

HANCOCK THE PATRIOT MERCHANT.

During the siege of Boston, General Washington consulted Congress upon the propriety of bombarding the town of Boston. Mr Hancock, a distinguished merchant, was the President of Congress.—After General Washington's remarks were made, Mr Hancock said: "This was broken by a member making a motion that the House should resolve itself into a committee of the whole, in order that Mr. Hancock might give his opinion upon the bombardment." The House promptly complied, after, from having all his estate impounded, tested, from having all his estate impounded, which estate was very large and valuable.

After Mr. Hancock had left the chair, he addressed the chairman of the committee, who was also a distinguished words: "It is true, sir; nearly all the property have in the world is in houses and other real estate in the town of Boston; but if the expansion of the British empire, and the consequent loss of the country require their being torn to shreds—issue the order for that purpose immediately."

"TRUST IN JESUS."

A doctor who was once visiting a Christian patient, had himself been anxious to feel that he was at peace with God—the Spirit of God had condescended with him and he longed to possess "that peace which the world cannot give." On this occasion, addressing himself to the sick one, he said: "I want you to tell me just what it is, this believing and getting happy."

His patient replied: "Doctor, I have felt that I could do nothing and I have put my case in your hand—I am trusting in you. This is the only way every poor sinner must do in the Lord Jesus. This really must awaken the doctor's surprise, and a new light broke in on his soul: "Is that all?" he exclaimed, "simply trusting in the Lord Jesus? I see it as I never did before. It is just what every poor sinner must do on the cross. 'It is Finished' and thenceforth believeth in Him shall not perish, but have everlasting life."

From that sick-bed the doctor went a happy man rejoicing that his sins were washed away in the blood of the Lamb.

TIME AS A PRESERVER

Air-slaked Lime has been frequently recommended as a preserver for vegetables when stored in cellars or pits. Recently we heard a gentleman state that he was in the habit of sprinkling it among his apples. He thought it might be a good thing, but thought delicate fall varieties could thus be kept much beyond their season. The lime-dust could be easily removed from the apples by using a cloth or brush, and it imparted no flavor to the fruit. The use of lime in this way is a waste of money and a good price. It is well to hint to our readers that cellars should be overhauled at this season, and all decaying matter removed.

An old bachelor picking up a book, exclaimed, upon seeing a wood cut representing a man kneeling at the foot of a woman, "I don't recollect any such scene."

"I engaged (says a printer) a Chinese at Dinanlet to conduct me some few miles into the country, and had not proceeded far when he pulled up at the foot of a hill, and the fish driver, coming to the door, opened it."

"Where, what I ordered you to stop," said Padma.

"Whist! your honor, wisdom!" said Padma, in an undertone. "I'm only deceiving the beast. I'll just bang the door—he'll think you out,—then off like a flash and the fish kill the very devil —see if he don't."

Tart Pick.—Recently a substantial farmer, blessed with five daughters, gave a wedding breakfast, the eldest daughter being the bride, when a neighbor, a farmer who was honored with an invitation, thinking, no doubt, that he ought to say something smart and complimentary on the occasion, addressing the bridegroom, said:—

"Well, you have got the pick of the batch!"

The countenance of the four unmarried ones, as may be imagined, were awfully indignant.

CHAPTER CCCCXXI—Supplement to an act entitled "An act for the preservation of deer and other game, and to prevent trespassing with guns."

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That hereafter no person shall, at any time within three years from the passage of this act, kill or destroy any wild game, commonly called partridge, or any quail, sometimes called Virginia partridge, within this state, under a penalty of fifteen dollars for each and every partridge or quail so killed or destroyed; provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent a person from shooting the above named game on his own lands or on the land of others, if their owner be first obtained in writing; said penalty to be sued for and recovered pursuant to the sixth section of the supplement to the act approved March twenty-sixth, one thousand eight hundred and six, and to which this is a further supplement.

2. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provision of this act be hereby repealed.

Approved April 1, 1869.

CHAPTER CCCCXXII—An act to amend the act entitled "An act relative to the Court of Errors and Appeals."

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the first section of the act entitled "A further supplement to the act entitled 'An act relative to the Court of Errors and Appeals,'" approved April sixth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, shall continue in force for three years from and after the sixth day of April, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 1, 1869.

CHAPTER CCCCXXIII—A further supplement to the act entitled "An act for the relief of such portion of the militia of this state as may be called into service."

Whereas, by the act to which this is a supplement, it is among other things provided, that the sum of six dollars per month be allowed and paid to the families of all married persons of the militia of this state, and to widowed mothers of such persons without families, dependent upon them for support, as have been or may be inducted into the service of this state or of the United States; and whereas, by said act it is the duty of the board of chosen freeholders of each of the counties of this state to pay the said money monthly to the widowed mothers and others mentioned in said act; and whereas, great difficulty now arises in the settlement of these accounts, in consequence of the small number still remaining unpaid:

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the controller of the treasury be authorized and directed to audit and settle such accounts, and to make payment of the same to those who may be justly entitled to said pay by the provisions of said act and the several supplements thereto.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 1, 1869.

