DOUBLE ANNIVERSARY

Lyman G. Schermerhorn, Rutgers University's famed vegetable breeder who will celebrate his 40th year at the State University in November, poses with his best known "offspring," the Rutgers tomato, a variety now known from South Africa to New Zealand. "Rutgers", accounting for more than 75 per cent of New Jersey's $10,000,000 annual tomato crop, will be 20 years old on Sept. 19.

Call Meeting To Halt Erosion Damage To Bayfront Areas

While residents and visitors are preparing for the season's last long week-end at the seashore, State and local officials are considering projects for more and better public beaches in 1955.

A meeting on Friday, Sept. 3, has been called by Dr. Joseph E. McLean, Commissioner of the State Department of Conservation and Economic Development. Representatives will gather at 10:30 a.m., at the Borough Hall, Seaside Park, for a morning session on beach erosion applications; the afternoon period will be concerned with requests for dredging improvements on the inland waterways.

Friday's meeting is intended to give all municipalities along the Raritan Bay and Atlantic Ocean a chance to apply for State aid for shore preservation. Funds for combating beach erosion and preserving existing beaches are granted on the basis of 50 per cent State and 50 per cent local participation.

As a basis for discussion at the Friday meeting, seashore officials recently were asked for detailed information on their beaches and beach erosion conditions. In order to indicate their need for State aid, they were asked to describe the urgency of the need and the extent of beach erosion, indicating

AUTHORITIES IN NEW YORK FEAR NEW TRUNK SEWER

New York's Assistant Health Commissioner Jerome Trichter and Dr. Natale Colosi, a member of the Interstate Sanitation Commission, have expressed fears that the proposed Raritan Valley Trunk sewer may make the lower Raritan Bay area filthier than before.

Trichter said the department is

School Enrollment

Parents are reminded that all beginners in the Madison Township school system must enroll Friday, September 3rd at the various schools in the township. Enrollment must be made for all beginners regardless of any previous registration they may have made in the spring of this year.

This week we are reprinting, as a public service the schedule of classes in all grades and schools in Madison Township. The schedule may be found on page 2 of this issue.

LAURENCE HARBOR LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS RECENTLY

The regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 332, Laurence Harbor was held at the Legion Home. Mrs. William Bridgeman presided. Donations were voted for the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation and to the Emergency Polio Drive.

It was announced that all delegates and alternates who plan to attend the State Legion Convention in Wildwood will try to bring a white dress so that they can participate in the Installation Ceremonies of the newly elected president.

Mrs. Robert Hehn was a visitor at the meeting. The group will hold a bingo at the Menlo Park Veterans Hospital on October 14, for the patients.

Mrs. Andrew Carver, installation chairman, announced that plans are being completed for September 18, 1954.

Miss Mary Reiher was the winner of the special prize.

Secret Pal Birthdays were celebrated, with gifts and cakes exchanged for the following. Mrs. Ann Mullen, Mrs. John Ochsner and Mrs. John Hart.

Mrs. John Vachitis, Sick and Shut In chairman announced that she sent cards and gifts to ill members of the Auxiliary and several members of the local Post.

FIRE DESTROYS FRUIT STAND

Fire Monday night destroyed the Richfield Farm Drive-in, Highway 9, Browntown, despite efforts to save the fruit and vegetable stand by fire fighters from five surrounding communities.

Fire broke out in the stand, owned by John Dressler, Highway 9, shortly after 7 p.m. Dressler and his family had left the Drive-in a half hour earlier to attend a motion picture. Cause of the blaze was not determined.

Fire companies from Freehold, Freneau, Morganville, Matawan and Marlboro Township assisted at the scene.

ROBBERY OF AREA RENTAL AGENT REPORTED

State police are investigating the holdup of a renting agent Saturday night at an unfinished dwelling in the Southwood Estates development in Old Bridge in which bandits escaped with a total of $545 in cash and checks.

H. J. Bittings, 58, of South Orange, the agent, told police he was putting away a sprinkler in the shed at the rear of the model home he uses for an office at about 9 p.m., when somebody thrust a "hard object" into his back and told him not to turn around. He noticed, however, that there were two men.

The men took his billfold containing $340 in cash and $205 in checks. The money represented down payments and other fees he had collected during the day, Bittings said. The development is in the process of construction and was deserted at the time of the robbery.

Before leaving, the bandits took the ignition key of Bitting's car and tore out the telephone of the model home.

