BUILDING BETTER CITIZENSHIP—President Eisenhower at the White House receives a report on the Two Million Dollar Youth Program of The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks presented by Grand Exalted Ruler, William J. Jernick of Nutley, N. J. Mr. Jernick also discussed with the President plans for annual nationwide observance on May 1 of Elks National Youth Day.

YOUTHS RESCUED AFTER DRIFTING ON RARITAN BAY

Paul Cummings, 14 and Patrick Sauer, 11, both of Hilltop boulevard, Cliffwood Beach, were rescued Tuesday after drifting on Raritan Bay in a rowboat for more than 2 hours.

The youths, spotted shortly before 1 p.m. drifting out into the bay by Thomas Standford, superintendent of the Cliffwood Beach Company, were rescued by Roy Matthews and Edward Quinn of Keyport. The boys were returned to Matthews Fishing Station, Keyport at 3:10 p.m.

Matawan Township Police Captain J. Edgar Wilkinson notified Matthews, a member of the township first aid squad and owner of the fishing station following the alarm by Standford. Quinn, a clammer, offered use of his rowboat and both set out in pursuit of the youths who were more than 2 miles out on the bay.

Coast Guardsmen at Sandy Hook were alerted when it was feared the youths might panic and jump into the bay before aid reached them.

The boys said they found the 14-foot craft along the bayfront and set out to do some fishing. Before they realized it, they said, they were too far out to get back.

Nixon Awards Peace Medals

Vice-President Richard M. Nixon awards medals to Tully Nettleton of the Christian Science Monitor and George Swetnam of the Pittsburgh Press, for their outstanding articles on "How Can an Individual Citizen Contribute to World Peace." They are among hundreds of editors who wrote original articles in response to an award made by Lawrence S. Mayers for the best editorials or features on this subject. Lawrence S. Mayers is a U.S. industrialist who spends much of his time and private resources in an effort to indicate to all the world the prominent place peace occupies in our thoughts, and take the edge off Soviet pretensions on the subject.

ANNUAL REPORT OF FIRE DISTRICT CALLS DISCLOSED

Chief Charles Wines of Laurence Harbor Fire Company No. 1 serving Fire District No. 1 in Laurence Harbor reported 139 alarms answered by volunteer members of the fire company during the year in his annual report revealed last night.

Chief Wines said the average attendance was set at 30 volunteers at each alarm.

Brush fires accounted for 89 of the fire calls with five each attributed to oil heaters, electrical fires and motor vehicle fires. There were 15 fires reported in buildings and 10 instructional drills. The local volunteers, who receive no compensation for their efforts, also answered seven out of town calls and one air raid drill.

Announce Troth

Mr. and Mrs. I. Southon, 172 Cleveland avenue, Laurence Harbor, have announced the engagement of their son, William, now serving with the United States Navy to Miss Helen Broderick of Brooklyn, N.Y.

It is the old lesson—a worthy purpose, patient energy for its accomplishment, a resoluteness undaunted by difficulties, and then success.—W. M. Punshon.

MATAWAN MAN SENTENCED TO TERM DESPITE PLEA

A Matawan man who deserted his wife and six children failed to gain leniency from County Judge Charles M. Morris when arraigned for sentencing and was sent to the county workhouse for 18 months.

The defendant was George Rice, 28, of 8 South Atlantic Ave., charged with desertion and non-support of his family Dec. 23, 1953, while living in Madison Township.

After Judge Morris passed sentence, Rice's attorney, Edward Farry, Keyport, addressed the court in an appeal to have the sentence reconsidered. He asked that leniency be shown the defendant, particularly for the sake of the children at this holiday season.

Jensen told Judge Morris that the Rice family would be assured a "good Christmas" by the county's welfare agencies. Judge Morris refused to reconsider the sentence.

Suffers Attack

Mrs. Nellie Richardson, 78, of Gordon street, Cliffwood, was taken to Perth Amboy General Hospital Monday morning after suffering a heart attack in her home. She was transported by the Matawan Township First Aid Squad.

FACES TWO CHARGES AFTER AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT HERE

Lawrence Mincey, Ticetown Rd., Matawan, was charged with reckless driving and disorderly conduct after an accident on Wilson Ave., Matawan, Friday night, police reported.

