SOLDIER'S DEATH IN AREA IS CALLED SUICIDE

Bruce Mergogery, 21 of Englishtown, was found dead Saturday afternoon at 91 Farless avenue, Old Bridge, Madison Township police reported. The youth is the son of Mrs. Christina Boyce, Englishtown.

Chief Otto Kengetter said the death was an apparent suicide and the case was being investigated.

The young man was an Army recruit, stationed in South Carolina, according to Police Sgt. William Wallis.

The body was found by George Burnett when he returned home with his brother Maurice Burnett, New York, after being away for a week, Sergeant Wallis said.

Sergeant Wallis said a .300 Savage rifle was on the floor, pointed toward the youth's stomach. Also on the floor was a 14-inch kitchen fork, which Sergeant Wallis said, was apparently used to pull the trigger.

Police said he left home about a week ago.

The body was taken to the Camp Kilmer morgue.

Youth Hurts Wrist

Frederic Schraidt, Matawan Rd., was treated at Perth Amboy General Hospital Monday after a spill from his bike. The injury was diagnosed as a possible fracture of his right wrist.

Old-age insurance plays a big part toward allaying fears of financial insecurity on the part of the older worker who is approaching the retirement age.

LADIES AUXILIARY OF AREA LEGION POST MEET

At a meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of Laurence Harbor Post 332, American Legion, in the post home Mrs. William Bridgeman announced that the Middlesex County convention will be held in Perth Amboy July 10. Registration will take place at noon, and the first session will start at 1 p.m. in Perth Amboy High School.

A request was made by the past president for past presidents ribbons.

Mrs. Joseph Geores, president-elect of the auxiliary, ratified the selection of Mrs. Rollin Rathbun for secretary for the coming year.

Mrs. Andrew Carver has been named as an additional delegate to county meetings, and Mrs. Rathbun as a delegate-at-large.

Announcement was made that Mrs. Rathbun has been elected sergeant-at-arms for the Middlesex County Auxiliary.

Mrs. Geores reported that 75 pairs of used nylons had been sent to Greystone Hospital for additional television sets. Nylons may still be given to members of the unit during the summer months.

Mrs. Virgil Elwood, coupon chairman, reported 342 coupons had been collected in June. A total of 4,513½ has been accumulated for the period from October to the present time.

Unit chairmen are requested to have annual reports in the hands of their respective county chairmen.

There will be one meeting a month during July and August, the next one being on July 23 when additional secret pal birthdays will be celebrated.

A donation was voted to the Harbor Lions Club for its tag day program.

The dark horse prize was won by Mrs. John DiGiovani.

TWO FROM AREA SENTENCED ON SEPARATE COUNTS

Two Bayshore area men were sentenced on separate counts when arraigned in Freehold county court.

Joseph Mancini, Overlook Circle, Cliffwood Beach, suspended one to three-year state prison term, two years probation, and a $250 fine on a charge of receiving stolen goods. Mancini was found guilty earlier this month of receiving four stolen hubcaps at his second hand hubcap shop on Route 35, Matawan Township.

William Seeley, Jr., 33, of Maple St., Keansburg, suspended one to three-year state prison term, three years probation, and a $250 fine for carnal indecency with a 14-year-old girl in Holmdel Township.

GARAGE DISPUTE INVOLVING POLICE STILL CLOUDED

To what use, if any, affidavits signed by Madison Township police disagreeing with statements made by their superior officers will be put is clouded with uncertainty.

The affidavit, charging orders were given June 19, to bar the trucks of the Wegener Auto and Body Shop from operating on Route 35 in favor of the trucks owned by the Wilson Garage were signed last week by four patrolmen at the behest of Wegener who at that time threatened to bring formal charges against Police Chief Otto Kengetter and Committeeman James Robbins.

Wegener has retained Charles Morris of New Brunswick as his attorney, but no formal action has been taken thus far.

Both officials disclaimed any knowledge of such an order and produced a written order dated June 21 directing all police officers to call both garages on a weekly staggered basis. This, the officials stated, was the only order ever given to their knowledge.

