OUR CANDIDATES.

FOR PRESIDENT.

BENJAMIN HARRISON,
Of Indiana.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

WHITELAW REID,
Of New York.

Tariff Pictures.

Protection to our woolen industries has increased the South's production of woolen goods from $4,601,588 in 1880 to $7,255,354 in 1890. And yet the free trade Congressmen from the South support legislation that tends to shut up the woolen mills of that region. Who are the real enemies of the commercial prosperity of the South—New York Times.The New Jersey Republican State Committee has been called to meet at Taylor's Hotel, Jersey City, to-day, for the purpose of organization, and to take active measures for the opening of the campaign.LEUTENANT Governor Sheehan, of New York, a wide-awake and far-seeing Democratic politician, says that Benjamin Harrison has made one of the best Presidents the Republican party has ever given the country, and that he is a stronger candidate than he was four years ago.Among the many striking facts about the new tariff which have been underneath by Governor McKinley is this: In Woonsocket, R. I., ground which a year ago produced a ton of hay to the acre now produces a ton of yarn to the square foot. Is it any wonder Rhode Island votes for Protection?Wine sales have been sold by Western mills at $2.50 per keg of 100 pounds. There is quite a difference between this figure and the $10 a keg at which they used to sell when we enjoyed the blessed privilege under practical Free Trade in sales of buying them where we could buy the cheapest.Nor a colored delegate appeared in the luncheon assembled at Chicago.

It was a gathering of white men representing the same old party that used to shout, "This is a white man's government." The colored man may serve to his heart's content as a helper of wood and a drawer of water, but he can't be a citizen and vote—not if the Democratic party can prevent it.When they are sick, we give them Quinine.
When they are old, we give them Quinine.
When they are weak, we give them Quinine.
When they are nervous, we give them Quinine.
When they are all of these things, we give them Quinine.—Only three days more left in which to record your guess in the Courier base ball contest.

WHY BICYCLES COST SO MUCH.

They are Almost Entirely Made by Hand, and Their Construction is Almost as Delicate as That of a Watch.—Hence They are Covered With Patents.Many people have often wondered what there is about a high grade bicycle that makes it cost so much.
The machine looks simple enough and there do not seem to be any complicated parts about it to warrant the high figure at which it is sold. In answering this question, it should be remembered in the first place that the machine is covered with patents.
In the second place, all of its parts are made on the interchangeable principle, so that a missing or broken part can easily be supplied from the factory at any time. All of these parts undergo a most rigid system of inspection, and are submitted to severe strains before being sent out for use. Main parts, like the sprocket wheel, hubs, bearing, etc., are gauged, the allowance for variation being one-quarter of a thousandth. A variation in excess of this throws the place out.The method of "straining" the wheel is thus described: "The outer ends of the spokes are threaded in order to enter the hardened brass nutlets, the cap of which is, of course, on the side of the rim. The boy who strings the wheel up merely tightens the nipples sufficiently to hold the parts together. After this the wheel goes to an expert workman, who tightens the spokes, bringing them all under the desired tension. The wheel is then mounted on an axle and turned, a piece of chalk held near the rim showing the defects. To make the wheel perfectly true, the nipples are tightened or loosened. This is a simple matter, and yet one requiring great judgment.The breaking of the joints and the making of the felloe or iron to receive the rubber tire are also operations requiring the greatest precision and delicacy of handling. In short, there is no part of the modern bicycle that can be turned out without the most minute attention to detail. The day has not come when it can be turned out factory-fashion.Morristown Cracks Have Their Issues.
The Chronicle of Morristown thus summarizes the game last Wednesday on the grounds of the Crescents: "The trip to Plainfield on Wednesday was a pleasant one—going over. True, the Morristown didn't anticipate wallop-ing the State bosses in the ball field, and their friends scarcely expected they would make as good a showing even as they did. The score was 3 to 1 in favor of Plainfield—a remarkably low score and showing a good game on both sides. The Crescents didn't by any means have a cake walk, and they soon realized this fact when they commenced to fan ozone in front of Hetzel. They only make four hits off him, and for heavy batters and first-class all round players, this was a most creditable record for Morristown. The game should really have been 1 to 1, as the Plainfielder made one run on a error of Mecker, and another on a wrong decision by the umpire—a decision subsequently admitted to be involved in the decision. It was a good game, however, all round, and Plainfield has more respect for the Morristown to-day than they ever had before, while the Morristown—well, they just ache for another crack at the State League champions."Three Accidents in Three Days.
Charles Denckla, the plumber, was thrown from his wagon on West Front street early this morning, but fortunately escaped serious injury. His wagon was upset by coming in contact with a beam of dirt which the first Railway Company had left in the roadway.This makes the third accident of the same nature that has happened in the same locality and from the same cause within the past three days.Proof of the merits of a plaster in the old efforts, and the voluntary testimonials of those who have used ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER during the past thirty years is unimpeachable evidence of their superiority and should convince the most skeptical. Self-praise is no recommendation, but certificates from those who have used them are.Beware of imitations and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for ALCOCK'S, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

WOULD YOU WIN $5?

