Hot Time In The Old Town Hall

There certainly was a "hot time" at the town hall last Friday evening when County Detectives and members of the local police department had the entire area and building under observation prior to, during and after the regular scheduled meeting of the Madison Township Zoning Board of Adjustment, the place came alive like something out of the pages of the "Untouchables" with Middlesex County Prosecutor Edward Bolan, playing the leading role of Elliot Ness, and like most of the "Untouchable" series there seems to be several pages of the script missing, due to commercials...

According to reliable reports the meeting which was being observed by members of the County Prosecutors office and local police proceeded without incident. The meeting was described as a typical meeting of the Zoning Board of Adjustment with the various pros and cons on voting for this variance or that variance, the meeting went as scheduled. After the meeting was over county detectives moved in as if in a "Untouchable" drama, members of the Zoning Board of Adjustment were held for questioning individually. Other members of the county force then conducted a search of the municipal building and according to a reliable witness some $1,300 dollars was found in a "waste paper" basket. McCullough was later placed under arrest and Sklair was arrested at his office in Perth Amboy.

As was previously pointed out there seem to be several pages of the script to this chapter missing. We understand that the prosecutor was notified earlier in the day that some $3,100 was supposed to change hands. Mr. Bolan, in true "Untouchable" fashion has not yet squealed on the "squealers"? Bolan claims to have found the rest of the "missing money" but has not stated as of this writing just where and how he found it? We can not remember in the history of Madison Township where any similar incident occurred. It is not know if the investigation is continuing? We believe that a man is innocent until proven guilty and we believe that Mr. McCullough and Mr. Sklair will have their day in court? However, no one can stop rumors and the rumors are certainly flying, some claim that it was a "Political payoff" and they were not out to get McCullough but another member of the Zoning Board? Some rumors claim that it is a Democratic Plot to discourage Republican voters? Some claim that there are several more members of the Zoning Board involved? Some say that Mr. Bolan will never be around to present the case before a jury because he will be bounced out of office comes January 10th, 1969? Whatever the outcome and whatever the rumor it appears that the "incident" is something out of the "Untouchables".

how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. It measures general aptitude and ability to learn a language, not education or achievement. The test requires no preparation and is non-competitive; an applicant can neither pass nor fail.

Persons interested in serving with the Peace Corps should fill out an Application, if they have not already done so, and present it to the tester before the test. Applications are available from post offices or from the Peace Corps in Washington, C.C. 20525.

Thousands of Volunteers are currently serving in Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands. Peace Corps programs which will begin this fall will utilize people with education, agriculture, health and community action backgrounds, to work with the people of the emerging nations in self-help projects. Volunteers with technical skills need not have college degrees to qualify for Peace Corps service.

PRIOR TO THE FEBRUARY SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION THE MADISON AMERICAN WARNED ABOUT TREMENDOUS INCREASES TO HIT THE TAXPAYER. THE NEW TAX BILLS ARE OUT AND THE SAD NEWS IS THAT MADISON TOWNSHIP RESIDENTS WILL HAVE TO DIG DEEPER IN THEIR POCKETS. MOST TOWNSHIP TAX PAYERS NEVER SEE A COPY OF THEIR TAX BILL. PUBLISHED ABOVE IS THE ACTUAL BREAK DOWN FOR 1967 AND THE NEW 1968 TAX BILLS. READ THE FIGURES AND WEEP.

Under The Fence

FEUDING AND FUSSING: Well it seems the local G.O.P. had a little split. Here was George Bush, G.O.P. Municipal Chairman in press releases claiming that the G.O.P. was against the proposed zoning ordinance and calling it a Democratic Party issue to allow mass development in the township. However when they township council sat down and voted on the proposed ordinance it appeared to this writer that Mr. Bush is chairman of the Republican Party in name only because at the meeting the only Republican that voted no was Richard Dealy Jr., and he's running for election so it appears that Mr. Bush doesn't have too much over the G.O.P. members on the Township Council.

