CHURCH NEWS

First Baptist Church Main and W. Third Sts.

Rev. Joseph R. Faith, Pastor
9:30 a.m., the Sunday School is designed to teach God's Word to persons of every age. The teaching staff is trained to impart the vital and practical application of eternal truth to everyday living.

10:45 a.m., the Morning Worship Service will include a brief sermon for the many boys and girls who attend, and music will be rendered by the Junior and Senior Chorus. The message by the pastor is from The Gospel of John chapter 6, the miracle of Christ feeding the multitude, entitled "So Much From So Little."

6:30 p.m., the Junior and Senior Youth groups hold their meetings, and Mr. James Goldie will present a gospel story in free hand artwork to the younger fellowship.

7:30 p.m., the Evening Worship Service is inspirational and encouraging. Informal participation in the congregational singing is helpful in creating the friendly atmosphere. The message by the pastor will bring to mind the necessity of Christ's presence with us in every experience of life. The topic is from The Gospel of John chapter six, "Danger in the Dark."

9 p.m., the Christian Fellowship for young adults will meet for prayer, discussion and fellowship at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland VanCleave in Belford. The invitation is open to all.

Church Services, 11 a.m.

Wednesday, 8 p.m.

Reading Room, Wednesday afternoon, 2-4 p.m.

That man can gain health, happiness, and immortality by relying on the spiritual facts of God and man as taught by Christ Jesus will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mortals and Immortals" includes the account from the King James Version of the Bible of how Christ Jesus restored to life the only son of the widow of Nain (Luke 7: 11-16).

The following passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be among those read: "Jesus never asked if disease were acute or chronic, and he never recommended attention to laws of health, never gave drugs, never prayed to know if God were willing that a man should live. He understood man, whose Life is God, to be immortal, and knew that man has not two lives, one to be destroyed and the other to be made indestructible." (369:16).

The Golden Text is from Romans: "They that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit." (8:5).

WILLS PROBATED

Lillian A. Winterton, Keyport, who died April 11, left all property to her husband, Harry C. Winterton, and named her step-daughter, Melva W. Hoff, as executrix. The will was dated Jan. 14, 1953.

Emma F. Close, Matawan, who died March 23, directed that her husband, William A. Close, receive life income from the residue of her estate. Thereafter it will be shared by a brother, Robert F. Fountain, Sr. and his son, Robert Jr. The former was named executor in a will made Nov. 27, 1923.

Katherine Buchner, Matawan, who died March 18, left the residue of her estate to her stepdaughters, Rosemary Bowne and Clara

L. Turner. They were named executrices in a will of Oct. 21, 1948. In a codicil of March 15, 1954, she directed that $1,000 each go to Mrs. Turner and her two daughters, Bernice Van Pelt and La Verne Gaskins.

GIRL SCOUTING GROUP IN AREA MEETS RECENTLY

The Neighborhood Association of Girl Scouting, which includes troops in Union Beach, Hazlet and Keyport and Mothers of Scouts, held a short business meeting in the American Legion Hall, Front street, Keyport recently.

SENATOR STOUT ADDRESSES CIVIC GROUP IN HOLMDEL

State Senator Richard R. Stout has urged citizens to keep in touch with their legislators in matters of current interest.

Addressing the Holmdel Community Association at Township Hall, Crawford's Corner, he said that by making their views and pertinent facts known to the lawmakers; citizens can be vastly helpful to legislators. Only through such contacts are men in government able to act with the wishes of their constituents in mind, Senator Stout pointed out.

The speaker illustrated the importance of the citizen's viewpoint to the lawmaker by pointing out that each member of a legislative body has upwards of 500 bills under consideration at a time. Only by hearing from those familiar with the subject matter and those affected by each piece of legislation can the representatives remain informed on all the measures he said.

Senator Stout, a member of the senate procedure committee, told of how procedural revisions have streamlined the work of the legislature and cut down expenses. He said a revision in printing procedures has resulted in a saving of $150,000 and more efficient operation this year.

He told of problems the county faces because of its rapid growth and said indications are that the number of assemblymen from Monmouth will be increased from two to three.