TAKE GUESSES WHO WILL WIN THE CHAM-PION NEW JERSEY CHAMPION-SHIP SERIES.The Contest Class July 1 and each game will be numbered as it is received—You can guess as many times as You Please—No Guess Counts unless on Blank Printed Paper.The Courier offers a prize of a five-dollar gold piece to the first person who guesses correctly the order in which the League clubs will stand at the end of the series, also the percentage of games secured by the winning club. If no correct guess is received the prize will be awarded to the person first giving the guess which is nearest right. The full blank given below must be cut out and sent to the Sporting editor of the Courier.
The correct name and address must be given. Each person identified to guess as many times as he or she may wish.
Each guess will be numbered and filed away in the order in which it is received. None will be opened until the close of the contest. No guess will be received after the first day of July.
Any sent after that time will not be noticed. The name and address of the winner will be published in the first issue of the Courier, succeeding the close of the series.

REQUEST FOR ROBERT'S RECALL.

The American Captain Lewis R. Head Under Charge in Paris.PARIS, June 25.—The American Legation here has called to Washington asking the authorities to recall Capt. Henry, the Military Attaché who is accused of having procured plans and descriptions of French fortifications for illegal purposes from a clerk in the Naval Department.Capt. Henry has apparently lost his head, and has given several contradictory versions of the affair in interviews he has had with newspaper reporters.A French detective in citizen's clothes saw on a bench in the Avenue Marceau watching the residence of Capt. Henry and the doors of the American Legation.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A case of smallpox has been discovered in Kingston, N. Y.The rainy season has opened at the City of Mexico and has brought with it an epidemic of smallpox.The young Republicans of Lancaster, Pa., have ordered a $125 Harrison and held banner from a Brooklyn manufacturer.Burglar Curran, who escaped from New York's penitentiary, is now in New York, early Sunday morning at the door of Police Headquarters, has not yet been captured.The International Packing and Provision Company and the Chicago Packing and Provision Company have considered the provisions of the new Duties.The Anti-Sweating Society of New York is making a strenuous effort to restore the enforcement of the recently passed law abolishing the sweating shops and appeals for the aid of the labor in their fight.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS.

—Subscribe for the Courier.

—The base ball guessing contest of the Courier closes Friday.

—SEATS FOR LADIES WILL BE RESERVED IN THE BOXES AT THE RATIONIFICATION MEETING IN MUSIC HALL THIS EVENING.

—Ninety dogs in all were delivered to the dog pound by October Friday during the past month. Of this number thirty shot seventeen.

—Stephen Moore, a machinist at Pood's, had a roller run over his right foot on Saturday, breaking the big toe. He was taken home in a carriage.

—A special sale is being held this week at Springer's Shoe Store of teams and summer shoes, which are being offered at very reasonable prices.

—A polestar for conductors of Plainfield, as they do in Atlantic City, and so prevent "bit-bites" when ringing up your fares.

—An electric railway from New Brunswick to Bound Brook is proposed. Why not extend Plainfield's new road to New Brunswick and secure the resulting business?

—Plainfield's former colored crank, alias "Doctor" Williams, who is in jail at New Brunswick, is now under the impression that he is a distant relative of the Emperor of China.

—Frank Burke has left his home at Vineyard Haven, Massachusetts, and he is expected to arrive in this city soon. Burke's father is also expected to arrive in Plainfield soon.

—A delegation of Plainfield fishermen spent yesterday angling at Amboy. Among them were Alexander Sargent and William Brown, and they report an abundant catch of bass and flounders.

—Officer Frederickson has a propensity for arresting horses. Last evening he captured another horse which he found wandering on the track near the gas house. The animal was taken to Roberts' stable.

—The Boys' Club will be closed from Thursday evening, June 20, until September 1. The Superintendent will be at the club rooms daily from ten to twelve a. m. and four to five p. m. from July 1 to August 15, 1892.

—All Peripatetics in this city should turn out to the grand ratification meeting this evening. There will be good music by a brass band, and some of the best speakers on political matters in the State will be present and address the meeting.