CONGRATULATIONS: Madison Township Manager George Van Hook assumed his duties at the first of the week and was immediately under fire. We think it is unfair to "jump" on anybody until the person has a chance to get his feet on the ground. Let's face it. It will take Mr. Van Hook some time before he gets oriented on the various roads and areas of Our Town. Residents of Our Town should also thank Mrs. Mary Brown for the job she did while the council was looking for a replacement for the former township manager. We wish Mr. Van Hook well and hope that he can straighten out some of the problems facing Madison Township. Congratulations. Needless to say Madison Township represents a challenge to anyone and you have to crawl before you walk.

POLICE DEPARTMENT: Madison Township Police are still taking riot control lessons. Chief Charles Boice attended several schools in regards to riots and other civil disorders and his experience will greatly help the new police officer and the old. Understand that at least two more police officers will be soon named to the police department. Police will crack down on speeders in the township, most of the speeders are local residents.

INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION: We understand that a firm will locate in the Golden Circle Industrial Park located off Route 35 in Cliffwood Beach. The way we get the story is that a 15,000 square foot building will be built in the Industrial Park on a 5.9 acre tract. The firm is expected to employ at least 40 persons. We certainly hope that the firm locates in the township because we can sure use the ratables. Also if this firm locates it will mean that there are two firms in the Golden Circle Industrial Park and perhaps other industries might catch on and move to Madison Township. WE HOPE SO. HO-HUM! We feel that Mr. Canter still is way off base in his demands for $2 million for what he claims the township owes him. We feel that Mr. Cantor owes Madison Township more than that. We feel that every person that purchased a house in Sayrewoods South paid for the so called FREE schools. We believe that each purchaser also paid for all off-site sewers. It is our opinion that Mr. Cantor's demands would be similar to if the Jersey Central and Light Company which put in the various poles and electric service into the township would now return and take the township to court and demand that the township pay for all the electric lines and poles and transformers etc., that they installed in order to provide service. We believe that Mr. Cantor's demands are insane.

RUMORED AROUND TOWN: The way we get the rumor is that the County Detectives are still in Madison Township and probing other activities following the dramatic Friday night raid following the Zoning

Exam Set

J. Robert Murphy, Acting District Director of Internal Revenue for New Jersey, announced today that his office is now issuing applications for the 1968 Special Enrollment Examination.

Applications are available in Room 103 of the Federal Office Building at 970 Broad Street, in Newark. Mail requests should be sent to the Special Enrollment Clerk, P.O. Box 60, Newark, N.J. 07101.

This examination must be passed by tax practitioners who are not attorneys or Certified Public Accountants, before they are allowed to practice before the Internal Revenue Service. Technical and ethical standards for this right to practice are set by the Treasury Department.

Completed applications, accompanied by a check or money order for $25 payable to the Internal Revenue Service, should be mailed to the Director, Audit Division IRS, 1111 Constitution Ave., Washington, D.C. 20224, by August 31.

The two day examination will be given in the Federal Office Building on September 25 and 26.

Use Mouth-to-Mouth Rescue Breathing

1. Place one hand under victim's neck and lift. Tilt head back as far as possible by holding the crown of the head with your other hand.

2. Pull chin upward until the head is tilted back fully. This is essential for keeping the air passage open.

3. Place mouth tightly over victim's. Pinch nostrils shut. Breathe hard to make chest rise. For very young children, cover nose and mouth tightly with your mouth.

For an adult: Breathe vigorously about 12 times a minute.

4. Remove mouth. Listen for returning air. If you don't hear it, recheck head position. Repeat breathing, removing mouth each time for escape of air.

For a small child: Take relatively short breaths, about 20 per minute.

