

1892 NOVEMBER 1892

Su.	Mo.	Tu.	We.	Th.	Fr.	Sa.
	1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10	11	12
13	14	15	16	17	18	19
20	21	22	23	24	25	26
27	28	29	30

MOON'S PHASES.
Full 4 10:45 P. M.
New 19 8:15 A. M.
First Quarter 27 5:15 P. M.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS.

—Are you sure your name is correctly registered?

—The various boards of registry meet until nine o'clock to-night. This is your last chance to see that your name is properly registered.

—One hundred and twenty thousand dollars has been paid for the exclusive peanut privilege at the World's Fair.

—The entire force of police at the Crescent League club house were busy this morning cleaning up after the smoker of last evening. The number of turned out matches and the number of cigar ashes on the floor would indicate that a large number of the members and their friends had been present.

—The Monday Afternoon Club held an informal tea in the Casino of the Union County Country Club yesterday afternoon. The members spent the day in discussing the scope of work and constitutional government of several Women's Clubs in different States.

—N. O. Newman wishes the Courier to deny the statement made by last night's Press that he was one of four jurors to vote for Druggist Miller's acquittal. He was one of four to vote for conviction. In an announcement the jury vote got the conviction before the acquittal and otherwise toyed with the facts of the case.

—Miss Sarah Adams, aged sixty-seven, who has for many years past been a resident of Washington Valley, while building a fire in the kitchen stove last Thursday morning, stumbled and fell to the floor, breaking her hip. She was attended by two physicians from Bound Brook and was subsequently brought to the home of Jacob Krinsky on West Front street, this city. On account of her advanced age, her recovery is considered doubtful.

—The United Tea and Coffee Growers are selling three pounds of mince meat for twenty-five cents.

—Many a man in town took up the morning and found his front gate missing. Some of the stockholders also found that their sign-borders had been transferred to other places.

—The great election is only one week off.

—The court for naturalization purposes sits daily at Elizabeth.

—For fear that the boys might do too much mischief last night, the police of the city met on duty at six o'clock instead of seven, the regular time.

—The decorations in the Democratic Wigwag on Broadway consisted of a few yards of faded bunting, a couple of flags and electric lights.

—The first annual ball of the Fourth Ward Athletic Club will be held at St. Mary's Hall, on the eve of election day, November 7.

—The silver dollars of 1798, 1838, 1859, 1861 and 1862 are worth $25 each, while that of 1867 is valued at $15. Silver half dollars of 1792 and 1804 are worth $25 each.

—According to the report of the State Comptroller of New Jersey, the value of the real and personal property of the State has increased to $1,000,000,000 during the years 1890-91.

—At a meeting of the New Jersey Agricultural Society held in Newark last Wednesday it was reported that the receipts of the fair at Waverly last month did not equal the expenditures.

—A new method of counting the votes in a telegram went into effect on the Western Union and Postal Telegraph lines October 1. Under the new rules telegrams will be much cheaper. Still, letters, figures and signs, instead of being counted as a word will be grouped and three taken as a word.

—The Elizabeth Journal says editorially: "Howard M. Stover, the Democratic candidate for surrogate, is wholly unacquainted with New Jersey law, and in no way could he improve the management or morale of the surrogate's office."

—If you are not registered when the lists close to-night, you cannot vote on Nov. 8.

—The mechanical and book-keeping classes of the Young Men's Christian Association, met last evening.

—Many hunters from out-of-town, came here, last evening, with the expectation of having great sport to-day by shooting rabbits.

—People living in the western part of the city, clearly heard the music of the bands and drum corps which were taking part in some demonstration at Bound Brook last evening.

—By the way, are you sure you can vote next Tuesday?

—Professor Gutmann and his orchestra, this city, will go to White Horse, to-morrow evening, and play at a private dance.

An Advertisement In The Courier will Save a deal of

PERSONAL.
Mrs. E. Gaddie, of West Second street, has returned home from a two weeks' visit with friends at Newark, New York and Trenton, N. J.