Association President Laurence H. Taylor presided. He announced that the next meeting, June 1, will be in the labor camp hall on Ogden's Corner Road off Everett Road.

FIREMEN ASSIST PLANS FOR STATE DISASTER PROGRAM

Representatives of virtually every firemen's group in the state were asked to assist in organizing their units for participation in the New Jersey Disaster Control Plan.

At a meeting in the Assembly Caucus Chamber in the State House, Thomas S. Dignan, Deputy State Director of Civil Defense and Disaster Control told the 22 fire officials they should work with the local units throughout the state to set up an inventory of personnel and equipment available in the event of a peacetime disaster. Records of the inventory, he said, should be given to the 21 county coordinators when they are appointed and also to the state QD headquarters.

Dignan also asked the group to assist in setting up pre-disaster plans which would be agreed upon by the members of their organizations.

At the request of the deputy director, Leon A. Watson, general manager of the N. J. Fire Insurance Rating Organization, who presided at the meeting, named a five man committee to study the disaster plan and define what they thought would constitute a major disaster from a fire viewpoint. Dignan said this definition would be used by the state office to clarify any misunderstandings held by some of the groups in the state.

Wallace Lawrsen, chief of the Matawan Fire Department was among those attending.

MARINE OFFICER PROGRAM GAINS, UNIT REPORTS

Major D. H. MacDonnell, Officer in Charge of the Marine Corps Officer Procurement office New York, said today that college seniors and graduates still have an opportunity in 1954 to be commissioned under the Officer Candidate Course program.

Plans have been completed for Marine Officer Procurement Officers and Marine Officer Instructors at NROTC units to accept applications from May 1, 1954 to July 1, 1954 for the 11th Officer Candidate Course, scheduled to convene in November, 1954 at the Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Virginia.

Applicants for this class must be at least twenty years of age and not over twenty-seven years of age on July 1, 1955. They must be seniors or graduates of an accredited college or university and hold degrees in fields other than medicine, dentistry, veterinary medicine, theology, pharmacy, music or art. All candidates enrolling in this program are subject to serve three years of active service after appointment to commissioned rank.

Old-age insurance plays a big part toward allaying fears of financial insecurity on the part of the older worker who is approaching the retirement age.

HOLD BOOKMAKING CHARGE TO CLEAR

Magistrate Seymour R. Kleinberg has postponed action on a bookmaking charge against a local man to await determination of a legal issue which arose.

Granville Smith, 79 Broad street, claimed he was entitled to hearing in the local court after the county prosecutor's office had requested that the case be presented to the Grand Jury.

Smith was arrested last Saturday by county detectives in Smith's Broad street confectionery store.

RAHWAY YOUTH JAILED ON LOITERING CHARGE

One of three Rahway youths who disrupted activities at Matawan High School while roaming about the school grounds has been sentenced to 30 days in the county jail for loitering.

Police said the jailed youth, Edward Carter Mines, 21, is on parole after being involved in an Elizabeth narcotics case and will be released to a parole officer after serving his sentence.

Mines and two juveniles went to the High School Friday and said they wanted to tour the building, and Park Ave., Matawan, April 28.

Police Chief John J. Flood said. When they were denied permission to do so they went out to the school grounds and interfered in school activities there, Chief Flood said.

Police picked the youths up and called in Rahway police who identified Mines as a parolee. The younger boys were released to Rahway authorities while Mines was held for arraignment before Magistrate James H. Martin.

Thomas Cogan, 32 Park Ave., was fined $25 on a charge of cruelty to animals. Mrs. Blanche Sneddon, county representative of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, charged that he kicked a dog off the sidewalk at Main St.

DEITZ PITCHES NO-HITTER TO PACE MATAWAN

Matawan's Harold Dietz hurled the best game of the year in Shore Conference competition Friday as he came to within one batter of pitching a perfect game.

The Matawan righthander stopped Rumson with a brilliant no-hitter and would have had a perfect game but for an error on the first batter to face him in the seventh inning.