STATE POLICE AT LOCAL BARRACKS FIND WEAPONS

State police at the Keyport barracks disclosed they picked up two Hillside youths in a car full of guns and knives late Saturday night in Sayreville.

The youths are suspected of an armed holdup in a housing development in Old Bridge which netted them $320. They were turned over to New Brunswick state police.

The youths were Edward Joubert, 18, and Richard Kesil, 18, both of Hillside. They were arrested in a check of cars by Sgt. Daniel Barclay and Trooper John Edwards of the state police.

Police said they found in the car a loaded 22-caliber revolver, a 20-inch Navy machete, a six-inch switchblade knife, a carving knife, a five-inch hunting knife, a sharpened file and a penknife.

Both were charged with carrying concealed deadly weapons, and held in default of bail.

It pays to advertise in this newspaper.

A westerly wind shift shortly after 9 a.m. yesterday was credited with saving many homes in the Morgan and Paul's Beach sections of Madison Township as gale force winds whipped the waters of Raritan Bay shoreward well over the regular high water mark.

High water yesterday threatened sections of Union Beach, Keansburg, Keyport and other communities to the north as the Hurricane Carol swept past the area on a northeasterly course.

In Keyport, high water inundated portions of Cottrell's Restaurant property and swept in behind the bulkhead and Marine Park on West Front St. Several sailboats at the Keyport Yacht Club anchorage were overturned by the high waves.

Power failures were reported in sections of Keansburg, Keyport and Laurence Harbor while police were kept busy checking for fallen tree limbs and wires that littered some sections.

PUC DENIES GAS RATE BOOST FOR NATURAL GAS CO.

The State Public Utility Commission Monday denied the New Jersey Natural Gas Co. a $627,000 annual rate hike but indicated the company could make a new request for higher rates if its costs increase.

The PUC said the company's earnings, in relation to its existing investment and operating costs, "are not unjust, unreasonable, or insufficient."

As part of its proposed rate increase, the company wanted a "purchase gas adjustment clause." Customers of the company objected on grounds the clause would permit the company to hike its rates automatically whenever there was an increase in the cost of natural gas piped into New Jersey from the Southwest.

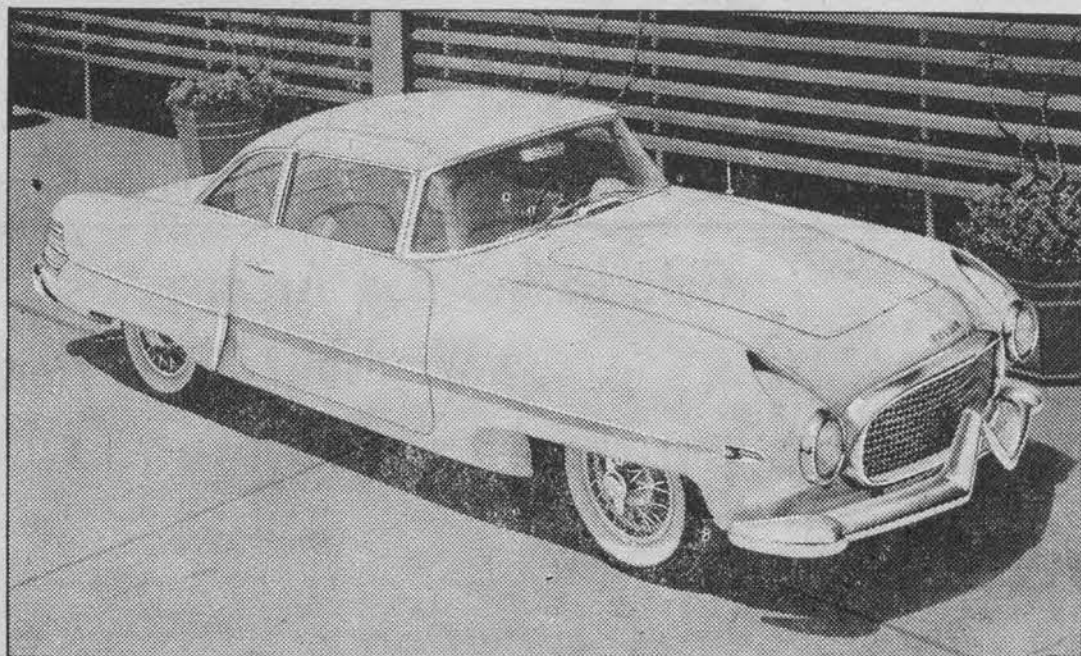

The New Jersey Natural Gas Co. serves about 92,000 customers in some 192 communities scattered through Cape May, Middlesex, Monmouth, Morris and Ocean Counties. The firm supplies a mixture of natural and manufactured gas.

