OUR CANDIDATES.

FOR PRESIDENT,

BENJAMIN HARRISON,
Of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

WHITELAW REID,
Of New York.

Tariff Pictures.
It has been just about twelve months
since the McKinley bill had full swing,
sugar schedule, tin plate clause and all.
For the twelve months ended May 31, 1891, our imports were

per cent. free and 58.79

per cent. dutiable. In the twelve months ended May 31, 1892, we imported goods of which 54.99

per cent. were free and 45.01

per cent. dutiable.—NEW YORK PRESS.

Tax Republican party never had a stronger platform than in this year of grace.

It will depend largely on the Democratic platform whether there is more than one great issue this fall.

Mr. HARRISON has given the country the best business administration it has ever had. Markets hitherto firmly opened, while the home market has been preserved. A change would mean danger and possibly disaster. No leaps
in the dark.—NEW YORK BECORDER.

The great and decisive reason for the nomination of Whitelaw Reid was that, as Minister to France, he worked successfully to open new markets for American grain and pork, and thus made himself a peculiarly good representative of the doctrine of reciprocity.

Helping a Brother Member.

The members of the Plainfield Branch Amalgamated Society of Machinists at the close of their ordinary meeting on Friday night presented one of their members with one hundred dollars as the result of a drawing for a valuable timepiece. He has been unable to work for the past fifteen months, suffering from rheumatism and having a wife and four children dependent upon him
for support.

The first trial in the Elizabeth
Journal trophy race takes place to-day.
The contesting teams are from the Cranford Cyclers, Roselle Hamblers
and the Elizabeth Athletic Club.

When they are off, we gave her a cheer.
When she came in, she was the victor.
When she was in, she was the victor.
When she was in, she was the victor.

All the happenings of Plainfield are found daily in the Courier.

DR. FRISBIE PRESCRIPTION.

He is Called In to Cure Dr. Leander Brown's Dog and the Cattle to No More.
"Just killed another mad dog," said
Dr. Knight Frisbie, Dog Catcher Extraordinary to the City of Plainfield, this morning, and then he told how he had planged Leander Brown's woolly dog in the race way back of French's Mills until he had ceased to take any stock in the breath of life.

This particular woolly dog is the one that acted for so long a time as guardian of the post-office entrance. He wasn't a pretty dog and his appearance never indicated any great amount of familiarity with water. Yesterday afternoon the children in French's alley noticed that the dog looked depressed. The wag of his tail was listless sort of a ward McAllister—don't give a darn sort of a wag, and he refused to be tempted by the sight of a lovely rib-bone which
one of children had borrowed for him.
Then he suddenly jumped into the raceway and swam around for a bit. This last bit of insanity proved his madness beyond a peradventure and Dr. Frisbie was sent for.

"Mad as a wet hen," was his diagnosis, and he wrote a prescription immediately. The prescription read as follows:

Mill-race..... 1
Dog-catcher..... 1
Aqua q.s..... Dead Dog
Sig. Some the dog and repeat dose as often as necessary to effect a kill.

Doctor Frisbie is his own apothecary
shop and that is the reason Leander Brown has been grumbling at the efficacy of the treatment. The dog succumbed and Brown has an empty wuzzle to rent.

"Joe" knowed that dog war mad,"
said Frisbie, as he explained to a crowd of admirers in front of the post office
how he applied his cold water treatment, and then he walked off down the street whistling that rhapsodie of Liszt's entitled, "They're After Me."

A Modest Request.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COURIER:
Although it has been the custom in previous Presidential campaigns for the Chairman of the City Republican Executive Committee to preside at the first campaign meeting, yet I have deemed it fitting that that honor be conferred upon our distinguished and eloquent Mayor, which favor I have asked of him and the acceptance of which he is now taking into consideration. Will you please, therefore, strike out in your display advertisement the line "Hon.
John Ulrich will preside" and insert in lieu thereof the words, "Mayor Gilbert will probably preside." By so doing you will relieve an embarrassing situation and confer a favor upon yours in the cause of Republicanism.

JOHN ULRICH, Chairman of the City Executive Committee.

General Sewell May be Chairman.

Several persons of political prominence have been talked of for the honor of National Chairman, among the number being ex-Senator Sewell, of New Jersey. The indications are, that the place will be tendered, if he will accept the office, to ex-Senator Sewell,
who is a personal friend of the President.

