Worth Her Weight in Gold?

Jackie Hansen, Miss New York Press Photographer, previews her weight in solid gold ingots before training for Lever Brothers' "Win Your Weight in Gold" nationwide contest for women only. Grand Prize in this unique chance for calorie fans will be the cash equivalent of the winner's weight in gold. At the current rate of $510.40 per pound, Jackie's 110 pounds would get her a cool $56,144.00.

Entrants will be judged on the best statement in 25 words or less telling which of the two sponsoring Rinso washday products the contestant prefers. While the winner will be officially weighed by a physician after the contest closes, August 7, 1954, Jackie checked her weight against the real McCoy at the offices of Handy & Harman, 82 Fulton Street, Manhattan, largest U. S. dealer in gold and silver.

Limited Edition

Because of mechanical difficulties, it was possible only to run a limited edition of the Madison American to supply newspapers for our regular subscribers and the newsdealers throughout Cliffwood, Laurence Harbor, Old Bridge, Browntown and Cheesequake.

We apologize sincerely if our readers, who regularly patronize our boy and girl carriers in the Harbor area were disappointed. The youngsters who faithfully distribute our papers were not to blame, for the slight shortage last week.

MADISON BODY SELLS TWO NEW BOND ISSUES

Two bond issues—one in the amount of $33,000 for improvement of the Shoreland Circle area in Laurence Harbor and the other in the amount of $66,000 for the improvement of Madison Township roads—were sold Monday night at a special meeting of the township committee.

The bonds were sold to Ryan Haner and Company of Newark on its low bid of $99,070.28 or a rate of 1.90 per cent.

The unsuccessful bidders were the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Matawan with a bid of $99,200.66 or a rate of 2.20 per cent and the South River Trust Company with a bid of $99,018.81 or a rate of 2.12 per cent.

The committee also passed a resolution granting Segal Construction Company permission to erect additional dwellings at its Southwood development in Old Bridge.

Wanted to buy, all sorts of antiques. We pay best prices for marble tables, old dolls, china and cut glass. Call Key. 7-3249, Lampost 12 East Maple Place, near Green Grove Ave.

FIRST AID MAN HURT AS CAR HITS AMBULANCE

Thomas Leslie, 50, of Marlboro Rd., Old Bridge, a member of the Old Bridge First Aid Squad, was critically injured Sunday afternoon when he was crushed between the squad ambulance and another car, on Route 9, Browntown.

Leslie is in Perth Amboy General Hospital with a broken left leg that was almost severed in the accident. Police said the leg may have to be amputated.

According to Madison Township police, Leslie's leg was crushed when a car operated by Anthony Spezzani, Osbornville, was forced off the road when struck by another operated by Miss Josephine C. Patti, 263 Pearsall Ave., Jersey City.

The Patti vehicle, traveling south on the highway, struck the rear of a car operated by Lawrence Meng, 802 Pearl St., Elizabeth, and swerved into the north bound lane striking the Spezzani vehicle.

More than 4½ million Americans, age 65 or over, are now receiving old-age payments under social security. They make up more than a third of all elderly people in the United States.

AUTHORITY CONFERS WITH STATE UNIT

The newly created Madison Township Sewage Authority reported it has conferred with representatives of the State Department of Health on the problems involved in setting up a sewerage system in Laurence Harbor and Cliffwood Beach.

Ragner S. Wang, chairman, reports the authority will keep the public informed of the progress of this project as soon as the facts develop. Other authority officers are C. Edward Hickey, vice chairman and David E. Watson, secretary.

ARREST MAN FOR BOGUS CHECKS

A 34-year-old Vineland man has been arrested by Matawan police and charged with attempting to pass a worthless check.

Police Chief John J. Flood said that he took into custody Ercole Di Orio of 417 South End Ave., Vineland, sought by police departments throughout the state for passing bogus instruments after the man had attempted to cash a $50 check at the Safeway Store on Main St.

Flood said that the store had a police bulletin describing the man, who has a reputation of cashing the bad checks in chain stores, and Ralph Roberts, Laurence Harbor, store manager, summoned police.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB IN MADISON AREA MEETS RECENTLY

The Madison Township Democratic Club, Inc., met at the home of Mrs. Mary M. Brown, Township Clerk, on Wednesday, August 18.

Nine new members were welcomed into the newly formed organization and were voted in as charter members.

Plans were formulated for a square and polka dance to be held in early October. Allen Plaisted of Old Bridge is chairman and will be assisted by Joseph Kramer of Laurence Harbor and Roy Morgan of Old Bridge.