The order was given, the officials said, to prevent further wrangling between the two towing services which they claimed had been feuding over which one was to get the bulk of the accident wrecks on the highway between the Pirate Ship and the Morgan Bridge.

As a result of a conference between Robbins and Wegener last Wednesday night, the order of June 21 was apparently rescinded and it was indicated the wrecks and breakdowns were to go to the truck arriving first at the scene.

Arnold A. Boyt of South River was elected president by the annual convention of the New Jersey Pharmaceutical Association at the Berkeley-Carteret Hotel, Asbury Park. He succeeds R. Raymond Ricciardi of Jersey City, who was elected chairman of the Board of Trustees. Ricciardi recently was named chairman of the Rutgers Pharmaceutical Conference Committee.

LICENSE OF AREA YOUTH REVOKED IN COURT CASE

A youth who eluded police in a 90-mile-an-hour chase but who was traced by the radiator hood which blew off his car in the dash through the borough paid $50 in fines and had his license revoked one year when arraigned in Union Beach municipal court.

Thomas Schwartz, 17, of Ninth street, Belford, pleaded guilty to charges of reckless driving and failing to stop for a policeman.

Police were checking for a hit-run auto at the time, they said, and Schwartz failed to stop on signal. They chased him from Jersey avenue and lost him at Route 36, they reported. The radiator hood provided identity of the car, however, according to police.

The youth told Magistrate Robert LaMura he did not stop because he "was scared."

James J. Dunne, Woodbridge, charged with drunken driving June 17, was fined $250 and paid $25 costs and his license was revoked for five years. He pleaded guilty and admitted having been convicted of drunken driving in Georgia seven years ago.

Dunne was arrested by Patrolman Joseph Nappi and pronounced unfit to drive by Dr. Joseph Rudnick, Keyport.

The magistrate ordered that another summons be issued to Dunne for failure to obtain New Jersey license plates for his car.

Dorsey Norris, Wicomico Church, Va., was found guilty of improper passing and speeding and fined $55. It was charged he passed four cars on the right and drove 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

TWO PHYSICIANS IN AREA ELECTED TO MEDICAL SOCIETY

Dr. M. Leonard Genova of Keansburg and Dr. George F. Cowling of Keyport have been elected active members in the Monmouth County Medical Society, according to Vincent J. Gorman, executive secretary.

The society held its annual outing at the Homestead Golf and Country Club, Spring Lake. Dr. George J. McDonnell, president, and Dr. Howard C. Pieper of Keyport, president-elect, were the only speakers at the banquet held in the evening.

MARINE CORPS COMMISSIONS NOW READY FOR GRADS

June college graduates of 1954 still have an opportunity to become Marine Corps Officers this year under the Officer Candidate Course program, according to Major D. H. MacDonnell, USMC.

To meet the need for officers in the grade of second lieutenant, plans have been completed by Headquarters, U. S. Marine Corps, Washington 25, D.C., for this office to accept applications for two (2) Officer Candidate Courses, scheduled to convene on August 2, 1954 and November 15, 1954 at the Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Virginia," stated Major MacDonnell.

Applications for the August 2 course must reach Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps, prior to July 6, 1954. Applications for the November 15 course must be received by Headquarters, U. S. Marine Corps, prior to September 1, 1954.

EMERGENCY POLIO FUND RAISING DRIVE DATE SET

Americans contributed nearly $55,000,000 to the March of Dimes last January, more than in any previous year, yet the sum fell short of $20,000,000 of meeting the current year's needs, Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis reported today to Roland J. Hines, chairman of the Monmouth County Chapter.

As a result, he said, it will be necessary to seek the additional amount through an Emergency March of Dimes scheduled for August 16th through 31st. The decision to hold the emergency appeal for polio-fighting funds was made late last week at a meeting of the National Foundation's Board of Trustees, he disclosed.

