Tariff Pictures.

Wages in the manufacturing establishments of Buffalo, the old home of Grover Cleveland, average $413 per hand in 1890. In 1890, after ten years more of the very tariff against which his free trade message was directed, on the ground that it was grinding down the workman, wages had risen to $502 per annum for every person employed. Is it possible that he did not know what was going on in his former home?—New York Press.

—Queen City Lodge, No. 225, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at the next meeting on Monday evening, will confer the third degree upon four teen members.

—The Democratic members of the Cleveland and Stevenson campaign club must either be economical or mighty poor. They are now washing their hands and faces in a wash bowl borrowed from a Republican who lives over their headquarters in the Crescent Hotel building.

—The recent League Bowling Team went to Elizabeth, last evening, and bowled against a team from the E. A. C. The totals were Elizabeth, 1,507; Plainfield, 1,377.

—The Elizabeth Herald says that the Sheriff is the only man who has had his wages increased under the McKinley bill. This goes to show that the editor of the Herald has no use for facts that prove him a pro-vicearist.

Old Veterans Meet in Re-Union.

The surviving members of the Fourteenth New Jersey Volunteer, 172 in number, held their annual reunion at Woodbridge, on Wednesday. Interesting exercises were held in Masonic Hall, followed by a banquet. The members now living in this city, and who participated, are Edward Thors, A. C. Townley, William Pangborn, J. Taylor, D. Pope, Charles King and Thomas Clark.

Taking Time by the Forelock.

Edward B. Kelly, of Summit, who was nominated for Coroner by the Democratic County Convention of Wednesday, has refused to accept.

The One to Life.

If your blood is out of order you are liable to be afflicted with various diseases, such as Catarrh, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Salt Rheum, Scabies and running sores. Dr. B. D. Howe, a blood specialist, discovered that certain roots that grow in Arabia, proved most successful in eradicating blood poison than any remedy known to the medical world. He experimented and invented his celebrated Arabian Blood Tonic. It stands at the head of all blood purifiers in the world. Sold by Shaw, drug-

CELEBRATING COLUMBUS DAY.

Interesting Exercises by the Pupils of the St. Mary's School.—The Out-Door Exercises include Reading of the President's Proclamation, Raising the Flag and an Address by Mayor Gilbert, followed by Ceremonies in the Parochial School Hall. Nowhere in the city was Columbus Day more appropriately celebrated today than by the scholars of St. Mary's Parochial School, and it is needless to say that the details of the celebration were carried out in every particular. From an improvised platform erected on the lawn adjoining the church, the out-door exercises took place. It was decorated with national colors. Seated on the platform were Rev. Father Smyth, who presided, Mayor Alexander Gilbert, Rev. Father Cushing, Rev. Father Glennon, of Ashbury Park, Rev. Father Smyth, of Crumford, A. Harpending and Rev. D. E. Robertson, the two latter from this city.

On the lawn the scholars of the school were arranged in tiers, and the members of St. Mary's cadets and drum corps were stationed directly in front of the speakers. Several hundred persons were present to witness the exercises, which opened with the reading of the President's Proclamation by Mayor Frederick Hughes, followed by unfurling a handsome new flag from the flag pole in front of the school. When the flag was thrown to the breeze, the cadets marched to the spot followed by the Misses Lyla Hughes, Clara Manning, Katie Daly and Dorothy. The four girls depositing the old flag at the base of the flag staff. Mayor Gilbert was introduced by Father Smyth and made telling address. He reviewed the length the history of Christopher Columbus and his discovery, and said he was glad that on the four hundredth anniversary of the day was being so generally observed. This holiday, he said, should be one of general rejoicing and productive of knowledge. Mayor Gilbert admonished the children assembled around him to study up the history of Columbus and his discovery, adding that the day was one of the greatest in the history of the nation. At the conclusion of his remarks the Mayor was given three hearty cheers and presented with a handsome basket of flowers. The children sang "My Country 'Tis of Thee," after which adjournment was made from the lawn to the parochial school hall, where the exercises were resumed.

The hall was filled to overflowing, and many were unable to gain admission. The exercises consisted of a chorus, "Song of Columbus Day," by the school, a declamation, "Our Country," by Master John Daly, another chorus, a concert recitation, "Columbia's Banner," and a drill of the little patriots. The finale was a "Hymn of Thanksgiving" by the assembly.