Walter Staeger, Cheesequake, chairman of the Campaign Committee, reported that a joint meeting of the Laurence Harbor Democratic Club Campaign Committee will be held shortly after Labor Day to plan for united action in the November elections. The new organization has pledged itself to full co-operation and support of all Democratic candidates.

Mayor Walter Jurman spoke at length on the efforts being made by the Township Committee to secure an adequate water supply for the Cliffwood Beach area of the township. He told also of the Committee plans to correct the water situation in the Old Bridge area.

Michael A. Statts of Old Bridge, Democratic candidate was unable to attend because of illness.

NEW "WRINKLES" IN EDUCATION

Dean Henry C. Herge, who came to Rutgers last year to head up and reorganize the State University's School of Education, visits the Creative Art Education Workshop, one of many new Summer Session programs offered to New Jersey teachers. The workshop provided graduate level training in art education for the first time in this State. Mrs. Marion Quin Dix (second from left), president of the National Art Education Association and director of the workshop, supervises sculp-metal work of Miss Natalka Andruson (left) of New York City and Miss Julianne Addis of Pittsburgh.

NEW MINISTRY ADDED AT LOCAL METHODIST CHURCH

The Commission on Adult Work in the St. John's Methodist Church is happy to announce that it has made arrangements with Dr. Henry M. Bullock, Editor of the new magazine, Mature Years, to make this publication available to the adults of the Church who would enjoy and profit by it.

Mature Years is published quarterly and is aimed to meet the interest and the needs of the Older Christian. The Editorial staff of the magazine has spared nothing to make this Quarterly worthwhile.

The first issue to be delivered locally will be the October, November and December number. It will contain worship helps, feature stories, biographies of interesting people, poetry, picture stories, recipes, counseling material and many other features.

The distribution of this publication will be a new ministry provided by the local Church.

CRANBERRY MEN TO HOLD ANNUAL CONVENTION

The American Cranberry Growers' Association will hold its 85th annual convention at Fenwick Hall, Elizabeth St., Pemberton, tomorrow (Thursday), according to C. A. Doehlert, secretary-treasurer.

Edward V. Lipman, New Brunswick, Association president, will open the meeting at 10 a.m., following which Clifford Sims, Trenton, state statistician for the U. S. Department of Agriculture, will discuss his estimates for the 1954 cranberry crop.

Also on the morning program will be talks by five members of the Experiment Station staff—Philip E. Marucci, Robert S. Filmer, M. T. Hutchinson, Eugene H. Varney and Mr. Doehlert. Topics to be discussed include "Insect Control with Kerosene Treatments," "Blossoming and Fruiting Habits of the Early Black Cranberry," "Resistance of Certain Vaccinium Species to the Blunt-Nosed Leafhopper," and "Use of Water on Cranberry Bogs."

A brief business meeting will precede a 12:30 luncheon. In the afternoon the growers will tour the experimental cranberry plots at Whitesbog.

SOLDIERS HURT IN AUTO MISHAP ON HIGHWAY HERE

Three Fort Monmouth soldiers were hurt early Friday when their car struck a pole on Route 35 near Keyport, state police reported.

Taken to Fort Monmouth Hospital by the Keyport First Aid Squad were Pvt. John E. Phelan, listed by police as the driver, suffering shock; Pvt. Arnold Leskin, cut chin and back injury, and Pvt. James Davis, right hip injury, cut left elbow and lip.

Police said the car was going east on the highway, crossed to the left side of the road and struck the pole 350 feet west of the Six Corners intersection. The accident occurred at 2:20 A.M.

PROSECUTOR WILL PROBE ACTIONS OF PHOTOGRAPHERS

County Prosecutor J. Victor Carton has disclosed a special session of the grand jury "will investigate alleged ambulance chasing activities of certain photographer or photographers."

Mr. Carton said the grand jury session was actually called to continue and, if possible, conclude its investigation of alleged irregularities in the finances of the Belmar municipal court.

Mr. Carton said the investigation is not aimed at news photographers but at "photographers who it is believed carry police radios and get quickly to accidents and then suggest that their photos will be available thru a certain lawyer or lawyers."

The prosecutor declined to reveal more details or say what prompted the grand jury probe of the matter.

