—Next Friday, October 21, is a legal holiday in New Jersey.

—The New York World of this morning places J. O. Stevens, of this city, on the list for a ten dollar subscription to the competing clubs for the World Banners. The subscription was for the Westfield Athletic Club.

THE TELLERS HAD A BIG JOB.

Over Two Hundred Ballots Cast at the Westfield Democratic Primary Last Evening.—Several Tickets in the Field.

The Democrats of North Plainfield held their primary last night, for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention which is to be held at Somerville next Monday.

The primary was held in the basement of the school house on Somerset street, and was largely attended. John Bodine was made chairman, and the other officers were Levi Kline, Secretary; Stewart Shann, Assistant Secretary; Edward Morse and William Pangborn, tellers.

There were two tickets in the field, besides several splits. Of these, the two important ones were the Blackford and Morse tickets. The cause of their being two tickets, it is said, was on account of some dissatisfaction on the part of L. R. Blackford as to the make up of his ticket.

The polls were opened from eight until nine o'clock and an old list had duty for a ballot-box. Into this, over 200 ballots were cast, although there were several who refused to vote, claiming that its use for such purpose was illegal. The polls were closed at nine o'clock, and it took the tellers over one and one-half hours to count the votes.

The Blackford ticket, which contained the names of Andrew Love, Lewis B. Blackford, W. H. Ludlow, John Emerson and Joseph Black, was elected, while the Morse ticket, which contained the names of F. M. Slater, J. F. Case, W. R. Kenny, B. Luerssen and G. H. Neal, was defeated.

REV. DR. LEWIS' SERMON.

The Discovery of America as Related to the Development and History of Christianity.

As announced in the Courier of yesterday, the Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, pastor of this morning in the Seventh-Day Baptist Church, taking as his subject, "The discovery of America as related to the development and history of Protestant and Roman Catholic Christianity."

In his discourse, the reverend speaker brought forward the idea that all movements among nations have their origin in religious ideas. This idea is illustrated by the story of Abraham going out of Chaldea. His movement was, primarily, the formation of the great Jewish nation. He spoke about the great religious unrest in the Sixteenth Century and traced the Protestant movement in Germany, Sweden, France and England and showed that it could not find rest there. He compared the power of Roman Catholicism with the strength of the Church. Its power was so great that it prevented anything more than the beginning of the Protestant movement.

This Protestant movement, the reverend speaker showed to be a question of personal faith. Its growth demanded a new field and so God opened up America for that field. When the Protestant religion was first brought to America, there was no civilization, no system of religion. There were mere endless opportunities for the work, and an immense territory for its spread and growth. So on the religious side, the discovery of America opened a field for the higher and richer fields of religion.

A $50,000 Auditorium to Be Built at Ocean Grove.

Plainfielders having cottages at Ocean Grove will be interested in the semi-annual meeting of the Ocean Grove Camp-meeting Association which was held yesterday. All the officials were re-elected, including President Stokes and Vice-President Ballard, who have served for twenty-three years. The Association decided to erect a new auditorium on the camp grounds, and will cost $50,000. The monster building will be completed in time for the summer next summer. The money needed to erect the auditorium will be raised by popular subscription.

The Lesson of History.

It required many years of search and enquiry before Columbus could find anyone who would recognize the worthlessness of his theories of discovery. Don't let it be so many years before you recognize the fact that your eye-sight can be preserved only through such care as an optician can advise for you. Such advice you can obtain gratis at Collier's, 34 Park avenue.

A Typographical Error Corrected.

The types yesterday made the Courier say, in the report of the Democratic convention at Elizabeth, that John M. Crane was thrown out by a policeman. The name should have been John M. Calne. Mr. Crane is a well-known Republican, while Mr. Calne is a Democrat.

How Carriages Arrive.

CHAMBERLAINE, OF BAYONNE.

NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT ELIZABETH NAMES A STRONG CANDIDATE.

A Harmonious Gathering of the Delegates From the New Eighth District.—The Nomination Made on the First Ballot.—The Meeting a Great Favorite in Hudson County.