"MISS KEANSBURG" CONTEST TO LEAD TO STATE TITLE

The Keansburg Beach Merchants Association has announced that it will send the winner of the Miss Keansburg contest at the Belvedere Swimming Pool, July 13, to Atlantic City to compete in the Miss New Jersey pageant. It will be the first Miss Keansburg contest in 20 years.

The local group has been awarded a franchise to select the Monmouth County girl for the state contest to pick a candidate for the Miss America pageant.

Otto Barth, chairman of the Beach Merchants' publicity committee in charge of the contest, announced that it is open to any Monmouth County resident or summer resident who is a high school graduate between the ages of 18 and 28.

UNION BEACH SELLS 146 LOTS FOR BUSINESS USE

A group of 146 meadow lots were sold at public sale Thursday night by the Union Beach borough council to Charles Patterson, Keyport for $700. The property, facing Front street, Union Beach must be used for amusement or business purposes, a restriction stipulates.

Four lots on St. Johns avenue were sold to Jacob Yosen, Newark, for $100.

A new meeting of officials with borough businessmen to discuss parking problems was set for Thursday night at borough hall. Councilman George Anderson, chairman of the police committee, said he was disappointed by the failure of merchants to attend the last meeting. If there is not better attendance Thursday, he said, Council will have to proceed in the matter on its own.

Replying to complaints of garbage collection methods heard at the last meeting, representatives of the Tetro Company, which holds the garbage contract, complained of the manner in which refuse is presented for collection. It was requested that garbage be left out early on collection days, Monday and Friday and Mayor Scholer urged cooperation with the collectors.

FINE DR. MIELE $2,000 FOR DOPE PRESCRIPTIONS

Dr. Frank A. Miele, Keansburg, was fined $2,000 by County Judge John J. Giordano for illegally prescribing narcotics for a Keyport couple.

A month ago, Dr. Miele pleaded no defense to two indictments in which he was accused of prescribing pantopon tablets to Victor and Jean Ferrara. Pantopon is an opium derivative.

The indictments alleged that Dr. Miele unlawfully prescribed 20 Pantopon tablets April 21 for Mrs. Ferrara, using the name of Mary Ambrose, Beers St., Keyport, and on July 25 of last year prescribed 30 tablets for Victor Ferrara in the name of Harold Rosamani, Beers St., Keyport.

Prior to Friday's sentencing, Dr. Miele's attorney, Charles Stanziale, Newark, told the court that the defendant had "been sucked into a situation."

The attorney said Dr. Miele prescribed pantopon for the Ferraras because both were in pain, and the physician "was sympathetic."

Mr. Stanziale said that Mr. Ferrara was suffering from three cuts in the abdomen, and that Mrs. Ferrara had "an arthritic condition."

Leroy Lott, 26, at present an inmate in Connecticut State Prison, was given two three to five-year state prison terms, to run concurrently, for stealing $2,500 worth of appliances, clothing and jewelry from the home of William Dish, Holmdel Township, in August, 1951. Lott had pleaded guilty to the breaking and entry and grand larceny charges. He is serving a one and one-half to four-year term for burglary.

FIREMEN DOUSE GRASS FIRES

The Matawan fire department was called out Sunday to extinguish a grass fire on the Keough property in the Freneau section of the borough.

While that fire was being put out another alarm was turned in for a grass fire on Johnson avenue. There was no property damage in either instance.

ENDS 44 YEARS OF TEACHING

Dr. Irving S. Kuil, 70-year-old Rutgers University historian and longtime active member of the New Jersey branches of the League of Nations Association and the American Association of the United Nations, will retire next week after a 44-year teaching career. He has been a teacher and department chairman at the State University for 36 years and has devoted much of his life to the search for world peace.

KEYPORT COUPLE SETTLES SUIT FOR $7500 INJURIES

Ruth Smith, 100 Third street, Keyport, and her husband, Robert, have settled a suit for injuries to Mrs. Smith for $7,500 during the second day of a trial before a jury in County Judge Elvin R. Simmill's court.

The settlement was made with Abraham and Helen Greenhouse, owners of a building at 215 Smith street, Perth Amboy.