Police said Mincey was driving north on Wilson Ave., when his car left the road at a curve and overturned twice. He was unhurt. Residents of the area called police after Mincey created a disturbance at the accident scene, police said. He was released on $100 bail for appearance before Magistrate Luther Foster Jan. 11.

CAR HITS TREE ON RAVINE DRIVE

Leo J. Rutledge, 22 of 46 Summitt avenue, Laurence Harbor was admitted to Perth Amboy General Hospital Sunday after he lost control of his car on Ravine Drive, Matawan near the Rosehill cemetery and crashed into a tree.

Hospital authorities said Rutledge suffered lacerations of the left leg and the side of the head and listed his condition as good. Police said the accident occurred about 4:59 a.m. and issued Rutledge a summons for reckless driving.

AREA WOMAN DIES OF INJURIES AFTER AUTO CRASH

Mrs. Jessie M. Taylor, Highway 9, Old Bridge suffered fatal head injuries shortly before seven a.m. Monday when her car skidded, struck a brick wall and turned over on Highway 34 near the White Gate Inn.

The woman was treated at the scene by Dr. F. W. Holman, Keyport and taken to Dr. E. C. Hazard Hospital, Long Branch for treatment. She succumbed later in the afternoon of her injuries.

Township police said Mrs. Taylor was traveling south on the highway when the car hit an ice patch on the road and skidded 93 feet before colliding with the wall.

YOUTH HURT AS CAR OVERTURNS

A 16-year-old Bergenfield youth was injured Sunday when the car in which he was riding turned over on Route 34, Madison Township as it swerved sharply to avoid raming into the rear of a car ahead, police reported.

Police identified the injured youth as Daniel Cooke, 16, of Lilleck street, Bergenfield. He was removed to the Perth Amboy General Hospital and treated for a fractured arm. He was later released.

FOOD "QUEEN" MEETS TWO PRESIDENTS

Queen of Tri-State Packers' Association convention, Carolyn Knaub of Vineland, New Jersey, congratulates Association's President-elect Harvey J. Jarboe, (left), while 1954 President William E. Lambie, Jr., of Baltimore, looks on. Scene is exhibit of canned and frozen foods in Lord Baltimore Hotel, Baltimore, where more than 800 canners from Delaware, Maryland and New Jersey and eastern shore of Virginia attended 51st annual two-day convention last week. Area is one of greatest canned food "baskets" in U. S., and cradle of processing industry on the large scale which provides year-round food plenty.

MIGRANT WORKER DIES IN MARLBORO AS HOME BURNS

Simon Hargrove, 38, a migrant laborer, died in a fire in Marlboro early Sunday morning. The blaze destroyed a one story shack where he lived on the Holland Farm, shortly after 3:30 a.m. He said Mr. Dutch Lane Rd., and damaged two other small frame dwellings. Fire Chief Lindsay Le Moine said a laborer who lives in the shack the fire probably started when Mr. Hargrove "lit a kerosene stove and it blew up."

Dr. Julius A. Toren, county physician, said death was caused by "partial incineration of the body." Chief Le Moine said the shack Mr. Hargrove lived in had already burned to the ground when the fire department arrived on the scene, across a bed.

INTERNATIONAL "SANTA CLAUS"

Professor Mark M. Heald, director of Rutgers University's year-old Foreign Student Program, completed arrangements for settling the State University's 86 foreign students in American homes for Christmas. This was the busiest season of the year for the foreign student counselor who serves as nurse, lawyer and father-confessor to young men and women from 31 different countries. Their problems are his, and they include everything from homesickness and unruly landlords to personal financial troubles and jousts with the Immigration Bureau.

in front of the one which burned said Mr. Hargrove "got in about an hour and a half before the fire was discovered," according to Chief Le Moine. The man is Buster Dennison, who lives with his wife in a shack which is only about four or five feet in front of the Hargrove dwelling, the chief said.

Mr. Dennison's dwelling caught fire, as well as one behind the Hargrove shack, Chief Le Moine said. But damage to them was slight, and the blazes were put out quickly.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fair and two children occupy the rear dwelling, according to the chief. He said the Fairs lost most of their clothing, but that Mr. Dennison was able to get most of his out of his apartment.

TWO HURT AS CAR OVERTURNS ON COUNTY ROAD

Two persons were injured Friday night when their car overturned on Monmouth County road

520 after striking a bridge abutment in Marlboro Township. Thomas Sapp, 40, of 212 West Bergen Place, Red Bank, received a cut wrist which required 12 stitches to close and cuts of the face. A passenger, William Heard, same address, had a cut cheek and possible internal injuries.