"WISH YOU WERE HERE" IN SECOND WEEK AT NEPTUNE

"Wish You Were Here" complete with swimming pool and life preservers began its second and final week at St. John Terrell's Neptune Music Circus, Neptune, N.J. on Monday, August 23. The cast is headed by two members of the original Broadway company, Robert Dixon and Sam Smith, as well as Ronnie Cunningham, Guy Raymond, Kenny Ackles, Rowan Tudor, Lee Davis and Red Bank's Evelyn Wyckoff. Joe Hill staged the Harold Rome-Josh Logan-Arthur Kober production with Al Evans at the head Music Circus orchestra.

Bob Dixon of Princeton, N.J. who plays Chick Miller left the Broadway production of the "Pajama Game" for his engagement at Neptune. He played the same role in the Broadway company of "Wish" and was also in "Lend An Ear" and "Heaven on Earth". Sam Smith is also repeating his role of Lou Kandel which he played for more than a year on Broadway. Formerly a social director in the Catskills he is a natural to play the role. Leading lady Ronnie Cunningham recently completed an exciting week playing in "The Boys From Syracuse" at the Music Circus in Lambertville as well as in Pittsburgh and in Louisville.

Localite Evelyn Wyckoff from Red Bank was at Neptune last summer in "Show Boat". Her Broadway roles include "Oklahoma", "Johnny 2x4", "The Lady Comes Across" and "Lady in the Dark".

Guy Raymond is a product of television who has migrated to the stage. He has appeared on such TV shows as the Ford Festival and the Arthur Godfrey, Ken Murray, Jackie Gleason and Garry Moore shows. On Broadway he was in "Mrs. McThing", "George White's Scandals" and "Earl Carroll's Vanities". Kenny Ackles is a professional wrestler having wrestled all the top mat names on TV. A professional stunt man he has appeared in many films. He has divided his time the past fifteen years between wrestling and the theatre.

"Wish You Were Here" will be given at the Music Circus through Sunday, August 29 to be followed by "Paint Your Wagon" the final show of the season.

HEART EXPERTS PLAN TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Six New Jersey physicians, all active in the New Jersey Heart Association, will attend the Second World Congress of Cardiology in Washington, D. C., Sept. 12 thru 17.

The Congress, which is being combined with the 27th Scientific Sessions of the American Heart Association, will be the largest and most important cardiovascular meeting ever held in the Western Hemisphere.

Heading the New Jersey delegation of doctors will be Dr. Louis F. Albright of Asbury Park, president of the New Jersey Heart Association. He will be accompanied by Dr. Frank J. Altschul of Long Branch and Dr. Samuel H. Schwartz of Plainfield, members of the State Association's board of trustees; Dr. Harry Block of Elizabeth and Dr. Henry J. Mineur of Cranford, representatives of the Union County Heart Association, and Dr. Luis Viteri of Mt. Holly, president of the Burlington County Heart Association.

The election was by acclaim in all positions except for Post Commander which position was won by Howard S. Creed, Sr., who has been Adjutant for the last three years. Upon being chosen Commander-elect Mr. Creed made a few remarks pledging his utmost during the coming year.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY KEYPORT LEGION POST

Election of officers was the prime subject taken up at the regular summer meeting of Raritan Post, No. 23, American Legion, on Thursday, Aug. 19.

Besides the commander the following were chosen to fill the other offices: Vice-Commanders John Davino, Paul Calamaras and Ted Lester; as Finance Officer Benedict Mione; Chaplain, Joseph Kimble; Historian, Lloyd Jackson; Sgt.-at-Arms, George Creed; Service Officer, Arthur McFarland; Adjutant, Dyson Woodhouse; Trustees, Ben Weikel, Homer E. Matteson, George Weinman.

HARBOR BAKERY PROVES POPULAR IN MADISON TOWNSHIP-CLIFFWOOD AREA

We hear a great deal about the advancement of the "machine age" and what it has done for industry and the home, but perhaps only the women in the household can fully appreciate one of its most pleasant accomplishments — the emancipation of the housewife from the many tasks of household drudgery to which she was formerly a slave. High on the list of these is the contribution of the bakery, in whose expert hands today can be left the once onerous burden of providing bread, pies, cakes, cookies, rolls, Do-Nuts, and all the other delicacies so much a part of good living.

The Harbor Bakery, located at 902 State Highway 35, Laurence Harbor, New Jersey, phone Matawan 1-3334, has become one of the best known bakeries, not only in this immediate area, but to a large surrounding area as well. Under the capable direction of James Cowell and George Lebert, backed by 24 years of baking experience, the Harbor Bakery has established a reputation for bakery products par excellence. Specialization is the modern trend, and he who does a job over and over again becomes most efficient at it, and as a result turns out a superb product. Nowhere is this more true than in the case of all types of baking, where it is only by repetition that sufficient skill is acquired to insure uniformly superior products at all times.