And So It Goes

Well it is that time of the year again when the tax bills are mailed --- residents of Madison Township can try to blame the tax assessor --- they can try to blame the tax collector --- they can try to blame the township council --- however they are only kidding themselves -- the entire blame for the tax situation rests with the MADISON TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION and the spend the money programs of Mr. Joseph Brust, Superintendent of Schools --- It was brought to the attention to the residents of Our Town by the Madison American that if the fantastic budget of the Board of Education was approved and if the administration presently heading the Board of Education that supports the "Spending sprees" of Brust continued --- then We, the people of Madison Township would suffer the consequences --- We can all "scream and holler" but it is a little too late --- prior to the February School Board Election the Madison American predicted increases of at least $100 per year for a $16,000 home in Our Town --- we were wrong --- the increase is only around $93.60 for a $16,000 home --- of course if your home is worth $22,000 then your increase is well over $100 --- candidates seeking re-election to the Board of Education "Poo-pooed" the predicted increase in the taxes --- the baloney and propaganda released by the Board of Education and preached by the candidates that were seeking re-election was for the "birds" --- and We the people of Madison Township have to suffer --- many residents of Madison Township will have to give up their homes --- many residents of Our Town live on fixed incomes --- many residents are retired --- they can no longer afford the "luxury" of residing in Our Town --- Madison Township residents can no longer afford the antics of the Board of Education and the expensive tastes of the Superintendent of Schools --- we can no longer afford weekend jaunts to "Motel on the Mountain" --- we can no longer afford all the administrators --- we can no longer afford all the "frills" that Mr. Brust seems to think that we can afford --- It must be remembered that Mr. Brust does not reside in Our Town --- and we don't believe that he is working in the "best interests" of the citizens of Madison Township --- Now on the lighter side --- Don't eat the Dieffenbachia --- your mother-in-law won't like it and neither will you, according to Dennis A. Brown, assistant director, horticulture and maintenance, at the New York Botanical Garden. A Queens' family, name unknown, learned this truism the hard way. According to Mr. Brown a man called the Botanical Garden to report that his son's baby took a bite out of one of the leaves of the Dieffenbachia, a common house plant. The baby's tongue immediately became swollen. --- When the father came home, he decided to double check the Dieffenbachia story and the doctor had to return to the household to treat a father with a swollen tongue. --- Later in the evening, a friend visited the house, took a dim view of the reports and took a bigger bite of Dieffenbachia to prove his point. His is now the biggest tongue in Queens. --- When none of the Queens' group realized is that the Dieffenbachia, a shrubby plant from tropical America, is more commonly known as the "mother-in-law" plant. And you know what happens when you bite your mother-in-law. AND SO IT GOES....

Board meeting. Understand that the Township Council may demand the resignation of the Secretary of the Zoning Board of Adjustment regardless of the outcome of his pending appearance before the grand jury. Might say that things may get hotter.

Picnic Set

Members of the Raritan Valley Chapter of the Saint Peter's College Alumni Assn. will attend a family picnic on July 21 in Roosevelt Park, Edison.

- Swim only in protected areas and obey the safety rules enforced by the lifeguard. Take no risks.
- Never enter a pool unless there is a guard on duty. Avoid rough play on runways, diving boards.
- Wait about one hour after eating before going swimming, to avoid cramps.
- Use the "Buddy Plan." Always be accompanied by another person when swimming.
- When swimming long distances be accompanied by two people in a boat to assure safety.
- Before wading, swimming, or diving in an unfamiliar place find out the depth of the water, and whether there are hidden rocks, strong currents, etc.
- Keep hands off of others while in deep water. Before venturing into deep water, know how to swim, tread water, float, and turn around.
- If you swim out into deep water, you must return the same distance. Start back before you are too tired.
- If you are being helped, lie quietly and let the person coming to the rescue handle you. Don't grab him around the neck.
- Keep away from swift moving water and watch out for an undertow. If caught in a current, swim with it and at the same time toward shore.
- Stay out of the water during a thunderstorm. If you find yourself having difficulty in deep water, keep calm and think out your plan of action.

- Here are some things you can do:
- Float lying flat on your back with your arms and legs stretched out straight.
- Tread, scull, or kick slowly, keeping your hands underneath the water.
- Hold onto a stick of wood, oar, canoe, etc. Put your chin on anything that will float and push yourself along. Hold your breath if your head gets under water.
- Calling for help is serious. Don't do it for fun.
- In case of cramps:

Keep calm — it is fear that causes cramps to be fatal. — To overcome a cramp in the calf while in deep water, take a deep breath, go underwater, seize the cramped muscle with thumbs and fingers of both hands and squeeze with all your might. — Go ashore as quickly as possible and massage the muscle. — To overcome a cramp in the toe while in deep water, go underwater and press with thumbs on a nerve which lies in the arch of the foot on the inside edge about a third of the way from the heel to the toe. Slide thumbs toward the great toe. — If cramps cannot be broken, remember that it is possible to swim in a cramped position if you do not become excited.