The school hall was prettily and artistically decorated with flags, bunting and Chinese lanterns, the result of the good taste of the Sisters of Charity. Sister Mary Esther presided at the piano.

The Roberts-Lyon Controversy to be Decided Next Friday.—No Intuition Has Yet been Granted.

There has been no injunction granted by the court to prevent the chaotic mortgage sale at Roberts' livery stable. Upon representations made by Mr. Lyon in the case, Mr. Lyons, the Vice-Chancellor made an order requiring Mr. Roberts and Mr. Waldron to show cause why an injunction should not be granted. To give time to hear Mr. Roberts' side, the court ordered a preliminary stay of the proceedings to sell. When Mr. Roberts' side has answered, the court in the plainest possible language declared that it was Mr. Roberts' who had sworn to be true. Mr. Lyons had no case, but he would give Mr. Lyons a chance to take testimony. On Mr. Roberts' motion, the Vice-Chancellor agreed to hear this testimony himself in open court next Friday. It is now simply a question as to which will be believed, Mr. Lyons' story or Mr. Roberts'. If the former, the injunction will probably be granted; if the latter, it will not be granted and the sale will take place. In the meantime, the sale will be adjourned to Saturday, October 29, at 10 o'clock, a. m.

No Wonder the Weather is Changeable.

Weather Compiler John Neagle, of East Fifth street, met with a painful accident while at work at carpet factory, yesterday afternoon. In some unexplained manner he caught his left leg in the machinery, and the result was a broken leg. He was badly torn. Dr. T. H. Tomlinson dressed the wound.

Experience of an Ex-Champion.

Athletes and men who take ordinary outdoor exercise such as walking, running, bicycling, jumping swimming, tennis, etc., are often the subjects of acute troubles. The experience of an ex-champion walker will be of interest to all who are afflicted. HARRY BROWNE writes:

Numerous statements relative to the merits of different plaster have been brought to my attention. I take this opportunity to state that I have used ALLOE'S FOREIGN PLASTER for over 20 years and prefer them to any other kind. I would furthermore state that I was very sick with catarrh of the kidneys, and attribute my recovery entirely to ALLOE'S FOREIGN PLASTER.

Is Marriage a Failure?

Have you been trying to get the best of catarrh, without result in your family? Have you been wasting your life from the effects of dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Indigestion? Are you sleepless at night? Do you wake in the morning feeling languid, with coated tongue and swollen head? Look! Don't do it. A short to the camp tells how Aunt Penny's Health Restorer has cured others. It will cure you. Trial package free. Large size 50c. at L. W. Randolph's.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Cuticura. When she was a Child, we used her Cuticura. When she became a Girl, she clung to Cuticura. When she had Children, she gave them Cuticura. When Baby was sick, we gave her Cuticura.

IT IS A STRONG TICKET.

And Plainfield Republicans Will Be Loyal Work For the Man Selected As the Standard-Bearer in the Present Campaign.

The Republican County Convention at Elizabeth yesterday was a remarkably harmonious demonstration. The candidates selected are in every way worthy and all of them possess strength and popularity a sufficient to secure for them the offices for which they have been nominated. In taking the chair as presiding officer, Congressman Ackerman of this city, briefly epitomized the local situation as follows:

I thank you for the honor which you have conferred upon me. While this convention is not one which deals strictly with those burning questions of national interest, so extended remarks upon the tariff or currency are at this time necessary, yet because such is the case, it does not alter the fact that the duties of the delegates here assembled are any less important than the duties of the delegates who have attended the National or Congressional conventions. Indeed, the offices for which nominations are to be made to-day, are to be filled by men who more or less into direct daily contact with the voters of the county, and for this reason I have no doubt that the delegates, appreciating this fact, will name candidates who will so respond to the voters of Union county that they will not only receive the full support of the Republican party, but will attract many votes from our Democratic friends. The political sides are indeed bright for us, and it has been a long time since such an excellent opportunity for seeing the whole of the Republican ticket has existed. Speaking of the Democratic side of the county which I have the honor to name to represent to-day, I am sure that I voice the sentiments of the entire Plainfield delegation when I say that no matter what is the decision of the convention, no heart burnings will be felt, but we will work together, arm in arm and shoulder to shoulder, and with a song pull, and a strong pull, and a pull all together, totally ignore the Democratic vote, and will undoubtedly elect the electoral ticket, John Keen and Chamberlain, and the majority of this Convention on the 29th of November.

