WILL IT REMAIN A BOROUGH?

FANWOOD PEOPLE EXERCISED OVER THE SUPREME COURT DECISION.

It is thought that the Opponents of the Borough Government Will Contend Its Legality in the Courts.

In connection with the recent adverse decision rendered by the Supreme Court in regard to Boroughs formed under an act of the legislature of 1881, the following may be interesting regarding the borough of Fanwood:

The borough of Fanwood was formed under the law of 1881 by the purchase of Fanwood, an election was held and the borough was carried. Application was made to Judge McCormick and he with difficulty found three freeholders in the proposed borough.

However, W. B. Stanbery, a clerk, Sheriff Kyle and W. I. Force as inspectors were appointed. W. B. Stanbery was authorized by the court to make arrangements to carry on a legal election. He thereupon proceeded to get the paraphernalia ready so as to have the election held at the proper time and in the proper place. It was decided by a majority of the people that a borough should be organized. After the election was held it was a matter to be decided who was responsible for the debts incurred before the decision was arrived at as to whether it was or was not to be a borough.

Mr. Stanbery, as clerk of the court, applied to Judge McCormick for authority. He was referred to Nicholas English, the attorney for the Committee of Ten, and at a meeting of this committee it was stated that Mr. English had told Mr. Force and himself that he had this same position as the clerk of a township, and that he had the latter behind him as a guarantee.

proceedings and was argued before Judges Dixon, Reed and Garrison, who decided that the power of deciding the questions of public policy which relate to the organization and control of municipal corporations is conferred upon the legislative department, one belonging to the judicial department, to the legislative department of the Government, and could not be exercised by any person or persons belonging to the executive or the judicial department. It would thus seem that the Court had long ago held that the power of incorporating municipalities was conferred upon the legislative department, and could not be delegated.

"FIT FOR A KING"

The Royal Blue Line, a Railroad That Retains Regality Itself.

"A royal train, believe me," Shakespeare makes one of his characters exclaim, "King Henry VIII. And to one who looks upon the first train of the sumptuous glories of a Royal Blue Line train the idea of regality must instinctively suggest itself. Indeed, it may well be considered whether any other mode of transportation could so enjoy such superb facilities of travel as those which are at the service of the uncrowned kings of unmonarchical America, whose citizen is a sovereign.

As an example of the pitch of perfection to which the science of transportation has attained in this country, take the famous route of travel between New York, Philadelphia and Washington, known as the Royal Blue Line. It has been termed the highest type of the fin de siècle railroad. But it is more—it reaches a decade or two into the possibilities of the next century, a prophecy, so to speak, turned into a fact, and a courier that moves far in advance of the main body of railway progress.

To participate, the Royal Blue Line connects Philadelphia with New York and New England to the eastward, and Baltimore and Washington to the southward, with connections reaching Florida, New Orleans, and the great empire of the Southwest. It is composed of portions of the Central R. R. of New Jersey, the Philadelphia & Reading and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroads. As the Reading Railroad was the first to establish two-hour trains between New York and Philadelphia, so was this "triple alliance" the pioneer in giving the public five-hour trains between the Metropolitan and the National Capital.

The trains are notable for their unique construction, and celebrated for their superior elegance. The time of the fast time made on the Royal Blue Line is a matter of wide notoriety, and it continues to hold the only properly authorized record for the highest speed ever achieved by any railway train in the world.

The trains from Philadelphia to New York and to Washington comprise a schedule ample in extent and amply adjusted as to time of departure, most of them connecting closely with trains coming in over the various lines of the Reading System from the eastern and central portions of Pennsylvania. All of these connections are made between the magnificent Reading Terminal, the most beautiful, as well as one of the most extensive railway stations in the world. For the further convenience of travelers, through tickets and baggage checks to all important points reached by or via the Royal Blue Line are supplied at most of the Reading Railroad stations throughout Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

THE SULTAN A PREVARICATOR

REV. MR. SCHENCK CHARACTERIZES THE EASTERN POTENTATE A LIAR.

He says that the Sultan should Arise European Powers from the Apathy Evoked Towards the Armenian.

Rev. Cornelius Schenck preached a very interesting sermon at the Trinity Reformed church last Sunday on the subject "Armenia's Bitter Cry: Our Responsibility." He took his text from the first verse of the twenty-fourth Psalm.