—Officer Charles Giese was called to a house in Pruden's Alley, last evening, to stop an incipient riot. Some of the inmates of the place got into a "scrap," and by the time the police arrived some of the kitchen furniture was broken and a few panes of glass were knocked out.

—Carmon Rothberg was arrested by Officer McGee this morning on a charge of peddling without license. Rothberg, after securing Rothberg with going from house to house and offering goods for sale. The prisoner pleaded not guilty and Judge Collington set his trial down for Saturday at 10 o'clock a. m.

—The administrators sale of the house and lot formerly owned by Benjamin Ryno, and located at Dog Corners, in Fanwood township, was sold at public auction yesterday afternoon, by virtue of an order from the Orphan's Court. The property brought $700, and the purchaser was Miles Rasch.

A meeting of the Independent Order of Foresters will be held in the hall of the exempt brethren on Friday evening. This order is one of a benevolent nature and is a branch of one of the oldest fraternal benefit organizations, "The Royal Order of Foresters," which was organized in England in 1745.

—W. S. Ayers, of Kenilworth, while running out a tract of land for Mr. Pardee, on Johnny Jump Mountain, Warren County, came upon two rock oak trees which are described in a return of the West Jersey Proprietors, in 1769, or 123 years ago. The trees were not only there, but still bore very distinctly the original markings.

—G. W. King, who owns a large tract of property in Sussex County, about three miles from Stanhope, has discovered a deposit of marble there. This is the first deposit of marble ever found in New Jersey, with the exception of a few traces discovered on Schooley's Mountain some years ago. The find is estimated to be worth $100,000.

The Fourth of July Market

William G. Holton Council, No. 55, and Friendship Council, No. 81, J. O. U. A. M., of Dunellen and New Market will hold a joint celebration on July 4. In the afternoon, there will be a boat race, tall race, swimming race, bicycle race, foot race, wheel-barrow race, potato race, high-jumping and a tag-out. Prizes will be awarded to the winner in each contest. In the evening there will be a display of fireworks.

—Bicyclists should read the Bicycle Notes in the Courier.

—Courier advertisers are successful business men.

—The annual of the Plainfield High School will be a reception to Miss Julia B. Bulkeley, the retiring principal, in Assembly Hall this evening.

George La Monte, the probable Prohibition nominee for President, is a resident of Bound Brook. He is engaged in the paper business in New York.

During the absence of Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh in Europe his extensive legal business will be in charge of Borough Counsel Charles A. Reed.

In the Class Day exercises at Yale College yesterday Will M. Runyon, son of Ex-Judge Nelson Runyon, of this city, read one of the histories of the class of '92.

The members of the Park Avenue Baptist Church and a few others enjoyed a musical last evening at the residence of William M. Tallman, in Washington Park. It was given in honor of Miss Grace Tallman, of Norristown, Pa., who has assisted the choir the past two Sundays. A very enjoyable evening was spent, Miss Tallman contributing much to the success of the evening's entertainment by her delightful singing.

Manager Tom Keller this morning suspended "Gentle Willie" Murphy without pay.

Regan, the "expert" team felder and change pitcher, whom Manager Keller released last week, is working at the Pond Machine Tool Works.

Willie, the gamble one, says that the exhibition of wooden work which he gave in Saturday's game at Somerville is good enough base ball for $10 a week.

James Meakin, the well-known pitcher for the Troy base ball team, will pitch for the Crescents against the New Jersey Athletic Club team to-morrow afternoon.

The base ball enthusiasts have not yet finished playing Saturday's Crescent-Webb game. That the game was deliberately frittered away there seems to be little doubt.

"Gentle Willie" Murphy says he will play with the Crescents again, and there are a lot of people who hope he will not. This morning he handled the ribbons over a team of truck horses.

The game was close and exciting, resulting in a victory for the Crescents by a score of 3 to 1 and was pronounced by many of the spectators the best game played on that ground this season. The Morris Club secured more base hits than their opponents but lost the game by a few costly errors.—Summit Record.

Charley Hamill, who played last year with the Crescents, has obtained his release from the Westfield because of some friction between himself and some other member of that team. He has been signed by the Crescents as a felder. He is an earnest and able player and our cranks will all be glad to have him back on the team.

Will the Crescents play good ball Wednesday when the famous New Jersey Athletic club of Bayonne City come here to try conclusions with them, is a question which is agitating their supporters. The N. J. A. C. took upon the Crescents, so their men say, as a third-rate club, but it is to be hoped that they will prove themselves men of much better caliber.

Two Men Check Open.