Food Sale

A food sale was conducted Saturday by the Boys Club of Cliffwood Beach. Winner of the bonus basket as announced by George Witzel, Club supervisor was Miss Peg Deerin, Tudor City, New York. All members of the club turned out to make the sale a success.

AREA WOMAN INJURED IN 3-CAR ACCIDENT

Mrs. Kathleen A. Lewis, Union Ave., Centerville, was slightly injured Saturday night in a three-car accident near Heddens Corner, Route 35, in Middletown Township, police reported.

She was treated at Riverview Hospital and released.

Police said the driver of one car, Demetrius Schur, 32, Florence Rd., had slowed down going south on Route 35, causing Mrs. Lewis, the driver of the second car, to slow down behind him. Police said her car was hit in the rear by a car driven by Frank F. Grenger, 42, 29 Manning Pl., Keansburg. Mrs. Lewis' car in turn hit the rear of Mr. Schur's car.

LICENSES OF TWO REVOKED IN AREA

Licenses of two area motorists have been ordered revoked by the Motor Vehicle Department under the New Jersey Traffic point system.

The drivers license of Saunders Coakley, Jr., 20, of 5 Orchard St., Matawan, was revoked for 90 days for four careless driving convictions.

Anthony Ricci, 20, of Cliffwood Ave., Cliffwood, drew a 6 months revocation for red light, two careless driving and two speeding convictions.

OVER 60 MEMBERS OF LOCAL WITNESSES ATTEND MEETING

More than 60 members of the Keyport congregation of Jehovah's witnesses have returned from their weekend Circuit Assembly at the Armory in Morristown, N.J. 2039 persons gathered there Sunday afternoon to hear the principal speech "Is Civilization's End Near?" delivered by J. W. Stuefloten, district representative of the Watchtower Society.

Several residents of this area participated in the assembly program. Miss Rose Marie Baylis, of Ravine Road, Matawan, took part in a platform discussion on missionary service. Explaining why she entered this work, Miss Baylis stated: "The full time ministry resulted in the most profitable use of time. More can be accomplished toward the betterment of the community through service to God than in any other way."

Elizabeth Baylis, her sister answered to a similar question. "The joys and blessings that others experienced motivated me to take up evangelical work full time. Now that I have been in it for a year and a half it is evident that there is a hunger and thirst for God's word everywhere and it is a real joy to fill this need."

Others on the program were Lewis VanDyk, his wife, Barbara, Edward Gaskins of Wickatunk, and Mrs. Rose Capraun of Cliffwood.

VanDyk, using the theme "Thoroughly Accomplish Your Ministry," led a discussion with the others, pointing out the necessity of engaging in all of the various phases of preaching activity in order to be efficient ministers.

Fifty-three persons were baptized at the immersion service on Saturday at 1:30 p.m. According to Jehovah's witnesses, baptism symbolizes one's dedication to do God's will and the organization then acknowledges that person as a minister. Among those baptized were Peggy Miller, Joseph Miller, Sr., and Erna Thompson.

Lewis VanDyk, presiding minister in Keyport, said that this assembly was very successful and many suggestions were received which will enable the local congregation to improve its Bible work.

BIDS RECEIVED FOR WORK ON NEW MATAWAN SCHOOL

Bids on a proposed 10-room elementary school in Matawan have been received by the Matawan Township Board of Education.

One board member said a rough estimate of the low bids submitted on a 10-room cement block structure shows that each room will cost about $19,000. Contractors submitted alternate bids on a 12-room structure and different types of construction. The board will study the bids and will then set a date for a referendum and the amount of a bond issue voters will be asked to approve.

The Matawan school district has a borrowing capacity of about $210,000.

The proposed school will be built next to the Church street elementary school in the borough. If ten rooms are constructed they will have a capacity of 350 pupils.

Board Architect Frederick Fessler said the school can be completed by April, 1955, if voters approve the outlay soon.

Here are the bids submitted.

