

VOL. II-NO. 23.

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK

From a Republican and Democratic Standpoint.

BOTH SIDES STILL CONFIDENT.

The situation in the pivotal States of New York and Indiana—both of which claim Minnesota—How it looks in Massachusetts.

New York, Nov. 5.—That both sides are confident of victory seems to be the natural bearing of the chiefs of both sides. Naturally they will keep the flag flying on both fronts until defeat hauls one or the other down. These men cannot do anything else but impose their confidence in the result not only upon their respective followers, but to their personal friends and neighbors. That's politics.

The outsider must, however, record that there was detected in certain quarters a feeling of anxiety in both camps. Possibly that is too strong a term to be used. Nevertheless there was a feeling on the part of all that the quicker the battle is over the better and more content the campaigners will be. The strain on them is intense. Even though they frankly declare their confidence in the result, every hour brings a petty squabble, the result of which must be looked into and the shifting hours pass slowly along. The men in the campaign are weary, but they are not discouraged. They accept the former political philosophy and wisely discuss the latter.

The situation in New York State and in Indiana is of course the foremost subject. The weather forecasts for the two states were obtained from Washington and elsewhere. It is an old story in the politics of New York State that the fairest day in the country is the day when the sun is shining. The Republicans, Chairman Carter, the Republican chairman from Montana, has said yesterday that unless there was a hurricane on the state on election day, New York State was going for Mr. Cleveland. For the further information of Mr. Carter it should be said that experience proves that too much reliance should be placed upon the results of fair weather in the country districts of the Empire state.

The Democrats admit that all is not as pleasant as it might be in Albany and elsewhere, but they insist that the situation is made up by the splendid condition of affairs in Erie, New York and Kings. The Republican managers admit that things are in a most satisfactory shape for them in Erie county, but they say that Kings and all other counties except Erie and New York never promised better.

As for the weather in that state has had very little to do with the outcome of political battles. Every body long ago learned that lesson from the cradle. Furthermore, Ex-Governor Gray sent word yesterday that Indiana was doing as well as could be expected. To comfort the soul of Mr. Carter and his brethren, however, it should be recalled that in the New York election the state was safe for Harrison.

Hackett on the Situation. In an interview yesterday Charles W. Hackett, chairman of the executive committee of the state committee, said that the prospects for the party were bright. This state was never brighter. Reports from all parts of the state, he said, showed the Harrison campaign well advanced. He predicted a Republican vote of 30,000 in New York city, which would carry the Republicans down to the Hudson river with a larger plurality than they did four years ago. While there is no reason to believe that Cleveland will poll greater pluralities here than he did in 1888, Mr. Hackett is confident that New York will go Republican.

Chairman Hackett's Views. Chairman Hackett, in an interview with a United Press representative said: "All the reports we have received up to the hour justify us in claiming that Mr. Cleveland will be elected; indeed, the belief is growing here that the Republican managers have practically conceded the result, for the reason that the wages made upon the election contain the admission that New York will surely give her electoral vote to Mr. Cleveland by a decisive majority."

"The causes that exist in New York to produce this condition of affairs must not be found outside of the state of New York and Connecticut. If New York shall vote for Mr. Cleveland by a large majority, as it now seems probable, then New Jersey and Connecticut are almost sure to follow. It is like the domino effect, for a very great extent in Indiana. Furthermore, if we shall carry New York by a large majority, we shall be giving Wisconsin, Illinois and Iowa the first delegations to Congress, and when I was mentioned for Lieutenant Governor of Wisconsin, the organization here is in the hands of my friends; you are responsible to me for your good conduct. Let no friend of mine, on my account, become a leader in this race. This is not a question of candidate, but of principles."

Massachusetts. Boston, Nov. 5.—The situation in the state appears to be more encouraging to the Democrats than to the Republicans. Governor Russell evidently realizes the critical nature of the situation, for he has arranged to spend the winter in Cape Cod on the day before election. The district is overwhelmingly Republican when the normal vote is cast and Governor Russell is going to do his best to convert a few thousands to his side.

The new registration is very heavy all over the state. The Boston Journal has made a census of the entire state, and estimates of the leaders in the re-

GIVEN TO THE JURY.

Closing Proceedings in the Celebrated Case.

TEXT OF JUDGE PORTER'S CHARGE.

He Says Surgeon Grinn Must be Acquitted—A Civil Suit for Damages Will Follow, No Matter What the Verdict.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 5.—On convening of court yesterday morning Senator Robbins began the closing address to the jury in the defense. His arguments were upon the severity of the offense of Private Lane; the absence of cruelty in the punishment inflicted and the absence of malice. In his analysis of the testimony of Private Lane, the latter was scored unmercifully. The address was remarkable for its force and clearness. Attorney Frank P. Lane followed with an argument for the prosecution. He reviewed at length the terrible punishment inflicted, comparing the rope with the thumb screw and other implements of torture used in past ages. At the conclusion of Mr. Lane's address to the jury, Judge Porter asked the prosecution if it had any further evidence by which they could directly connect Colonel Hawkins with the punishment of Lane. The prosecution had nothing further to offer. Judge Porter then began his charge to the jury by saying that malice means a reckless disregard of the rights of another, and need not be proven in a civil suit. He said that "if J. B. Streator and Colonel Hawkins, in sharing the drumming out of camp were acting in pursuance of orders issued by a superior officer, they are not guilty of assault, and your verdict must be one of acquittal. The verdict in all the cases against Surgeon W. S. Grinn must be acquittal. The claim set up by the defense, that Colonel A. L. Hawkins had acted entirely in accordance with orders from a superior officer is affirmed. The claim of the defense that Hawkins could not be convicted because he had nothing to do with the punishment of Lane is rejected. While in the military service of the United States, he is not to be excused from his duty. There is no evidence to show that General Snowden ordered the prisoner hung up by the thumbs. You must acquit Colonel Hawkins on all charges unless you think it has been shown beyond reasonable doubt that he aided and abetted in the assault upon the prisoner."

