STRIKES IN NEW YORK.

Interesting Report of the State Board of Mediation and Arbitration.

ALBANY, March 3.—The annual report of the State Board of Mediation and Arbitration will soon be ready for the printer and will form an interesting story of the strikes of the year in a large number of which the board has mediated to the general satisfaction of employer and employee.

The report, signed by William Farrell, Gilbert Johnson, Jr. and Florence Denovon, shows that the number of strikes during the year was 6,538 and that of that large number the board had the satisfaction of seeing 4,438 settled, a large number through the recommendation of the board.

Four hundred and sixty-four of the strikes were abandoned.

The report, signed by William Farrell, Gilbert Johnson, Jr. and Florence Denovon, shows that the number of strikes during the year was 6,538 and that of that large number the board had the satisfaction of seeing 4,438 settled, a large number through the recommendation of the board.

THE BLAINE CONTROVERSY.

With the Secretary Reply to the Former Senator's Charge in the "New York Times."

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The reply of Mr. Blaine, Jr. to the "personal attack" of Secretary Blaine regarding the relations of young Blaine to his wife prior to and after their marriage, has caused some little gossip in this city, and the question now asked is, will Mr. Blaine take any notice of the attack?

Mr. Blaine, Jr.'s letter is as follows:

ROCKY HALL, D. C., March 1.

My Dear Sir: You have furnished the public with a remarkable production under the caption of a Personal Statement. I consider it my duty at this time to address you with that degree of dignity which your position as a public man entitles you to.

I acknowledge your well-earned, richly deserved fame as a diplomat, and appreciate the weight which your utterances possess as fully as do I appreciate my own weakness and my total inability to cope with you in a personal encounter. I shall not attempt to you that considerate and honorable treatment which, I am sure, your keen sense of public duty, I shall not attempt to make out a case, but give the entire content of my public life to the public, as it is, and as you have the documents, strictly, as you could not quote from my private life.

I will give you sufficient time to which to conduct your case. I shall not attempt to make out a case, but give the entire content of my public life to the public, as it is, and as you have the documents, strictly, as you could not quote from my private life.

I will give you sufficient time to which to conduct your case. I shall not attempt to make out a case, but give the entire content of my public life to the public, as it is, and as you have the documents, strictly, as you could not quote from my private life.

I will give you sufficient time to which to conduct your case. I shall not attempt to make out a case, but give the entire content of my public life to the public, as it is, and as you have the documents, strictly, as you could not quote from my private life.

THE COMING FIGHT

Who Will Be Chosen by the Chicago Convention?

Views of National Leaders.

Analysis of a Carefully Prepared Table on the Present Outlook.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Morning paper of this city presents a timely and highly interesting table showing what at the present moment the Presidential preferences of the Democracy in the United States are.

The table has been carefully and accurately prepared on the supposition that 900 delegates will be selected to the Chicago convention under the present apportionment. It is supported by interviews with well-posted Democratic leaders on whose judgment the expressed probability as to how the respective divisions of the party will vote.

The table shows that Mr. Hill leads Mr. Cleveland but very little at the present time. The New York Times is looking to the West for a man to lead them to victory. The figures are: Hill, 285; Cleveland, 265; Weaver, 100; and McKinley, 50.

An analysis of the table reveals that the Democratic sentiment predominates in fifteen States. They are California, Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New York, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin, Wyoming, and Nebraska. Twelve of these States are Republican and three are Democratic.

Senator Hill is the choice of ten States. They are Colorado, Florida, Idaho, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, and Texas. This shows that in the States where the Democratic sentiment predominates Hill is stronger than Cleveland.

But the real choice of the Democracy is between sixteen States. They are Arkansas, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, North Carolina, North Dakota, Tennessee, and Wyoming. Eight of these States are Republican and eight are Democratic.

There are 250 delegates standing solid for a Western man and representing over a third of the convention against the other two-thirds divided, will probably have a great effect in shaping the Convention's choice.

It will be noticed that three States have been passed over by the Democracy. They are Louisiana and Oregon. Their delegates at present are, it is said, likely to be divided between Hill and Cleveland.

With the sentiment so strong for Hill, the possibility of the possibility that this direction are worthy of note, says the paper. It is significant that the West has no one of the four candidates—Gov. Boies of Iowa, Gen. Palmer of Illinois, Gov. Gray of Indiana, and Dickinson of Michigan.

The strength of these Boies and Palmer, and the two Boies stand, have the lead. This, the article continues, is chiefly due to the free silver affiliations. Palmer, on the other hand, has openly declared on the other side of the coin, and the effect of this will be greatly neutralized by his change of position.

West would seem to be Boies of Iowa, and Russell of Massachusetts.

Speculation on an Adjournment Day.

ALBANY, March 3.—Speaker Bush said this morning to a reporter: "We can fix the adjournment of the Legislature on any day at once if we wish. We can hurry up and report the Appropriation bill and pass that and the Supply bill."

He said that he would like to adjourn on the 15th in any event. You know both of those bills were through last year in this order, and there was no need of longer session. What will be the result with all the bills? Well, it is not likely we will adjourn before the 15th.

More Trouble for the Bank.

NEW YORK, March 3.—The United States Savings Bank has more trouble on hand. A depositor, through Chicago Street Savings Bank, of New York, has brought action to recover the full amount of money as shown by his pass book, being over $100,000. The action is based on the order of Judge Farnham's order. A motion to dismiss the action was granted by Judge Edwards at Hudson Station.

UPHELD BY ENGLAND.

The Turkish Government Claim, Military, and Naval, Conducted by American.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 3.—When Mr. Hirsch, the American Minister to Constantinople, returned against the claims, by order of the Government, of the missionary schools conducted by Americans, he received a reply from the Porte to the effect that the British Embassy had been consulted on the subject and had agreed that the course of the Turkish Government was the proper one to take.

This answer is not satisfactory to Mr. Hirsch and other Americans in Turkey, who complete that England, professing to be a champion of religious freedom, has in this instance strengthened the Turkish step against that principle, when American interests were involved.

Damage Along the New Jersey Coast.

NEW YORK, March 3.—The storm is still raging on the New Jersey coast, and the damage to the coast is being done. The waves are sweeping away the beach and the cottages are in great danger of being swept away.
