Banquet Held

On Tuesday, May 21, the members of the Madison Township Police Pistol Team attended a banquet at the Villa Roma in Elizabeth, N.J. The event marked the close of a winter of shooting at the Rahway State Prison indoor range. Police teams from the Tri-County area competed in twenty six (26) weekly matches.

Guests of the Madison team included Councilman Messenger several members of the township recreation committee and area businessmen.

Ptl. Napoli, team captain, finished in first place for the Madison team. This is the second consecutive year Napoli has led the team in marksmanship. Finishing in second place was Ptl. Stenger with Ptl. Reigelsperger placing third and Ptl. Spinola coming in fourth.

Ptl. Spinola was awarded a target pistol for being the most improved shooter this year. Ptl. Napoli expects an even better team next year due to the department growing recently. Several of the new patrolmen show promise as good shooters.

Open House

The Madison Township Historical Society will hold open house at the Historical Museum on Route 516 on Saturday and Sunday, May 25th and 26th from 1 to 5 P.M.

On exhibit there will be a 1917 fire truck from the Cheesequake Fire Company.

Many other items of historical interest will be displayed, as well as the 1861 edition of Harpers Weekly which was recently donated to the Museum by Mrs. Frederick Schulmeister.

The Museum was formerly the one - room Cedar Grove Schoolhouse which is being restored by the Historical Society. Mrs. Ebner Martin, president, explains that historical items of local interest are being collected by the Society for exhibition at the Museum. She extends a cordial invitation to the residents of Madison Township and surrounding areas to visit the Museum either Saturday or Sunday.

Book Report

The Board of Trustees of the Free Public Library of Madison Township, located in Laurence Harbor, met at the Library Monday and Mrs. James Bergen, president, reported that during the month of April 410 books had been borrowed--106 adult fiction, 86 adult non-fiction, 193 juvenile fiction and 31 juvenile non-fiction.

Mrs. Laurence Holden reported that four books had been received from the State Library for readers requesting special books.

A Summer Reading Club and Story Hour will again be held, and new books will be purchased for the children who join this program. The Library is sponsored by the Woman's Club of Laurence Harbor, and club members and friends will assist in making this program an interesting and enjoyable one.

The Trustees voted to donate $100. from their Ways and Means Fund to the Laurence Harbor First Aid Squad to help them rebuild their building and replace the ambulance destroyed in the recent fire.

Under The Fence

FEUDING AND FUSSING: Well the uproar over the appointment of the Chairman of the Democratic Party is still continuing. From where we sit we would like to see Mrs. Mary M. Brown, Vice Chairlady of the Democratic Party appointed as head of the Democratic Party in Madison Township. Mrs. Brown has more political savvy than most of the proposed candidates put together. One of the biggest problems for any chairman is MONEY and where to obtain it -- because let's face it you have to have money to get candidates elected regardless of which party you belong to -- and Mrs. Brown is a "hustler" when it comes to selling tickets to Democratic Affairs.

POLICE DEPARTMENT: Congratulations to the newly promoted officers in the Police Department and to the other fellows that didn't make the grade just remember there is always another time and another place don't get discouraged. We wonder when Boys Nash will ever get promoted to Lieutenant. Nash is one of the oldest officers in the Department he was appointed to the police department way back in 1956.

BOARD OF EDUCATION: We understand that the Board of Education is going to be in for a big surprise very shortly. Madison Township teachers are still in an uproar. Many of the teachers vow that things won't settle down until "Go-Go" Brust finally goes. We certainly hope that the Board of Education can resolve the situation before drastic action is taken by the teachers. We think talk about "tar and feathering" is ridiculous, however some of the teachers are talking in a nasty mood. We have never witnessed such commotion and such unrest in the history of the Township. We have seen many disputes in the Township involving Superintendents of schools but nothing like the present chaotic condition.

RUMORED AROUND TOWN: Understand a large Shopping Center will be built on Route 34 near Disbrow Road. The way we get the story is that they are already renting space in the center and plans call for an early start in the construction. We understand that plans for sewerage disposal have already been worked out with the authority and that water will soon be made available in the area.

INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION: We wonder what ever happened to the big Industrial Tract that Mr. Fox was supposed to have lined up for Madison Township or was it just an "election gimmick". We've heard so many different stories we wonder just what is going on. We'd still like to have some press releases from the commission wonder who the liaison officer between the Township Council and commission is? We must admit we are getting some small installations and every little bit helps but when are we going to hit a big operation? Meantime surrounding towns are getting industrial ratables. What happened to Madison Township?

Dance Planned

The Italian American Citizens League of Madison Township held it's monthly meeting and Gerry Gueniero, Anthony Cannella and Peter Lepiscopo were appointed to act as co-chairmen on the building committee. The League is seeking property on which to build.