Behind Dietz's gem, the unbeaten Huskies pounded out a 4-0 victory to just about wrap up their second straight Shore Conference B Division championship. Rumson had been regarded as Matawan's chief rival for the crown and could have taken over first place with a conquest of the Huskies. The win was the fifth in a row for Coach Tony Nuccio's forces.

Deitz was the whole show. He retired the first 18 batters to face him and pitched to only 22 during the fray, one over par.

He lost his bid for a perfect game when First Baseman Al Wolf booted Bob Aumack's leadoff grounder in the seventh. After George Terry fanned, Fred Ciambone forced Aumack at second and Ed Egeland bounced out to Deitz to end the game.

Deitz turned in a dream performance, striking out six while enjoying perfect control.

He drew a fiery competitor in Don Slate, who matched goose eggs with Deitz until the bottom of the fifth. The Huskies picked up their first two runs in this frame and then iced the verdict with two more in the sixth.

In the fifth, Wolf started things by reaching safely on Dave Wheeler's error and raced to third on Deitz's single. When Terry bobbled the hit, Wolf scored and Deitz buzzed all the way to third. Fred DeNardo bounced out to third and Deitz raced home on the play.

The Huskies made it 4-0 in the sixth on a single by Vincent Vinci, a walk to Bill Votta, and Richie Lanzaro's two-run single.

The loss was the second in seven games for the Bulldogs and snapped a three-game winning skein.

The Huskies were limited to five hits, all singles, by Slate.

RAIDERS HAVE BIG INNING TO DROP HOFFMAN NINE

Keyport High School's baseball club added up a four run uprising in the seventh inning of its game with Hoffman High School to down the Governors 8-6.

The ball game was a tight tussle all the way. Keyport broke a 2-2 tie in the third with a pair but Hoffman bounced back for the two run equalizer in the fifth before the Raiders finally decided the issue in their favor.

A couple of errors enabled Bob Skislak and Carmen Davino to reach base. Hurricane Hal Shumock, who collected a triple in a previous at bat, grounded out but his out had the same telling effect as a sacrifice bunt.

Dick Wharton walked to load the bases. Skislak scored on Dave Eastmond's bingle and Pete Genovese's base knock delivered Davino.

Bob Brown's grounder to third resulted in a wild throw to the plate enabling both Wharton and Eastmond to dent the dish.

The Governors fought back gallantly in the home portion of the seventh—scoring two runs but fell short of achieving their objective.

Bob Westerdahl worked the first four and two thirds innings and was relieved by Bob Skislak. The win marked the third in four starts for the Red Raiders.

LAKEWOOD DOWNS RAIDER THINCLADS IN DUAL MEET

Lakewood took the measure of Keyport's thinclads by racking up 78½ points to the Raider's 38½ in a dual track meet.

Lakewood had little difficulty with Keyport as Hal Neal, Ronnie Vogel and Charlie Rappylea each gathered double wins.

Neal took both the shot put and javelin with Vogel tying for first in the high jump and broad jump, and Rappylea sprinted to wins in both dashes.

The Piners won every one of the track events as Jim Ogbourne copped the 440, Dick Jamison won the half, Cliff Gottrell captured the mile, Arvo Steinpeck took the high hurdles. Bob Mirro broke the streak with a win in the low hurdles.

WORLD'S BIGGEST BARGES IN

The world's largest turbine-supporting condenser, costing approximately half a million dollars, was recently delivered by barge and rail to Jersey Central Power & Light Company's $25 million power addition under construction at its Raritan River power station at Sayreville. The station is one of the company's three major production centers serving this area. The gigantic condenser is used to convert steam into water and weighs over 500 tons completely assembled. The turbine-supporting feature of the condenser is a new, efficient, cost-saving method of power plant construction. Due to the massive size of the equipment, four sections and the exhaust hood had to be transported from Chester, Pa., by barge to the plant. Above, photo 1. Sections arrived by rail from Westinghouse, South Philadelphia, manufacturers, at the Sun Ship Company, Chester, Pa., to be loaded on a barge for ocean voyage to plant. Photo 2. Huge cranes loaded sections and exhaust hood onto barge. Photo 3. At the plant site another crane unloaded pieces onto truck for short haul to plant where sections were hoisted by crane and carried through opening in the plant's wall. Photo 4. The turbine-supporting condenser as it looked completely factory assembled.