Mr. Clark Bon says that the selection of Senator Sewell for chairman would be eminently fitting, and that he would add strength to the organization.

Republican Ratification Meeting.

On Tuesday evening next there will be a grand Republican rally and ratification meeting in Music Hall. Speeches will be made by Mayor Gilbert, Hon.
Gilbert Collins and Maj. Z. K. Pangborn, of Jersey City. Mayor Gilbert will preside, and there will be music by a cornet band.

A Wonderful Machine.

There is no doubt that man is a fine
machine, but like every other machine he wears out by friction. It is said that he is born again every two or three years. His body is virtually re-made from food. To retard this remarkable process is a radical wrong, as a man
loses much vitality in the delayed process that it takes a long to recuperate. The process of making anew is so accelerated by purging with BLANKET'S PILLS that a new man, as it were, may be made in two or three months, and the change in the mechanism is such that the worn out part is replaced by the new without the usual running down of the entire machine. You don't have to stop for repairs. Purge away with BLANKET'S PILLS the old, discharged and worn out body. They are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless,
and safe to take at any time.

Duke of Plainfield.

The Duke of Plainfield and the Countess of Somerville had just finished a game of tennis
when the latter spoke up. "I say, My Lord Duke, my extraordinary wife told me the month
when the Frisbie, flying from paper into his clawing, crackling, snoring, over head, vale and wood." Indeed, said the Duke, "I have heard nothing about it. When I was in Scotland, I saw papers at the bag pipes but I have seen none here. I shall have to get an encyclopedia and study up."

Since yesterday someone has painted on your face the Duke of Plainfield and the Countess of Somerville.

sues the blood, regulates the stomach, liver and kidneys.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS.

—Elizabeth people are talking of doubling their liquor license.

—Weedfield is progressing. Its town officials have just purchased two pair of hand-cuffs.

—William A. Coddington has been entrusted with four cases against the extension of Peace street.

—Yesterday was a red letter day for Borough Council Record. Neither one of his dogs was captured by the Borough Dog Catcher.

—Tickets are selling rapidly for the grand pyrotechnical display which the Crescent League Managers have arranged for the night of July 4.

—Six hundred feet more of the street railway track was laid yesterday. During the past five days an average of 540 feet has been laid each day.

—James Morton of Elizabeth, had two carrier pigeons let loose from Youngstown, Ohio, recently. One arrived home in good time and the other fell missing.

—Some Plainfield cyclists—say the Weatfield Leader—lost their way on our streets the other evening, and "as they couldn't find any policeman, they had to be directed how to reach home."

—The English language is great. We speak of a "bevy of girls," when referring to a number of them together, but in the next breath characterize a number of boys as a "howling mob of kids."

—The Reading railroad will, as usual, sell special reduced rate excursion tickets on July 2, 3 and 4, good to return July 5 inclusive. No special tickets will be sold where the excursion rate is less than 25 cents.

—The Temple Builders Society of the First Baptist Church, a missionary society composed of the young men of the church, will hold a public meeting to-morrow evening in place of the regular Sunday evening preaching service.

—Persons who set off fire-crackers or otherwise celebrate in any of the streets of the city before the Fourth of July, according to a notice published in another column, render themselves liable to a fine of twenty dollars.

—A new bicycle had been developed. This time it is a sensible one. It is to wear a light, wide-brimmed, soft felt hat, also Buffalo Bill, instead of the small and heavy cap, when out for a spin. It has kept the head cool and protects the eyes from the glare of the sun.

—At a meeting of the Republican City Executive Committee last night, final details for next Tuesday night's Ratification Meeting and Rally, at Music Hall, were arranged. Judge Ullyott announced that he had been able to secure both Judge Hoffman and Major Z. K. Pangborn to address the meeting.

—The residents of East Second street were awakened from their sound sleep early this morning by the loud bang made by a piece of light artillery in the hands of a neighboring chicken fancier. Some thought the noise was a slight celebration over the nomination of Harrison and their feelings were greatly elated thereby. Later, it was found that a large tom-cat had been caught stealing Weather-Prophet-Snow's chickens and his life had been taken in payment.

—A young son of a cyclist of the city has a young son who has a wheel. Last evening on reaching home, the father found the boy pounding away in the barn by the light of a tallow candle. Close inspection showed that the youthful cyclist had removed the mud guard, brake and even the coasters from his machine, so as to be in style and feel more the weight. The boy felt much hurt when compelled to replace the parts. He had evidently been reading the Courier.