Specializing in Cakes for all occasions, such as birthdays, anniversaries, weddings, and other festive occasions, the Harbor Bakery is the source for such mouth-watering delicacies as Rolls, Buns, Do-Nuts, Jelly, French, Plain Crullers, Coffee Cakes, Cup Cakes, Apple-Pockets, Apple Turnovers, Apple, Pineapple, Blueberry, Peach and Cherry Fruit Cakes, large and small Layer Cakes and Pies, Cheese-Cake, Brownies, Mary Annes, and Cream Cakes, together with wholesome, tasty and nutritious bread for every use. The Harbor Bakery truck is a familiar sight on the road, for their delivery slogan is: "If We Can't Find 'You', call Matawan 1-3334."

Formerly located in Newark and Irvington, Mr. Cowell and Mr. Lebert, both active members of the American Legion and V.F.W., having seen service in the Pacific and on the beach at Normandy, came here some sixteen months ago. During that short period of time they have again proved the old maxim that a master craftsman will excel wherever he goes, for the public is quick to recognize and reward genuine quality. This is particularly true when dealing with something which supplies both necessities and luxuries, as does the full bakery line of the Harbor Bakery. We cannot live without bread, and life would indeed be dull without all the companion items the ingenious and talented baker can devise. Cake and pie, the very words bring pictures of delight and anticipation to our minds of cake of the finest texture, dressed in our favorite icing, and the only truly American dessert—pie. In no other country is the pie created at such a degree of perfection as here, and the pies produced by Harbor Bakery are the best that can be found anywhere and at any price. A lot of people have found, and a lot more will in the future, that right here in our midst can be found the tops in bakery products at the Harbor Bakery, 902 State Highway 35, Laurence Harbor.

OFFERS CLUBS SPEAKERS BUREAU

Clubs and other organizations in Monmouth County are being invited to utilize the services of the newly formed Monmouth Junior College Speakers Bureau, it has been announced by Dean Edward G. Schaefer.

The bureau, under the direction of George W. Sorensen, offers without charge the services of Monmouth faculty and staff members for speaking engagements in Monmouth County.

"The Speakers Bureau organizes and expands a service that has been available at Monmouth College for years. Monmouth faculty and staff members have offered, as a public service, to share through informal talks their knowledge and talents in many fields," Sorensen announced.

Fifty different offerings are listed in descriptive material which is being made available to organizations. Monmouth speakers include their professional interests as well as hobby interests, travel experiences and other avocations as subjects.

A Speakers Bureau brochure can be obtained at the College.

Sunday School, 11 a.m.
Church Services, 11 a.m.
Wednesday, 8 p.m.
Reading Room, Wednesday afternoon, 2-4 p.m.

Christ Jesus' mission to reveal divine healing which overcomes sin, sickness and sorrow in every age, will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus" will include the account as given in the King James Version of the Bible of Jesus' response to the followers of John the Baptist who asked if he was the Messiah (Matt. 11:4,5): "... Go and show John again those things which ye do hear and see: The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them."

The following correlative passage will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (131:26-30): "The mission of Jesus confirmed prophecy, and explained the so-called miracles of olden time as natural demonstrations of the divine power, demonstrations which were not understood. Jesus' works established his claim to the Messiahship."

The Golden Text is from John (1:17): "The law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ."

POLICE CONTINUE SEARCH FOR THIRD HOLDUP SUSPECT

Police are continuing their search for the third member of a holdup trio who robbed a Freehold service station operator as he drove home on Throckmorton street, Friday night. The man, Jordan A. Dillard, was last traced to his home at Fayette street, Perth Amboy where he lives.

Meanwhile, Fred (Buster) Williams, 22, the hold-up suspect who was wounded trying to elude police capture in Matawan, was reported in fair condition at Monmouth Memorial Hospital, Long Branch.

Williams, who lives at Raritan street, Cliffwood, suffered gunshot wounds of the left arm, leg and hip.

The remaining suspect, James Baldwin, 17, of Newark, was ordered held by Magistrate Arthur Goldberg for action of county juvenile authorities. The youth was taken to the county juvenile detention quarters.

Williams will be arraigned after his release from the hospital where he is under police guard, the chief said.

Dillard, Chief De Vries said, had paid a man $10 to drive him to Perth Amboy shortly after he had eluded police capture in Matawan. The man who provided the ride was not identified. He reportedly took Dillard to a point near his home in Perth Amboy.