Keyport state police reported that Mr. Sapp lost control of his car which after striking the bridge turned over.

The men were taken to Monmouth Memorial Hospital, Long Branch, by the Morganville First Aid Squad where they were treated.

EZRA W. KARKUS IS NEW PRESIDENT OF BAR ASSOCIATION

Ezra W. Karkus, Keyport attorney was elected by members of the Monmouth County Bar Association to succeed J. Stanley Herbert of Asbury Park as president at the group's annual election and Christmas party held at the Beau Rivage Restaurant, Long Branch.

Governor Robert B. Meyner was the principal speaker at the affair. Other officers elected were Edward F. Juska of Long Branch, first vice president; Charles Frankel, Asbury Park, second vice president; Mayor Solomon Lautman of Deal, third vice president; Milton A. Stein, Long Branch, secretary; and Charles F. Dittmar, Freehold, treasurer.

Herbert and State Sen. Richard R. Stout were elected as trustees for three year periods. Edward W. Wise Jr. of Red Bank was chosen to serve the unexpired trusteeship of Lautman.

Selected as trustees to the Monmouth County Legal Aid Society were Justice Henry E. Ackerson Jr., Keyport; Harry R. Cooper, Belmar; Peter Cooper, Asbury Park; Magistrate John V. Crowell, Red Bank; Abraham Frankel, Asbury Park; M. Raymond McGowan and Dittmar of Freehold; Melvin A. Philo, Keyport; Leo R. Weinstein, Matawan, and Stein.

The governor, in a short address before the annual show given by the Monmouth County Bar jesters, told more than 200 persons present that he believes all state judicial organizations, regardless of how good, should be subjected to "continual critical evaluation."

The talk by the state's chief executive was warmly received by the members, many of whom agreed that Meyner was taking steps that they dared not tread.

Meyner said there is "no procedural mechanism that should ever be permitted to become an untouchable fetish."

"If any of us, as lawyers, find in our experience that a rule or practice does not work well, it is our duty to be vocal about it and not to lapse into browbeaten silence merely because of a seeming immutability in the position of the Supreme Court with reference to it."

Meyner told his audience he was speaking "not as governor, but as Bob Meyner, lawyer."

An associate Justice of the Supreme Court and a retired member of that tribunal were present during the talk. They were Justice William J. Brennan Jr. of Rumson and retired Justice Ackerson.

AREA PAINT FIRM HIT IN FTC CONSENT ORDER

The Plastiq Finishes Company, Matawan, has consented to entry of a Federal Trade Commission order which prohibits it from representing that "Mary Carter" paint is the product of an exclusive new process and equal to the highest quality paints on the market.

The consent order, which also effects Robert Erdman, Matawan, a former officer of the company, is an initial decision of the commission and is not final. The decision may be appealed, stayed, or held for review.

The order also prohibits representing that the paint is made differently from other paints or that it is a linseed oil paint. In addition, the company will not advertise that it has 1,000,000 or more customers when it actually has less.

The order also forbids representation that purchasers can save $5 to $8 on two gallons of paint in comparison with the price of comparable paints.

The Plastiq Finishes Company also does business as the Linseed White Company and the Mary Carter Paint Organization.

TWO ACCUSED OF CHARGES ENTER NOT GUILTY PLEAS

Three Bayshore men entered not guilty pleas to charges when arraigned in Freehold before County Judge Elvin R. Simmill.

The pleas were as follows:

James S. Gray, 33, Washington, not guilty to causing the auto death of Robert Russell, 23 Orchard St., Matawan, on Oct. 23. Russell was in Gray's car when it skidded into a bridge on Route 79 near Morganville.

Gaetano De Blasio, Sr., and his son, Gaetano, Jr., New York, not guilty to charges of fornication, contributing to delinquency of a minor and aiding and abetting.

Most Valuable

The Sporting News has announced a new award, something entirely new, without a duplicate anywhere. The award goes to the Most Valuable Player in the National Football League, and the man first chosen for this honor is Lou Groza of the Cleveland Browns, New World's Champions. Groza has a fabulous record as the greatest place kicker of all time.

He's more than a kicking specialist. He's the starting offensive tackle of the Browns, and as deadly a downfield blocker as there is in the league.