—Bicycle Notes.

Zimmerman, whose fast safety bicycle "Record" has been accepted in England as the standard, has his wheel geared to fifty-six.

Captain F. L. C. Martin has gone to Elizabeth to-day to act as clerk of the first trial heat between members of the Honelle (Baltimore), Crawford (Cyclists) and the Elizabeth Athletic Club, who are competing in the Journal trophy race.

There is some talk of organizing a Harrison and Field bicycle campaign club, the members of which would take part in all political demonstrations on their wheels, and with their lanterns and bells, add a little to the parade during the coming campaign.

The Crescenta Club.

Last Saturday's ball game demonstrated that there are times when even the Crescenta "can't beat the ball."

This is due not so much to the "rattler" in the eye-fall, a condition for which there is no remedy, as Collier's, where all objects of the eye are considered and best treatment assured.

A MODEL DRUG STORE.

A Description of the Establishment Conducted by L. W. Randolph on West Front Street.—Some Facts Regarding its History During the Past Twenty-Eight Years.

Nearly thirty years ago, some time before Plainfield became a city, a drug store was started on the north side of West Front street. At that time Plainfield was a good-sized town, but had few improvements of the present day. Her inhabitants although not numerous, were sufficient to justify W. H. Voorhis in starting the store which he did with the intention of keeping the best store of its kind in the State. Since 1865, the business has been carried on under several managements, until 1887, when the firm of Field & Randolph took possession.

The business at that time was very much run down, and Messrs. Field & Randolph felt that they had an almost herculean task on their hands to bring back the trade of former years to the establishment again. But, undaunted at the prospect, they took hold.

To-day Mr. Randolph has the pleasure of owning one of the most prosperous and best conducted pharmaceutical establishments in the State. In 1889 Mr. Field withdrew.

Mr. Randolph's first act, on assuming sole ownership of the business, was to re-classify the entire establishment. He arranged goods by themselves, giving everything a place and has kept them to this day. The whereabouts of every article in his immense establishment is so well known to him or anyone of his courteous assistants that, if necessary, they get nothing wrong if a store was in entire darkness.

The same carefulness has been carried on in all his business dealings, and he has gained a merited reputation for accuracy, which too few druggists in the State possess.

A person on entering the establishment is almost bewildered with the elegance of the interior. On the right stands an elaborate Puffer Soda Water fountain. There are receptacles for twenty different kinds of syrups, together with two soda water fountains and four for mineral waters.

One of the most elaborate ever seen and cost in the neighborhood of $2,500. Its proprietor would never have put it in his establishment had not he felt justified in doing so to supply his large and growing soda water trade.

The right hand side of the store is taken up with a case for cigars and the necessary prescription scales and their adjuncts. On the opposite side of the store are handsome show cases, filled with the largest and most complete line of toilet articles, soaps and perfumery and other fancy articles ever shown in the city. Back of the counters, on both sides of the store, are large shelves, filled with the medicines and drugs found in all well appointed establishments.

In the rear of the store is a large prescription counter, on the front of which is a massive plate glass mirror. The rear of the counter is fitted up with shelves, drawers and other necessary fixtures. Back of this is a large pharmaceutical laboratory from which there is no better view in the city. Here may be found a torsion balance scale, which is so delicate it weighs the sixty-fourth part of a grain. This finely adjusted piece of mechanism is used entirely in compounding the many medical preparations for which Randolph's pharmacy is famous.

The entire establishment is lighted at night by electric lights, the rays of which reflecting from the many colored shades throughout the store, present to the eye a most pleasing sight. Medical preparations are compounded with the greatest care, none but the purest drugs are kept in stock and physicians' prescriptions are compounded with the utmost accuracy.

The store is open on Sunday only on certain hours and no soda water or cigars are sold on that day.

It is a fact that Mr. Randolph has been in business six other drug stores have been opened in the city. Everybody knows him to be reliable in all his dealings, and this reputation Mr. Randolph is determined to keep at all hazards. His motto is "be sure you are right, then go ahead."

His business is largely and all those who give him a call will receive courteous treatment from his large force of assistants.

That Demonstration (1) Last Night.

