WHAT CAUSED THE CHANGE.

Expressions of Opinion on the Result by Political Leaders.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Senator Charles, of Kentucky, who was in town during the election, was jubilant today. When asked how he accounted for the defeat of President Harrison he replied: "It was simply a protest against protection, the force bill and the policy of the Republican party. I am really surprised that the overwhelming Democratic victory. It was one of the greatest triumphs the Democracy ever experienced, and I doubt if the Republicans will return to power for many years."

The senator was not inclined to enter into a discussion of details of the result. Congressman Miliken, of Maine, was also disappointed over the defeat of President Harrison to what he thought of as the cause of the Democratic avalanche.

The Republican politicians were all profoundly depressed and their Democratic rivals were extremely jubilant over the general result. Both sides were surprised at the big Democratic majority in this country, and over Harrison's poor showing after the Cleveland victory. It is a fact that the Democratic managers were surprised at the result of the election in doubtful states and in those that were supposed to be Republican. The calculations and estimates of prominent politicians on both sides were upset.

Congressman Bontelle, of Maine, said: "I do not know how to account for it. Possibly it was due to the ignorance of voters who had been led to believe that protection does not benefit them, and that the Democratic program would be a relief. They may regret their action. I am all the more convinced that the cause of high opinions entertained among Democratic friends of the present administration."

The following was heard from Democratic headquarters last night: "The victory was a just statement that the electoral votes of Michigan and all of the electoral votes of Wisconsin and Illinois, in addition to those from New York, New Jersey, Indiana and Connecticut, and those from the southern states will be cast for Cleveland and Stevenson. This will make 230 electoral votes in all. The indications are that California has also vote Democratic, thus giving Cleveland and Stevenson not less than 275 electoral votes. It is a glorious victory, and the people of the country are entitled to the warmest congratulations."

THE NEWS IN WASHINGTON.

The President Gave It Up When He Heard from Illinois.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The president gave up the election when he heard from Illinois, remarking: "If Illinois has gone Democratic, that settles it," and he requested that no further returns be sent to him. The president rose at his own hour yesterday, glanced over some of the latest returns which had been prepared for him, and then calmly devoted himself to executive business, saying nothing.

After disposing of a number of pardon cases, the president received an official call from Secretary John W. Foster on matters relating to the international monetary conference. The instructions to the American delegates are now in course of preparation, and will be ready for delivery to the delegates in this city.

Throughout the day the president gave no indications whatever of discontent or chagrin at the result of his election. He was undoubtedly the calmest person in the house, and observed his customary routine as though nothing unusual had occurred. As the day of his friends expressed it: "If he is defeated he will lay down the cares of official life without the least regret, and seek the more congenial situation of private life with undisturbed satisfaction."

Attorney General Miller and Secretary J. W. Foster, of the state department, are the only two members of the cabinet not in the city.

Attorney General Miller was somewhat surprised for defeat by the forecast of defeat which he brought back with him from his last visit to Indiana, but he was far from anticipating so complete a "slump." Secretary of State Foster is believed to be in a similar position, but with Colonel Dick Bright of Indiana.

Ex-Secretary Hay declines to be interviewed on the result and has had the telephone removed from his residence in the city, so as to avoid the annoyance of perpetual calls. The feeling of depression and unrest which pervades all the departments cannot be exaggerated.

NEW YORK'S MAJORITY 53,000.

New York, Nov. 10.—Cleveland's plurality in New York state is about 53,000. In this city his plurality is 29,000 and Kings county about 28,457. The New York state legislature will be Democratic by eighteen to twenty on joint ballot, thus insuring the election of a Democrat to succeed United States Senator Frank B. Rowland. The assembly will probably be made up of seventy-four Democrats and fifty-six Republicans. In this county every one of the thirty assembliesmen was elected by the Democrats. The Democratic congressmen were also elected in this county.

WISCONSIN DEMOCRATIC BY 13,000.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 10.—The Democrats have carried Wisconsin. This is conceded by Henry C. Payne, the Wisconsin member of the Republican national committee, and John C. Spooner, the Republican gubernatorial candidate. The Democrats carried the state by a plurality of 13,000. The next legislature will stand as follows: Senate—Republican, 10; Democrats, 9; House—Democrats, 56; Republicans, 35. The Democratic vote on joint ballot will be thirty-one to twenty-nine in favor of the Democrats.

ILLINOIS DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY 10,000.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—The indications are that the vote of Illinois has gone for Cleveland and Stevenson by 10,000 plurality, and that the Democratic ticket is elected. Chicago and Cook county will give Cleveland and Stevenson and Alton, the Democratic candidate for governor, not less than 15,000 plurality, which will probably more than offset the Republican majority in the country generally.

WEST VIRGINIA DEMOCRATIC.