The Smiths had brought suit against the Greenhouses to recover for back and left leg and ankle injuries suffered by Mrs. Smith when her foot went thru a cellar door in the sidewalk in front of 215 Smith street last Oct. 13. She contended that the mishap left her with a 7.5 percent permanent disability.

The Smiths dropped a suit they had begun against John Clark, who operates a flower shop at 215 Smith street.

The Smiths' attorneys were Norman J. Currie, Keyport, and Edward W. Currie, Matawan. Robert Carton, Asbury Park attorney, represented the Greenhouses, and Albert Seaman, Perth Amboy lawyer, represented Mr. Clark.

CLIFFWOOD BEACH RESIDENTS PROTEST TRAILER HOMES

A group of Cliffwood Beach residents have asked the Matawan Township committee to bar trailers in their section of the township and to force the removal of one already located there.

A delegation of six women protested the placing of a trailer on a 25-foot lot on Arbordale avenue. They said a permanent set-up apparently was planned because a porch and garage are being put up at the site.

They asked that trailers be banned in the area bounded by Arbordale Drive, Shady Lawn Way, Ridge Road, Laurelhurst Drive and Lake Shore Drive.

Mayor John Marz, Jr., promised the committee would study the matter.

A new complaint over the water supply situation in Cliffwood was brought to the committee by Myndert Bonnema, Cliffwood Beach, who said the water pressure there drops to zero in places from 6 to 9:30 p.m.

The committee adopted a resolution which permits it to take emergency action to shut off water when necessary. Mr. Bonnema protested that payment in Cliffwood is at a rate of $120 a year and he felt if the water is to be shut off, some adjustment should be made in the charge.

Mayor Marz pointed out that the ordinance merely gives the committee power to act in emergency if necessary. Any adjustment of charges in the event it becomes necessary to invoke the power would be a separate matter, he said.

Mr. Bonnema also asked that the township planning board be activated and said he knows of no constructive activity carried out by the board. Mayor Marz said that the board has done some work, altho it has not met consistently and more activity will be sought.

The mayor reported plans for the construction of a township water plant are progressing according to schedule.

COUNTY SQUADS TO PROBE TOLL RATE COMPLAINTS

The Monmouth County Association of First Aid Squads has voted to investigate complaints by members that they were being charged for using the parkway after the Highway Authority assured the Association no charge would be made for ambulances.

Also to be investigated by the Association was a complaint by the Wall Township squad that a patient taken to Fitkin Hospital, Neptune, was refused admission by an intern because she was not brought into the ward section.

The association voted to donate a prize to the Matawan squad, host for the meeting. The prize is to be awarded at Matawan's 20th anniversary celebration Sept. 18 to the squad with the ambulance best equipped. There will be a parade, block dance, fireworks and other festivities.

The proposed new by-laws were laid over because all squads had not had time to receive a copy for study.

The Wall squad invited association members to a movie at its headquarters, Monmouth Boulevard. A Philadelphia heart specialist was the speaker.

Walter Stewart, Neptune, president, conducted the meeting. Ralph Dolan, captain of the Matawan squad, welcomed the 75 squadmen, representing 20 squads, who attended. The next meeting will be Sept. 22 at Manasquan.

BANKERS GROUP MEETS RECENTLY, INSTALLS OFFICERS

The organizational meeting of the Monmouth County Chapter of the American Institutes of Banking was held Thursday night at the American Hotel in Freehold.

Principal business of the meeting was the appointment of officers to serve with the new president, John G. Williams, of the Asbury Park National Bank and Trust Company, who was elected at the annual meeting in May.

Samuel Ziegler, of the Asbury Park and Ocean Grove Bank, was appointed first vice president; James Van Schoick, Jr., First National Bank, Spring Lake, second vice president; and Edward O. Clark, Allenhurst National Bank and Trust Company, third vice president. John J. Higgins, of the Freehold Trust Company, was named secretary and John A. Hurlbert, of the Central National Bank of Freehold, treasurer. Richard J. Cavalier, of the Long Branch Banking Company, was named chief consul.