GEORGE T. PARROT.

This is in every way the right idea. No better men could be nominated by the county Republicans. Their popularity extends into the ranks of the Democratic party which is effected by jealousy and dirty treachery. This is the time for election of Republican candidates and they can be elected by a thoroughly united party. No end is to be served now by refusing to vote for this man or that man. They are all Republicans, honest, capable, energetic Republicans, nominated by a united and harmonious Republican Convention. Vote for them, work for them, and get your Democratic friends to vote for them.

Captain Hubbard, of Plainfield, was made a member of the Committee on Resolutions and Joseph B. Coward called the Convention to order.

STREET RAILWAY NOTES.

By to-night superintendent of construction H. C. Thorp, of the Street Railway, promises to have the extension ready from Park avenue to Penco street and to North avenue. The road was practically completed, yesterday, but there is yet some filling in to be done. The city will also have to put a force of men at work to clear away the surplus stone and dirt left behind by the company.

The next move the company will make, according to the statement of one of the officials, will be to get into North Plainfield, and it is thought to be only a matter of a short time before the road will be extended through Sixth or Seventh street to the point of beginning, thus forming a belt line. It will soon be time for the company to put up their new nickel-plated stores. The deepest cut for the extension was at the corner of Second and Penco streets, where about 18 inches of the road-bed had to be cut out before laying the sleepers and rails.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS.

—The Sabbath evening service in the Methodist Episcopal Church will be a praise service, at which Captain Morrison, of Plainfield, will give a Bible talk on "Consecration."

—At the sixth anniversary exercises of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian Church, in Dunellen, held last evening, Rev. W. E. Davis, of Lebanon, made an address.

—Lousia Cosgrove, the woman who was pronounced insane by Drs. Ellis and Endicott, on Wednesday, was taken to the Morris Plains Asylum, yesterday, by Officer Lynch. The woman is about thirty years old.

—Republican voters do not forget to register on November 1. It is the last and only chance before election.

—The Democrats of Dunellen have rented Mrs. Messer's vacant store for their headquarters. The store is still vacant most of the time.

—The trial of criminal cases will begin in the Union county court at Elizabethtown on November 2.

—The Grand Jury has adjourned over until Monday next.

—The annual meeting of the State Christian Endeavor Union was held at Bridgeton, yesterday.

—The friends of Mr. Martine in Plainfield and the friends of Mr. Crowell in Rahway, says the Elizabeth Journal editorially, "will make it mighty interesting for the Democratic ticket this year."

—The members of the Westfield Athletic Club are competing for the World "Western Campaign Fund" banner.

—The cozy little opera house in the Westfield Athletic Club was crowded last evening when the opera "Patience" was given by local amateur talent.

—An orchestra of fifteen pieces in which Professor Peter Conde, of this city, played first violin, was led by Charles H. Day, of Westfield. W. B. Bartow, of Bound Brook, played the first cornet.

—Flags floated from the tops of the street railway cars, to-day, in honor of Columbian Day.

—A delegation from Windfield Scott, No. 73, G. A. R., went to Westfield this morning to take part in the Columbian Day parade. They will also assist at the flag raising there.

—The State Board of Taxation held a short meeting at Trenton, on Wednesday, and received a number of appeals. The Board decided in the future that they would have sittings in various sections of the State for the general accommodation of the public.

—The Somerset Wheelmen have consolidated with the West End Athletic Association, and hereafter they will be known as the "Somerset Wheelmen of the West End Athletic Association."

—Simon Cole, the young farmer who was on trial in the Somerset County Court for the past two days, charged with the serious crime of causing the death of Josephine Haven, last February, was acquitted by the jury at six o'clock last evening, after being out for several hours.

—A amusingly ridiculous feature of the game laws is the warning they contain against killing birds, fishes and quadrupeds in certain States where the subjects have been extant for half a hundred years. For instance, you are not allowed to kill moose and caribou in New Jersey, and salmon must not be created in Ohio. The fact that there never were any salmon in Ohio and that New Jersey only sees moose and caribou when Barnum's circus pays a visit has no effect on the game law compiler.

COURIER.

THE COMING MARRIAGE announced of William Goff, of the drug firm of Goff & Shove, of Westfield, to Miss Matilda Sperry. The ceremony will take place at the residence of Mrs. McNaughton, West Front street, on Wednesday, the 26th inst., at 1:30 o'clock.