YOUR GARDEN THIS WEEK

We are approaching the season when several diseases and insects appear in gardens and we should be on the watch for them.

The bagworm has become increasingly a pest. There was a time when it was more or less limited to evergreens such as arborvitae, retinospora, red cedar and so on. Now it is commonly seen on many deciduous trees. As you drive along the roads and highways, you will see trees with hundreds of the bags dangling from the twigs. They are conical in shape and have shreds of leaves and stems sticking out of the silk-like material of which the bags are composed. In them are the eggs for this year's crop of larvae.

One method of control is to pick the bags off and burn them. You will need to go over the plants several times to be sure to get all of them. Another way is by spraying with arsenate of lead with a little flour as a sticker.

The eggs hatch from about May 1 to June 1, varying with locality. The young move about and feed for a few weeks and it is during this period that control may be affected. When they are a little more than half grown, they settle down by starting the construction of the bag which is attached to a twig.

Apply the spray between the middle of May and the middle of June.

Cedar apples may occur as glistening brown masses an inch or so long on cedar trees. This is the winter stage of a rust disease that requires two different kinds of host plants for survival. It spends the winter on red cedar and the summer on apple, crabapple, mountain ash, or hawthorn, where it causes brown spots on the leaves and fruits.

The easiest way to control the disease is to eliminate either of the host plants. However, a fairly successful control may be obtained by spraying. In the wet weather in spring, the cedar apples develop orange-colored gelatinous fingers an inch or so long. When these form, spray with a ferbam preparation (there are several under trade names) diluted according to the directions on the package. Repeat the spray in 10 days. Successful spraying prevents the spread of the disease to the alternate host.

INSTITUTE FOR CLERGY SCHEDULED AT RUTGERS

Dates have been set for the annual Institute for Town and Country Ministers at the College of Agriculture, Rutgers University.

The popular conference, which attracts rural and small town pastors from all parts of New Jersey, will be held June 21, 22 and 23, according to Charles A. Thompson, leader of extension agents, who will be in charge.

Thompson said he is announcing the date two months in advance of the institute so that governing boards of churches can make arrangements to send their ministers. Formal programs with details of the conference will be mailed later. In the past the three-day sessions have dealt with various topics peculiar to the country church and specialists at the College have brought the ministers up to date on farm developments.

AUXILIARY UNIT OF LEGION MEETS

Ladies Auxiliary Unit of Raritan Post 23, American Legion met recently in the Legion Hall.

The dark horse prize was won by Mrs. David Schanck.

It was announced that the annual convention will be May 21 and 22 in the Garfield Grant Hotel, Long Branch, starting at 12 noon.

Hostesses were Mrs. Edward Vanderbilt and Mrs. George Rinear.

Those present were Mrs. Frank Zampello, Mrs. William Holden, Mrs. Arthur McFarland, Mrs. Raymond Lindemann, Mrs. Louis Costa, Mrs. Walter Baldwin, Mrs. Joseph Piney, Mrs. John Marus and Mrs. Theodore Hauser.

HEBREW LEAGUE PLANS RUMMAGE SALE IN BORO

Mrs. Harry Thorne read the opening prayer at a meeting of the Keyport Hebrew Women's League held recently in the Synagogue, Broad street.

Plans were made for a rummage sale from Tuesday through Monday, May 17 at 39 Atlantic street, with Mrs. Maurice Cohen as chairman.

Hostesses were Mrs. Charles Goldstein, Mrs. Samuel Korobow and Mrs. Henry Bromberg.

After the business session, Bert Goldstein of Keansburg, showed colored slides of the children's Seder held April 11.

GENERAL MOTORS SHOW AT RUTGERS THIS WEEKEND

The 38 red, white and silver vehicles of the General Motors Parade of Progress will roll into New Brunswick on the morning of May 13 for a three-day showing at the Rutgers Stadium parking area, it was announced here today.