William Adams and Miss Hight, of this city, were among the guests at a pleasant surprise party given to Miss Tilly Barnes, of Elizabeth, last Friday night.

Robert F. Jenkins, a young merchant of Dover, and Miss Lizzie De Camp, of Chester, have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Force, of Deer street, North Plainfield. They came here on a drive last Friday and left for home yesterday.

A pleasant dance was held at the residence of Vincent Rockwell, 118 East Front street last night, which was participated in by many of the young people of the city.

James J. Gerber, the Democratic nominee for Surrogate, of Elizabeth, was in town this morning, and Billy Force plotted with him about the assembly.

A surprise party was tendered to Miss Mary Thompson, at her home, No. 15 Liberty street, last evening, which was attended by many of her friends and acquaintances. Games were played and refreshments served after which dancing was indulged in until the small hours of the morning.

The family of E. R. Pope rode over to Short Hills in a coach this afternoon to witness the flower show.

The Northern New Jersey Conference of Congregational Churches is being held in the Congregational Church at Westfield to-day. At this afternoon's session the Rev. Wm. R. Rich, of Plainfield, delivered an address entitled "A Larger Parish."

An All Hallows' Eve party was tendered to Miss Della Voelt at No. 63 South Front street, last evening. About twenty-five couples participated, and the evening was spent in dancing and playing games.

Edward Winter, of East Fifth street, is dangerously ill from a complication of diseases.

—Some mischievous person during last night hung a Chinaman's laundry sign in front of Frank Hall's blacksmith shop on Somerset street. Early this morning a man came in and removed the sign and a good laugh at the comical sign.

—The dust raised by the street cars on West Front street and Grant avenue, and the noise of the street cars, persons standing on the rear end of the cars get the full benefit of the dust.

—One hundred dollars in cash is ready for taking at the Liberty street blacksmith shop, to be given on Harrison's election day.

—Quite a number of Plainfielders are visiting the chrysanthemum exhibition which is being held in one of the nurseries at Short Hills. Although women, as a rule, are the principal visitors, still the most of them prefer to ride there on their wheels and find the journey very pleasant. The round trip is about 24 miles.

—Two masses were celebrated in St. Mary's Church at 6:30 and 7:30 o'clock this morning in honor of All Saints' day.

—The mail-box which has heretofore hung on the lamp-post at the corner of Peace and East Front streets was removed this morning and attached to one of the awning posts in front of J. Ford Macdonald's grocery store.

—Several of the members of the Independent Gun Club held an individual shoot on the Club's grounds, in North Plainfield, yesterday afternoon, but not particularly high scores were made.

—If you think the Courier keeps hammering too much about registering, remember that lots of people neglect it, and do not ask after you but after the neglectful ones.

—If your eye catches this and it is before nine o'clock this evening, suppose you put on your hat and coat and walk around to the polling place in your ward. Your name might not be on the registry lists, you know. And then you will not have to ask the clerk to look to the Crescent Rink. Penny-packer will interest you.

—The final work is being done on the extension of the street railway. There have been two days of work sweeping and tidying up the track; the copper trolley wire has been stretched and the line in that the cars will run some unforeseen accident happens, are to run to North avenue to-morrow morning.

—The Harris Lane branch of the Y. P. S. C. E. of Elizabeth, held a pleasant social evening, last evening, at the Beetham, last evening. Those who were present came from Bound Brook, Dunellen and this city.

—The Thursday evening, when the Republican Stoker is to be held at the Crescent Rink, the Metropolitan Colored Drum Corps, James Frable, Drum Major, will have their headquarters at half-past seven and march to the rooms of the Fourth Ward Club. There the Republican voters of the ward will form ranks and march to the Crescent Rink.