- In attempting to rescue a drowning person, do the following things:
- Call loudly for help. — Try to rescue the person without entering the water. Use a boat or throw him a line, or push a board toward him. — Attempt a swimming rescue only if you know how and no other means are available.

Swimming Pool Rules

1. Never permit the pool to be used unless it is attended by at least one person other than the bather. Clearly, someone should be there to lend assistance if the bather should be in trouble due to injuries, cramps, excess water depth in the case of children, etc.
 2. Since the pool stands on the ground, its wall acts as a natural barrier which will prevent children, particularly, from falling into the pool accidentally. It is essential, however, that means of ingress and egress (ladders, etc.) be removed or be made unusable whenever the pool is unattended. Failure to do this may result in serious injuries and drowning.
 3. As a further precaution, particularly if the pool is to be left unattended for any longer period of time, a "safety" cover should be used. These covers, which are offered by various manufacturers, are designed to hold the weight of an adult and prevent him from falling into the water.
- Furthermore, such a safety cover must have a tamper-proof locking device that will make removal impossible by unauthorized persons. Remember, you have legal responsibility for pool accidents that occur in your pool even if you have not given permission for its use.
4. Do not permit "rough-house" in and around your pool. Accidents resulting in serious injuries can be prevented if rules of behavior are strictly enforced. The pool has many rigid, unyielding parts; there are many areas that will become wet and slippery; these are all potentially dangerous and rough play can cause trouble.

Scuba Diving

Skin diving is a safe sport. Because divers develop safe diving habits early and stick to them, serious accidents are extremely rare. To help the beginning diver develop those same habits, here are some safety tips:

- Before learning to dive have a complete physical examination by a doctor.
- Don't attempt diving unless you're a good swimmer.
- Seek professional instruction and take a full course in SCUBA diving from a certified instructor. This is not a "learn-it-yourself" sport.
- Always dive with a buddy — never by yourself.
- Never use goggles or ear plugs when diving.
- Be sure all equipment is attached by "quick release" straps. If you wear a weight belt, never put it on under a SCUBA harness. Put it on last and be sure it has a "quick release" strap.
- Always use a float and diver's flag.
- Never hold your breath when SCUBA diving, especially when returning to the surface. This may cause air embolism, a condition that can be fatal.
- Never dive when you're feeling ill or tired, or when suffering from a cold, sore throat, sinus or ear trouble.
- Use SCUBA tanks equipped with a low air warning device and refill them from certified compressors only.
- Avoid too rapid a descent, which can result in pain in the ears. Stop descending until the pain leaves.

Attend Convention

Fifteen persons from Madison Township had attended the Centennial Convention of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks in New York City, July 14 through 18.

Alfred V. Cafiero, Exalted Ruler, represented Sayre Wood Lodge No. 2229 as the official delegate. He was accompanied by Mrs. Waltraud Cafiero.

The Sayre Wood Elk delegation stayed in the Americana Hotel during their stay in New York. Convention sessions were held in the New York Hilton Hotel.

It was estimated that more than 15,000 Elks and members of their families attended this Convention marking the Order's 100th year. A highlight of the Convention was guest speaker Gen. Lewis W.

Walt, former commander of Marine forces in Viet Nam, and currently Deputy Commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps.

The B.P.O. Elks, organized in New York City on February 16, 1868, has nearly 1,500,000 members in 2,108 lodges, making it the largest strictly American fraternal order.

Arrests Made

The Madison Township Police made by Chief Charles Boice. Department announces that with the cooperation of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, they have arrested nine juveniles within the past two months for annoying and obscene phone calls to local residents.

Investigation of other calls are being continued and we feel more arrests will follow in the near future. The announcement was