WHEELING, Nov. 10.—West Virginia has carried the election. The Democrats have carried the state by a plurality of 10,000. The next legislature will stand as follows: Senate—Republican, 10; Democrats, 9; House—Democrats, 56; Republicans, 35. The Democratic vote on joint ballot will be thirty-one to twenty-nine in favor of the Democrats.

OHIO VOTE CLOSE.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 10.—Late returns reveal the fact that the race in Ohio is very close. The Democratic electors have a lead of a little over 700 plurality. The vote is estimated to be as follows: Senate—Republican, 8; Democrats, 7; House—Democrats, 56; Republicans, 35. The Democratic vote on joint ballot will be thirty-one to twenty-nine in favor of the Democrats.

MAINE BATTLE IN MICHIGAN.

DETROIT, Nov. 10.—Rich, rep., has carried the election in Michigan. The Republicans have also probably carried ten electors out of fourteen. This includes out of the state at large. Both parties claim the legislature by a safe majority. A successor to United States Senator Charles D. Walcott, rep., whose term expires next March, will be elected by the Republicans.

MISSOURI'S PLURALITY 30,000.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 10.—The Democratic state committee claim that Stone's plurality will be 30,000. The committee claims all the congressional districts, except the Tenth and Eleventh. In the Tenth the Democrats would be a majority. The Eleventh is in doubt and it will take the state committee to decide. Cleveland will lead Stone for governor by 3,000 in the state.

MINNESOTA CARRIES CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—The Democrats have carried California. The Democrats have also probably carried ten electors out of fourteen. This includes out of the state at large. Both parties claim the legislature by a safe majority. A successor to United States Senator Charles D. Walcott, rep., whose term expires next March, will be elected by the Republicans.

LOUISIANA RETURNS SLOW.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 10.—Returns of the election are coming in slowly, but Harrison is not in it in this section. E. C. Davey will go to congress with 3,000 majority in the Fifth district, and the race between Myer Democrat and James Wilkinson, Independent, is close.

ARKANSAS DEMOCRATIC VOTE.

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 10.—It is estimated that the total vote of the state will exceed that of September 15, 1892, 5 per cent. It was Republican by 150. The Democratic electors have carried the state by a decided plurality.

DELAWARE'S DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 10.—Cleveland's plurality in the state is 578, divided by counties as follows: New Castle, 307; Kent, 181; Sussex, 130. John W. Causey, dem., is elected to congress by about the same majority.

BOOTH CAROLINA DEMOCRATIC BY 48,000.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 10.—Chairman Irbly, of the Democratic executive committee estimates the vote will be as follows: Cleveland, 60,000; Harrison, 30,000; Weaver, 2,000. Cleveland's majority, 48,000.

CLEVELAND WINS CONNECTICUT BY 5,000.

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 10.—Complete returns from the state, gathered by the Southern New England Telephone company, give Cleveland 5,200 majority over Harrison, 1,400 majority for Morris, dem., for governor, 1,400 majority.

LOUISIANA'S MAJORITY 40,000.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 10.—The latest returns received from all sections of the state show a decreased Republican vote of 25,000. The Republican majority in Pennsylvania will not exceed 60,000.

IOWA 10,000 REPUBLICAN.

DES MOINES, Nov. 10.—The Republican majority in Iowa will exceed 10,000. Several congressional districts are regained by the Republicans, but the exact figures cannot be obtained yet.

HARRISON CARRIES WASHINGTON.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 10.—From the most trustworthy sources it is stated that Harrison has carried the state, but that Shriver, dem., is elected governor.

THE VOICE IN VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Nov. 10.—Further returns show continued Democratic gains. Cleveland's plurality in the state is estimated at 20,000 to 40,000.

THE ALABAMA VOTE.

BIRMINGHAM, Nov. 10.—It is estimated that Cleveland's majority in Alabama will exceed 30,000. The Democrats elect Harrison to congress by a majority of 1,500 to 2,000 majority.

MASSACHUSETTS MAJORITY.

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—The majority for Harrison and Reid in Massachusetts is 1,500 to 2,000 majority.

SOUTH DAKOTA FOR WEAVER.

PUBLIC, Nov. 10.—The Weaver electors have been chosen, but the Republican congressmen and state ticket are successful.

MARYLAND'S MAJORITY 20,000.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 10.—The majority in Maryland for the Cleveland electors will be fully 20,000.

THE COMING CONGRESS.

Indications that the Democrats will Control Both Branches.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Equally important as the contest over the presidency was the political complexion of the next senate. That body now embraces forty-seven Republicans, thirty-nine Democrats and two Farmers' Alliance men—a Republican majority of six over the combined opposition. On March 4 next twenty-nine seats in the senate will become vacant by expiration of the terms of the present senators.

There is also a vacancy in Kansas, caused by the death of Senator Plumb. Six of the retiring senators have already been re-elected—Sherman, Aldrich and Proctor, Republicans; Gorman, George and Daniel, Democrats.

