must master to be a Marine.

Applications Sought For "Head Start"

Applications now are being accepted for Head Start, a program for pre-school, low-income children, operated by the Middlesex County Economic Opportunities Corporation.

Classes, not yet underway, will be held at nine centers throughout Middlesex County for children who will be four years old by Dec. 31, according to Mrs. Natalie Kutik, program director.

The classes will be in Perth Amboy, Jamesburg, Carteret, LAURENCE HARBOR, Piscataway, Dunellen, Woodbridge and New Brunswick. The ninth center, in South Brunswick, already has its quota of children. Youngsters from the New Brunswick area, including South River, will be included in the New Brunswick classes.

Further information may be obtained from the Head Start office, 247-4740, or from the MC-EOC multi-service centers in New Brunswick, Perth Amboy, Woodbridge, Carteret, North Edison and Jamesburg. Registrations are being accepted at the various centers.

Each local district winner will be presented with an award and entry into the state contest. The state finalist is provided with a five day trip to Washington, D.C. plus the opportunity to compete for national scholarships in the amounts of $5,000 for first place, $3,500 for second place, $2,500 for third place, $1,500 for fourth place and $1,000 for fifth place.

"Students win more than awards and scholarships, when they participate in this program, said Vohdin. "Some of the fringe benefits according to Vohdin, are increased self-confidence, great poise, the overcoming of certain emotional problems and valuable practice in expressing ideas clearly."

Vohdin further stated that "one of the greatest benefits to young people who take part in the contest, is that through reflect seriously on freedom, they gain a better appreciation of their freedom."

And So It Goes

The world was stunned on November 22, 1963, it was in Dallas, Texas and the radio and television spread the terrifying news of "the death of a president---John Fitzgerald Kennedy born in Brookline, Mass. on May 29th, 1917 met death at the hands of an assassin later identified in the Warren Report as Lee Harvey Oswald---controversy continues over the Warren Report and whether Oswald was the "loner" in the assassination---just after the president was killed E. B. White wrote "He died of exposure---but in a way that he would have settled for---in the line of duty, and with his friends and enemies all around, supporting him and shooting him. "He did not fear the weather" White continued "but instead challenged the wind itself---and although the people admired that in him, they did not see why he had felt compelled to challenge the Dallas winds. "nut country" the president had called it, but he went anyway and was killed---he was buried three days later, and the traditional riderless horse that followed the coffin to the grave might have been created for but this one awful day---We wonder if President Kennedy was alive IF---the struggle in Vietnam would be continuing today---We wonder IF our country would have been torned and split by racial riots and "mob disturbances"---We can only wonder?---With the election of President Kennedy we had felt a complete New Feeling and love for Our Country---We felt a spirit which has been missing---We felt a drive to help---to strive for a better world---for a better America---We felt a new surge---we felt that we belonged ---the New Frontier was defined as "uncharted areas of science and space, unsolved problems of peace and war, unconquered pockets of ignorance and prejudice, unanswered questions of poverty and surplus.

On January 20, 1961, John F. Kennedy in his inaugural address stated "Now the trumpet summons us again--not as a call to bear arms, though arms we need--not as a call to battle, though embattled we are--but a call to bear the burden of a long twilight struggle year in and year out, rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation---a struggle against the common enemies of man: tyranny, poverty, disease and war itself---And so, my fellow Americans: ask not what your country can do for you--ask what you can do for your country---AND SO IT GOES.

Take Five

"Jesus spoke up: "Weren't all ten men made clean? Where are the other nine? Could they not also come back and give thanks to God?"

Luke 17: 17, 18
Ten deadly sick men begged Jesus for help. Nine newly cured men rushed home. Only one paused to say thanks. Nine went their way unthinking and unthanking. Is this the way people are--only one out of ten stopping long enough to return thanks?

We may not be able to speak about other people, but we can examine ourselves. How grateful we are?

Are we grateful to our parents? We live today because yesterday our parents took care of us. All through the long years of childhood we depended on our parents. Are we grateful to them?

Are we grateful to our fellow men? What about the paper boy and the postman; those who remove our garbage and trash; those responsible for the heat and light in our homes. What gratitude have we expressed? We can't pay back all that we owe people, but the real tragedy comes to light when we ask ourselves how often we have tried. How often we have taken what others give us for granted.

Are we grateful to God? There have been times when we have prayed very hard that some problem would be worked out. Have we thanked God when it was? And how much do we have that we haven't earned. So many of our blessings are gifts, that we no more deserve than lots of people who don't have them. Have we thanked God for these things?

PRAYER: Save us, O God, from thoughtless thanklessness. Amen.

FEUDING AND FUSSING: The feud still remains in the ranks of the G.O.P. in spite of the "so-called" Republican victory at the polls. If you check on some of the voting districts it is quite obvious that many members of the G.O.P. dropped Donald Tierney in the Laurence Harbor and Cliffwood Beach areas. Top Republican Leaders in Laurence Harbor and Cliffwood Beach areas are Thomas Wilson, Joseph Lee and Donald Borst. The trend may continue to grow it is quite possible that history will repeat itself at the reorganization meeting on January 1st.

WAIT AND SEE: If you think that the development of Madison Township was a tremendous job, watch neighboring Marlboro Township. We'd wage a little bet with anyone that housing and garden apartments will be constructed all over Marlboro Township. One of the problems would be water and sewerage but with expansion of the water lines of the Madison Water Company in Old Bridge that would take care of the water problem. The sewerage problem could be taken care of in much the same way. The only other problem would be getting rid of surface water and drain water, Madison Township will no doubt be asked to join a study between Marlboro Township and Sayreville---most of the drainage water from Marlboro would drain into Madison Township and then of course into Sayreville. During the Marlboro election there was lot of rumors that some Real Estate firm had contributed $7,000 to assure that the right persons would win. What will effect Madison Township---the traffic flow on Route 9 for one---can we afford to supply Marlboro with drinking water? ---can our sewerage lines handle the additional flow of sewerage? Wait and See;

BOARD OF EDUCATION: We see where "Go-Go" Brust is going to make a tour of the bus routes in the Township in regards to youngsters riding school buses for several hours and hazardous routes. Our advice to "Go-Go" is you better take a guide along with you. Speaking of bus trips, if three NEW members are elected in the February Board of Education election you had better be making plans for a long bus trip---the way the story goes there are three members presently serving on the Board of Education that would vote with the three NEW members to see that you "Go-Go" to anyplace but Madison Township.

POLICE DEPARTMENT: Chief Charles Boice has arrived back at his desk following completion of the F.B.I. Training School in time for the holiday season. It appears from the police reports that many persons are already doing their Christmas Shopping early. Several cars were broken into and merchandise was stolen, a piano store on Route 9 and a Drug Store. We don't need any F.B.I. training to find out what's wrong? Constant patrolling of the township would help? This is not to be critical of the Chief or the police department additional patrolmen are needed--it takes at least six months to train a police officer and it is a known fact that crime increases around the Christmas season.

Graduates

(XU/18) PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the tradition of Marine Corps teamwork.

He will now undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment. The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the tradition of Marine Corps teamwork. A thorough study of basic military subjects, hygiene, first aid and sanitation, and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join the Marine combat forces.