Within a few minutes of the robbery Monmouth County police radio sent out a description of the trio and their car. About 15 minutes later, Matawan Police Capt. John Melna, alone in a patrol car, spotted the suspects' car parked at Freehold-Matawan Road and Wilson avenue.

He said he drew his gun and walked up to the car. When he ordered the three men from the vehicle, he said Williams rushed him despite three warning shots fired into the ground.

When Williams fled, the captain chased him, firing three more shots, he said. Williams was hit three times. But he managed to reach his car and drove off.

Captain Melna drove after Williams. Meanwhile his two companions escaped in the scuffle. Aided by two other policemen, Captain Melna later captured Williams after he drove off the Freehold-Matawan Road and concealed himself in a chicken coop.

Baldwin was nabbed after a suspicious resident saw him running down Main street and quickly reported the information to Police Chief John Flood.

Captain Melna said no decision has been reached on whether charges will be made against the trio for resisting arrest in Matawan. He said borough authorities first will await disposition of the Freehold charges.

WAFFENFELD'S BUILT STRONG FIRM FROM EARLY TEACHINGS OF FATHER

More persons were going out of business than into it in 1933—the year the Waffenfeld brothers formed a partnership and opened a summer variety store on Carr avenue, Keansburg.

The business outlook for 1933 was glum. Even J. P. Morgan and Company, the New York banking house, was having its troubles. The house of Morgan in May of that year reported a drop of more than $250,000,000 in its assets since the 1929 crash.

But the Waffenfeld brothers were a little too young to take a pessimistic view of things, or to worry much about J. P. Morgan and Company, the bank holiday in March, or even the worst break in the stock market in three years, which came in July.

Harvey was only 10 at the time; Paul was 13, and Arthur, 16. Today, 21 years later, they are the owners of the Keyport Furniture Company and Surprise Store, one of the largest retail furniture stores in the Shore area.

Their father, the late Maxwell Waffenfeld, came here with his family from New York in 1925 and opened a "variety business" on Front street. It was a type of five-and-dime store and he called it the Surprise Store.

Mr. Waffenfeld was interested in giving his sons practical business experience. He allowed them to help around the store, after schools and during summers, as soon as they were able. The experience proved so valuable that by 1933 they were ready to try business on their own.

"Our father gave us our first load of merchandise," Harvey explained, "and told us we were in business. Of course, we were going to school then, but we ran that store in Keansburg for five years. We were open June 1 to September 15, from nine in the morning until 10 at night, seven days a week. We were completely on our own. We had always helped father in his store, and it seemed the natural thing to do to open up our own store."

The groundwork for their partnership, as it exists today, was laid at Keansburg. Harvey did the buying, Paul supervised sales and display, and Arthur was in charge of administration. They operated then, as they do now, on the theory that if each had his own particular function "each would stay out of the other's hair."

After closing the Keansburg venture, the brothers opened a small furniture store in the basement of their father's Surprise Store, but were forced to suspend operations when they went into the service in 1940. Harvey and Paul were in the Army Air Corps and Arthur served in the Signal Corps.

Mr. Waffenfeld retired in 1944. The next year, when the brothers were discharged, they closed the variety store, as such, and reopened their furniture store in the same building. They retained the name "Surprise Store" as part of the official company title, since, by then, it was a firmly established name in the Front street business section.

The Keyport Furniture Company and Surprise Store, 9 East Front street, has grown from 1,600 square feet of floor space in 1946 to 16,000 square feet today. This was accomplished by two additions and the purchase of adjoining buildings. In addition to furniture, home furnishings and appliances are sold.

There is also an affiliate enterprise known as the Aristocrat of Monmouth, which handles jalousie windows, aluminum porch enclosures, combination aluminum doors and combination windows, and aluminum awnings. The main store is at 35 Broad street here, with a branch at 903 Main street, Bradley Beach.

The Waffenfeld brothers are married and live here with their families. Harvey and Bernice have two children, Barbara, 8, and Marc, 3; Paul and Blanche have a son, Jay, 6; and Arthur and Caroline have three daughters, Linda, 11, Maxine, 5, and Jill 3.

Harvey and Paul are members of the Keyport Kiwanis Club, while Arthur is president of the United Hebrew Congregation.

All three are as optimistic about the business outlook this year as they were in 1933. The Surprise Store, as it is generally known, attracts customers from throughout the state, and sales are up to last year's, which, they believe, is better than the retail business as a whole.

