A NOTED TEXAS FEUD.

The Jay Bird-Woodpecker Contests Recalled.

ALL THE PARTICIPANTS NOW DEAD.

The Killing of Deputy Marshal Smith Removes the Last of Those Who Took Part in Numerous Fatal Shooting Affrays.

RICHMOND, Tex., Nov. 7.—Incited by some white men, the car was set on fire by a mob of whites, one negro, who was afterwards killed, fatally shot United States Deputy Marshal Thomas G. Smith. The latter died of his wounds last evening.

The killing of Deputy Marshal Smith removes one of the last central figures of a Texas feud. Almost a score of widows and several scores of fatherless children owe their condition to Smith, for during his lifetime he committed many murders—at least, he killed many men.

His death recalls the notorious Jay Bird and Woodpecker feud of this (Fort Bend) county. The Jay Bird faction was composed of the white Democrats of the county, while the Woodpecker party was composed of the negroes who had been elected with the aid of negroes, and who controlled the politics of the county. It was the desire of the county from alleged malice on the part of some of the Woodpecker officers that brought about the conflict.

Feeling grew so intense that personal encounters were numerous, and every body in Richmond was armed. On the morning of the 1st of January, 1892, a going home one night Henry Frost, who was known as king of the Jay Birds, was shot. The added fuel to the fire, and general fight seemed inevitable, but was averted. The killing of the Jay Bird by the Woodpecker, and the killing of the Woodpecker by the Jay Bird, were the result of the feud.

The feud is now composed of 47 Republicans, 39 Democrats and 2 Farmers' Alliance men. The latter are Kyle, of Smith County, and Foster, of Dallas County. These the Republicans have 6 majority should the Democrats be elected, and they now have and elect 3 additional, the senate will be equally divided, and the vice president will have the decisive vote.

Twenty-nine senators are to be chosen by the people, and the balance of the 53 are now Democrats and 19 Republicans. The following shows the political status of the house of representatives in the Fifty-third Congress.

THE FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

The congressional elections are second only in importance to the choice of a president. Realizing this fact, the congressional campaign has been one of the most important in the history of the country.

Washington has conducted a vigorous campaign, and at this writing both Democrats and Republicans claim to be confident of a majority in the next house of representatives. Owing to People's party complications, however, it is impossible for an impartial observer to predict the result.

The Miller Case Again.

Additional Testimony Given by Professor Thomas Stillman, Student of the Case Given to the Jury.

The case of the city against drugist Miller, for alleged illegal liquor selling, which was tried last week at which time the jury disagreed, was tried again this morning before Judge and Jury.

The same testimony was given as before, but additional evidence for the plaintiff in the shape of expert testimony from Professor Thomas Stillman, the chemist of Stevens' Institute, was offered.

The Professor testified that the compound which Miller claimed he sold to the witness, did not contain any gum arabic and but a trace of water. He also testified that for the amount of peppin, which Miller claims he placed in the compound, he was unable to say whether there was any in it or not.

The lawyers then summed up and the case was given to the jury shortly after noon.

At three o'clock the jury returned with a verdict of guilty and a recommendation for mercy.

An Opportunity for the True Civil Service Reform.

Honorable George T. Parrott has made the best Surrogate Union county has ever had, and his management of the business has given the utmost satisfaction to all who have had occasion to meet him officially.

This is the voluntary testimony of all who have transacted business with the Surrogate during the past few years, and if there are any who have no personal knowledge of these facts, they can satisfy themselves as to the way in which he has conducted his business by talking with his friends and neighbors who know from personal experience. Advancing his re-election, therefore, is merely asking for a continuance in office of a thoroughly excellent official, one who is well acquainted with the routine of the office, and one whose personal characteristics eminently qualify him to meet with those who are called to visit the office.—Elizabeth Journal.

Look Out for the Letter "A."

In voting or in using pasters do not make mistakes in the names of the Republican candidates for Congress and for County Clerk. The letter "A" is all the difference in the final names of these gentlemen. William Scott Chamberlain (without "A") for Congress, and William Chamberlain for County Clerk. Make no mistake. A little carelessness on this point may cause much trouble.—Elizabeth Journal.

Tariff Pictures.

Two years ago there were only 6 manufacturers of pearl buttons in the United States; employing altogether 300 hands. To-day there are 165 factories, one single firm employing more than 450 hands. This sudden and rapid extension in the domestic pearl button manufacturing industry is due to the great increase in the duty made by the McKinley tariff on imported pearl buttons. It can truly be said that the tariff in this instance has created a new and important industry.—New York Press.

Vote for the Poor Man's Friend.

Tax Collector H. N. Spencer, of North Plainfield, is the poor man's friend, and he should be elected to the office of Surrogate of Somerset county. Between December 20 and February 1, Mr. Spencer's costs for collecting taxes have amounted to some $250, but he has never asked for a cent of the costs, knowing full well that it would have to come out of the poor man's pocket. Furthermore Mr. Spencer has never asked for or accepted a penny for services so rendered. In the latter connection what you want is something that will do its work while you continue to do yours—a remedy that will give you no inconvenience or trouble in your business. Such a remedy is ALLOCOCK'S FORGOT FLASHERS. These flashers are not an experiment; they have been in use for over thirty years, and their value has been attested by the highest medical authorities, as well as by testimonials from those who have used them. They require no change of diet and are not affected by wet or cold. Their action does not interfere with labor or business; you can eat and drink as usual while they are at work. They are so pure that the youngest, the oldest, the most delicate person of either sex can use them with perfect safety.

Beware of Imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentations. Ask for ALLOCOCK'S, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

The Beautiful Leigh Valley.

The beauty and sublimity of the scenery of the Leigh Valley are too little appreciated by our own people. Recent foreign visitors, the advance guard of the world's fair invasion, have expressed themselves in the most enthusiastic terms regarding the grandeur and picturesque quality of this valley, with its towering peaks, its mystic canyons, its smiling intervals and its swirling streams. Some of them have declared that in all Europe as much of natural beauty cannot be found within the same extent as may be enjoyed by taking a trip over the "Leigh Valley" division of the Reading Railroad System. This wonderful beauty is at our very doors—within a few hours ride of any of the great eastern cities and in the direct Reading Railroad route between New York and Philadelphia, on the east, and Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago on the west.

The traveler upon business and the tourist seeking nature at her loveliest and best should, at all means, avail themselves of this great opportunity to make a journey through this amazingly beautiful valley, so aptly called the "Switzerland of America."