PHILIP CASSIDY IS NAMED TO UNION BEACH COUNCIL

Philip Cassidy, Democratic Council candidate in the November general election was appointed as a member of the Union Beach borough council at its regular meeting to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Councilman Joseph F. Donnelly on August 17.

Mr. Cassidy, an electrical contractor, lives at 716 Jersey avenue and has been a borough resident for nine years. He was assigned Mr. Donnelly's committee posts, including chairmanship of the streets and roads committee.

Councilman Carl Dibling, senior member of the board, was named Council president, a post held by Mr. Donnelly.

Expansion of the production capacity of the water plant was seen in discovery of an old well that will produce good water at 400 gallons a minute.

Council ordered advertisement for bids for installation of a pump in the well, which is outside near the present plant. Councilman Dibling said the well had not been used in 25 years. He said there was need for the added supply and it would be of great value in emergency.

Mr. Dibling said work is progressing on the checking of water meters. The borough has adopted a policy of charging for water actually used, abandoning the old system of charging a flat rate. Mr. Dibling said it is surprising to find how much more water is being used in many cases than was being paid for.

Mrs. Evelyn McCoy was named a member of the local assistance board.

It was announced that a contract probably will soon be let for the bulkheading project along the bayfront. Bids for the work exceed estimates, and the state, county and borough all have agreed to make up their shares of the difference. The project is jointly sponsored.

conducting a thorough study of the sewer line and its outfall which is expected to be placed in the Raritan Bay off South Amboy.

Both Trichter and Dr. Colosi expressed doubt that the sewer will curb pollution in the Lower Bay. They said it might make the water filthier.

If the health department's study bears out this fear, Trichter said, it will oppose the entire project before the Interstate Sanitation Commission. The New York City Department of Public Works, which is in charge of constructing the city's own sewage treatment plants, is also awaiting results of the study.

Dr. Colosi, a longtime fighter against pollution of New York Harbor, questioned the sewer authority's contention that the sewage system will improve conditions for clamming in Raritan Bay. Instead, he said, "it may well doom the industry and become a definite threat to future use of our beaches for bathing."

Dr. Colosi pointed out that the sewer outfall would spill 100,000,000 gallons of concentrated effluent daily only a short distance from extensive clam beds. He questioned whether the primary treatment given the sewage would be effective in eliminating industrial wastes.

The contemplated treatment plant at Sayreville, he said, will only skim off solids and precipitate certain others by the use of chemicals.

Trichter said that the system of chemical treatment designed for waste from major industrial plants along the Raritan River might be effective as long as a given plant kept to the same industrial formula, but might lose its effectiveness if the company made a shift.

Call Meeting To

ing whether it imperils existing roads or structures. They were asked whether the area to be protected is open to the public and whether use of the beach increased or decreased during the 1954 season. Municipalities were further asked whether the aid they request is part of a Master plan for the future development of their beachfront.

RESIDENTS OF LINE ROAD HIT DUST CONDITIONS

A delegation of Line road residents appeared at a meeting of the Matawan Township committee to protest dust conditions and damage caused by heavy trucks on the road.

Mayor John Marz assured the group that the committee would investigate the conditions and added that the road was included in this year's resurfacing program.

Nicholas Tangax told the committee that heavy trucks hauling for the Garden State Parkway construction used the road and had cracked plaster and foundations in his home, which stands near the road.

He said he had filed a $3,000 damage claim with the township attorney. Another resident, Mrs. Angelina Gerace, announced her intention of filing a similar claim.

William Mohrbutter estimated that his farm had sustained losses of about $700 due to the dust. The farmer said ten rows of peach trees and a whole field of cabbage were made unmarketable by the dust and brought a bushel of the dust-blighted peaches to the committee meeting to prove his point.

In other business, Mrs. Rose Wenzel, township clerk, said that a public auction sale of township held property August 16 had resulted in the sale of 55 lots for a total of $5,158.

MATAWAN POLICE PETITIONS ASK FOR PAY RAISE

Petitions have been placed in circulation in Matawan to have a referendum placed on the general election ballot in November for a salary increase for members of the borough police department.

Should 20 percent of the registered voters sign the petitions by Sept. 22, which is 40 days in advance of the general election, they can be submitted to the County Board of Elections and the proposition can be certified for inclusion on the ballot.

Policemen are seeking raises of $500 a year. If the referendum should be approved, the chief's salary would be $5,000 a year; the captain's $4,500; patrolmen of long service, $4,000; patrolmen of short service, $3,632 and probationary officers, $3,441.

