

TO BE HUNG, AND SMILES

THE BOY MURDERER SEEMS NOT TO REALIZE HIS AWFUL FATE

Judge Magie Sentences Elmer Clawson to the Electric Chair for the Murder of Harry Hodgget, the Elmer Clawson, the eighteen-year-old boy who killed Harry Hodgget, the Edminster farmer, last August, with a revolver, and was tried and convicted of murder in the Supreme Court before Judge Magie at Somerville, came into court Monday with a smile on his pale and somewhat wasy face to hear the sentence of the Judge. The boy seemed to be totally oblivious of his impending fate and joked and laughed with those to whom he was talked.

William Steele, of the firm of Steele & Mehan, who defended his case in court, made an eloquent plea for leniency from the electric chair. The sentence did not seem to affect the prisoner and he left the court room with the same smile that he had entered. He had nothing to say when the court asked him if there was any remark he wished to make and he was pronounced.

Steele & Mehan applied for a new trial but the Judge refused the motion.

NEW CHURCH FEATURE

Congregational Sunday-school Officers

With special services. A special service in the lecture of the Sunday-school was held in the Congregational church last Sunday morning. The newly-elected officers of the Sunday-school were installed, and the teachers reappointed. After the usual opening of prayer, the vice of the officers was called, as follows: Joseph A. Robinson, superintendent; Lucius B. Morgan, assistant superintendent; Stacy R. Bay, secretary; Charles Steiner, librarian; Mrs. M. E. Dwight, pianist. These came forward, and the pastor, Rev. Charles Lyman Goodrich, addressed them briefly, reminding them of their responsibility as Sunday-school officers, and Deacon George P. Raymond read some words of Scripture which formed appropriate counsel for the occasion. The list of officers was then called, and the teachers all came forward and listened to their pastor's earnest words concerning their high calling, and their duty to be regular and prompt in attendance, and to teach over their pupils as they pass into the Christian life. The teachers repeated a covenant, promising to be true to their duties as teachers, to lead a consistent Christian life, and to counsel sympathetically with their pupils both in the classes and at other times. Scripture counsel was given them by Deacon Raymond and Superintendent Robinson, the congregation joined in the Scripture benediction upon the teachers, then the latter sang together "A Charge to Keep I Have," and returned to their seats.

The sermon was in reference to the Sunday-school, and the pastor gave three definitions: the church teaching the Bible, so doing the work Christ gave to his disciples; the church caring for its own, training up the young people who would be the strength and the church studying the Bible socially and gaining from contact with one another's minds more help in Bible interpretation than could be obtained from solitary study.

After the sermon, the pastor invited the members of the congregation to come into the adult classes of the Sunday-school.

This service was well attended and much enjoyed.

Quite new to the Plainfield churches, and the effects of it will doubtless be seen in increased earnestness on the part of the Sunday-school workers.

Snyder Finally Imprisoned.

Seventeen days ago Robert Snyder, a resident of Pawmoot, fifty-five years old, was arrested there on a serious charge preferred against him by his nineteen-year-old daughter. He was lodged in the county jail by a Pawmoot justice of the peace under $1,000 to await the grand jury's action. That body took up his case Saturday, and after a thorough investigation, decided the prisoner had been wrongfully imprisoned, as there was no evidence to prove he was guilty. Without waiting for the court to take action in the matter, the grand jury decided that Snyder had suffered enough and took the unusual step of ordering his immediate release. Snyder will not take any measures, it is thought, to obtain satisfaction for his unjust imprisonment.

WORLD OF KNOWLEDGE.

PUBLIC EXHIBITION OF BOOKS AT THE LIBRARY.

Added Over by Society Leaders and Attended by a Large Assembly of Plainfield Citizens—The Library presented a very charming appearance, last Saturday morning and afternoon, during the exhibit of choice books.

The picture covered walls made a very effective background for the decorations which had been arranged in a very attractive drawing-room. The decorating was done under the direction of Miss Margaret E. Merced, and pretty things for the room were loaned by the women who took part in the exhibit, and also by Mrs. Baldwin and Mrs. Craig A. Marsh. Beautifully arranged tables, standing in rows, held the books to be exhibited, while smaller ornate plants, banquet lamps and bronzes, comfortable divans, cosy with the apartment, stood at either end of the room, handsome chairs were scattered about in the very center of the room was a large crystal plant, its standard draped with warm crimson.

In the alcove opposite the curtained entrance, at a table covered with very beautiful decorative objects, stood Mrs. Alexander Gilbert. This table was thronged during the entire exhibition with people fascinated with the fine places and the interesting character of the books. At Mrs. Gilbert's left, Miss Van-Boskerck was seated at a table containing books on Egyptology, Shepp's "Photographs of the World," "Little Women," printed in the mixed type for the blind, and other things of interest.