The League is planning a buffet and dance at the Knights of Columbus Hall, on Pine Street, in Old Bridge, on June 22nd, 1968. Music will be provided by the Brass Managerie. Ticket chairman for the affair is Louis Nanco.

Take Five

"For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his life? Or what shall a man give in return for his life? Matthew 16:26.

In the Franklin County Court House in Virginia there is the old will of a man who owned Booker T. Washington, the great Negro educator. Since most of the man's property was in slaves, he had listed this personal property and set down the price of each one. Opposite the name of Booker Washington he had marked $200.

This incident started me thinking. Is $200 a fair estimate of a man's value? For that matter, does any amount of money compare with the worth of a man or a woman or a child? Put that way I'm sure most of us would answer life is always more important. Then why do we so often act as though money was more important than life. A husband will spend extravagantly for his wife and make it a substitute for love and devotion. Parents will lavish money and gifts on their children, and then withhold what is much more important, themselves. It is even possible for a person to give large sums to God and the Church but never give what God wants most of all, himself.

The money is not worth the man. The best gift to others and to God is ourselves. What is really valuable comes not from the pocketbook, but from the heart. Neither $200 or $2,000,000 is a substitute for a life.

Prayer: Dear Lord, help us give to those we love what is most important, ourselves. Amen.

Completes Training

KEESLER AIR FORCE BASE, MISS. (AHTNC) -- Army Private First Class Thomas G. May, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. May, 29 Alpha Ave., Old Bridge, N.J., completed an air traffic control operator course April 30 at Keesler Air Force Base, Miss.

During the 18-week course, he was trained in aircraft recognition, conventional and radar approach control and air traffic rules.

And So It Goes

A DEDICATED HANDFULL---For year we have witnessed a dedicated handful of men have organized and run the Pop Warner Football Team in Sayre Woods South. These men have trained, coached and raised funds and many other things too numerous to mention. There are more than 100 boys involved in this program and these men have faithfully dedicated themselves in the best interest of these boys so that they may learn and play football the proper way and perhaps carry this through their high school and college years. Needless to say these men have done a superb job as the record indicates. The question is "How long can a small handful do the work of many and still continue to maintain a high standard of accomplishment. Something MUST be done about this. For too long, too many have said "I am too busy" or "I have no time" or perhaps were not interested---One of the finest ways to teach our children sportsmanship--self control----and to be competitive--is through sports. How can we deny them this privilege? We certainly do not deny them material things within our means.--If any one would care to participate in anyway with the Sayre Woods South Rebels Football Team---Please contact by phone---Bill Schneider--679 - 6163--Ed Smickilo---679 - 6226---Bob Geddis---679 - 4739----Pat Roland---679-8012----The appeal is earnest and sincere and any help that can be given would be appreciated by all concerned and especially the youngsters---Speaking of youngsters we would like to take this occasion to congratulate Mr. Joseph Kaschak, Instrumental Music Director in the Madison Township school system---"Joe" has been one of the most dedicated teachers in the entire school system---and probably one of the oldest---his work with the youngsters of Our Town is appreciated by all concerned---Mr. Kaschak is devoted to the youngsters in the Madison Township school system--we give Mr. Kaschak credit for starting the entire music program in the local school system --- Mr. Kaschak has seen superintendents of school come and go--but like "Ole man river" he just keeps rolling along---Congratulations "Joe" on your past accomplishments---AND SO IT GOES.

NEW SOCIAL SECURITY BOOKLET AVAILABLE

Copies of a new booklet describing the recent improvements in social security disability insurance protection are now available at the social security district office. The booklet, entitled "Recent Improvements in Social Security Disability Insurance Benefits," is available free of charge.

Ralph W. Jones, a social security district manager, said today that over 165,000 persons were made immediately eligible for disability benefits under the amendments signed into law by President Johnson earlier this year. Millions more, he pointed out, have increased disability insurance for themselves and their families.

About 100,000 of those newly eligible for disability payments ranging from $55 to about $400 a month are younger people, Jones said--disabled workers and their dependents. Their eligibility results from a change in the law substantially reducing the amount of work required for the payment of benefits to workers who become totally disabled before they reach age 31.

Until now, the work requirement for younger disabled workers was the same as for older workers--social security credit for at least 5 out of the 10 years before the worker's disability began.

Under another change, about 65,000 disabled widows 50 and over were made eligible for reduced monthly benefits. Before this change in the law, they would not have been eligible for payments until they reached 60 or 62. The amount of the payment to a disabled widow 50 or over is a percentage of the retirement benefit that would have been payable to her husband had he been 65 at the time of his death. It is a smaller percentage than is payable to widows whose payments start at age 62 when the full widow's benefit of 82-1/2 percent is payable.

If a disabled widow's benefits start at age 50, for example, her monthly payment will amount to 50 percent of her husband's retirement benefit amount.