MATAWAN LEGION NINE MAKES PLAYOFF FINALS

Richie Lanzaro's grand slam clout carried Matawan into the finals of Monmouth County American Legion Junior Baseball League playoffs as the Matawan nine downed Atlantic Highlands 4-1.

The first four Matawan players to face Bob Schnabel reached base, and they all scored when Lanzaro unloaded a tremendous blast over Finkel's head for a home run. Bill Votta, first batter, tripled when Finkel got a slow start on his hoist in center field. Bert Collins and Steve Fedele drew successive passes to crowd the sacks and paved the way for Lanzaro's mighty sock.

Jim Dillon was in command all the way in the abbreviated five-inning tilt, as he limited the Highlanders to a pair of hits, a leadoff double by Ronnie Bahr in the third stanza and a single into left field by Fred Menkens in the fourth inning. Dillon fanned six and walked a pair of batters.

Schnabel was raked for six hits, two by Fedele; whiffed three and doled out seven free tickets.

Atlantic Highlands avoided a shutout when it scored a tainted run in the third inning. Bahr doubled into right field and Schnabel walked. Al Canonico forced Schnabel at second, but Bahr scored when Larry Tomasello uncorked a wild peg to first.

The only other Atlantic Highlands player to reach base was Menkens in the fourth inning, as he singled and strolled to second when Bahr drew a pass.

LEGION AUXILIARY JOINS CAMPAIGN FOR SAFETY

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit 332, Laurence Harbor, has joined the large number of other organized groups in New Jersey supporting the "Slow Down and Live" Campaign in this state, it was announced today by Mrs. George Fink, Safety Chairman of the Unit.

The Campaign was launched by Governor Meyner and the Governors of 23 other states who signed a joint declaration of war against speeders and careless drivers at the Governor's Conference held in Washington last April.

The purpose of the campaign, which will be carried on through Labor Day, is to focus attention on traffic violations that include speed too fast for conditions, following too closely, failure to yield right-of-way, improper passing and speed in excess of legal limits.

WEEKLY TEST ON CHILD SAFETY

What's Your Answer? The New Jersey Weekly Child Safety Quiz

The question below was asked of 30,000 New Jersey parents recently in a study of parental attitudes toward situations which may prove hazardous to children.

The study was the joint effort of the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers, the New Jersey State Safety Council, the New Jersey State Department of Health, and the National Safety Council.

It is endorsed by the Medical Society of New Jersey and the New Jersey Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics.

There is frequently more than one solution to a given situation. In the situations used in this series, however, there is one answer which would be the best of the four choices.

Check the answer which you think would be most likely to assure the safety of the child without being an unreasonable imposition on the parent. Then compare your answer with the one given below.

It is after breakfast. Four-year-old Susan has gone into her yard to play with her friend Joan. Dad is late for work and hurries to the garage to get the car. To make sure that the children are safe while he is backing out of the driveway he should:

1. Send the children into the house to get a cookie while he is driving away.
2. Sound the horn continually while backing out.
3. Look carefully before getting into the car to make sure that the children are not playing in the driveway.
4. Caution the children to stay where he can see them and watch the driveway while slowly backing out.

Dr. Renee Zindwer, Chief of the Bureau of Maternal and Child Health of the New Jersey State Department of Health, who prepared the questions in consultation with the Professional Examination Service of the American Public Health Association, advises as follows with reference to the situation:

Answer number 4 is the best of the choices offered. It combines protection with education. Answer number 1 would indicate over-protectiveness and furthermore take away the opportunity of teaching the children self-protection. Numbers 2 and 3 would be insufficient precautions.

YOUR GARDEN THIS WEEK

Now is the time to be working on either a new lawn or renovating the old one. Grass sown in late summer or early fall will have a much longer period to develop and will produce a better lawn than if you try to do it in the spring.

The severe drought has had its effect upon lawns. Where the soil was originally well prepared before the seeds were sown, the grass has come through in good shape. Kentucky bluegrass, which is the foundation grass for most of our lawns, grows best in cool weather. Consequently, in periods of drought, the tops may turn brown and it seems to be dead. However, the roots have the power to survive and the plants recover when rains come and the nights become cooler. If there are dead areas in the lawn following a drought, you can blame it on poor original soil preparation, insufficient fertilization, or poor seed.

The initial preparation of the soil, then, is vital. Plenty of organic matter should be used. This can be worked into the soil before seeding. Use well-rotted stable manure, compost, or one of the commercial forms such as peat or humus.