In the corner beyond Miss Van-Boskerck, Miss Arnold presided over some charming books on Great Britain. To the opposite corner, Miss Daisel exhibited a number of exquisite books. Between this table and the entrance, Miss Leonard and Miss Manger's table was found, with some beautifully illustrated books on the Middle Ages.

At Mrs. Gilbert's right stood a table covered with art books on Florence, presided over by Miss Tracy, while in the corner beyond her Miss Tracy displayed some fine illustrated books on the cathedrals. A tall, draped easel at her left supported a large picture of Lincoln Cathedral, England.

At the right of the center, Miss Eadie's table held some very fine books on costume; at the left corner at Miss Eadie, exhibiting books on United States history, and the American Indians.

Each lady laid upon her table a dainty little list of the books which she was exhibiting, the covers charmingly painted in water colors by Miss Grace Flanagan.

A steady stream of visitors flowed in and out during the exhibition hour, the crowd in the afternoon being larger than that of the morning. The guests were charmed with the fine books, and it was evident that the exhibit had awakened a new interest in the treasures of the Public Library.

As it began to grow dusky, the lamps and candles were lighted, and the scene was very beautiful. The guests remained long after the hour set for closing, and it was nearly six o'clock before the last ones departed, bringing to a close a thoroughly successful afternoon.

Like the West Better Than the East.

Frank Hanson, a farmer resident at East Tilled street, together with his wife and three children, left for their home in Hastings, Neb., this morning. They have been east visiting among relatives and friends a few weeks. Frank is now a well-trusted engineer on the Burlington and Missouri Railroad, and it was just five years ago last July since he visited his former home here. Frank says the west suits him exactly, and he has no desire to return east to live. Out there, he says, there is no extreme cold weather, although the winters are quite long but not severe. During this fall he reports that the crops were so abundant that corn sold for a cents a bushel, oats at 7 and wheat at 33.

DEAN RODMAN'S ASSISTANT.

Rev. Floyd Appleton to be Assistant Pastor at Grace Church.

The Rev. Floyd Appleton, of New York, has accepted the call as assistant minister of Grace Episcopal church and will enter upon his duties on Sunday, November 18th. Mr. Appleton will preach in Grace church next Sunday evening.

The new assistant rector is twenty-seven years of age and a graduate from the General Theological Seminary, where he obtained first prize for extemporaneous speaking. Since his graduation he has been engaged in mission work with Bishop Potter in New York.

Dr. T. S. Long, at Brookside. Dr. T. S. Long, of Park avenue, formerly associated with Dr. J. H. Cooley in the management and ownership of the Brookside Hotel, has resigned his position, and has disposed of his interest to Dr. Cooley, who is now sole proprietor and owner.

Therefore a panic is confidently expected to follow Bryan's election, whose depreciation or not as our own experience and all history show, the silver dollar must drop about 50 cents, the disastrous consequences which will follow will probably be unparalleled in our history.

INTERESTING NOTES CONCERNING THE FOOTBALL PLAYERS.

Comment on Local Players and What Their Chances Are With the Team.

They are expected to play against the South End Athletic Club during the first game of the season.

Westfield, one of Westfield's guards, Saturday, was a special importation from Rutgers College for the Plainfield game. He has been playing on the Rutgers "Varsity" team, but he didn't astonish anyone by his wonderful playing. The odds against him were too great.

A very important meeting of the Y. M. C. A. eleven will be held on Friday evening at the Cycle Academy when Coach Waring will discuss the new plans for the return Westfield game. It is very important that all candidates for the team should be present at that time.

The team that will probably represent the business men's gymnasium class in their match with the regular Y. M. C. A. team Saturday evening will probably consist of John H. Dwyer and Rev. W. O. O'Donnell, forwards; Rev. H. J. Johnston, centre; George Fuller and Prof. Henry M. Maxson, guards.

Two members of the Plainfield team, Thomas A. Smith and Fred H. Freeman, were invited by Captain Masterson, of the New Jersey Athletic Club's eleven, to play the end positions for their eleven next Saturday in the game with the New York University.
Smith's accident will effectively bar him from playing, and Freeman will probably not go alone.

The Plainfield Y. M. C. A. eleven will not play on Saturday, that is decided. The next game will be on Monday, which comes on Tuesday of next week, and will be against the Rutgers "Scrubs." The game will be played on the Marine gridiron at Park avenue and will be played in the morning. On Saturday almost the entire team expect to go to Westfield and see their victims at last Saturday meet the team from the Passaic High School.

Crooks, who played fullback for Westfield Saturday, is not a full fledged Westfielder by any means.
He comes from Orange and has been playing on the Montclair Athletic Club eleven. Westfield secured him, however, for the San Remo and Plainfield games, as their old fullback, Volght, is now playing with a Connecticut team. He seemed to play in Plainfield in the early part of the season, but the local management had decided to make it a strictly Plainfield team, and Volght's offer was refused.