—The mercury had the jumps last night. At ten o'clock the thermometer in front of Shaw's drug store registered 46 degrees. Two hours later it had fallen eight degrees. At midnight it had risen to 42 degrees, but shortly after one o'clock, a m. it fell to 38 degrees, and it was still falling and was on the downward move.

—A kerose lamp exploded in George Nolan's house on West Second street at six o'clock last evening, and set fire to the carpet on the floor. No great damage was done and no alarm was sent out.

—This is the time in the campaign when the Democrats carry everything. Republicans are satisfied to do their work to-morrow.

—Will any Democrat who professes to be down on Abbott explain why the city Government is for Werts?

—Look out for the Democrat who wants to trade a vote with you. He is trading that vote for a bottle of water-crate for twenty Republican votes.

—George Kyte, the Republican nominee for the Assembly from this district should have been better understood by the people who believe he will have.

—Penny-packer, the great Pennsylvania orator, speaks in the Crescent Rink this evening.

—Penny-packer, recognized as one of the best orators of the Keystone State, will be in the Crescent Rink at 8 o'clock this evening.

PERSONAL.
Mrs. E. Gaddie, of West Second street, has returned home from a two weeks' visit with friends at Newark, New York and Trenton, N. J.

William Adams and Miss Hight, of this city, were among the guests at a pleasant surprise party given to Miss Tilly Barnes, of Elizabeth, last Friday night.

Robert F. Jenkins, a young merchant of Dover, and Miss Lizzie De Camp, of Chester, have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Force, of Deer street, North Plainfield. They came here on a drive last Friday and left for home yesterday.

A pleasant dance was held at the residence of Vincent Rockwell, 118 East Front street last night, which was participated in by many of the young people of the city.

James J. Gerber, the Democratic nominee for Surrogate, of Elizabeth, was in town this morning, and Billy Force plotted with him about the assembly.

A surprise party was tendered to Miss Mary Thompson, at her home, No. 15 Liberty street, last evening, which was attended by many of her friends and acquaintances. Games were played and refreshments served after which dancing was indulged in until the small hours of the morning.

The family of E. R. Pope rode over to Short Hills in a coach this afternoon to witness the flower show.

The Northern New Jersey Conference of Congregational Churches is being held in the Congregational Church at Westfield to-day. At this afternoon's session the Rev. Wm. R. Rich, of Plainfield, delivered an address entitled "A Larger Parish."

An All Hallows' Eve party was tendered to Miss Della Voelt at No. 63 South Front street, last evening. About twenty-five couples participated, and the evening was spent in dancing and playing games.

Edward Winter, of East Fifth street, is dangerously ill from a complication of diseases.

—Some mischievous person during last night hung a Chinaman's laundry sign in front of Frank Hall's blacksmith shop on Somerset street. Early this morning a man came in and removed the sign and a good laugh at the comical sign.

—The dust raised by the street cars on West Front street and Grant avenue, and the noise of the street cars, persons standing on the rear end of the cars get the full benefit of the dust.

—One hundred dollars in cash is ready for taking at the Liberty street blacksmith shop, to be given on Harrison's election day.

—Quite a number of Plainfielders are visiting the chrysanthemum exhibition which is being held in one of the nurseries at Short Hills. Although women, as a rule, are the principal visitors, still the most of them prefer to ride there on their wheels and find the journey very pleasant. The round trip is about 24 miles.

—Two masses were celebrated in St. Mary's Church at 6:30 and 7:30 o'clock this morning in honor of All Saints' day.

—The mail-box which has heretofore hung on the lamp-post at the corner of Peace and East Front streets was removed this morning and attached to one of the awning posts in front of J. Ford Macdonald's grocery store.

—Several of the members of the Independent Gun Club held an individual shoot on the Club's grounds, in North Plainfield, yesterday afternoon, but not particularly high scores were made.

—If you think the Courier keeps hammering too much about registering, remember that lots of people neglect it, and do not ask after you but after the neglectful ones.