CHAPTER CCCCXXIV—A further supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning taxes," approved April fourth, eighteen hundred and forty-six.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That every person shall be assessed in the township or ward where he resides for all shares of the stock of any national bank in this state, or of any bond organized under the laws of this state, owned by him or in his possession or control as trustee, guarantor, or otherwise, and shall be assessed in the case of this state, then and in that case such bank shall be assessed to the amount of such shares so owned or held by non-residents as aforesaid, in the manner now provided by statute in the case of other corporations.

2. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act be hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 1, 1869.

CHAPTER CCCCXXV—A further supplement to an act entitled "An act to amend the act relative to the navigation of the Delaware River."

Whereas, the navigation of the river Delaware in the city of Trenton, New Jersey, is of great importance to a large and growing population of the state of New Jersey; and whereas, the opening of said navigation for steamboats and other vessels of war, is of great importance to the commerce of the state:

1. Be it resolved by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That our members of Congress, both in the senate and house of representatives, be marriages being suggested upon record, the action shall proceed to final judgment by the said female and her husband as plaintiffs or defendants, or against them as defendants, in the case now on file.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 1, 1869.

CHAPTER DLXXX—An act to authorize an extension of the State Prison.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the Governor be and he is hereby authorized to appoint three commissioners, whose duty it shall be to enclose all or so much thereof as may be deemed necessary of the lot of ground belonging to the state lying between the north wall of the state prison and the north wall of the state arsenal, by a substantial stone wall, and to remove such portions of the south wall of the prison as may be in the way of other improvement.

2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners be authorized to erect, an additional wing to the state prison, containing such accommodation as the governor and commissioners aforesaid shall think necessary; and if in the judgment of the said commissioners or a majority of them, the governor concerning it should be deemed advisable, the duty to purchase ground and buildings or either, or to erect any buildings on said ground so purchased then they are authorized to contract therefor.

3. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall be authorized to build additional work shops for the employment of the prisoners in such productive industry, as upon consultation with the board of supervisors of the county, the keeper and inspectors may be deemed best for the future welfare of the state prison, and by an additional story to such workshops or in connection with a common dining hall, to provide a suitable place in which to collect the prisoners for divine worship and for other purposes.

4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the keeper of the state prison to cause the execution of the several acts to be in the power, and to lessen the expense of said buildings to the state by detailing suitable convicts to labor in the erection and completion thereof, under the care of trustworthy officers and the direction of said commissioners.

5. And be it enacted, That the treasurer is hereby authorized to pay the commissioners for the warrant of the controller, such sums as may be necessary for the purposes above mentioned, not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; provided nevertheless, that all contracts, plans, specifications and estimates of the several buildings hereby authorized, shall have first been approved by the governor.

6. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall severally give bonds to the state in the sum of one hundred dollars each, with two sufficient sureties to be approved by the treasurer, conditioned to the faithful performance of the duties imposed upon them by this act; and the treasurer is hereby authorized upon the warrant of the controller, to pay to them for such services at the rate of five dollars for every day they may be necessarily and actually engaged therein.

7. And be it enacted, That this act shall go into effect immediately.

Approved April 1, 1869.

CHAPTER CCCCXXI—A further supplement to the act entitled "An act to provide for the organization of the State Lunatic Asylum, and for the care and maintenance of the insane."

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be lawful to charge three dollars and fifty cents per week for keeping in the asylum any insane person, in addition to the sum paid by the person, sent to the asylum in accordance with the twentieth, twenty-first, and twenty-second sections of the act to which this is a supplement.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 1, 1869.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

Navigation of the Delaware River. Whereas, the navigation of the Delaware River in the city of Trenton, New Jersey, is of great importance to a large and growing population of the state of New Jersey; and whereas, the opening of said navigation for steamboats and other vessels of war, is of great importance to the commerce of the state:

1. Be it resolved by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That our members of Congress, both in the senate and house of representatives, be and are hereby requested to procure, if possible, an appropriation from Congress for the purpose of removing obstructions and improving the navigation of the river Delaware between White Horse and the city of Trenton, at the head of tide water in the state of New Jersey.

2. And be it enacted, That the governor be and he is hereby authorized to cause the foregoing preamble and resolutions as soon as possible to the members of Congress of the United States from New Jersey.

Approved March 18, 1869.