THE "O. O. P." LAST NIGHT.

Rowell G. Hear to Speak Next Monday Evening.

The Republicans of this city will continue the campaign on the eve of the election. The young and progressive members of the Young Men's Republican Club will take charge of the last shot to be fired before the real contest on Election Day.
On Monday night, under the auspices of the above club, a mass meeting will be held at Music Hall, when Plain-field's well known citizen, Congressman Rowell G. Hear, who has been on the stump for McKinley and Har-bert, will speak. He is known to Plainfield audiences, and it is probable that Music Hall will be packed that evening with those who wish to hear the bright remarks of their fellow townsman. It is expected that other Republican mass meetings before election.

A Course of Five Lectures.

The Monday Afternoon Club will give a course of five lectures during the season of 1901, the first taking place on Monday, November 26, when Prof. George McLean Harper, of Princeton University, will have for his subject "The Golden Age of the Drama" (Cornelius, Racine, Moliere); December 14th, E. C. Perkins will lecture on "The Man with the Iron Mask," January 4th, "Montesquieu, the French Political Sage," will be the subject of discussion by Prof. Woodrow Wilson, of Princeton University; Prof. A. M. Wheeler, of Yale University, will give a lecture on "Rousseau, Voltaire and Their Influence," May 17th, the course will be finished by Louis F. Pliher, of the University of Pen-sylvania, on "French Architecture." These lectures will take place in the Cathedral on the above dates and desiring to put them within the reach of all the admission has been fixed at the sum of 25 cents each.

Sewing Circle Anniversary.

The first anniversary of the Ladies Sewing Circle of Mt. Olive Baptist Church was held last night at the home of the President, Mrs. J. W.
Reed, 304 Park avenue. The evening was pleasantly spent by the following members: Mrs. P. Anderson, Mrs.
P. Jackson, Mrs. S. Thorton, Mrs. M.
Johnson, Mrs. E. Thorton, Mrs. W.
Smith, Mrs. V. Smith, Mrs. J. Reed, Fornay, Miss C. Hazzard, Miss C. Barber.

City Engineer Brown, of Danbury.

Con, visited Plainfield today with Engineer Farquhar to inspect the city farm and disposal beds. Danbury has a sewer system, accommodating some 10,000 persons, draining into the river. After being used repeatedly for polluting the stream, the city is now about to discontinue emptying into the river before next May, and a tract of 300 acres has been purchased for disposal beds, which are now being constructed.

Miss Phelps Better.

The condition of Miss Phelps who was injured Monday night in a collision with a horse is slightly improved. It is hoped that no internal injuries will result from the accident.

Louis Strakowski, a young peddler, was fined $1 by City Judge DeMeza yesterday afternoon for peddling without a license. He was arrested by Patrolman McCue.

Several improvements are being made about St. John's church. The United Lodge, No. 102, Knights of Pythias, will hold an important meeting tonight to act on the new by-laws.

The second reception in the series to be given in the North Plainfield High School will take place next Monday afternoon from 1 to 4 o'clock.

owing to the fact that they have no alleys to bowl on.

The Park Club bowling team has entered the Journal Bowling League and will play their first game next Thursday evening with the Roselle team at that place.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

The South End Athletic Club defeated the Crescent Juniors by a score of 9 to 0 yesterday.

Miss Thompson, of Connecticut, is visiting Mrs. E. Sloane, of West Front street.

Captain "Ted" Freeman's hair came very near turning grey, and all because of Alex. Milne, or "Shorty," as he has been nicknamed. Milne, who is six feet and three and an eighth inches of bone and muscle, Milne will not play in Plainfield on Election Day, and when he remarked on that fact there was general consternation.
For Milne is one of the most valuable men on the team. He premised long before he joined the team that he would play on the Pacific Athletic Club eleven in Brooklyn on that date.
The color of Freeman's hair was saved, however, when it was discovered that Harry Rand, Plainfield's last year's centre, would be able to show up on the gridiron on Election Day. Rand will try his hand at guard on that day.

A birthday party.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Van Fleet, of East Third street, gave their daughter, Miss May Van Fleet, a pleasant birthday party last evening. The time was most enjoyably passed in playing cards and games, while dancing was not the least of the pleasures.
Those present were the Misses Lottie Meerschmidt, Mabelle Force, Sadie Holmes, Libbie Joseph, May Le Forge, Margaret Correll, and Misses Saxton; Charles Dwyer, Fred Ross, Ray Carroll, Arthur Miller, Charles Buell and Charles Lyons.

ELY BROTHERS.

50 Warren St., New York City.

A friend advised me to try Ely's Cream Balm and after using it six weeks I believe myself cured of catarrhs. It is the most valuable remedy.