Twice this season, he proved in dramatic fashion his value to the Browns. On November 21, he kicked two field goals to beat Philadelphia, 6 to 0. That game gave the Browns first place for the first time in 1954. Then, one week later, he kicked three field goals to make the winning difference in a 16 to 7 victory over New York. A loss in that game could have dropped the Browns into second place. It was Groza's toe that turned back Cleveland's two chief rivals for the Eastern title.

Selection of the most valuable pro was not an easy task. There are a number of other players for whom supporters can make strong cases. There's Otto Graham, also of the Browns, certainly among the all-time quarterbacks. There are Doak Walker and Bobby Layne of Detroit. San Francisco has a great claimant in Y. A. Tittle, the slick field general, or Joe Perry, one of the truly great runners of the game. The rookie end of the Bears, Harlon Hill, was up among the front-runners. The Giants have their Chuck Conerly, and the Eagles Bobby Walston and Pete Pihos. Ray Mathews of the Steelers was superlative in pass receiving and speedy rushing until injuries halted him.

Others who got consideration included Ollie Matson of the Cards, Billy Wells of Washington, Tobin Rote of Green Bay, Buddy Young of the Colts and Norm Van Brocklin and Bob Boyd of the Rams.

But it was Groza who got the bid. The six-foot-three, 235-pound Groza has an amazing record. Although he plays tackle and has scored only one touchdown in nine years of professional football, he is always a contender for scoring honors. His record of 23 field goals in 26 attempts last year is fantastic. He virtually never misses a try for extra point. In one stretch he kicked 109 consecutive extra points, for a record.

Lou lives in Berea, O., where he's in the insurance business in the off-season. He has interests in two dry cleaning establishments.

MONMOUTH LOSES
THREE TO DROP TO FIFTH PLACE

Brooklyn, led by Ralph Egan and Stan Niemiec won three games from New York to move into second place in the Atlantic Seaboard Classic League matches at the Matawan Keyport Recreation Center, Sunday. Monmouth lost three to Long Island to drop into fifth place.

Long Island swept Monmouth as it scored 3235. After winning the first two games handily the Long Islanders had to battle until the final frame in the third game, eventually winning out, 1109-1102. Jack Horn, who finished with a 702, helped the Long Island cause in the finale with a 255. Lou Campi's 667 topped the losing Shore Five.

Engan turned in games of 246-245-246 for a 737 series to pace his teammates while Niemiec followed with a 703, including a 268 final game effort. The latter opened up this contest with eight strikes before leaving the seven pin on his ninth try. Joe Menzopane bowled brilliantly in the losing cause, tying Engan's 737.

Philadelphia retained first place in winning twice over Hackensack. The Bergen County team outrolled Philly, 2996-2977, but had to be content with a single victory as it virtually handed the initial game to the leaders. Perry Santilli topped Philadelphia with 623, but Hackensack's Chuck Pezzano won scoring honors with a 676.

Newark rolled a 3128 series against its opponent, Trenton, but still was able to win only one as Fred Lening sparked the Mercer team with a 762 series, highest of the day. Lening opened the final game with what appeared to be a perfect strike, but the 10 pin remained erect. After converting the spare, the Trenton star came back with 11 consecutive strikes for a 290. George Kwiecinski of Newark rolled a 717 set, and helped his team to its victory as he scored 267 in the first game.

Elizabeth won twice from Paterson in the final match, Walt Cuches turning in a 670 series for the Elizabethans. Phil Visco, a substitute, paced the losing Paterson squad with 627.

Monmouth topped Elizabeth twice last week to hold fourth place in the Atlantic Seaboard Classic Bowling tourney being staged at the Matawan-Keyport recreation alleys Trenton moved to within one game of the first place Philadelphia team by topping the Quakers twice.

Newark received a 685 series from George Kwiecinski as it posted a double triumph over Hackensack. George Lutz also aided the Newark attack with a 670 while Andy Varipapa paced the cellar ridden Bergen five with 637.

Brooklyn rolled a 3183 series to sweep Paterson, thus moving into third place. Jim Lago topped the Brooklyn team with 674, Frank Okular adding 655. Joe Gazal of Paterson scored 654.

Monmouth topped Elizabeth twice to move into a tie for fourth place with the Union County club. Monmouth took the second game by a scant five pin margin and then came from behind in the finale to win in the final two frames.

