HARRISON AND REID.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION HERE.

THE TICKET AND ADJOURN.

The President Re-Elected on the First Ballot by a Large Majority. The New York Delegation Selects Reid For the Second Place and He Is Unanimously Nominated.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 11.—After the presentation of the candidates' names at the afternoon session, yesterday, the delegates manifested their impatience and their desire to arrive at some definite conclusion of how the battle was going by loudly calling for a vote and cheering off half a dozen would-be speakers. The voting proceeded amid great excitement. There were many challenges, and a number of the States were re-elected.

At nine minutes to five the chairman announced that the official vote was ready. The Secretary announced the vote said profound silence:

William number of votes cast—9043; Benjamin Harrison received—1351; James G. Blaine—1873; William McKinley—182; Thomas R. Reed—182; Robert T. Lincoln—182.

There were 214 votes absent. The nomination of Harrison was then made unanimous, and the convention adjourned to eight o'clock.

It was nearly nine o'clock before the evening session was called to order. By tacit consent the nomination of the candidate for Vice President was left to the New York delegates. They concluded to present the name of Whitelaw Reid, and he was nominated unanimously. The convention then thanked everybody and everything for favors received, and at ten o'clock adjourned sine die.

MATTHEWS.

The Midnight Alarm. The cry of "burglar, thieves, murder help," aroused the guests of the Grundle from their sound slumbers early yesterday morning. The appeal for assistance was found to come from a room on the second floor of the hotel. The room was occupied by the "spanish" dancing girl who had performed earlier in the evening at Music Hall. She came from Newark and this was the first night she had ever been away from home. She said that a man was on the roof of the porch outside of her window and being frightened she called for help. Mr. Miller ran through the entry and so on to the roof, but diligent search failed to find any intruder. He waited a short time and finally found the supposed man was caused by the flickering from an electric light casting shadows on the curtain of the girl's bedroom. And so another romance was squelched.

The Month Past.

Chick chests are of no more use in keeping out moths than any other tight box. Gum-camphor is sometimes put among woolen garments, and tobacco is also used; but though these may have some effect in keeping the moths away they are not always safe, and the surest way is the simplest; that of wrapping the garments so that nothing can get at them.

Nothing can get at them, and sprinkling the floor with turpentine or benzine before laying the carpet, and with a small, flat paint-brush apply freely under the surface and in all the cracks. Benzine poured over furniture and carpets where moths are will kill them. From "Household Hints," in Democrat's Family Magazine for July.

To Benefit the Danville Presbyterian Church. A musical entertainment for the chapel fund of the First Presbyterian Church of Danville will be held in the church on June 27, under the auspices of the Gentlemen's Club, of Danville. Among those who have volunteered to take part are: Rev. A. J. Martine, Rev. G. W. Kinney, A. A. Lake, Mr. Barlow, Mr. Moffat, E. T. Foster, Stevens, Mrs. P. M. Hallett, Mrs. Bessie Blair, Miss Maggie Swackhamer, Miss Fanny Humpston, Miss Emma Marlow, Miss Imogene Smith, Miss Maud Benton, Miss Louise Alger, Miss Bessie Blair, Miss Ella Boice, Miss Irene Day.

Bowling on Schepers's Green.

At Danville, on Thursday, two live men teams from the Danville bowling team contested. The two teams were made up as follows: Messrs. Schepers, Haffner, Smyth, Love, Hale, Total, 3. Messrs. Elliott, Young, Adams, Cockburn, Moore, Total, 8. On Thursday of next week, the next match between the Danville and Middlesex Clubs will take place.

Elizabeth Intends to Win To-Day.

The Elizabeth Journal of yesterday says: The Crescents of Plainfield will journey here to-morrow to "line up" against the Y. M. C. A. of the Third Street grounds. The local team are thoroughly awake to the necessity of winning this game, and will go on the field determined to win. They will not have the combination of circumstances surrounding them that contributed to their defeat last week.

THE GREAT CENTURY RUN.

It Wasn't so Great This Year as Last, However, But the Wheelmen Made a Good Showing.

Three hundred and seventeen wheelmen took part in the great Century run from Newark to-day. The start was made promptly at four o'clock and the pace-makers reached the Bicycle Club house in Plainfield at twenty minutes past six, a few minutes ahead of time.

After a luncheon, which had been provided by the Plainfield Wheelmen, had been disposed of, the run was resumed at seven o'clock when Captain F. L. Martin set the pace. He relinquished this place at Trenton to a Philadelphia wheelman.

A number of ladies were in the run and three or four tandem cycles were noticed. The decreased number of wheels compared with that of last year is owing to two things. First, the heavy weather now looked up last Saturday, and second, that a certain amount of jealousy on the part of New York and Brooklyn wheelmen because their Philadelphia brethren had charge of the event, kept a large number of the representatives of those cities out on the run.

Camping Grounds For Young Men. The young men of Plainfield who contemplate taking a vacation this summer, will have an opportunity to choose from two most desirable locations, Northfield or Wannamans.

The former place is too well known to need referring to, but as the home of D. L. Moody, and Ira D. Sankey, and the resort of the college men of the land, it has an international reputation. Last year sixteen men from Plainfield visited Northfield, and on their return were enthusiastic in their praises of this place as a summer camping ground.

Wannamans is the New State Camp of the Y. M. C. A., located on Deal Lake, North Ashbury Park. It offers to young men unequalled facilities as a place adapted to camping parties.

Social preparations are being made and no pains will be spared to make it one of the most attractive spots in the country.

The Courier's Extra. An extra edition of the Courier was issued shortly before six o'clock last evening. It contained the announcement of Harrison's victory at the Minneapolis Convention. Its advent was entirely unlooked for, and when the boys swarmed out on the streets, yelling "Extra Courier! Harrison Nominated!" the public snapped up the papers with avidity, eager to read the latest and most important news of the day. Several hundred papers were sold, and some were to be had half an hour after they were first placed on sale.