—If your eye catches this and it is before nine o'clock this evening, suppose you put on your hat and coat and walk around to the polling place in your ward. Your name might not be on the registry lists, you know. And then you will not have to ask the clerk to look to the Crescent Rink. Penny-packer will interest you.

—The final work is being done on the extension of the street railway. There have been two days of work sweeping and tidying up the track; the copper trolley wire has been stretched and the line in that the cars will run some unforeseen accident happens, are to run to North avenue to-morrow morning.

—The Harris Lane branch of the Y. P. S. C. E. of Elizabeth, held a pleasant social evening, last evening, at the Beetham, last evening. Those who were present came from Bound Brook, Dunellen and this city.

—The Thursday evening, when the Republican Stoker is to be held at the Crescent Rink, the Metropolitan Colored Drum Corps, James Frable, Drum Major, will have their headquarters at half-past seven and march to the rooms of the Fourth Ward Club. There the Republican voters of the ward will form ranks and march to the Crescent Rink.

—The mercury had the jumps last night. At ten o'clock the thermometer in front of Shaw's drug store registered 46 degrees. Two hours later it had fallen eight degrees. At midnight it had risen to 42 degrees, but shortly after one o'clock, a m. it fell to 38 degrees, and it was still falling and was on the downward move.

T'WAP A GREAT SUCCESS.

The Stag Smoker Which the Members of the Crescent Injured Last Night, Embarked a Programme of Music, Spectacle and Boxing.

The members of the Crescent League gave their first "stag smoker" in their club house last evening. The evening's entertainment, which was made up of character imitations, music, speaking and scientific sparring, was most enjoyable and the members of the club voted it a great success.

The two colored pupils of Jack McAuliffe, who had been engaged to give a friendly sparring match, did not show up. Instead, members of the club put on the gloves and gave exhibition of their familiarity with the padding bag.

It was nine o'clock before W. A. Coddington, who acted as Master of Ceremonies, called the assembly to order and announced an opening duet with Messrs. Barnes and Stevens on deck. President Leggett was the musical umpire and the two were credited with well-earned runs.

"Pot little Sherman man," John H. Carney, was next on deck. He depicted, in this, the success of the Crescent League ball team, in individualizing its players, and also made a number of telling hits which were much appreciated. He was followed by a Mr. Smith, who delighted the audience with his excellent playing on the harmonica. After his success he made a speech, the audience enjoyed a solo which was sung by George Stevens, while Thomas Hale graciously passed around the champagne.

Then came the fun of the evening. After considerable coaxing Freddy Jones and Count Leidy were prevailed upon to appear on the stage and have a friendly boxing match. B. T. Barnes acted as both-brother for Leidy, while the ubiquitous Thomas Hale performed like a servant for Freddy. Dick Stephens acted as time-keeper, while Walter Hetfield was the referee. Four rounds were fought, under the go-as-you-please rules and the fight was great. It was remarked by all that with proper training and instruction both men could be made excellent prize fighters.

This playful diversion was followed by a song, "I am the King of the Land and Sea," which was well rendered by a quartette composed of Messrs. Leggett, Barnes, Stevens and Teel. Then Dr. Adams and J. Davis took off their coats, put on the gloves and commenced a boxing match. They were followed by boxers Woods and McIntyre, who helped out a little in making the evening's programme enjoyable.

"If the waters could speak as they flow" was then nicely sung by a quartette, and the evening's entertainment was ended.

The members of the Crescent League gave their first "stag smoker" in their club house last evening. The evening's entertainment, which was made up of character imitations, music, speaking and scientific sparring, was most enjoyable and the members of the club voted it a great success.

The two colored pupils of Jack McAuliffe, who had been engaged to give a friendly sparring match, did not show up. Instead, members of the club put on the gloves and gave exhibition of their familiarity with the padding bag.

It was nine o'clock before W. A. Coddington, who acted as Master of Ceremonies, called the assembly to order and announced an opening duet with Messrs. Barnes and Stevens on deck. President Leggett was the musical umpire and the two were credited with well-earned runs.