THREE AREA MEN ARRESTED BY FBI IN TRUCK THEFTS

Three Bayshore area men were arrested by the FBI in connection with the theft of numerous articles from the Apex Express Company, Perth Amboy. FBI officials said a total of $80,000 worth of goods has been stolen by a group of ten men.

Arraigned and released in $500 recognizance bond were William Siegel, 31 Aberdeen Rd., Matawan, and William Wilson, Central Ave., Union Beach.

FBI officials later announced the arrest of Albert Arnold, 43, of 117 Osborn St., Keyport, in connection with the thefts.

LABOR DAY ENTRY—

MUSIC CIRCUS HAS
"PAINT YOUR WAGON" ON BILL

"Paint Your Wagon", Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe's tuneful Broadway musical hit opens a weeks engagement at St. John Terrell's Neptune Music Circus, Neptune, N.J. on Monday, August 30. "Wagon" which had a full season's run on Broadway three years ago and later an extended road tour has some of the most captivating music ever written for a Broadway show.

Lerner and Loewe are expert tunesmiths also having written "Brigadoon". The music in "Paint Your Wagon" includes such hit songs as "I Talk To The Trees", "They Call the Wind Maria", "I Still See Eliza" and "I'm On My Way", "How Can I Wait?", "In Between" and "Movin'". The Music Circus production of "Paint Your Wagon" is one of the better productions that they do. Last season it had an extended sell-out run at the Music Circus in Lambertville.

Featured in the cast are Edwin Steffe, Susan Lovell, Nat Burns, William Shriner, Paul Ukena, Rowan Tudor, Mitchell Gregg, Marijane Maricle, and Joe Hill who will also stage the production. David Lober will devise the choreography. Al Evans will lead the Music Circus orchestra.

Edwin Steffe who plays Ben

Mrs. Richard Pavlik
Recent Bride

Rumson has been featured at the St. Louis Municipal Opera Co. for the past five years. He came East last season for the first time to perform at Lambertville. Susan Lovell who plays Jennifer Rumson his daughter had a prominent role in "Me & Juliet" on Broadway last season and later toured with the company. She appeared in "The Countess Maritza" at Lambertville last week. Marijane Maricle is repeating her original Broadway role. She was also in "Finian's Rainbow" and "Can-Can" on Broadway.

William Shriner is a graduate of the Music Circus ranks having been the stock baritone at Lambertville during the 1951 season. Since then he has been performing regularly at the New York City Center Opera Company, and is also a great favorite on the concert circuit. Mitchell Gregg appeared on Broadway in the revival of "Music in the Air" and also in "Panama Hattie". He was seen here earlier this season singing "Every Day is Ladies Day" which was announced recently.

The course grows out of the New Jersey Prevention of Chronic Illness Act of April 1952, which provided that as part of the total program of preventing, caring for, and rehabilitating the chronic ill, the development of homemaker services would be stimulated.

GENERATOR ARRIVES

The stator section of a new 137,500-kilowatt turbo-generator (right) stands outside entrance to the $25,000,000 addition (light colored portion of building) under construction at the Raritan River electric generating station of the Jersey Central Power & Light Company at Sayreville. The unit weighs more than 200 tons and will require about 10 days to be transferred from a railroad flatcar to its place within the station. Manufacture of the generator was begun by General Electric about two and a half years ago. Installation of the generator and associated equipment will increase the present capacity of the station, now capable of generating 100,000 kilowatts, by 137.5 per cent. Upon completion of the addition, now scheduled for February, 1955, JCP&L will have increased its electric generating facilities nearly three times during the post-war period at a cost of about $42,000,000.

MATAWAN WINS
BASEBALL CROWN

Matawan won the playoff Championship of the Monmouth County American Legion Junior Baseball League as it won the third and deciding tilt from Oakhurst, regular season champions by a 4-0 count.

Coach Russ Hibbetts of Oakhurst protested the game in the second inning after Umpire Bill Karrberg tossed Richie Lanzaro out of the game for tossing a bat in the direction of the mound after he was struck out on a near-wild pitch. The basis of the protest was that Matawan played the remainder of the game with only eight men, as it failed to have any substitutes at the game.

It will be up to the league officials to decide on Oakhurst's protest before Matawan can be officially declared the playoff champion. As it stands, Matawan retained the playoff crown that it won last year when it beat Belmar. Oakhurst won the regular-season's diadem the past two campaigns.