[BY WIRE TO THE COURIER.] ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 24.—The Republican Congressional Convention was held here to-day, and it was most harmonious throughout. There was a full complement of the delegates present, and unlike the Democratic convention of yesterday, everything passed off pleasantly.

The convention was called to order at 12:15 o'clock, by Thomas Belknap, Postmaster of Roselle, who was the temporary chairman. Charles H. Griffin, of Elizabeth, was made permanent chairman.

The temporary Secretaries selected were: G. S. Bogart, of Bayonne; J. S. Louden, of Elizabeth; and J. Hayward, of Orange.

In the county caucuses J. B. Coward was made chairman of the Union county delegation; William Parkinson, of the Essex delegation; and Morgan Thomas, of the Hudson delegation. After organization was effected the convention took a recess until 1:30 o'clock.

During the recess the Union county delegation held a caucus on the platform. C. C. McBride, of Elizabeth, was the chairman. The caucus selected the following representatives on the committee: On Credentials, Dennis Long, Union; Rules, J. J. Louden, Elizabeth; Resolutions, C. C. McBride, Elizabeth; Vice President, John W. Murray, Jr., Plainfield.

The Union county delegation seemed to be in favor of Foster M. Voorhees for the nomination, but the latter's name was withdrawn. The county caucuses gave J. W. Murray, 35 votes; Ulrich, 13; Chamberlain, 2. Ten wards from Elizabeth refused to vote.

The convention re-assembled at half-past one o'clock this afternoon.

Nominations were called for, and Hudson county nominated W. S. Chamberlain, of Bayonne; Essex county nominated Elias W. Condit, of Orange, and Union county nominated J. W. Murray and Judge Ulrich, of Plainfield.

An informal ballot resulted in Chamberlain receiving 40 votes; Condit, 14; Murray, 35; and Ulrich, 16.

Judge Ulrich then withdrew his name, and a regular ballot was taken, which resulted in Chamberlain receiving 55 votes; Condit, 11; and Murray, 20. Chamberlain's nomination was immediately made unanimous.

Mr. Chamberlain is the candidate from the Eighth District on the Republican electoral ticket. He will immediately resign, and enter at once upon an active campaign. He lives at Pampano, and has taken an active interest in political matters for many years and is very popular with the citizens of Hudson county.

Rating for Strength.

"Food that 'nausea good' is digested more readily and assimilated more perfectly, so that we really derive more nourishment from it." So says the Boston Cook Book, and the sentiment is so sound and the language so well chosen that we really think it must have been written under the inspiration of a "ham omelet" made with Ferra Famous Ham. Has cured others of "that tired feeling" will cure you.

KILLED NEAR GRANT AVENUE.

Young James Walsh Meets His Death by Jumping in Front of a Passenger Engine.—He is Said to Have Been Catching on the Cars.

James F. Walsh, Jr., son of James Walsh, a foreman at the Pond Tool Works, met a violent death near the Grant avenue station about 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The boy is only in his eighth year.

It is said that he was getting off a coal train when he ran directly in front of passenger engine No. 222, going West. His face and head were horribly mutilated, and he was badly injured about the body. Death must have been instantaneous.

Walsh's father was informed of the accident and he carried the body to his home, 25 Lee place.

The accident is thought to be due to carelessness on the part of the boy. Railroad officials were at the house less than an hour after the accident occurred, looking for information.

THE CHORAL SOCIETY'S CONCERT.

Plans for The Three Entertainment to Be Given During the Season.

During the coming season the Choral Society proposes to vary its programme somewhat by producing some works of a lighter character, and not to confine its efforts and study to oratorio exclusively.

The last half of the programme for the first concert will be devoted to Mendelssohn's "Athalia," with its dramatic music and inspiring readings. If possible Charles Roberts, Jr., will be engaged as the reader.

The second concert will be of a popular and musical character, and the series will terminate with the "Creation," which when rendered two years ago met with general approval.