"Pot little Sherman man," John H. Carney, was next on deck. He depicted, in this, the success of the Crescent League ball team, in individualizing its players, and also made a number of telling hits which were much appreciated. He was followed by a Mr. Smith, who delighted the audience with his excellent playing on the harmonica. After his success he made a speech, the audience enjoyed a solo which was sung by George Stevens, while Thomas Hale graciously passed around the champagne.

Then came the fun of the evening. After considerable coaxing Freddy Jones and Count Leidy were prevailed upon to appear on the stage and have a friendly boxing match. B. T. Barnes acted as both-brother for Leidy, while the ubiquitous Thomas Hale performed like a servant for Freddy. Dick Stephens acted as time-keeper, while Walter Hetfield was the referee. Four rounds were fought, under the go-as-you-please rules and the fight was great. It was remarked by all that with proper training and instruction both men could be made excellent prize fighters.

This playful diversion was followed by a song, "I am the King of the Land and Sea," which was well rendered by a quartette composed of Messrs. Leggett, Barnes, Stevens and Teel. Then Dr. Adams and J. Davis took off their coats, put on the gloves and commenced a boxing match. They were followed by boxers Woods and McIntyre, who helped out a little in making the evening's programme enjoyable.

"If the waters could speak as they flow" was then nicely sung by a quartette, and the evening's entertainment was ended.

—Some mischievous person during last night hung a Chinaman's laundry sign in front of Frank Hall's blacksmith shop on Somerset street. Early this morning a man came in and removed the sign and a good laugh at the comical sign.

—The dust raised by the street cars on West Front street and Grant avenue, and the noise of the street cars, persons standing on the rear end of the cars get the full benefit of the dust.

—One hundred dollars in cash is ready for taking at the Liberty street blacksmith shop, to be given on Harrison's election day.

—Quite a number of Plainfielders are visiting the chrysanthemum exhibition which is being held in one of the nurseries at Short Hills. Although women, as a rule, are the principal visitors, still the most of them prefer to ride there on their wheels and find the journey very pleasant. The round trip is about 24 miles.

—Two masses were celebrated in St. Mary's Church at 6:30 and 7:30 o'clock this morning in honor of All Saints' day.

—The mail-box which has heretofore hung on the lamp-post at the corner of Peace and East Front streets was removed this morning and attached to one of the awning posts in front of J. Ford Macdonald's grocery store.

—Several of the members of the Independent Gun Club held an individual shoot on the Club's grounds, in North Plainfield, yesterday afternoon, but not particularly high scores were made.

—If you think the Courier keeps hammering too much about registering, remember that lots of people neglect it, and do not ask after you but after the neglectful ones.

—If your eye catches this and it is before nine o'clock this evening, suppose you put on your hat and coat and walk around to the polling place in your ward. Your name might not be on the registry lists, you know. And then you will not have to ask the clerk to look to the Crescent Rink. Penny-packer will interest you.

—The final work is being done on the extension of the street railway. There have been two days of work sweeping and tidying up the track; the copper trolley wire has been stretched and the line in that the cars will run some unforeseen accident happens, are to run to North avenue to-morrow morning.

—The Harris Lane branch of the Y. P. S. C. E. of Elizabeth, held a pleasant social evening, last evening, at the Beetham, last evening. Those who were present came from Bound Brook, Dunellen and this city.

—The Thursday evening, when the Republican Stoker is to be held at the Crescent Rink, the Metropolitan Colored Drum Corps, James Frable, Drum Major, will have their headquarters at half-past seven and march to the rooms of the Fourth Ward Club. There the Republican voters of the ward will form ranks and march to the Crescent Rink.

—The mercury had the jumps last night. At ten o'clock the thermometer in front of Shaw's drug store registered 46 degrees. Two hours later it had fallen eight degrees. At midnight it had risen to 42 degrees, but shortly after one o'clock, a m. it fell to 38 degrees, and it was still falling and was on the downward move.