CIVIL DEFENSE SYSTEM SCORED IN MARLBORO

Marlboro Township does not have an adequate civil defense warning system, the Township Committee was warned at its regular meeting Thursday night.

The report came from Michael Ryniewicz, township civilian defense director. Sirens at three firehouses, two in Morganville and one at Marlboro, provide the only alarms for an area about eight miles long and five miles wide.

Mr. Ryniewicz urged installation of a $250 siren in the Spring Valley or Robertsville sections. He said the two fire companies and first aid squad at Morganville would help pay for the extra expense if the siren could also be used to summon firemen. By the middle of next year, he declared, state and federal funds should be available for purchase of an additional signal.

Mayor Dennis Buckley requested the defense director to obtain prices on equipment and get recommendations from the fire companies as to where the siren should be located.

The committee approved a request of Streetways, Inc.—which this week resumed bus service between Red Bank and Freehold—to pick up passengers along Route 79 in Marlboro Village. The bus will make eight trips a day. Final approval of the local stops must come from the Public Utility Commission.

Township Engineer Otis R. Seaman reported that plans have been approved by the State Highway Department and bids probably can be taken next month for widening and resurfacing more than a half-mile of Montrose Road. He estimated the project will cost about $14,000 and said it will include drainage improvements.

The committee adopted an ordinance revamping the township planning board in compliance with a 1953 law change. Mayor Buckley previously declared that former board members will be named to the new planning board.

The committee agreed to meet at 7 P.M. Tuesday, Jan. 4 to reorganize for next year.

The purpose and motive to live aright can be gained now.—Mary Baker Eddy.

YOUR GARDEN THIS WEEK

The poinsettia received for Christmas is native in tropical America and central Mexico.

When it is grown in the greenhouse, where temperature and humidity controls are possible, it can be made to thrive. But in the ordinary household, such controls are rarely possible.

Almost as soon as the plant is brought into the house its leaves may turn yellow and fall. Make sure there are no gas leaks. Place the plant in full sunshine, in a place where there are no drafts and where the temperature can be kept as near to 60 degrees as possible.

It should not be warmer or colder than that at night, but may be up to 70 degrees during the daytime; not much higher. It is not good for the plant to get much artificial light at night.

High humidity around the plant is desirable. Humidity around the plant can be improved by setting the plant on gravel that can be kept wet or on a layer of sphagnum moss or peat moss that can be kept constantly wet.

Soil in the pot should be kept moist at all times, but not too wet.

One thing that might be tried is excessive fertilizer. As soon as the plant is received, apply one-half teaspoonful of complete garden fertilizer (5-10-5 or similar analysis), water in well and then keep the soil only slightly moist.

After the plant has finished its bloom, the best thing to do is to discard it. Many persons try to save poinsettias, but they seldom bloom again in time for Christmas. One reason is inability to maintain proper temperature relations in the house. Another, just as important is that artificial light in the house delays flower bud formation.

RARITAN WOMEN'S G. O. P. CLUB VOTES SAME OFFICERS

The entire 1954 slate of officers was reelected by the Township of Raritan Women's Republican Club at its recent regular meeting and Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Thomas Aumack, president.

In addition to Mrs. Aumack, the following were returned to office: Mrs. Elmo Smith, vice president; Mrs. Cecil Burgin, secretary, and Mrs. Roland Bilane, treasurer.

During the business session, the revised by-laws of the county organization were read, and a committee was appointed to take care of donations for the needy. An exchange of gifts and a session of carol singing highlighted the party which followed.

Those present from the Keyport Good Government Club were: Mrs. Elsie Giese, Mrs. William Neidinger, Mrs. Louis Stultz, Mrs. Alvina Strittman, Mrs. Ann Rossing and Mrs. Claire Orton.

MONEY IS LEFT UNCLAIMED BY NATIONAL GUARD

Thousands of dollars earned by National Guardsmen who attended Army and Air Force service schools between October, 1949 and July, 1952, have gone unclaimed, it was announced today by Major General James F. Cantwell, Chief of Staff, New Jersey Department of Defense.

The Armed Forces Reserve Act of 1952 provides that Guardsmen who attend courses of more than 30 days duration and who are not granted leave while undergoing such training may be paid in cash for leave time earned. This leave is earned at the rate of 2½ days per month.

You may be whatever you resolve to be—Joel Hawes.