Named to the board of governors were Harold W. Walling, J. Donald Miller, William C. Johnson, Jr., Miss Hilda M. Renner, William Warner, Elwood Gravatt, Russell S. Vanderveer, Charles T. MacLain, and James Van Pelt.

Mr. Ziegler and Miss Virginia Wooding, immediate past president of the chapter, were named co-chairmen of the education committee.

Other chairmen appointed were: Richard K. Sherman, membership; Miss Elsie Sokol, women's committee; Miss Renner, publicity; Thomas Knecht, seminar; Mr. Van Schoick, finance and budget, and Edward O. Clark, reception.

Mr. Williams and Miss Wooding, delegates to the annual convention in Los Angeles June 6 thru 12, reported on the sessions. They announced next year's convention would be in Miami.

YOUR GARDEN
THIS WEEK

Narcissus is one plant that brings up each year a number of questions. Among the most common are: When shall I cut off the leaves? Why do they make all leaves and no flowers?

The reply to the first question is the same for all spring flowering bulbs. Allow leaves to remain until they begin to turn yellow. By that time they cease to function in food manufacture. Flower buds are formed during the period after bloom and food is stored in the bulb for next year.

There may be many reasons why narcissus bulbs produce leaves but no flowers. One may be the removal of leaves before they are ripe. Another common cause is remaining too long in one place. Bulbs normally increase in number, and when the divisions become many and crowded, they fail to produce flower buds.

The process of division is speeded up by supplying too much nitrogen in fertilizer, so go easy with stimulants.

When the narcissus reach this condition, the remedy is to dig them. Separate the bulbs and plant them, each by itself.

The time to dig, of course, is after the foliage begins to ripen. You can then locate them better than after you cut the leaves or allow them to dry up.

After digging the bulbs, work over the soil in which they are to go, incorporating some well rotted manure, compost or leaf mold. You can dry the bulbs in a shaded, airy place and store them for fall planting. However, narcissus as a group, form roots early, so it is just as well to plant them immediately.

If your soil is well drained, you can plant the bulbs 8 inches deep. In this position they are not so likely to multiply rapidly. On the other hand, the leaves and flower stems may be a little shorter.

More than 6 million people are now receiving monthly old-age and survivors insurance checks under the social security program.

WEEKLY TEST ON CHILD SAFETY

(Feature No. 4)

What's Your Answer?
The New Jersey Weekly
Child Safety Quiz

The question below was asked of 30,000 New Jersey parents recently in a study of parental attitudes toward situations which may prove hazardous to children.

The study was the joint effort of the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers, the New Jersey State Safety Council, the New Jersey State Department of Health, and the National Safety Council.

It is endorsed by the Medical Society of New Jersey and the New Jersey Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics.

There is frequently more than one solution to a given situation. In the situations used in this series, however, there is one answer which would be the best of the four choices.

Check the answer which you think would be most likely to assure the safety of the child without being an unreasonable imposition on the parent. Then compare your answer with the one given below.

Mrs. Cole is sewing a dress. Eighteen-months-old Jimmy is playing around and sees her open a box with bright colored buttons, of all sizes, some plastic, some metal. He wants to play with the buttons. What should she do?

1. Hide the buttons and put off sewing them on until the child is asleep.
2. Run a loop of string through some of the buttons, tie it and give it to him to play with.
3. Give him the buttons to play with as long as he stays in the same room with her.
4. Give him only the plastic buttons to play with, the idea being that they are safe if he puts them into his mouth.

Dr. Renee Zindwer, Chief of the Bureau of Maternal and Child Health of the New Jersey State Department of Health, who prepared the questions in consultation with the Professional Examination Service of the American Public Health Association, advises as follows with reference to the situation:

Little children are apt to put small loose objects in the mouth or ear or nose and possibly might choke on them. For this reason Mrs. Cole should act according to solution number 2. Solution number 1 obviously would be quite impractical from her point of view.

The Eagle or the Oyster?