CHAPTER CCCCXXII—A supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning executors and the administration and distribution of intestate estates," approved April sixteenth, eighteen hundred and forty-six.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That all the powers granted by acts now in force to the orphans' courts in relation to the settlement of the accounts of executors administrators, guardians or trustees, may be exercised by any other court or courts having power to allow and settle such accounts.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 1, 1869.

CHAPTER DLXXX—A further supplement to the act entitled "An act making lands liable to be sold for the payment of debts."

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That in all suits in the court of chancery for the partition or sale of land where the personal estate of the ancestor from whom the land is descended is insufficient to his just debts, it shall be lawful for the chancellor to direct such lands to be sold, freed from the lien of such debts, and to make such order touching the disposition of the proceeds of sale as may be necessary for the ascertainment and payment of such deficiency thereout before the distribution of the fund.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the chancellor to make such rules as he may deem proper so early this act into effect.

3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved April 2, 1869.

The communication of "C. A. I." too late for this week.

Council met pursuant to adjournment, Tuesday evening June 23, all present except Yates, who is still sick.

As we were compelled to remain in our office until a late hour, in consequence of a rush of Job Work, and as the Council has decided that no abstract of proceedings should be furnished the papers, and as we are not at present able to hire that reporter, the following, which we glean from a party who was present.

No Clerk present. Edwards elected pro tem.

The minutes of last meeting, after being amended, were approved.

Reports of different Committees.

The President appointed Messrs. Jones, Sanger and Ayres as Committee to confer with Fire Board in reference to digging wells, &c.

Street Commissioner presented estimate for Assessors Map, from J. W. Soper, & Co. laid on table indefinitely.

E. W. Ruby on elected Corporation Council, all voting aye except Wilson.

A resolution was offered that a table be purchased for the benefit of the press—laid over until next meeting. Guess we will have to engage that reporter.

Sanger called for Ordinance on Morals, Peace and Good Order, introduced at a previous meeting. The document could not be found.

Simpson offered a motion that $750 be appropriated for improvement of Streets—Reyes moved an amendment, that $500 be substituted. Original motion carried.

Reyes moved that Edwards stand upon the City Clerk, to find out whether he intends to withdraw his resignation. Carried.

The "Dog" ordinance was called up for passage, but not passed.

Adjourned to June 26th.

We learn that Mr. John K. Clark and lady, of Westfield, while on a pleasure ride with horse and buggy, one day this week, the horse became frightened, and overturned the buggy, throwing the occupants and severely injuring them. They were picked up insensible, but at last accounts were improving.

The heavy thunder shower of Monday afternoon had caused a general inundation of some of our streets. On Cherry Street, some of the planks forming the bridges over the gutters were forced from their fastenings, and swept to one side, and the way the fifth, down rats, cats, &c. were swept into green grove by a catfish.

They say no more will ever cease. Well, we guess not in Plainfield. A short time since, our enterprising Cigar Merchant, Thos. Puff, being bothered with parties who "steal the truth," conceived the idea of leaving who was the greatest "stealer" in the City. He had a large tin can made with the inscription—"Presented to the biggest liar in Plainfield," and quietly put it away, determined to present it to the party whom he thought most entitled to it on ordinary conversation. He was on the point once or twice of giving it to an individual who "tells a lie," but another day stepped in and took the prize away from him. "I am being satisfied that he could beat the Jews on lying. We believe the cup is on exhibition at the Cigar Store of Mr. Puff, where an excellent article of Cigars may be obtained.

We are sorry to learn that friend Wallace Vail met with an accident a few days since, which will confine him to crutches for some time. He was carrying a sash pot of hair, weighing some 30 pounds, out of the bath when it slipped from him, one edge of the jar striking him on the foot, cutting it very severely. We presume the accident sorely tries "Vail," as he is a thorough business man, and is not now able to do around with his usual activity; nevertheless, however, the Post Office, under the efficient supervision of Mr. Vail's worthy lady, and the assistance of gentlemanly clerks, is progressing finely.

As we are to have no celebration in Plainfield the coming July, our citizens will have to seek elsewhere for pleasure on that day. Duellen offers attractions that will draw crowds there. Good music, speeches, races, fireworks, &c., are the order of the day and evening. The Committee of Arrangements have spared no pains to perfect every arrangement, and we have no doubt that there will be an interesting time there on the fourth. Stages will also run from Plainfield to the "Rock House," the enterprising proprietor of which announces that the day will be observed there in a becoming manner. We are in hopes that some of our enterprising citizens would take the day in hand, and get up a fitting celebration of this day in Plainfield, but as nothing has been done toward it, we say—"Hurrah for Duellen."

E. T. Case, the popular Hatter of Newark, will give one of his pleasant excursions to Long Branch, July 15th. The steamer chartered for the purpose, the "Sheep Hauler," is a magnificent pleasure boat, with capable and gentlemanly officers, and the excursion will be one of a series, given by Mr. Case during this summer.