"The reports that come to us daily from Armenia," he said, "sound like chapters in the history of the early Christian church."

He then spoke of Armenia as a very interesting country, partly on account of its history and partly on account of its people and their surroundings. He spoke of the tumbler term, but reported the Sultan of Turkey had taken away their inalienable rights. He had failed to keep his oft-made promises. Speaking of the Sultan, Rev. Mr. Schenck said:

"Of all the consummate liars in this world, the Sultan is the biggest. I tell you friends that you and I would not stand for a minute the oppressions that the Armenians suffer. These are not mere murders, but a lying of starvation. The country has been devastated, and the missionaries are asking for help. They have petitioned the Sultan to stay his bloody hand on the tumbler term, but reported outrages only follow. He would, however, stop all the terrible atrocities if the people would react and become Mohammedans, but they will not.

In reply to the question, Rev. Mr. Schenck said that we should assist them of our sympathy, our prayers and material assistance.

"The Christian world," he exclaimed, "should protest against these outrages and place the responsibility partly upon the Sultan and partly on the European nations. For while they are lagging over the way in which Turkey should be divided, the slaughters go on unabated. There are times when principal must assert itself."

He also said that it was his opinion that the United States should do everything in its power to stir up the other countries from their apathy. In closing he said:

"Whatever is done by the powers will be a temporary expedient. That which is going to cure this awful evil is the Gospel of Jesus Christ and we must secure our money and missionaries to assist in the accomplishment."

BLENDED IN SWEET HARMONY.

Successful Rendition of the Harvest Cantata Last Evening.

The high standard of excellence so often shown in the choir of the First Baptist church was fully sustained last Sunday when they rendered the "Harvest Cantata" by George Gass, M. A. The work is a beautiful one in every respect and its rendition was listened to with pleasure by an audience that filled the church. Interpreting the cantata, hymns were sung by the congregation. Solo parts were finely rendered by Miss F. May Grant and Mr. Smith.

In the latter portion of the cantata a noticeable feature was the part taken by the soprano and alto. The well trained voices blended in the sweetest harmony, and brought out the many fine points in the selection. The last selections contained a basso solo, which was taken by Wm. Holmes, together with the basses and tenors, and ending in a grand chorus by the entire choir.

An appropriate discourse by Dr. Yerkes, taken from the thirty-third Psalm, was thoroughly enjoyed. During the offertory Miss F. May Grant sang "These are They" from "Holy City" by Gaul. The offering was in behalf of the Citizens' Organized Aid Association. After the cantata, a hymn was sung by the congregation with a response by the choir.

The concluding number was "March of the Israelites"—"Eli" by Costa. It was very well rendered by E. J. Fitzgibbon, to whom great credit is due for his work in training the choir. Also C. W. McCutcheon as leader of the choir.

The following composed the choir: Soprano, Miss F. May Grant, Miss Swain, Miss Bessie Ball, Miss Spear, Mrs. Harold Berrell; alto, Miss Nancy Randolph, Miss Alice Needham, Miss Bertha Needham, Miss Catherine Berrell; tenor, C. W. McCutcheon, Mr. Smith, E. B. Ryder; Basses, B. T. Barnes, Wm. Holmes, Stacy Reynolds, George Biedeker.

A very appropriate symbol of the service, two large bunches of wheat, gracefully adorned the pulpit, and formed while a choice bunch of chrysanthemums added not a little to the pleasant scene.

EMULATING THE FIRE LADDIES.

Such a Drill Will Be One of the Chief Attractions of the Fair.

Probably the most novel attraction of all the numerous compositions which will be introduced at the fair, is the use of appliances employed by firemen when in active service. It is assured by Madame Bartlett that nothing of the kind has ever been presented either here or elsewhere. She has labored to make this her chief attraction in honor of the firemen.

scrofula

Any doctor will tell you that Professor Hays of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, is one of the highest authorities in the world on the action of drugs. In his last work, speaking of the treatment of scrofula, he says:

"It is hardly necessary to state that cod-liver oil is the best of all in this class of cases, as it is given in emulsion, so prepared as to be perfectly assimilable."

He also says that the hypophosphites should be combined with the oil.

Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil, with hypophosphites, is precisely such a preparation.