M. D. Brown and family, of Dunellen, will take up their residence here on November 1.

J. Stevens and family, of Dunellen, have come to Plainfield to board for the winter.

The smile of Dr. Moy, the Park avenue druggist, is much broader to-day than usual and there is an air of geniality about him, distinguishable a mile off. Mr. Moy, Jr., arrived at four o'clock, yesterday afternoon, and brought his Saratoga trunk with him for a long stay.

Walter Scott, the printing pressman, has secured another patient for sheet-dropping mechanism.

George Brooks, a conductor on one of the Blue Line routes and W. Webster, a baggage-master on the same train, are guests to-day of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fulper of North avenue.

Henry Barnes, of Worcester, Mass., is spending a few days with relatives on South Second street.

Mr. Dolliver, of Iowa, who addressed the Republican mass meeting at the Crescent Rink last evening, remained over night, as the guest of his cousin, G. Q. Dolliver, of Manning avenue, North Plainfield.

H. Conover, of this city, is visiting Cousin W. H. of East Millstone.

An informal dance was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wheeler, on La Grande avenue, last evening. The dance was given by Miss Josie Taylor to her friends.

Andrew G. Carpenter furnished the music for dancing which was indulged in until an early hour this morning. A list of the guests follows: Max Munger, Miss Mary Rodman, Miss Goodman, Messrs. Arthur and Fred Freeman, Miss Elsie Van Zant, Mr. Van Zant, Miss Ethel Holmes, Miss Thompson, Ed. Field, Edw. Frost, Francis Frost, Miss Hagen, Miss Hasbrook, Chas. Mitchell, Arthur Sorrell, Miss Bessie Cornwall and Miss Josie Taylor.

John Ward Stimson, of this city, who was one of the leading spirits in the movement that led to the founding of the New York Institute for Artist-Artisans, and has been identified with it from the first day, remains at the head of the Board of Instruction. Under him is a corps of the best teachers who can be found. Art and all its practical branches are taught, including ornamental, drawing and shading, painting, sculpture, architecture, interior decoration, porcelain, glass, wood carving, metal work, jewelry, wood carving and decoration. The Institute opened its fifth season at the rooms in West Twenty-third street, New York, on Monday.

The wearing of suspenders by the ladies has made a demand for house coats for feminine wear. No lady would sit around in her shirt sleeves.

The archway connecting Seely Edsall's store with that of the shoe store of the late firm of Deane and Van Arsdale, has been completed, and the new firm will have a grand opening during next week.

Mrs. Louise Kirk of this city is visiting her mother, Mrs. Bohl, of Warrenville.

The communication which Captain Grant sent to the Home News of New Brunswick, a few days ago, with reference to the arrest of two New Brunswick bicyclists here, has not yet been published.

The members of the Salvation Army paraded the streets again last evening, attracting a crowd of people.

A fair in aid of the German Reformed Church, on Crisp place, North Plainfield, will be held early in November.

The first annual parade of the Bound Brook Fire Department took place this afternoon, and was a grand success. The parade was led by the Bound Brook Fire Department.

There is one more day in which to register. If you did not attend to this important duty on Tuesday, you may do so on November 1. But that will be your last chance.

According to the Elizabeth Herald Mr. Gerber "represents the untalented Democracy of Union County." It could seem, however, that the Crowell-Rahway man will entirely overcome this "untalented" representative in his meshes if the demonstration of delegates at the Wednesday Convention and at Rahway the same evening counts for anything.

The lot of the editor of the Daily Press is an unhappy one. First a grossed Dunn bill was stuffed down his throat and now he is making very faces over the Stover case which has been prescribed. The choleraic symptoms which have long distinguished the Press' Democracy (?) needed the drastic measures which have been administered.

"Yes, the Democratic party is the party of the poor man, and if he continues to vote that ticket he will never be anything else than a poor man." T. V. F. editorial.

DOLLIVER ON THE ISSUES.

A Masterly Exposition of the Principles of the Democratic Party.—The Republican Mass Meeting of Last Night was a Great Success.

Over 1,000 people were at the Crescent Rink, last evening. It was the occasion of the regular weekly meeting which is held under the auspices of the Executive Committee of the Republican Association of this city. The meeting was an unusually successful one, the people are interested, for the most part, and the audience grew larger, and are made up not of men alone, but of women as well.