A young boy employed by Alexander Gordon, the Clinton avenue milkman, has an unfortunate experience last Friday which might have been serious. The lad was running along by a barbed wire fence when he stumbled and fell against the fence. One of the sharp points entered his cheek, tearing a deep gash from the middle half to the ear. A couple of stitches in the boy's face brought the edges of the wound together. He is getting along nicely now, though he doesn't look very pretty yet.

Bicycle Notes.

Horace D. Pangborn, of North Plainfield, will attempt to ride to Newburg, N. Y., on a safety in a few days.

Bicycle riders at Bridgeton must be crazy. They are trying to have an ordinance passed prohibiting children's carriages and wheel-barrow races on the sidewalks, because they have been refused the right to ride on them.

Another bad luck struck bicycle riders. It is to change the bell from the extreme left of the handle-bar to its center, and to connect the trigger of the bell by means of a test wire with the brake near the wheel itself. This is done so that the rider by pressing slightly upon the brake bar can ring the bell, without taking his hand off of the handle bar.

Bicycle riders at Bridgeton must be crazy. They are trying to have an ordinance passed prohibiting children's carriages and wheel-barrow races on the sidewalks, because they have been refused the right to ride on them.

Another bad luck struck bicycle riders. It is to change the bell from the extreme left of the handle-bar to its center, and to connect the trigger of the bell by means of a test wire with the brake near the wheel itself. This is done so that the rider by pressing slightly upon the brake bar can ring the bell, without taking his hand off of the handle bar.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. G. W. Hillman and two children of Plainfield, N. J., are visiting Mrs. G. H. Fountain of West Front street.

S. P. Van Hook, of Plainfield, a member of the Class of '94 at Yale College, secured the third Latin prize for his class.

The alumni of the Plainfield High School will tender a reception to Miss Julia B. Bulkeley, the retiring principal, in Assembly Hall this evening.

George La Monte, the probable Prohibition nominee for President, is a resident of Bound Brook. He is engaged in the paper business in New York.

During the absence of Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh in Europe his extensive legal business will be in charge of Borough Counsel Charles A. Reed.

In the Class Day exercises at Yale College yesterday Will M. Runyon, son of Ex-Judge Nelson Runyon, of this city, read one of the histories of the class of '92.

The members of the Park Avenue Baptist Church and a few others enjoyed a musical last evening at the residence of William M. Tallman, in Washington Park. It was given in honor of Miss Grace Tallman, of Norristown, Pa., who has assisted the choir the past two Sundays. A very enjoyable evening was spent, Miss Tallman contributing much to the success of the evening's entertainment by her delightful singing.

Manager Tom Keller this morning suspended "Gentle Willie" Murphy without pay.

Regan, the "expert" team felder and change pitcher, whom Manager Keller released last week, is working at the Pond Machine Tool Works.

Willie, the gamble one, says that the exhibition of wooden work which he gave in Saturday's game at Somerville is good enough base ball for $10 a week.

James Meakin, the well-known pitcher for the Troy base ball team, will pitch for the Crescents against the New Jersey Athletic Club team to-morrow afternoon.

The base ball enthusiasts have not yet finished playing Saturday's Crescent-Webb game. That the game was deliberately frittered away there seems to be little doubt.

"Gentle Willie" Murphy says he will play with the Crescents again, and there are a lot of people who hope he will not. This morning he handled the ribbons over a team of truck horses.

The game was close and exciting, resulting in a victory for the Crescents by a score of 3 to 1 and was pronounced by many of the spectators the best game played on that ground this season. The Morris Club secured more base hits than their opponents but lost the game by a few costly errors.—Summit Record.

Charley Hamill, who played last year with the Crescents, has obtained his release from the Westfield because of some friction between himself and some other member of that team. He has been signed by the Crescents as a felder. He is an earnest and able player and our cranks will all be glad to have him back on the team.

Will the Crescents play good ball Wednesday when the famous New Jersey Athletic club of Bayonne City come here to try conclusions with them, is a question which is agitating their supporters. The N. J. A. C. took upon the Crescents, so their men say, as a third-rate club, but it is to be hoped that they will prove themselves men of much better caliber.

Two Men Check Open.

A young boy employed by Alexander Gordon, the Clinton avenue milkman, has an unfortunate experience last Friday which might have been serious. The lad was running along by a barbed wire fence when he stumbled and fell against the fence. One of the sharp points entered his cheek, tearing a deep gash from the middle half to the ear. A couple of stitches in the boy's face brought the edges of the wound together. He is getting along nicely now, though he doesn't look very pretty yet.

Bicycle Notes.

Horace D. Pangborn, of North Plainfield, will attempt to ride to Newburg, N. Y., on a safety in a few days.