Ed Ostrowski was the star of the title tilt, as he scattered three hits, all of the extra base variety. Bob Brandt nicked Ostrowski for a double and a triple in the second and fourth innings, respectively, while Andy Garrity belted a double in the fourth inning. Ostrowski fanned seven and only walked one batter, Ken Hamernick, the first Oakhurst player that he faced.

"Red" Duffin turned in a respectable mound job for Oakhurst, holding Matawan to a quartet of hits. Duffin was in frequent trouble due to the four passes that he issued. Duffin struck out eight, Oakhurst and blanked Matawan after he yielded three runs in the first inning and one in the second stanza.

Matawan virtually iced the fray in the first inning with a three-run explosion. Bill Votta singled, moved to second on a passed ball, took third on a wild pitch and completed the journey when Gibson dropped Burt Collins' hoist into center field. Steve Fedele walked, stole second and scored behind Collins on Jim Dillon's ringing single to left-center field. The last run of the game came in the second inning when Votta walked and raced home on a booming double by Collins.

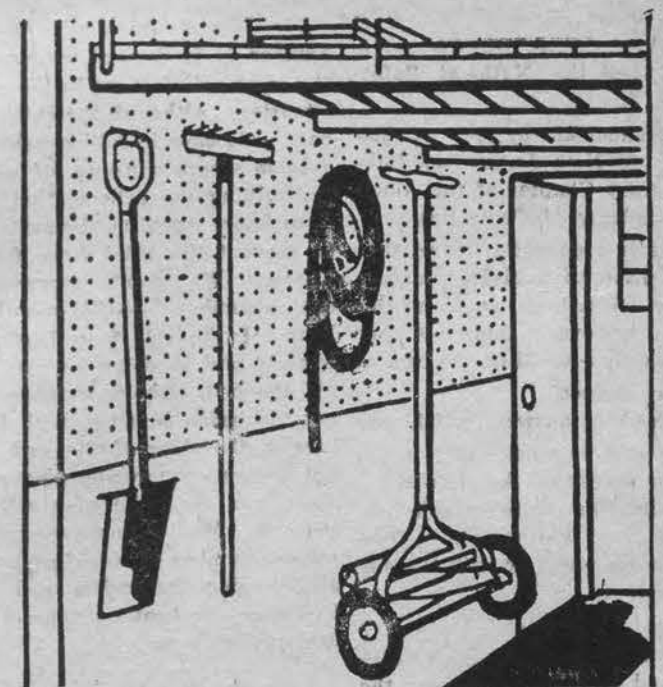

Oakhurst appeared to have scored when Garrity doubled and Brandt followed with a triple in the fourth inning. Steve Fedele noted that Garrity missed third on his way home, and called for the ball. Garrity was called out on the appeal play. This was Oakhurst's only serious threat.

Matawan filled the bases in the fourth inning after two were out on a single by Votta and successive passes to Collins and Fedele. This threat was ended when Umpire Karrberg called Lanzaro out, as he was unable to bat due to his ejection in the second stanza.

WEEKLY TEST ON CHILD SAFETY

What's Your Answer? The New Jersey Weekly Child Safety Quiz

The question below was asked of 30,000 New Jersey parents recently in a study of parental attitudes toward situations which may prove hazardous to children.

The study was the joint effort of the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers, the New Jersey State Safety Council, the New Jersey State Department of Health, and the National Safety Council.

It is endorsed by the Medical Society of New Jersey and the New Jersey Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics.

There is frequently more than one solution to a given situation. In the situations used in this series, however, there is one answer which would be the best of the four choices.

Check the answer which you think would be most likely to assure the safety of the child without being an unreasonable imposition on the parent. Then compare your answer with the one given below.

The Simons and their 5½-month-old baby are visiting the Whites for the day. When it is time for the baby's nap Mrs. Simon faces the problem of where to put the baby to sleep, since she had forgotten to bring along his portable crib. Which of the following solutions is the best?

1. Mr. White suggests letting the baby sleep on the big double bed in the bedroom next to the living room and leaving the door slightly open.
2. Mr. Simon would like to place the baby on the plastic covered love seat in the living room corner and back some heavy chairs against the open side.
3. Mrs. White offers to pull out an old crib which is clean and in perfect condition except that the hinges on the sides are loose.