The Independent Drum Corps made a fine appearance on the street last night. Incidentally they were accompanied by a crowd of boys and three local Democratic leaders. This constituted the local demonstration called forth by the nomination of Cleveland and Stevenson.

It wasn't enthusiastic; it wasn't a riot; it was a perfect performance and was very much enjoyed by the local Republicans. After the parade James E. Martine, R. M. Stover and Judge Wadsworth made a "grand" jollification over the nomination of Cleveland and Stevenson for President and Vice President. In front of the Hotel Granada, Farmer James secured a chair and addressed a crowd of about fifty. Three Roman Catholics were shot off and one green light burned, the latter with the idea of capturing the Irish vote.

St. Mary's Commencement.

INTERESTING EXERCISES HELD IN MUSIC HALL LAST EVENING.

The Young People Assured themselves with Credit to themselves and to the Sisters Who have Taught Them, as Faithfully—Father Smith's Elegant Address on the Importance of the Parish School.

The first annual commencement exercises of St. Mary's Parochial School took place in Music Hall last evening, before a large and delighted audience. To speak plainly the hall was literally packed with the parents and friends of the pupils. There were no floral decorations on the platform. All of the scholars acquitted themselves most admirably.

In the lower right-hand box, Monsignor Seton of a double quartette composed of Messrs. J. Connelley, J. Sheehan, J. Delaney, T. Connelley and the Misses J. Schaffer, J. Day, T. Scully and E. Day. A table, the "Rainbow" bought the first part of the programme to a close.

Part second opened with a finely rendered piano trio, "Dance d'un Hamelet," by Holst, in which the Misses E. Kelly, A. Roth and K. Carthy, showed themselves to be experts on the ivory keys.

The concert recitation, "Death of King Conner MacNeen," and the tambourine drill was one of the most pleasing features of the entertainment, and too much cannot be said in praise of those who took part in it. Master Thomas Connelley's solo, "Wrecked and Saved," is also deserving of special mention. The boy has a fine clear voice, and his singing is unusually clear and his words distinct. "Little Dream" was dramatized in one act by the following cast of characters:

"Nan," Miss M. Lynch; "May," Miss A. Daley; "Libbie," Miss L. Day; "Eva," Miss E. O'Keefe; "Cora," Miss S. Rogers; "Nellie," Miss C. Newman; "Dottie," Miss K. Roach; "Grace," Miss S. Goff; "Minnie," Miss K. Harding.

FAIRIES.

"Queen Mab," Miss S. Ullery; "Gentle Voice," Miss L. Hughes; "Kind Eyes," Miss M. Burke; "Ready Hand," Miss E. Guiney; "Loving Heart," Miss S. McGilley; "Happy Smile," Miss M. Harding; "Silver Tongue," Miss E. Walsh.

The song, "Our Gallant Boys in Blue," and the military drill by St. Mary's Cadets, were noteworthy features of the entertainment. The boys marched to perfection and displayed proficiency in military tactics worthy of the Regular Army.

"Sweet Pleasures on the Water" was the title of a vocal duet by Miss J. Schaffer and Miss J. Day. It brought forth loud and prolonged applause, no encores were allowed on account of the length of the programme.

CONVERSATION OF HONORS.

Rev. J. J. Smith and Rev. Father Stafford then conferred the honors as follows, the former making the presentation and the latter the announcement:

The Misses Katie Dunn and Julia Day each received a diploma and laurel, for having completed the prescribed course of study. In the Grammar Class, prizes were offered for the highest average in the class. The following in studios and best composition:

In the Senior Class for proficiency prizes were awarded to Miss Julia Day for arithmetic; for composition, Miss Katie Quinn. Both were gold medals conferred by Father Smith.

In the first preparatory class the prize for proficiency was awarded to Miss Anna Roth. The prize for best composition was Miss Edna Phillips. The prize for arithmetic went to Frederick Hughes.

George Kuhn secured the first prize for proficiency in the second preparatory department. David Sheehan came in second for a prize for composition, and Miss Maggie Ryan was awarded the prize for best composition.

In the third preparatory department, Miss Nettie Goff got the prize for proficiency; Miss Lena Weber, for composition and Miss Mary Lynch, for arithmetic. In the fourth preparatory class, Miss Mary Doll was awarded the prize for proficiency; Patrick Guiney for composition and Richard Scott for arithmetic.