We advised who wish to enjoy a delightful time to go. See advertisement in another column for particulars.

The recent thunder storm naturally turned the thoughts of many who have not lightning rods on their buildings, to the fact that they have no protection from Lightning. To all such we would remind that Messrs. Hickock & Son, will remain at Long's Hotel but a short time longer. They are putting up the best rods made, and will guarantee satisfaction. Have your buildings protected by them by all means, and at once.

Since writing the above we were shown a "sawed" "point" taken from a rat put up by them on the top of Mr. Hart, on North Avenue, the top of which was completely melted by the lightning during the thunder storm of Monday last. The charge was so great that the fastenings of the rod 20 feet from the point were also melted.

The steam plow and accompanying apparatus imported by Colonel Wm. E. Peterson, from England, was recently put in operation on the ground of that gentleman at Atison, New Jersey.

Colonel Peterson's large tract, situated in that locality, is to be devoted to the culture of sugar beets. As the soil is a sandy loam closely akin to that in which the French have been so successful in the sugar beet culture, Colonel Peterson sees no reason why a profit cannot be realized in this country in the same direction.

The machinery is by no means complicated. At opposite sides of the space to be plowed are two steam engines upon wheels, on the trial they stood three hundred yards apart. The plow is six shares. It is a distinct piece of mechanism, and is fastened to a steel wire cable extending between the two locomotives across the ground to be turned over. It is literally a shuttlecock between two steam battledores. It moves at the speed of a hundred yards a minute, turning six furrows, a foot each in width, and eight to ten feet deep. Its average work, therefore, is twenty acres per day. The locomotives are strong machines, capable of being applied to many useful purposes independent of duty as steam-plows.

The place to buy good groceries, and to learn the latest Telegraphic code, at 10 E. D. Moffett, Front street, opp. Somerset.

It is rumored that the Pennsylvania Central Railroad are negotiating for the lease of the New Jersey Central, for the purpose of a continuous route from New York to Omaha, and competing for the trade on the Pacific Railway. If such a line was established, it would be 1504 miles long, 100 miles shorter than the route contemplated by the consolidated New York lines.

Have you seen those nice White Marseilles Yarns, at R. Duhan's. From $2.00 to $3.00.

At Long Branch, named J. N. Silver, committed suicide last night, 22d inst. The following note was found in his room this morning:

"To all in this house. Know you all, that June 23d you will send what remains of me to my friends. Please send this to my folks."

And on the back was the following:

"I have taken notice that I have this day played the—"

His watch, money, clothes, and effects were found in his room, and from appearances he must have got out of the second story window, from which he was tracked to the river edge, where was found his razor case. The supposition is that he walked into the river and cut his throat, and his body floated down stream. Up to 1 P. M. his remains had not been found, although diligent search has been made for the same. He was supposed to have been insane on the subject of religion.

THE PORTLANDER FRIEND.—A certain race for speed in clothes and traps. For sale by John & Thos. Duhan, Front street, opp. Cherry.

We think our Common Council can do the people good service by prohibiting the furious speed of the railroad trains through the Plainfield depot. The way the 7:30 A. M. train for New York dashes across Cherry street and past the passenger platforms, is exceedingly dangerous, entirely unnecessary, and should be at once changed. It is much better to arrest the course of violent death than to await a citizen's request.

Call soon this week and see the recent list of names coming to the City, at R. Duhan's. From $2.00 to $3.00. Also a nice assortment of French Cashmere suits from $10.00 to $15.00. Clothing made to order, short notice, in style and at prices less than Newark or Elizabeth.

NEW DAY GOODS STORE.—We call the attention of ladies about purchasing Dry Goods, &c., to the large, new, seasonable and fashionable stock of Messrs. F. L. Hamilton, corner of Broad and Bank streets, Newark, their handsome new store has just been opened, and their stock is all fresh from the importers, while their prices compare favorably with any other house in the city.

The meeting of the Sons of Temperance, at the M. E. Church, on Monday evening last, in opposition to the sale of intoxicating liquors in Plainfield, or in other words, for the total prohibition of the same, was attended by about 100 persons, who listened to remarks from R. E. Hale, of N. Y. and Rev. D. J. Yerkes, of this city. The meeting was adjourned to meet in the Central R. formed Church on Thursday evening, 24th inst.

Go to Duellen on the Fifth.

Pope & Parse have just received 1000 yds. White and Blue Broad and other which will be sold less than at any other place in Plainfield.

We have received the May number of the Typographical Manager, published by James Conner's Sons, N. Y., wherein under the head of "Fine Printing" giving credit for specimens of fine printing forwarded to them, we notice that W. L. Pope & Bro. come in for a notice, which evidences the fact that our work will stand inspection. We invite the attention of the public to our specimens of Fine Printing. We will compare it with any in the State.