4. Mrs. Simon thinks it best to make the baby comfortable and hold him in her lap while he sleeps.

Dr. Renee Zindwer, Chief of the Bureau of Maternal and Child Health of the New Jersey State Department of Health, who prepared the questions in consultation with the Professional Examination Service of the American Public Health Association, advises as follows with reference to the situation:

Mr. Simon's suggestion (choice number 2) is the one we consider the most satisfactory in the given situation. Although the child may be a little slow in falling asleep in a room where a group of adults are talking we believe that the disturbance would not be sufficient to prevent the child from falling asleep. We don't approve of choice number 1—a 5½-month-old baby may be able to roll over by himself and in doing so may fall off the bed. Choice number 3 is not desirable because, with loose hinges, the sides of the crib are not secure enough and may come down and the child may roll off the crib. Mrs. Simon's suggestion (choice number 4) would cause her considerable discomfort and furthermore indicates unnecessary over-protectiveness.

YOUR GARDEN THIS WEEK

Pruning many of the so-called climbing roses in summer presents several problems. In the case of the ramblers (small flowers in clusters), the entire old top may be removed, thus avoiding much danger of becoming hooked on the thorns.

The so-called everbloomers, the large flowered type (like Silver Moon and Dr. Van Fleet) and the climbing hybrid teas do not always behave like the ramblers in developing several new canes from the base. Besides, these throw some flowering shoots from older wood.

The problem is somewhat similar, however, in that we like to have a renewal of the top. Pruning of these plants is better deferred until winter, but some gardeners like to prune when bloom is past. Then, too, the plants will make some growth to give desirable flowering wood next year.

Pruning when plants are in full foliage necessitates more care. As little damage as possible should be done to the leaves that are to remain.

The pruning is essentially one of thinning. Cut down to 6 to 12 inches about one-third to one-half of the oldest canes. The age can be determined by the quantity of brown or hard bark formed. Often these plants will start a new strong cane two or three feet from the base. In such cases, cut just above the new cane.

The several portions can often be removed without damaging the remainder by cutting them up into smaller pieces. Note that the thorns hook downward. So, in removing a piece cut off, pull it upward, and in this way you will do less damage to the foliage that is left.

A leather jacket or one with leather arms and a pair of leather gloves are good companions of the pruning shears or lopping shears when pruning climbing roses.

MATAWAN LOSES TO RED BANK IN LEAGUE PLAY

The Red Bank Towners defeated Matawan AA 13-0 in six innings behind John Overton's no-hit, no-run effort, in a regular Jersey Shore Baseball League tilt Sunday.

The Puerto Rican Stars left the winless ranks as they were awarded a pair of forfeit victories over the Cliffwood Catholic Youths Organization nine that dropped out of the circuit last month.

Ralph Mazzucca and Bud Dupree sparked the Towers' attack with two and three hits respectively. Mazzucca unloaded a three-run homer in the third inning, and Dupree singled for two runs with the bases filled.

Overton fanned 10 and walked two in his no-hit effort. The fireballing southpaw faced only 21 men in six innings. He struck out the side in the second and fifth innings.

FINAL WEEK OF BORO RECREATION PROGRAM ACTIVE

The Keyport Recreation Program, which has continued for eight weeks during the summer months, closed its regular activities this past week with a trip to the Hunt Brothers Circus in Matawan and a special crabbing event along the Raritan Bay shore.

Earlier in the week, the championship baseball team and horse-shoe thrower was determined by contests.

Monday, the Athletics little bigger league team defeated the Laurence Harbor Gulls 8-6 in a 10-inning ballgame. In the horse-shoe event, Garry Poti, Richie Webb, Charles Ochinegro, Fred Rothenberg, Leo Mania and Tom Baron were prize winners for the boys while Rose Kirk and Ruth Tomlinson copped the honors for the girls.

Noel Raynor won first prize in the crabbing contest held Thursday with Fred Rothenberg and Charles Ochinegro finishing second and third respectively.

The summer program, sponsored for the first time this year by the borough, included sixteen special events and trips for the town's youngsters. Attendance was close to 7,000 during the eight week program.

Oakley Pandick, supervisor, expressed his thanks to all those persons and firms along with the many civic organizations in the community which aided the success of the summer program.

BOW AND ARROW HUNTING SEASON DATES LISTED

If you plan to do any bow and arrow hunting this fall make sure your arrows are fitted with edged heads which are at least three-fourths of an inch across at the widest point.