Have the soil tested to see if it is acid, and if so, add the necessary amount of lime. You should also use a commercial fertilizer—5-10-5 or thereabouts—at the rate of 2½ to 3 pounds to 100 square feet. This can be dug in with the lime and organic matter.

Rake the bed fine, and at the same time you can level it off so there are no hollows where water can settle. It is better to have the lawn surface slope gradually away from the house. If it slopes toward the house, it is advisable to make a slight depression 10 to 20 feet from the house to carry surface drainage away.

Use good seed, and in a mixture that is adapted to your particular condition, that is, sunny, shady, dry soil, and so on. We say use good seed. The amount spent for seed is relatively small. If you want a good lawn, you really cannot afford to buy cheap seed which will give unsatisfactory results.

RETAIL PROGRAM WILL BE OFFERED

For the first time a retailing program will be offered by the Rutgers University Extension Division, New Brunswick, starting in September, according to Harry

S. Layton, in charge of the State University's local Adult Center.

Intended for the owners of retail stores, their employees, and persons planning on a retail career, the program will be practical in content. Based on formal retailing standards, the courses in "Store Management and Operation" and "Retail Advertising and Promotion" will analyze vital current trends in business operation as well as activities of unusually successful stores, both moderate and large in size.

Class meetings will be organized on a seminar basis so that students may participate in open discussion, exchange ideas, and contribute solutions to basic problems.

In setting up its new program, the University Extension Division has engaged as an instructor the services of Jacob H. Jaffe, editor of a nationally-distributed retailing news letter and head of a store operation and promotion service for retailers.

Both courses will meet on Wednesday evenings over a period of 16 weeks, beginning September 22.

TRAFFIC CONTROL LECTURES OFFERED CITY EMPLOYEES

County and municipal employees concerned with the technical phases of traffic control and regulation will be enrolled in a long-range training course as part of a projected all-out program by the State to reduce the toll of highway accidents.

This was announced today by Attorney General Grover C. Richman, Jr. as he outlined preliminary plans for the course, to be started next month in cooperation with the Extension Division of Rutgers

The course will be open to qualified engineering personnel at the county and municipal levels, beginning the week of September 20 at Rutgers University and will take two years to complete. Present schedule calls for attendance one evening a week for the first year and two evenings a week the second year. Those successfully completing the course will receive certificates in street and highway traffic planning and control.

The program, as explained by Arnold H. Vey, Director of the Traffic Safety Bureau in the Department of Law and Public Safety, is an "entirely new development in the field of traffic expedition and safety." Students who meet both the vocational and educational requirements will be eligible for scholarships covering all tuition and fees, excluding text material.

Freehold Successful

Freehold Raceway's first week was a success artistically and financially, a survey of the first six days of the 1954 light harness racing meeting disclosed.

Figures, aided by Saturday's all-time attendance records show that more than 20,000 fans passed thru the turnstiles and wagered more than $900,000 for the first six days of a scheduled 50 day meet. That is an increase of 33 percent in attendance and a little more than 18 percent in handle.

General Manager Charles Davenport attributes the increases to the vast improvements at the lone trotting establishment in the state. Major factors are the air-cooled grandstand and the regraded track surface. Also, the speeded up system in pari-mutuel department should not be overlooked.

On the competitive side, longshots dominated the first two days of the meeting and favorites came back to hog the spotlight the next couple of days, which proves that the competition is keen. Add last week's fastest times of the meet by Evergreen Guy, which turned in miles in 2:07.4 and 2:08 flat, and it is more proof of the excellent quality of the track. In past seasons it took much longer; in some cases three weeks, before the sulkes negotiated the mile under 2:09.

The action at Freehold starts daily at 2 p.m., with a nine race card each day, excepting Wednesday and Saturday when the program is increased to 10 events. Daily Double windows close at 1:45.

LOCAL BOXERS WIN TWO, LOSE ONE AT ASBURY

Members of the Cliffwood Boys Club scored two out of three in Saturday night's "Champions of Tomorrow" boxing show held at Asbury Park's Armory.

Oscar Cross, 165 pounder, took the measure of Walt Belas of Newark and Joe Lester of Cliffwood flattened Paul Russomanno of Long Branch. Roger Mitter was upset in his go with Gordon Henley in a return 118 pound go. Cross was awarded a technical knockout over his 165-pound foe in 1:56 of the second round after Wilson was outclassed from start to finish. The referee stopped the bout to halt Cross from inflicting additional damage to his adversary.