—A kerose lamp exploded in George Nolan's house on West Second street at six o'clock last evening, and set fire to the carpet on the floor. No great damage was done and no alarm was sent out.

—This is the time in the campaign when the Democrats carry everything. Republicans are satisfied to do their work to-morrow.

—Will any Democrat who professes to be down on Abbott explain why the city Government is for Werts?

EXTENDING THE STREET RAILWAY.

The Matter will be Debated at the Meeting of the Borough Council on Friday Night at Which Time the Citizens will Express Their Views on the Subject.

On next Friday evening, when the Borough Council hold their regular session, the ordinance granting a franchise to the Street Railway Company will come up for final passage. The Mayor Saunders urges the citizens either to come and give their views on the subject, or to send written communications.

In speaking about the matter Mayor Saunders states that it was at first thought of submitting the entire question to a vote of the people. This idea has been given up, because property owners should have more to say about the matter than others. Therefore, the matter will be thoroughly ventilated at Friday night's meeting instead.

"The rail which it is proposed to use on Somerset street will be superior to that now laid in this city. It will offer little or no obstruction to the passage of vehicles or bicycles. There will be a single track and it is thought that the road will be in no way objectionable."

The Matter will be Debated at the Meeting of the Borough Council on Friday Night at Which Time the Citizens will Express Their Views on the Subject.

On next Friday evening, when the Borough Council hold their regular session, the ordinance granting a franchise to the Street Railway Company will come up for final passage. The Mayor Saunders urges the citizens either to come and give their views on the subject, or to send written communications.

In speaking about the matter Mayor Saunders states that it was at first thought of submitting the entire question to a vote of the people. This idea has been given up, because property owners should have more to say about the matter than others. Therefore, the matter will be thoroughly ventilated at Friday night's meeting instead.

"The rail which it is proposed to use on Somerset street will be superior to that now laid in this city. It will offer little or no obstruction to the passage of vehicles or bicycles. There will be a single track and it is thought that the road will be in no way objectionable."

On next Friday evening, when the Borough Council hold their regular session, the ordinance granting a franchise to the Street Railway Company will come up for final passage. The Mayor Saunders urges the citizens either to come and give their views on the subject, or to send written communications.

In speaking about the matter Mayor Saunders states that it was at first thought of submitting the entire question to a vote of the people. This idea has been given up, because property owners should have more to say about the matter than others. Therefore, the matter will be thoroughly ventilated at Friday night's meeting instead.

"The rail which it is proposed to use on Somerset street will be superior to that now laid in this city. It will offer little or no obstruction to the passage of vehicles or bicycles. There will be a single track and it is thought that the road will be in no way objectionable."

On next Friday evening, when the Borough Council hold their regular session, the ordinance granting a franchise to the Street Railway Company will come up for final passage. The Mayor Saunders urges the citizens either to come and give their views on the subject, or to send written communications.

In speaking about the matter Mayor Saunders states that it was at first thought of submitting the entire question to a vote of the people. This idea has been given up, because property owners should have more to say about the matter than others. Therefore, the matter will be thoroughly ventilated at Friday night's meeting instead.

"The rail which it is proposed to use on Somerset street will be superior to that now laid in this city. It will offer little or no obstruction to the passage of vehicles or bicycles. There will be a single track and it is thought that the road will be in no way objectionable."

On next Friday evening, when the Borough Council hold their regular session, the ordinance granting a franchise to the Street Railway Company will come up for final passage. The Mayor Saunders urges the citizens either to come and give their views on the subject, or to send written communications.

In speaking about the matter Mayor Saunders states that it was at first thought of submitting the entire question to a vote of the people. This idea has been given up, because property owners should have more to say about the matter than others. Therefore, the matter will be thoroughly ventilated at Friday night's meeting instead.