© Fritz Henle—Courtesy Cities Service Company

Now comes the season of the year when the Red, White and Blue is glorified in oratory throughout the land. Platitudes flow. Washington, Lincoln, Franklin, Patrick Henry, and Jefferson are quoted. For speakers bold enough to break with this tradition, we suggest the examination of a speech written by Merle Thorpe, editor of SERVICE Magazine, for the July issue. Theme—"The Eagle or the Oyster?"

For a people . . .
 who elect opportunism rather than opportunity, who dream of security rather than success;
 who believe political charity is a virtue;
 who mock the frugal and plunder the thrifty;
 who adopt the rule that if I don't succeed you are to blame, that what you have is as much mine as yours;
 who contend that property is a shameful sign of success;
 who whisper that failure is the nobler cause; well-being is wicked; prudence, out-of-date; sacrifice silly—for such a people a fitting emblem is the Oyster.

For a people . . .
 who faced nature in the raw, with privation the rule and hardihood a virtue;

who endured defeat, disease and disaster for a hundred years in order to get a foothold on the Eastern Seaboard, the while with one eye on the interior, a no-man's land, a cockpit for settling international rivalries and private grudges, disputed by wild animals and wilder redmen;

who sacrificed thus for a belief in the worth and dignity of the individual;

who believed that economic freedom was as important as political freedom;

who substituted "In God We Trust," for the Old World motto "In Government We Trust"; for a nation built by men who dedicated their lives to achieve the realization of these beliefs,

I give you, fellow citizens—the Eagle!

HEALTH BOARD REPORTS WATERS SAFE FOR SWIMMING

The State Department of Health announced today that bathing beaches along the Atlantic Coast of New Jersey from Sea Bright in Monmouth County to Cape May are safe for bathers.

Bathing beaches in the Raritan Bay area were said to be satisfactory except for those at Perth Amboy and South Amboy.

Determinations are based upon sanitary surveys, including inspection of sewage treatment plants, bacteriological analyses of the water, and previous years' experience.

In Monmouth and Ocean counties, the survey was carried out by local health officials and water and sewage plant operators as a combined project of the Central State Health District of the State Department of Health and the Joint Committee on Bathing Beach Sanitation. Vincent Horan, of Red Bank, president of the Monmouth County Health Officers' Association, is chairman of the Committee, and Adam Reichardt, of Oakhurst, is vice chairman. The Monmouth and Ocean Counties Sewage and Industrial Wastes Association is represented on the Committee by its president, Albert Zeitler, of Allenhurst. Coordination of the survey was handled by Harry C. Greenfield, Chief Public Health Engineer of the Central State Health District.

From Brigantine to Cape May, the tests were made by personnel of the Southern State Health District under the direction of Leigh Morrill, District Chief Public Health Engineer.

Be SAFE This Summer—ASWIM and AFLOAT

If you can, grab something firm at the water's edge and extend limb for victim to grasp and hold.

YOU can help someone in trouble even if you cannot swim! However, warns the American Red Cross, don't attempt a swimming rescue unless you have been trained in life saving. Someone in panic may pull you into the depths if you are not skilled.

If you cannot reach the victim, push an oar or piece of wood to give the victim some temporary support until help comes.

An oar, pole, line or even a towel can be extended toward the person in danger of drowning and who is too far for you to reach by hand.

Monmouth Matters

The following conversation was overheard outside of the spacious, air-conditioned jockey quarters at Monmouth Park last week. Said the jockey agent to his boy: "Better get into that sweat box. You've got to be down to 102 pounds for that last race."

"Don't worry," replied the rider. "I'm 104 now and I ride in two earlier races. That should take it off."

To which the agent came back: "Listen, kid, the way you've been riding lately you're liable to add two pounds in those races."

* * *

Polynesian, famed now as the sire of Native Dancer, was a superior race horse in his own right and made his greatest impression on fans in 1947 when he won three major stakes races at Monmouth Park on the Jersey shore.