This proposal was approved at a public hearing by the New Jersey Fish and Game Council in the State House Assembly chamber.

Banned by the Council was hunting with a bow and arrow from any vehicle, whether moving or stationary.

Another proposal—aimed at declaring illegal all bows of less than 40 pounds pull—was voted down.

A suggestion that bow-and-arrow hunting be prohibited after darkness also was rejected. Approved was a substitute proposal that such hunting be prohibited between one-half hour after sunset to one half before sunrise.

All other hunting proposals were accepted. These included:

Small game season starts 9 a.m., Nov. 6, ends Dec. 11 for cock pheasants, cottontails, and jack-rabbits. Season reopens Dec. 20, and runs thru Dec. 31 for grouse and squirrels.

Quail hunters received a bonus. The season runs Nov. 6-Dec. 11. It reopens Dec. 20 and lasts until Jan. 15, rather than Dec. 31. This gives hunters an additional 15 days to bag quail. However, the council emphasized that a 1955 license would be required to hunt during the 15-day extension period.

The extension was approved after wildlife experts told the hearing that there was an abundance of quail in the southern end of the state.

The firearm season for bucks will run Dec. 13-18. Bow-and-arrow season for deer of either sex runs Oct. 16-Nov. 5.

Trapping season—starts 6 p.m. Nov. 30, ends March 15. On state public shooting and fishing grounds: starts 6 a.m. Jan. 1, and ends March 15.

DRIVER IS FINED ON DRUNK COUNT IN MATAWAN COURT

Two motorists were fined $236 and one loiterer was sentenced to 15 days in the county jail when arraigned in Matawan Municipal Court.

Lawrence E. Ferguson, Freeport, L. I., arraigned before Magistrate James H. Martin on a drunken driving charge was fined $200 and court costs of $3. He also paid a $20 fee for a medical examination by Dr. S. M. Lazow.

Arraigned on a careless driving charge, John R. Frischmyer, Freehold, paid a fine of $10 and court costs of $3.

Joseph Scott, 19 Orchard St.,

Matawan, for loitering on the streets of the borough, was sentenced to 15 days in the county jail at Freehold.

DRUNK DRIVING CHARGE LEVIED AFTER AUTO MISHAP

Albert J. Collins, Jr., 29, of 248 Prospect Ave., Cliffwood Beach, was arrested by Matawan Township police Sunday afternoon on charges of drunken driving and causing an accident.

Collins' vehicle, police reported, was traveling south on Highway 35 just north of the Cliffwood light when it left its own lane and swerved into the northbound lane. There it crashed head-on with a car operated by Alex Brennen, 46, of 305 Townsend St., New Brunswick, which in turn struck the side of a vehicle operated by Richard Bednarik, Mount Ave., Springfield.

Collins was confined in the county jail by police to await arraignment on the charges last night.

KEYPORT CARDINALS DEFEAT GROVE FOR COUNTY TITLE

The Keyport Cardinals won the Monmouth County Little League Championship at Neptune Friday. The Cards downed Ocean Grove, western half champions in the final game of a three-game playoff series 7-6 to nail down the championship for the second time in three years.

Both teams cracked out six hits, but Keyport made better use of its safeties, scoring five times in the top of the second. Those five tallies proved the difference in the game, because Ocean Grove came right back in the bottom of the second with four scores of its own. Keyport added what eventually was the winning run in the third, and Ocean Grove picked up one in the last of the fifth.

Bob Dane and Alex Peters shared the hurling duties for Keyport, while Ocean Grove used Joe Manley, Davis and Kern on the hill. Dane was the starting and winning pitcher, allowing five hits, fanning one and issuing six bases on balls. Manley, who caught and then worked on the hill, and Kern, who played short and pitched, both had two hits for Ocean Grove. Wallie Kennedy went two for two and scored three runs for Keyport.

The annual picnic and awarding of trophies will be held Sunday, Sept. 12 at 2 at Atlantic Highlands Firemen's Field.

MARIBORO TEAM DOWNS ATCO TILE SECOND TIME

A two run rally in the bottom half of the seventh inning enabled the Marlboro softball team to take the measure of the Atco Tile softballers for the second time. This time on a 9-8 count.

Homers by Herb Duckenfield and Bill Logan featured the Hospital offensive. Logan and Duckenfield also cracked out a double each. Tom Smith slammed a pair