"The rail which it is proposed to use on Somerset street will be superior to that now laid in this city. It will offer little or no obstruction to the passage of vehicles or bicycles. There will be a single track and it is thought that the road will be in no way objectionable."

On next Friday evening, when the Borough Council hold their regular session, the ordinance granting a franchise to the Street Railway Company will come up for final passage. The Mayor Saunders urges the citizens either to come and give their views on the subject, or to send written communications.

In speaking about the matter Mayor Saunders states that it was at first thought of submitting the entire question to a vote of the people. This idea has been given up, because property owners should have more to say about the matter than others. Therefore, the matter will be thoroughly ventilated at Friday night's meeting instead.

"The rail which it is proposed to use on Somerset street will be superior to that now laid in this city. It will offer little or no obstruction to the passage of vehicles or bicycles. There will be a single track and it is thought that the road will be in no way objectionable."

On next Friday evening, when the Borough Council hold their regular session, the ordinance granting a franchise to the Street Railway Company will come up for final passage. The Mayor Saunders urges the citizens either to come and give their views on the subject, or to send written communications.

In speaking about the matter Mayor Saunders states that it was at first thought of submitting the entire question to a vote of the people. This idea has been given up, because property owners should have more to say about the matter than others. Therefore, the matter will be thoroughly ventilated at Friday night's meeting instead.

"The rail which it is proposed to use on Somerset street will be superior to that now laid in this city. It will offer little or no obstruction to the passage of vehicles or bicycles. There will be a single track and it is thought that the road will be in no way objectionable."

On next Friday evening, when the Borough Council hold their regular session, the ordinance granting a franchise to the Street Railway Company will come up for final passage. The Mayor Saunders urges the citizens either to come and give their views on the subject, or to send written communications.

In speaking about the matter Mayor Saunders states that it was at first thought of submitting the entire question to a vote of the people. This idea has been given up, because property owners should have more to say about the matter than others. Therefore, the matter will be thoroughly ventilated at Friday night's meeting instead.

"The rail which it is proposed to use on Somerset street will be superior to that now laid in this city. It will offer little or no obstruction to the passage of vehicles or bicycles. There will be a single track and it is thought that the road will be in no way objectionable."

On next Friday evening, when the Borough Council hold their regular session, the ordinance granting a franchise to the Street Railway Company will come up for final passage. The Mayor Saunders urges the citizens either to come and give their views on the subject, or to send written communications.

Tom Keller's Lucky Agals.

Joe Chynski of California bought his way to victory and reputation by knocking out George Gonyea of Chelsea, Mass., last night after fifteen rounds of hard fighting in the ring of the Coney Island Athletic Club. Joe Lannon, a well-known pugilist, told "Tom" Keller of this city, so the New York papers say, $80 to $100 that Chynski would win. So once again "Tom" is in luck.

Here is a Chance for a Democratic Voter.

If any local Democrat believes his State and National ticket will be elected to the tune of $150 or $200, the Courier will give him the address of a Republican who is willing to talk to that extent.

Joe Chynski of California bought his way to victory and reputation by knocking out George Gonyea of Chelsea, Mass., last night after fifteen rounds of hard fighting in the ring of the Coney Island Athletic Club. Joe Lannon, a well-known pugilist, told "Tom" Keller of this city, so the New York papers say, $80 to $100 that Chynski would win. So once again "Tom" is in luck.

Here is a Chance for a Democratic Voter.

If any local Democrat believes his State and National ticket will be elected to the tune of $150 or $200, the Courier will give him the address of a Republican who is willing to talk to that extent.

Joe Chynski of California bought his way to victory and reputation by knocking out George Gonyea of Chelsea, Mass., last night after fifteen rounds of hard fighting in the ring of the Coney Island Athletic Club. Joe Lannon, a well-known pugilist, told "Tom" Keller of this city, so the New York papers say, $80 to $100 that Chynski would win. So once again "Tom" is in luck.