Next Judge Porter defined the law as it applies to assault and battery. Closing the charge to the jury with the remark: "If you are not satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that defendants were acting in pursuance of the highest motives in their efforts as military commanders engaged in actual war to maintain discipline and order, and to prevent the commission of the crime charged."

W. L. Lairs, the private prosecutor in the case against Colonel Hawkins, Lieutenant Colonel Streator and Surgeon Grinn, today said whether the jury in the present case found the defendants guilty or not would bring suit for damages.

At midnight the jury was still out and there is no prospect of an agreement being reached. Judge Porter left for his home early in the morning. County Physician Leonard next told of the finding of the body, and as he began to narrate the execution of Ling's clothing, and how he had taken the prisoner's arms, because it had upon it that resplendent blood, court adjourned for the day.

CLASH IN NEW YORK.

There May be a Conflict Between the State and Federal Authorities.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The committee of lawyers appointed by Tammany Hall to protect voters have sent a letter to Chief Supervisor of Elections Davenport which is in part as follows: "We understand that it is contemplated by you to make certain arrests of electors of this county for alleged illegal registration."

"It has frequently happened that you have withheld making arrests for alleged illegal registration until election day and as we are informed you have held the person so arrested until the election was over, thereby causing the elector to lose his vote, even though entitled to cast it."

"As you can just as well execute your warrants for illegal registration now on election day, we have to request that you will forthwith issue and execute any warrants you may intend to issue for illegal registration, in order that the elector, if entitled to his discharge, shall receive the same in time to cast his vote."

The letter then quotes from opinions by Justice Chase and Justice Brandeis to the effect that where a man can be arrested before election day he must be released. If there is any delay in arresting him where he could have been arrested, the arrest must be pronounced to be for the purpose of preventing him from voting and consequently unlawful. United States District Attorney Mitchell sent a letter yesterday to Chief Supervisor Davenport and Marshall Jacobson, advising them as to the law which governs their duties. It points out the various duties of the person in a class with any state law, and shows that Mr. Sheehan's proclamation is in direct violation of the law. Mr. Mitchell said to a United Press reporter: "Mr. Sheehan's proclamation is in direct violation of the law. It is an attempt to riot. The United States marshal state advisors will be supported by the military if need be. State Senator Carter said yesterday that he will not be surprised if he does not see a warrant issued by the federal and state authorities. He does not advocate anything of the sort, but thought it impossible to conduct an election without."

Charleston's Festival. CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 5.—Charleston's festival for the year is the last night with a magnificent pyrotechnic display, which was witnessed by 60,000 people. The week has been unusually bright one and will long be remembered by the participants. The war flag will probably remain here for several days.

Five Sudden Deaths in an Asylum.

NORWICH, Pa., Nov. 5.—A full board of the trustees of the hospital for the insane was in monthly session yesterday. The physicians reports show there are 161 persons in the female department and 100 in the male. During the month the B. H. Chase reports there were five sudden deaths in his department, all of which are directly attributable to heart disease, which is a record that has hardly been approached in any previous period of the institution.

Highway Robbery in Berks County.

SHOMERSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 5.—A Swirl of the village, while returning from Fleetwood, was held up by two highwaymen. One of them presented a revolver, while the other went through his pockets and secured all his money except $1, which was inside his glove. It is supposed that the thieves were the same who attacked and robbed a stone-mason near Tipton a week ago.

A Pool Fighter Kills His Son.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Nov. 5.—A fatal and shocking case of "didn't know it was loaded" occurred at Jersey Shore last night. A pool player, Joseph Sessman, was handling a pistol, which he supposed empty, and to amuse his 3-year-old son, he pointed the trigger toward him. He mapped it once too often and a sudden mischievous play of the boy's heart killed him instantly.

Train Wreck in Ohio.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Nov. 5.—There was a big wreck on the Baltimore and Ohio and Northwestern, eight miles from here, yesterday. The third car from the engine on a freight broke down and twenty-five cars were piled on top of it. The engine, front brakeman, was buried under three cars and crushed to death.

Switchmen's Grievances.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—M. W. Barrett, of Chicago, second vice grand master of the Switchmen's Mutual association, arrived in St. Louis yesterday morning in pursuance of a writ to a number of grievances that have existed in the various lodges of the S. M. A. A. in this city and East St. Louis.

The Beautiful Lehigh Valley.

The beauty and sublimity of the scenery of the Lehigh Valley are too little appreciated by our own people. Recent foreign and domestic tourists, guard of the World's Fair invasion, have expressed themselves in the most enthusiastic terms regarding the grand and picturesque scenery of the valley, with its towering peaks, its mystic canyons, its smiling intervals and its swirling streams. Some of them have declared that in all of Europe so much of natural beauty cannot be found within the same extent as may be enjoyed by taking a trip over the "Scenic Railway" through the Lehigh Valley. Railroad route between New York and Niagara Falls on the east, and Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago on the west. The route is upon the finest business boat and the tourist seeking nature at her loveliest and best should, in all means, avail themselves of the first opportunity to make a journey through this superbly beautiful valley, so aptly called the "Switzerland of America."

NO DEMOCRATIC CHALLENGERS.

The Local Democratic Party to Appear
Destructive Election Officers for the Way
Provided by Law. They Will Have Another Chance, However.

The City Clerk made the important discovery that the local Democratic party failed to comply with the re-