The show will open to the public at 2 p.m., May 15, and will run continuously from 2 to 10 p.m. through the 17th.

The Parade of Progress is a scientific, educational road show telling how research and engineering have benefited the country—and how they offer even greater advances for the future. Admission is free, and the show is non-commercial in nature.

Most of the Parade's exhibits are contained in Futurliners. These special, 33-foot long streamlined coaches have 16-foot side panels that open to form stages and exhibit areas.

The Parade carries its own special "Big Top"—the Aerodome. It is the only one of its type in the world, being suspended from above by aluminum alloy girders, rather than propped up from within by poles. The stage show is presented in the Aerodome, which is 152 feet long, 80 feet wide, 26 feet high and seats 1,200 persons. The show tells of achievements in such fields as electronics, aviation and chemistry.

Gen. Omar Bradley chats with two servicemen at his home in Beverly Hills, Cal., after accepting national campaign chairmanship of United Defense Fund which finances USO and other national agencies giving health and recreation services to those engaged in national defense. President Eisenhower, UDF's honorary chairman, wrote Gen. Bradley that "having moved from a fighting war to an armed peace, the nation has an even greater need for UDF services than was the case during a fighting war." UDF is financed through Community Chests or United Funds.

FIRST MEETING OF DISTRICT DEN CHIEFS SUCCESS

St. Joseph's School in Keyport was the scene of the first den chiefs' training conference conducted for the third district of Monmouth County Boy Scouts of America. Mr. Thomas Stames, Field Commissioner for Cub Scouting, who recently completed special training at Schiff National Boy Scout Training Center at Mendham, New Jersey, planned and conducted the conference. This is the first of its kind to be held in Monmouth County.

In the Cub Scout program the Den Chief is a member of the local Boy Scout Troop who is assigned to a den of Cub Scouts to assist the den mother in carrying out the den activities. On Saturday forty-six boys were given a course of instruction in conducting athletic games, leading in the singing of scouting songs and yells, the making and playing of homecraft games, puzzles and tricks, and the general principles of leadership to enable them to carry out the duties of den chief. Each boy brought to the conference samples of the craftwork of the cub scouts in his den which was placed on exhibition.

At this all day conference lunch was provided by Pack 80 of Keyport of which Harold Simmons is Cub Master and served under the direction of Mrs. Lee Luchinger and Mrs. Frank Stefanski in the St. Joseph's Cafeteria. At the close of lunch the speaker of the day was introduced, Captain Walter Hutton, of the Union Beach Police Department who spoke to the boys on the importance of the work they are doing. Robert Shafer, Field Scout executive from the Monmouth Council in Long Branch led a period of songs and yells.

At the close of the day each den chief was presented with a certificate of attendance and completion of leadership training by Mr. Stames and his assistants, among whom were Theodore Hathaway, Robert Holland and Albert Dahlquist of Cub Scout Pack 130 Union Beach, J. P. McMullan and Harold Simmons of Pack 80 Keyport, William G. Phym, Norman Noe of Pack 64 Keyport, William Morgan of Pack 61 Keansburg, Gerard Gardner of Pack 66 Matawan, Albert Peter, Ralph Benson, Weston A. Mundy and William C. Ney of Pack 10 Cliffwood, Richard Greene, George C. Roessner and William Greig of Pack 51 Keansburg, also Herbert C. Smith, Neighborhood Commissioner of Cliffwood. The den mothers attending the conference included Mrs. Dorothy Boylan of 130 Union Beach, Mrs. Lillian Simmons and Mrs. Carrie Crine of Pack 80 Keyport, Mrs. Grace Stryker and Mrs. Melva Hoff of Pack 64 Keyport, Mrs. Mary Ackerman and Mrs. Edith Wilson of Pack 61 Keansburg, Mrs. Ruth Ludemann and Mrs. Gloria Antisell of Pack 93 Morganville.