Polynesian could go like something bewitched for a mile and one-eighth, but he considered morning work outs to be very boring. Trainer Morris Dixon, anxious to sharpen him up for one of the Monmouth classics, devised a trick. He dressed the exercise boy in jockey silks and brought out two other horses in the barn also attired for the races. The three of them "went to the post" and Polynesian responded with the best work out ever.

But at the finish, the big fellow turned and surveyed the empty stands. He must have realized he had been fooled. Dixon could never work the trick on him again.

* * *

Four speed records have been set at Monmouth Park since the beautiful oceanside course opened on June 12. That means the track is lightening fast, but many fans might wonder about its safety. An extremely fast course can often mean a hard one, and a hard track can take a great toll on Thoroughbreds. But aside from the testimony of jockeys and trainers, there is other evidence that this year's Monmouth racing surface is safe-fast. That testimony is that 45% of the favorites won during the first week of action, which means that form and class are telling and that the average two-buck bettor in the grandstand has a better than fair chance of picking winners. The national average of winning favorites, incidentally, is just a little over 30%.

MATAWAN LEGION NINE LOSES IN LAST FRAME 5-4

Asbury Park vaulted into a tie for fourth place with Matawan and Long Branch by downing Matawan in a Monmouth County American Legion Junior Baseball league tilt.

Clem Corbo's club staged a storybook finish to nip Matawan, 5-4, on a grand slam homerun by Barry Stewart in the last inning. This game was played at the Asbury Park High School Field.

Matawan rolled into the last inning on the long end of a 4-1 count and appeared to have the game on ice. Suddenly, Jim Dillon lost his stuff and walked the first two batters he faced, Gene Miller and Ray Scharf. Ken Zauber was safe on a roller to shortstop Steve Alikas to crowd the sacks. Stewart, who was hitless in three previous trips to the plate, whaled the first pitch, a high ball on the outside, into deep right field for a game-winning homerun.

Matawan scored all of its runs in the initial frame after two were out. Alikas singled, Votta walked, Tony Lanzaro tripled, Dillon was safe on Dick English's blunder and Fasso singled to complete the Huskies' scoring.

Owen went the distance for Asbury Park despite the shelling he received in the opening session. Owen was nicked for seven hits, two apiece by Alikas, Fasso and Danny Vanderbilt; whiffed eight and walked half that number of batters. Dillon was rapped for nine hits, two by Zauber; whiffed six and doled out a trio of passes.

Be SAFE This Summer—ASWIM and AFLOAT

If you find yourself suddenly in trouble, don't reach for the sky. That's quickest way down. Keep arms below surface and try to lie flat in water to keep afloat.

Pick a safe place for bathing, preferably one supervised by life guards. At least be sure someone is nearby who can help you if you get into difficulty. Distances are deceiving—swim half as far from shore as you think you can, then you'll have strength to swim back.

GOING SWIMMING? Make sure you know the above water safety rules, recommended by the American Red Cross. Best precaution is to learn how to swim. Don't try to show ability you don't possess.

AL POMPONIO WINS FEATURE AT OLD BRIDGE

Al Pomponio, Lakewood, won the 25-lap feature race at Old Bridge stadium Friday night.

Pomponio won in a driving finish from Ray Brown of White Plains, N.Y. with Duke Southern also of White Plains in third position.

On the fourth lap Pomponio drew out from 12th place to take the lead from Ed Farley. Southern was right behind the pace setter.

At the halfway mark in the race Pomponio held a half lap lead over Brown who had come from fourth position to make a challenge for the top spot. On the 21st lap Brown caught Pomponio and the two raced side by side thru the final four laps with Pomponio pulling away for the win.

In the third 10 lap heat for the feature race, a five-car pile up halted the action on the fifth lap. Al Wardell of Lakehurst turned over and Dick Stints rolled over after ramming into the fence. Three other cars then followed Stines and hit the fence tearing a large hole in it. Red Bank's Ed Soden took second place in the heat.

The second 10 lap heat provided several thrills as Jack Lineberger and Brown staged a tight duel thru the first nine laps and then Brown drew out in front to win. The race was halted in the seventh lap as Joe Catalano's car spun out.

