

ONCE MORE UNITED

Hetherington and Wife Will Probably Leave Japan.

THERE WILL BE NO DIVORCE.

Past Differences Forgotten and the Couple Are Again Happy.

Believed That Hetherington May Be Granted a Leave of Absence and at His Expiration Be Transferred to the Pacific Station—His Father Says He Must Not Leave the Navy—Rejoicing at the Wife's Home Over the Lieutenant's Acquittal.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—It is thought in naval circles that Lieutenant Hetherington has been acquitted of the murder of Banker Robinson, in Yokohama, that a leave of absence will be granted him and that he may return home in a short time, after which he will probably be assigned to some other station, one that will take him away from a place which he can only remember with regret.

The decision of the Consul Court is final, and Hetherington cannot again be tried for the same crime in any other country.

Mrs. Hetherington was keeping her room at the hotel, Mr. Hetherington inferred from the letter that his son's wife visited him occasionally, as did the United States and other officers of the fleet.

Then, the American professor of law at the University of Tokyo defended him, and when Lieutenant Hetherington hinted that his defense would be limited, Tison said he did not care if it was.

Mr. Hewes, of Wilmington, Del., the Lieutenant's father-in-law, received a cablegram directing that no expense be spared in securing counsel to defend him.

His father has written him that he is in honor bound to stay in the navy.

COLUMBIAN HALF DOLLARS.

World's Fair Directors Want Congress to Issue Medals for Admission.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—President Baker and Director Andrew A. Wilson and Butterworth of the World's Columbian Exposition will appear before the House of Representatives tomorrow to urge that Congress should appropriate $50,000 for the issue of medals for admission.

"While we are in Washington," said Mr. Baker, "I shall see the Columbia Congress and get the medals for admission to the fair."

He said that the medals would be less easy to counterfeit than tickets and besides would be valuable as souvenirs.

Little Chance of Schneider Escaping the Gallows.

CONVICTED OF WIFE MURDER.

The Verdict Meets With General Approval in Washington.

Close of One of the Most Sensational Events in the Criminal Annals of the National Capital—All Parties to the Case Were Present in the House and Social Circles and Many of the Witnesses Were from the Same Places.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The conviction of Howard Schneider for the murder of his wife meets with general approval, and there is little chance, it is thought, of his being able to escape the gallows.

The crime was one of the most heinous ever committed in the National capital, and with the trial fast closed comprised the most sensational event in its criminal annals.

Schneider's wife was Annie, the daughter of Col. Hamilton, an old and prominent member of the National guard, who married early last summer without the consent of her parents, and when the fact became known Schneider lived with his wife at her parents' residence, which was in the most fashionable residence quarter of the city.

Schneider was indicted for the murder of his wife, and the trial was held in the District Court.

The trial began about a month ago, and has been the reigning local theme of the city during its progress.

First—Self-defense, in that Frank B. Baker endeavored to show Schneider was not guilty.

Second—That Mrs. Schneider was killed in a fit of passion.

The case was contested bitterly and with all the skill that the best legal talent of the city could command.

All the parties to the affair were prominent in business and social circles, the regular law of the city.

WILLIAM LEE MYSTERY.

If He Is Not Charged With His History Is a Disappointment of the Long Lost.

PHILADELPHIA, April 11.—A special from Hagerstown, Md., says:

If James Willett, of Boston, Mo., is not charged with the mystery of his life in a surrounding duplicate of the story of Charles Ross as known for the past eighteen years.

Willett was seen yesterday afternoon for half an hour last Friday of the strange secret lying somewhere back in the history of his boyhood days.

The fact that he was stolen from home, according to his own story, at the identical time of the abduction of Charles Ross, that a picture of himself taken within a year of the Charles Ross abduction bears a striking likeness to the Ross picture published in "Harper's Weekly" in 1874.

Willett's life has been a mystery to two men whose faces and forms are still vivid as if from a child's imagination.

An Appeal Made to the Government to Stop the Attraction of the Empire—If it Keeps on There Will Soon Not Be Enough Remains to Get Up a Rebellion—Parrot Has a Scheme to Form the Matter—Two Unimpaired Canadian Workmen.

CHICAGO, April 11.—In an interview P. L. Thibault, a former member of the Canadian Parliament, says that the annexation of Canada to the United States is inevitable.

He declares that every day the Canadian people are made to see the truth regarding the alarming character and also of the annexation to the United States from Canada, and failing to stem the tide of immigration an appeal has been made to the Government.

He says the Canadian people are making the truth, and a few newspapers are hiding it.

"We must honor at or ignore the annexation of Canada," he says, "that all the while the Canadian people by whole train loads, as individuals, annex themselves to the United States."

These emigrants are coming without any reason, because they are being taken out of their homes.

DETROIT, April 11.—The Canadian Liberals who favor annexation have adopted a new way of doing business in favor of the move.

It has been known that the resolution introduced before the Common Council on Tuesday evening was really a measure to create strong annexation sentiment in Ontario.

The resolution is as follows:

"Whereas, it is estimated that over 10,000 naturalized foreigners obtain a living and daily employment in the city of Detroit, and numbers of them openly object to identifying themselves with their republic, therefore in order to protect our citizen workers be it Resolved, by the City Council of Detroit, that all foreigners laboring in whatsover capacity in the city of Detroit, be asked to sign a declaration of their nationality and not having declared their intention of becoming citizens of the United States, be asked to leave the city."

The matter was kept quiet to give the detectives a chance.

On the night between 9 and 10 o'clock, Mr. Kirby was seated at his desk in the postoffice with his back to the door, when he was seized from behind, the bullet inflicted a severe but not fatal wound.

Mr. Kirby grabbed his revolver and fired three shots at his assailants, who escaped.

Later a detective arrested a negro named Woodward, who confessed that he and three others had conspired to kill Kirby and rob the store and postoffice.