Pike Secured a Second Prize. "Joe" Pike, of this city, who lost both the Springfield and Milburn races, entered a one and a five mile race, at the Bellevue Avenue Rink, Newark, last evening. In the one mile race Pike got second place, and was awarded a gold pin marked "L. A. W." In the five mile race he fell from the wheel, breaking the machine, and skinned his left leg. The five miles was covered by a member of the King's County Wheelmen in 17.13.

Bound Brook to Celebrate the Fourth. Preparations for a grand Fourth of July celebration at Bound Brook are in progress. The Camp Ground Association held a meeting on Monday night, and everything was reported to be in shape. Rev. J. B. Cleaver has consented to be the orator of the day and a number of other short addresses will be made.

In the City Court. John Goodman was fined two dollars by Judge Codgdon on Monday night for violating the hack ordinance. Hackman McCormick was also fined $2, and Max Newman was adjudged not guilty and released. Henry Bundy was fined $5 for disorderly conduct and using profane language.

Why They Were Banned. The whole secret of losing is embraced in the fact that every one of the West End errors gave the other side a run. It was not the fact of any one individual player. Their exhibition of team work was such that could be expected. —Somerset Democrat.

Elizabeth's Team in Hard Luck. It is without a doubt that the local team had a superabundance of hard luck at Plainfield and it is generally conceded that both those teams are about evenly matched so that the people who attend the game to-day will see a good game of base ball. —Elizabeth Journal.

Barstow's. To waste your money on the drink mixture, compounded by inexperienced persons, when you have the opportunity to secure your own, is a waste of money. You will not only get a better quality of drink, but you will also get a better quality of service. —Barstow's.

MISS ANDREWS'S SUICIDE.

Phineas Jones, N. J., June 11.—Mayne flower, of this place, has issued a printed placard, which has been posted in numerous places throughout the town, and in addition, appears in the country, offering $500 reward for the apprehension of the murderer of Pauline Anderson, the pretty domestic who was found dead in a shallow grave in the cemetery, at Jersey City, last evening.

Mayne flower, who will search the city for the murderer, has been seen on the railroad tracks near the scene of the murder, a few minutes before the girl was killed. All suspicious characters will be arrested.

The two men who were arrested in Jersey City on suspicion of having been concerned in the crime still protest their innocence. They are now in the hands of the authorities, and are being held in the city jail.

They described themselves as John Kestey, aged 40, a chimney sweep, and James D. Smith, aged 40, a laborer, both of Philadelphia.

They said they came from Philadelphia in search of work, but refused to make any further statement. The two men were now locked up in separate cells. Their clothing will be minutely examined for traces of blood. The men will give no explanation as to why they were in Jersey City, where they were seen on Wednesday, and where they boarded a freight train for Jersey City.

Miss Anderson's body was found early in the evening by Signalman Max Probst, whose station on the Jersey Central Railroad is not far from Woodbridge Junction. Probst was on his way home, and took a short cut through a patch of woods. He first found some papers which had been dropped by the young woman, and then saw evidence of a struggle on the damp earth. A little further on he came upon her dead body.

The young woman's clothes were all torn and disordered, her face was cut and bruised, and there was a deep laceration in her throat from which life-blood had oozed to form in a big pool about her head. The features were distorted as if in fear and agony, and there was a mark upon the forehead as if it had been struck with a blunt weapon. The cut in the throat was a jagged one and so deep as to almost reach the vertebrae. Woodbridge and Perth Amboy of his ghastly find.

The victim was a servant in the family of C. B. Boynton of Newark, and is the proprietor of Boynton's Beach, near Jersey City. She was a handsome, well-rounded woman of 28; a faithful servant, but with no special accomplishments. Her father was a Danish woman but spoke English fluently. Her parents live in Charles street, Perth Amboy and she had been to visit her mother and do some shopping in Perth Amboy.

End of the Reformed Church Synod. Annual Fair, N. J., June 11.—The 87th annual session of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America was held at the Hotel Hamilton, New York, last evening. Much disappointment was expressed at the action of the Synod, which was to have been held in the city of New York, but which was postponed to the city of New York, and the Western delegates, who opposed the amalgamation movement, are keeping sufficient votes away from the meeting to carry the proposition. It was decided by the synod to hold their next annual session in this city.

A Hill Boy's Death. PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—An evening paper has received the following reference to the statement in morning papers relative to Gov. Hill's withdrawal from the Presidential contest.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Telegram of inquiry received. It is a specimen of a man's life. (Signed) JOHN HENNINGSEN, Secretary to Gov. Hill.

Big Head of Mackinac. HALIFAX, June 11.—Reports from Cape Breton are to the effect that Mackinac harbor is alive with sharks, and large hauls having been made by American fishermen. The fishermen fishing on the Prince Edward Island coast is reported very poor. It is believed that the catch will be forty per cent below that of last year.

Dr. Buchanan's Friends Not Gaily. New York, June 11.—Dr. Buchanan, who was indicted yesterday by the grand jury for the murder of his wife, was brought before Judge Martin in the Court of General Sessions, and pleaded not guilty. His trial will probably begin in a few days.

Weather Indications. WASHINGTON, June 11.—For New England: Partly cloudy weather and showers continued; variable winds.

For the Middle States: Partly cloudy weather; northwesterly winds; some cloudiness, followed by showers. For the South: Partly cloudy weather; southerly winds; some cloudiness, followed by showers.

For the West: Partly cloudy weather; westerly winds; some cloudiness, followed by showers. For the Northwest: Partly cloudy weather; northerly winds; some cloudiness, followed by showers.