The speaker of the evening was the Honorable V. B. Dolliver, of Iowa. He is a cousin of G. Q. Dolliver, of North Plainfield. He is a member of the Republican National Committee for Congressmen for the new Eighth District, was present, occupying a prominent seat on the stage. John W. Murray, of West Eighth street, who has been nominated as a member of the Electoral College, by the Republican State Committee, was the chairman of the meeting, and the following persons were the Vice Presidents and Secretaries:

Chairman, Hon. John W. Murray; Vice Presidents—W. B. Richards, D. D. Thomas, B. Green, George L. Henry, William Addis, George W. Cole, W. R. Codrington, W. B. Nichols, S. A. Cruikshank, Henry Johnson, John M. McConochie, Salmon G. Baker, William Hand, J. P. Hubbard, Charles D. Wadsworth, J. Evans Tracy, T. J. Gilles, James Clawson, Charles H. Randolph, W. W. Correll, David W. Rogers, Secretaries, George A. Hallcock, Joseph Plack, Lewis T. Rogers, Win. S. A. Anglin.

The speaker, having been called to order by Judge Ulrich, he in a few well chosen words introduced John W. Murray, the chairman. Mr. Murray made a few remarks appropriate to the occasion and then introduced the speaker of the evening, the Honorable V. B. Dolliver, who was greeted with prolonged applause.

Among other things the speaker said that he really did not feel as though he was entirely among strangers, for his father was a native of New Jersey, and he had had the pleasure of being personally acquainted with quite a number of the residents of the city. The reason if any of his democratic friends should happen to be present at the meeting, he felt that he must get their pardon in advance for whatever he might say which might possibly hurt their feelings.

The speaker then proceeded to pour hot shot into the ranks of the Democratic party. He took his stand upon the national platform of the Republican party and made clear its fundamental truths. He said that the present campaign was not a war through the merits of the party, but a war through the merits of the people of the country and by means of the stump speech. Some people say that there is no use of the stump speech, that it is a waste of time, but said the speaker, "with truth scattered around as loosely as in this campaign, there's no use in lying." He then said that the Republican party was not only an honor but a good thing for the candidate, for only the best men are chosen.

The speaker then paid an eloquent tribute to Lincoln and reviewed in eloquent language the life and public work of Grant, Garfield and Blaine. He said that for 30 years the Democrats had resorted to campaigns of mud-slinging and have decided to let mud-slinging alone and have a clean campaign. "Well," said the speaker, "they have more to gain by it than we have."

The speaker then referred to the past records of the Republican party in the State of New Jersey. He spoke of the part the leaders, Harrison and Cleveland, took in the war, Harrison fighting at the head of his regiment, and Cleveland enjoying himself at home patronizing free lunch counters while his substitute fought in his place. The past of the Democratic party is too bad to speak of the present is the same, but they claim that their future is as good as that of any body else, and that's about all they have to talk about. The Republican party is justly entitled to the achievements of past years and is proud to talk of them. Touching upon the war question, he said, and prolonged applause, that the Republican party came from God, for the purpose of saving the human race. He advised persons to be sure to place the history of the party and the biographies of her great men, in the hands of their children.

In speaking about the politics of the parties he said that the Democratic party invites one to those of the planation, while the Republican party is the leader and the guide of the world. The party is also given to business more than the Democratic party, as it is founded upon the ground of common sense. It kept the money of the country so that it is worth its face value anywhere. The country owes its present prosperity in the first place to God, then to the Republican party, but does not owe a nickel's worth to the Democrats. Continuing, he said that the Democratic claim that they are constitutional. They evidently forgot that two of their great leaders were in favor of protection, for Madison drew up their tariff bill and Washington signed it.

It would be impossible to chronicle all the bright and eloquent sayings with which the speaker delighted his hearers. It is sufficient to say that never before have the residents of this city enjoyed a political speaker more than they did Mr. Dolliver last evening. The speaker's two hours' talk, he was very frequently interrupted by applause, and he held the close ranks of the audience until the conclusion of his address.

After music by the band, the next Congressman, W. B. Chamberlain, was introduced and made a few remarks in which he pledged himself to work for the party, in the event of his being elected. Chairman Murray then announced that the speaker of the evening, Thursday evening would be the Hon. John T. Gibson, the great tariff talker, Mayor Chamberlain, of Rahway, the candidate for County Clerk, and Serrano Parrott.