LOCAL SCOUT UNITS PLAN TO ATTEND CAMP

F. Stanley Buff, Field Scout Executive of Monmouth Council, Boy Scouts of America, will direct the local Council's first week of camp June 26 to July 3, at Camp Cowaw on the Delaware River above Columbia, N. J. The Monmouth County organization will rent the facilities of the Perth Amboy Council, owners of the camp. One hundred of the 125 campers needed to fill the reservations have been received.

Other camping opportunities will be available at Camp Lenape, Medford Lakes, and for the remainder of the season at Cowaw. Some 600 Scouts are expected to participate in the Training Camp this summer. Scout Executive Fred Billett stated that until such time as Monmouth Council secures its own summer camp, reservations are limited.

Signed up for Camp Cowaw is Troop 73, Matawan.

Tentative reservations have been made to attend Camp Lenape at Medford Lakes by Troop 80, Keyport. Practically all units attend camp with their own Troop Leaders although individual reservations are accepted if accommodations are available. All camps rented by Monmouth Council are fully equipped and offer a Scout a real outdoor experience and training in self reliance and are approved by the National Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Applegate Elected

Charles E. Applegate, Octavia Place, Keyport, has been re-elected recording secretary of Local 112 of the Monmouth County Patrolmen's Benevolent Association Inc. at recent elections held in the Long Branch Elk's Club.

PEANUTS WARDELL
WINS 3rd FEATURE
AT OLD BRIDGE

"Peanuts" Wardell of Lakewood dominated the field at Old Bridge stadium again Sunday to cop his third feature win of the season.

Winner of the two previous feature races the Lakewood driver pulled the hat-trick this time out as another large throng cheered on the new stadium favorite.

In compiling his fifth victory in eight starts, Wardell started in the No. 20 position of a 25-car field with Ray Brown of White Plains and Bill Summers of Laurence Harbor vying for the lead position for the first 11 laps.

On the latter lap Tom Colfax rammed the fence on the third turn and the race had to be restarted. The new start had Wardell move into prominence and although he was hard-pressed throughout he never lost the lead.

The win coupled with another by Country Club Doc in the 15 inch class gave Rubin three of the five trophies awarded at the season's end meet.

MATAWAN A.A.
LOSES IN DEBUT

The Matawan A.A. lost in its debut in the Mid-County League in Middlesex against an opportunist Calso Club which took the measure of the locals by a 6-5 count.

Trailing 5-4 coming to bat for the last time in the sixth, the Oilers tallied twice to win. Ky Juraska, veteran manager of Calso, delivered the key blow. His double with two away tallied Gaydos and Kovacs, both of whom had walked.

Sabine was the winning hurler and gave up seven hits, the same number allowed by Nagle and Boyce who divided the Matawan hurling.

SHEEHAN IS GUEST AT KBA DINNER MEETING HERE

John J. Sheehan, a native of Keyport and acting postmaster of New York City told businessmen in Keyport not to worry about a recession.

He spoke to the Keyport Businessmen's Association at a dinner at Cottrell's Restaurant on Old Amboy Road.

He said revenue in his office—an almost infallible barometer of business—was higher for February, March, and April than for any other comparable period in history.

The heavy volume of mail, he said, is an indication that businessmen are confident that prosperity will continue.

Mr. Sheehan was introduced by his cousin, Joseph R. Hardy, a member of the association. Charles Straub, association president, made Mr. Sheehan an honorary member of the organization.

Mr. Sheehan spent part of his talk reminiscing about the times in Keyport when he worked on trolley cars, and his early days as a clerk in the New York post-office. He has been employed there 49 years.

When he joined the New York postoffice in 1905, Mr. Sheehan said, the department had 6,500 employees and did an annual business of $16,500,000. Now, he said, there are 36,000 employees and the department handles $204,000,000 worth of mails.

He also told the club about some of the postoffice projects, and especially emphasized the postmen's work at Christmas time to see that every needy child's letter to Santa Claus is fulfilled.

They don't fill all the requests, tho, he said. He said once in awhile someone writes in at Christmas time and asks for a mink coat.

"We have no appropriations for those," he said.
