PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS.

It appears that the escaped inmate who aroused the residents of West Front street early yesterday morning with his cries of "murder," did not confine himself entirely to that section, for he was heard in Dundee soon after midnight. There he made himself still more objectionable and was warned to leave the place or he would be arrested.

Those Democrats who attended the third ward primary last night were surprised to find that fifty-three votes had been cast, in place of the dozen or so usually voted. Of these, fifty were cast for Birmingham, Martine's man, one for Temple, while the remaining two were marked "yes."

People did not complain so much about the cold yesterday as on Sunday, but the mercury was not any higher, in fact it was not so high as on the preceding day. The reason was the absence of moisture in the atmosphere. The extremes were 62 and 35.5, as against 68 and 43.5 on the preceding day.

Lovers of music should call at F. H. Martine's music parlor for their vocal and instrumental music. He has just made such arrangements with the New York publishers that he is enabled to sell all copyrighted sheet music at one-third less than the regular price. He has, he has 3,000 other pieces which he offers at five cents a copy.

MORE LIGHT WANTED.

The Plainfield Bicycle Club think the City Council should amend the Bicycle Ordinance, No. 12 should apply to All Vehicles at Night.—They Adopt a Resolution to That Effect.

The regular monthly meeting of the Plainfield Bicycle Club was held last evening, at which time the resignations of Howard L. Emerson and P. H. Okeefe were accepted, while D. M. Van Vleet, F. W. Brown, and A. E. Storer, J. N. Moore and Dexter O. Tiffany were elected members. It was unanimously decided to send a request to the Plainfield Common Council, asking them to make the ordinance relating to the carrying of lamps on bicycles at night apply to all vehicles.

The Club decided to send a large delegation of its members to New York to-morrow-evening to take part in the Columbian parade. Bert Harvey, the colored janitor of the Club, will accompany them to look out for the wheels. The question of organizing a bicycle race to use the gymnasium on Wednesday afternoon, during the Winter was discussed, and a committee consisting of G. Mahor, E. L. Walz, Jr., and A. G. Tilley was appointed to investigate the matter and report to the Board of Trustees.

Considerable discussion took place over a proposed amendment to the constitution, which sought to eliminate the word "association" from the classes of membership. The elimination would leave but two classes, active and non-resident. The reason the amendment was introduced was because uninitiated members are said to care little about bicycle riding, and always vote down anything which tends towards its advancement. They are only interested in the gymnasium and the social side of the Club. The amendment was laid over the table until the next meeting.

The Club decided to have a "smoker" every next month and a Committee of Five, with Captain Martin as Chairman, was appointed to tend to the matter. The Club also voted to have F. L. E. Martin and Color Bearer Lon Tlaworth lead the parade of the Club in New York to-morrow night on a tandem carrying a large transparency, lettered "Plainfield Bicycle Club, New Jersey."

A Good Subject to Talk About.

The Rev. G. Hobart Clark delivered an interesting lecture last night in All Saints' Church, on "Christianity in the New World." The church was well filled with an appreciative audience. The proposition of the evening was that "America was discovered, but nobody knew that it was America or what America itself was, and men are still endeavoring to find out." A well taken and furnished the text upon which an interesting discourse was built up.

They Will Appear at the Warren Mission. The Hockins family will give an entertainment at the Warren Union Mission Chapel on Thursday evening.

ALL MARTINE MEN.

The Former Gravel Will Go to the Convention With a Solid Home Delegation Behind Him.—Billy Town's Opponents Fear Out West Effectually.

The Democratic primaries to elect delegates to the Congressional convention were held last evening, and in all but one of the wards the attendance was small. At the Fourth Ward primary there were some 500 voters, and in the First Ward there was a fair attendance. In the Second Ward it was hard work at first to get a chairman but one was finally found. The result of the primaries follows:

FIRST WARD
Chairman—L. P. Wadsworth; Secretary—J. J. Kenney; Judge—J. Martine; Delegates to the Congressional Convention—J. G. Miller, and I. F. Wadsworth.

SECOND WARD
Chairman—John M. Dayton; Secretary—John N. Morrison; Judge—Charles H. Storer; Clerk of Election—R. M. Storer; Delegates—L. G. Timpon, J. N. Morrison.

THIRD WARD
The Third Ward Democratic primary was held in Stiel's livery stable on West Sixth street. The Democratic voters in that ward are numbered, and it is said, that a year or two ago a Republican was requested to act as secretary so that a meeting could be held. Last night F. M. Bacon was the unanimous choice for chairman. Edward Tobin was elected secretary. George Birmingham was chosen the delegate.

FOURTH WARD
Chairman—V. L. Frazer; Secretary—James Daly, Jr.; Judge—M. R. Flynn; Inspectors—J. O. Searing, George Mohl; Delegates—Sterling Flynn, Jr., V. L. Frazer, J. O. Searing.

He Forgot to Instruct His Subordinates.

The sporting editor of the Press was so busy yesterday in endeavoring to fix up the Democratic congressional convention delegates in order to prevent "Farmer Jim" from getting Plainfield's support because he would not promise him the post office should Cleveland get elected, that he forgot to leave instructions as to what the paper would play in the game. He is in consequence very tired to-day, and will soon have to take another much-needed rest. This time it will be along the banks of salt river. The following from last evening's Press shows how he was betrayed by his own household:

In fact, the only Democrat that is showing a fight against Cleveland against him in Plainfield to-day, is one to whom Mr. Martine refused to promise his support for the Plainfield post office. This man then went to Mr. Dunn with the same request, and as he has ever since been working tooth and nail against Mr. Martine, Mr. Dunn's answer can be easily discerned.

It Wasn't Very Interesting.

"That Girl From Mexico" isn't very much of a girl, and the sooner Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew resigns her to the realms of innocent destitute, the better for their fortunes as joint stars. They are both of them far too comely to be so. Their last evening play, a literary trash which they presented in Music Hall last night. The play never has been a success probably because it is showing a fight against Cleveland against him in Plainfield to-day, is one to whom Mr. Martine refused to promise his support for the Plainfield post office. This man then went to Mr. Dunn with the same request, and as he has ever since been working tooth and nail against Mr. Martine, Mr. Dunn's answer can be easily discerned.

The Glee and the Rhyme.

Every good thing has its host of imitators; every genuine article its counterfeit. It is no more so in the case of the most valuable and popular article to counterfeit, so that when they claim their share to be equal, or as good, or the same as "Gee-and-So's," the public may depend upon it that "Gee-and-So's" article is the best of the kind. The sham proves the genuine merit of the thing it copies and never has this been better illustrated than by the imitations of ALLOCOCK'S FINGER PLASTER.

ALLOCOCK'S FINGER PLASTER is the standard of excellence the world over, and its imitators in their city that their is "as good as ALLOCOCK'S" are only emphasizing this fact and admitting "ALLOCOCK'S" to be the acme of perfection, which it is their highest ambition to imitate. The difference between the genuine and these imitations, which copy only general appearance, is as wide as that between copper and gold.

The only safe way for purchasers is always insist upon having ALLOCOCK'S FINGER PLASTER. They are the only perfect plaster ever produced.

Re-Convening Sunday Will Prove.