Here is a Chance for a Democratic Voter.

If any local Democrat believes his State and National ticket will be elected to the tune of $150 or $200, the Courier will give him the address of a Republican who is willing to talk to that extent.

Joe Chynski of California bought his way to victory and reputation by knocking out George Gonyea of Chelsea, Mass., last night after fifteen rounds of hard fighting in the ring of the Coney Island Athletic Club. Joe Lannon, a well-known pugilist, told "Tom" Keller of this city, so the New York papers say, $80 to $100 that Chynski would win. So once again "Tom" is in luck.

Here is a Chance for a Democratic Voter.

If any local Democrat believes his State and National ticket will be elected to the tune of $150 or $200, the Courier will give him the address of a Republican who is willing to talk to that extent.

Joe Chynski of California bought his way to victory and reputation by knocking out George Gonyea of Chelsea, Mass., last night after fifteen rounds of hard fighting in the ring of the Coney Island Athletic Club. Joe Lannon, a well-known pugilist, told "Tom" Keller of this city, so the New York papers say, $80 to $100 that Chynski would win. So once again "Tom" is in luck.

Here is a Chance for a Democratic Voter.

If any local Democrat believes his State and National ticket will be elected to the tune of $150 or $200, the Courier will give him the address of a Republican who is willing to talk to that extent.

Joe Chynski of California bought his way to victory and reputation by knocking out George Gonyea of Chelsea, Mass., last night after fifteen rounds of hard fighting in the ring of the Coney Island Athletic Club. Joe Lannon, a well-known pugilist, told "Tom" Keller of this city, so the New York papers say, $80 to $100 that Chynski would win. So once again "Tom" is in luck.

Here is a Chance for a Democratic Voter.

If any local Democrat believes his State and National ticket will be elected to the tune of $150 or $200, the Courier will give him the address of a Republican who is willing to talk to that extent.

Joe Chynski of California bought his way to victory and reputation by knocking out George Gonyea of Chelsea, Mass., last night after fifteen rounds of hard fighting in the ring of the Coney Island Athletic Club. Joe Lannon, a well-known pugilist, told "Tom" Keller of this city, so the New York papers say, $80 to $100 that Chynski would win. So once again "Tom" is in luck.

Here is a Chance for a Democratic Voter.

If any local Democrat believes his State and National ticket will be elected to the tune of $150 or $200, the Courier will give him the address of a Republican who is willing to talk to that extent.

Joe Chynski of California bought his way to victory and reputation by knocking out George Gonyea of Chelsea, Mass., last night after fifteen rounds of hard fighting in the ring of the Coney Island Athletic Club. Joe Lannon, a well-known pugilist, told "Tom" Keller of this city, so the New York papers say, $80 to $100 that Chynski would win. So once again "Tom" is in luck.

Here is a Chance for a Democratic Voter.

If any local Democrat believes his State and National ticket will be elected to the tune of $150 or $200, the Courier will give him the address of a Republican who is willing to talk to that extent.

Joe Chynski of California bought his way to victory and reputation by knocking out George Gonyea of Chelsea, Mass., last night after fifteen rounds of hard fighting in the ring of the Coney Island Athletic Club. Joe Lannon, a well-known pugilist, told "Tom" Keller of this city, so the New York papers say, $80 to $100 that Chynski would win. So once again "Tom" is in luck.

Here is a Chance for a Democratic Voter.

If any local Democrat believes his State and National ticket will be elected to the tune of $150 or $200, the Courier will give him the address of a Republican who is willing to talk to that extent.

Joe Chynski of California bought his way to victory and reputation by knocking out George Gonyea of Chelsea, Mass., last night after fifteen rounds of hard fighting in the ring of the Coney Island Athletic Club. Joe Lannon, a well-known pugilist, told "Tom" Keller of this city, so the New York papers say, $80 to $100 that Chynski would win. So once again "Tom" is in luck