KEYPORT DODGERS TAKE MEASURE OF UNION BEACH 9-0

The Keyport Dodgers continued their winning ways in the Bay-shore Little Bigger League race by taking the measure of the Union Beach Lions 9-0 at the high school field, Keyport, behind the three-hit hurling chore turned in by Tiny Cogliano.

The Dodgers scored runs in all but the fourth inning with single runs in the first, second and fifth frames and three runs in each of the third and sixth frames.

It was Cogliano's first decision this year and he turned in a masterful job, fanning 12 Union Beach batters and allowing only one free pass.

Hank Cleary, Dodger catcher, blasted a home run in the hitting department while Cogliano helped his own cause by smashing a double in three trips to the plate. Letts was a big stick man for the Dodgers, going three for four, all singles.

TOP AMATEURS TO COMPETE IN BOXING SHOW

Ray Arcel, boxing director of the Saturday Night Fights, stated today a new experiment will be tried with the July 10th date, which will originate from the Armory in Asbury Park, and instead of a professional boxing show, the national television audience, via ABC-TV at 9 p.m. (EDT) sponsored by the Bayuk Company makers of Phillies Cigars, will see a series of bouts featuring the top amateur boxers on the Eastern seaboard.

The program, 'Champions of Tomorrow', has been set for both July 10 and July 24 with both shows from Asbury Park. The July 10th show is a charity affair, with the Knights of Pythias of Asbury Park behind the promotion. This is the first coast-to-coast television sports program to originate from Asbury Park and is the result of two years of effort in this respect by Roland J. Hines, Asbury Park sportsman and promoter, with the director of the Saturday Night Fights.

Ray Arcel and the sponsor of the Saturday Night Fights are both enthused over the future possibilities with the bouts featuring top amateur talent. It should encourage boxing for the youngsters, about ready for professional status, and give them an opportunity to be seen by the national television sporting fans. At present many top contenders in boxing have had only 15 or 17 professional bouts, and many are only a year or so past their amateur boxing days. Some of the youngsters in amateur competition have brilliant boxing futures and the chance to show on television will encourage them to further their careers in the ring.

MATAWAN CLUB DOWNS LEONARDO FOR LOOP WIN

The Matawan A.T. handed the Leonardo Field Club its initial setback of the campaign in the Jersey Shore Baseball League Sunday afternoon, 3-1, at the Huskies' diamond.

Jim Acker registered his second shutout of the season to spice the Red Bank Legion to a 5-0 victory over the Cliffwood C.Y.O. at the Red Bank Towners' diamond.

Carmen Davino was the star of the Matawan contest with his two homers accounting for all three of the runs. Jim Schutheis collected a pair of hits for Leonardo, and his double drove in Jim Fix with the only run of the game for Leonardo.

Davino homered in the first and then cracked out another four master in the ninth with Mickey Nagle on base to win the game.

Two good fielding plays helped Bob Boyce stop the Field Clubbers. Lee Trout raced into left center to haul down a drive by Pelose with two men on, and Nagle grabbed a low liner by Bob Fix in the ninth with a man on third to help choke off a Leonardo threat.

Leonardo's run came in the fifth on a single by Fix and a double off the bat of Schultheis after Jim Brister had fanned.

Spurred on by Jim Acker's second shutout of the season, the Red Bank Legion repulsed the Cliffwood Catholic Youths' Organization, 5-0. Acker, who hurled the only no hit, no-run game of the season, last month against the Stars, only yielded three hits, all singles, to Fred DeNardo, Tony Lanzaro and Rozato. Acker fanned eight and walked two batters.

Bob Pittins only permitted the Legion four hits, one a double by Russ Wheeler. Pittins whiffed nine and doled out five passes. The Legion clustered three in the fourth and two in the eighth to earn the victory.

Ronnie Riddle opened the fourth with a ringing single to right, and raced to third when DeNardo erred on Wheeler's bounder to third. George Widger drive home Riddle and Wheeler with a single. Widger also scored, as he swiped two bases and completed the circuit on an infield out.