THE FRAILEIGH-PUGH WEDDING.

It Was Celebrated Last Evening at the Residence of the Bride on Prospect Place, and Was Attended by People From Bound Brook, Plainfield, N. Y., and Trenton, as Well as From This City.

The marriage of Eva Josephine Fraileigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Pugh, of West Fourth street and Prospect place, to Henry W. Fraileigh, of Bound Brook, took place last evening at the residence of the bride's parents.

The marriage was a private one, only the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom being present. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. J. Jordan of Bound Brook, assisted by the Rev. C. L. Goodrich of this city.

The usher was James Dunham of Bound Brook and Eugene P. Pugh of Utica, N. Y. The bridesmaid was Miss Mary L. Pugh, a sister of the bride and B. K. DeMott of Bound Brook was the best man.

The bride was becomingly attired in the costume of the occasion. After the ceremony she changed her dress for a travelling costume and a French broadcloth, trimmed with bengaline silk. The happy couple left on a late train for a wedding trip to New York State.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Fraileigh, Mr. and Mrs. W. Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Oakley, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Dunning, Mr. Albert Fraileigh, B. R. DeMott, J. R. Dunham, John DeMott, Miss Mary Van Dorn and Miss Stella Van Dorn, Bound Brook; Mrs. Mary E. Winter, Miss Mattie E. Winter and Miss Winfield Winter, Plainfield, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher, Mrs. H. Hayes and Charles Hayes, Plainfield; Mrs. S. Tomlinson, Brooklyn; Miss Genevieve Taylor, Trenton; Eugene P. Pugh, Utica, N. Y.

NONE WERE DISCOVERED.
But the Six Young Women Who Gave That Leap Year Dance in the Barn, Have Great Hopes.

About a week ago, Miss A. A. Crane, Miss M. E. Saltzman, Miss H. A. Burr, Miss P. A. Abbott, Miss P. H. Haggard, and Miss A. M. Cox, six of Plainfield's bright young women, resolved themselves into a committee and decided to give a leap year dance to their many male friends and to have the dance in a barn. So the invitations were sent out, stating that on Thursday evening, October 20, the dance would be given in the commodious barn on the property of A. Saltzman, 129 avenue.

Last evening the dance took place. The large room in the barn, which was decorated with flags, bunting and evergreen, while the floor was waxed until it shone like a mirror. Prof. Gutman's string band was stationed near-by and to its music the dance was enjoyed until midnight. The Columbia is supposed to have gotten ready to discover America.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Haggard, of Elizabeth, Mr. Allen, of New York; Mr. Ingalls, of Verona; Miss K. Thorne, Miss F. Greene, Miss M. Lowrie, Miss M. Cox, Miss H. Haggard, of Hoboken; S. Fritts, A. T. Hinrichs, H. Johnson, H. Williams, H. Patton, S. Smith, C. Martin, H. Lowrie, A. Freeman, A. Mahon, D. Baker, G. Stevens and H. Maxson.

The boys all say that they had a lovely time so do the girls for that matter. Whether any of the young women who had set sail upon the sea of discovery were successful or not in capturing a matrimonial harbor is not known, but it is certain that the young men will give a return dance at an early date.

COLUMBIAN DAY IN THE SCHOOLS.
The Different Schools of the City Have Exercises Appropriate to the Occasion, Which Are Enjoyed by Their Parents and Friends.

The different public schools of the city celebrated Columbian Day this morning in an appropriate manner. The interiors of the buildings were handsomely decorated with flags, bunting and flowers, and in addition to the scholars, many of the parents were present to enjoy the exercises.

The various programmes as outlined in the Courier of Wednesday, were carried out as arranged, and the scholars did very well in their recitations and songs. George H. Babcock, President of the Board of Education, and Professor Maxson paid a short visit to each of the different schools, and expressed themselves as much pleased with the way the scholars acquitted themselves. At the conclusion of the exercises, the schools were dismissed for the balance of the day.

To Begin Bowling Early in November.
The Journal Bowling League, which the Crescent League has entered, held a meeting at Elizabeth, on Wednesday night, when it was decided to begin the series of games for the championship during the week beginning November 21. The rule requiring the withdrawal of all sections to be published before the first of November will probably have to be suspended for this season, as it will be almost impossible for the schedule committee to complete their work until after election.