Roger Mitter, Cliffwood Boys' Club, was upset by Gordon Henley in a tingling bout between 118-pounders. Mitter decisioned Henley two weeks ago in a close bout, but Saturday the Bloomfield puncher clearly earned the decision as he had the Cliffwood lad in trouble on several occasions. Paul Russomanno, of Long Branch, was the other pugilist to suffer a knockout, as Joe Lester, Cliffwood Boys' Club, put him to sleep in 1:51 of the third round on a stinging right to the jaw. Both boys weighed in at 140. The knocked out, Russomanno wasn't disgraced as he put up a very courageous fight. Russomanno never recovered fully from a jarring right to the jaw early in the first round that left him groggy.

SOPHOMORES ARE RUTGERS HOPE ON GRIDIRON

Promising sophomores and key veterans hold the answer to Rutgers University's football hopes of beginning a climb up the comeback trail this fall. At least 21 sophomores will be among the 44 candidates when the Scarlet opens training for its 86th grid season Sept. 1. Eleven lettermen return.

Coach Harvey J. Harman, starting his 13th season as the State University's head coach, and his squad will leave August 31 for Freedman's Farm, near Columbia. They will undergo two weeks of concentrated workouts before classes begin.

Leading the Scarlet against a tough nine-game schedule this fall will be center John (By) O'Hearn of South Orange and fullback Angelo Iannucci of Youngstown, O., co-captains. A three-year veteran, O'Hearn is a converted guard. Iannucci, Rutgers' top ground-gainer and all-around threat, won All-East mention last fall.

It is from sophomore ranks that Harman hopes to draw added manpower to fashion a winning season. Last year, Rutgers dropped six of eight for the Scarlet's first losing campaign since Harman came here in 1938.

Two yearlings—Bill Gatyas, a triple-threat from Perth Amboy, and Tosh Hosado, a fireplug passer from Bridgeton—may ease the troubled quarterback situation. Lanky John Fennell of Kingston, Pa., returns to that slot, along with halfback-quarterback Ron Mastrolia of Hackensack, a convertible and fiery 150-pounder.

Biggest of the backs are Iannucci, at 190, and Gatyas, at 185, but both are among the speediest. They also punt well.

MATAWAN LOSES IN JERSEY SHORE WITH LEONARDO

Matawan lost to Leonardo 2-1 in a thrilling tilt Sunday afternoon that dropped the local club into 4th place in the Jersey Shore League.

Leonardo scored its deciding marker in the fourth. Ted Lauer singled but was out trying to stretch into a double. Reut was hit by the pitch and zipped to third on Lou Dorick's hit. Carr walked to load the bases and after Eddie Bahr grounded out to third, Jackie Brister singled Reut home with the winning marker.

Coach Larry Insley's scrappy athletes took the measure of Ocean Grove, 7-2, Monday in the first in their best two out of three series to determine the kingpin of the county.

The rampaging Redbirds were preparing to meet the same team

Thursday at Ocean Grove starting at 6 p.m. In this game, which the Cards will be trying to end it all, either left-hander Alex Peters or Bob Dane will go to the mound. In his last start, Peters no-hit the highly-regarded Long Branch Badgers.

KEYPORT CARDINALS WIN COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

The Keyport Cardinals captured the championship of the Eastern half of the Monmouth County Little League finals by downing Long Branch 3-2 behind the 3-hit hurling of Jimmy Carter who bested the Badgers' Ralph Ardolino in a pitcher's battle.

Carter fanned 11 and walked only two during his six-inning effort, while Ardolino, not as sharp as usual, whiffed six and walked two. By winning, the Cards swept this best two out of three series from the Branchers, who were no-hit by Alex Peters in the opener.

John Kennedy's two-run homer with Larry Dane on in the fifth put the game on even terms for Keyport, 2-2, and in the sixth the Cardinals showed over what proved to be the deciding marker of this thrilling contest.

The Cardinals could manage only four hits themselves, but Kennedy's timely circuit plus the air-tight chucking of Carter spelled the difference.

Dan Beake, Ardolino and Lou Trebino were the only Badger hitters to tag Carter for a base knock. Alex Peters, Charlie Brown, Bill Jackson and Kennedy hit safely for the Cards.

The ball game was a scoreless affair for the first three innings, but the Badgers, who have been rather complacent of late, drew first blood by scoring solo markers in the fourth and fifth.

Keyport rallied with a pair in the fifth and one in the sixth, to change the complexion of the contest in their favor.