Reforms from the congressional elections are still far from complete. Statements of the political divisions of the senate and house of representatives in the 53d congress necessarily contain elements of uncertainty. The results of the election of the Democratic claim that they have carried the Wyoming legislature and will thereby secure a successor to Senator Sherman, whose term expires March next. This would give them 48 congressmen, and certainly give to the Third party senators the control of that body. Enthusiastic Democrats believe the new legislature will secure enough additional senators from other western states to give them the control of the upper house.

The returns of the legislative elections show the loss of 52 seats to the Republicans—New York and Wisconsin and leave five seats in doubt, four of which are being now held by Republicans and only one by a Democrat. If the Republicans lose the next senate will be made up of 45 Republicans, 41 Democrats, and 3 Farmers' Alliance men. The Republican majority of 2 only. The loss of one more seat will thus tie the senate, and the loss of two seats will turn it control over to the opposition.

A compilation of the returns for congress gives the Democrats a majority of 275 over the Republicans in the next house of seventy-seven, and over both Republican and Third parties of sixty-nine, with eleven districts put in the doubtful column. The returns are very incomplete, and changes will have to be made in the figures of each state before the reports will be complete. The figures, however, clearly indicate that the next house of representatives will be an even closer contest than the working majority, which will doubtless finally be found to be somewhere from 60 to 80. According to the present legislation, there will be 297 Democrats, 130 Republicans and 8 Third party men in the next house, with 11 additions yet to be made to complete the quota of 336 members. There are in the last house 297 Democrats, 130 Republicans and 8 Third party men, with 11 additions yet to be made to complete the quota of 336 members. There are in the last house 297 Democrats, 130 Republicans and 8 Third party men, with 11 additions yet to be made to complete the quota of 336 members.

The results of the relative gain of the Republicans as compared with the tremendous landslide of two years ago, so that in order to secure an even chance of success in the next congress, the Democrats must win at least two states in the national legislative chamber for their members. But though the Democrats have lost a number of members, as compared with the present house, their majority is certainly large enough for all practical purposes. The strength of the Independents will be nearly the same in the next house as in this.

The present house consists of 236 Democrats, 130 Republicans, and 8 Farmers' Alliance men.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1892.

In the American people had at any time within twenty years had experience of the Democratic party in full occupancy of the general government, they would not have turned the country over to that party on Tuesday. The Democracy have had the advantage of making professions without assuming responsibility, and the credulity of the mass of Democratic voters is so great that it does not seem to impair the strength of the party to preach one doctrine in one State or section and other doctrines in other States and sections.

Now we will turn our thoughts toward the election of city officers. The election occurs on Tuesday December 6. A Mayor and one Councilman from each ward are to be chosen.

New Jersey does not take kindly to campaigns of education and organization, that is very evident.

Our Democratic brethren have the opportunity of their lives now.

The next entertainment at the Boys' Club will be held on Monday evening of next week.

The jury appeal case of Mrs. Mary A. McCarthy against the New Jersey Central Railroad for damages caused by the burning of her barn, a long time ago, was set down for trial at Elizabeth, on Monday, but at the request of the lawyers interested in the case the trial was adjourned over until the 23d in stand. The case was tried here before a jury some months ago, and a verdict was returned in favor of Mrs. McCarthy. The Company took an appeal, and the case is still pending.

Next Wednesday evening, the Crescent League will have another one of their pleasant entertainments, and during the evening the adjourned business meeting of the club will be held.

Weather prophet Shaw says that this present rainy weather is going to clear up by to-morrow, and that we are to have fair and warmer weather which will, in all probability, continue over the next few days. The rain has come to wash away the mud which has been lying in the past campaign, and to clean up the political slates for new future.

Two cases on contract, not down for trial before Justice Nash, to-day, were adjourned over for a week.

Central Lodge, No. 48, A. O. U. M., has today received from the Stillman building on West Front street, to the Elkwood building on West Second street, and to-night they will hold their first meeting there.

Those desiring home-made cake or candy will do well to patronize the sale to be held to-morrow afternoon and evening by the Society of Trinity Episcopal Church Sunday-School, at No. 55 North avenue, opposite the railroad station. The entire proceeds are for the church debt.

Lea's Cautels now number forty-three, and their instructor says he thinks it will be only a short time before the ranks will be well rounded or more.

George W. Moore, of East Front street, says he will be willing to take back twenty-five per cent of the money he put in election and he "won't say a word."

It might be well for the gas company of the city to find out where the odor of gas which is plainly perceptible on the corner of Central avenue and West Fourth street, originates. It is very strong, especially at night.

The displayman to whom forecasts are now sent will receive such warnings without reference to the fact that they have heretofore received the same from the forecast. The weather element of forecasts will be included in the telegram indicating decided temperature changes, in order that the temperature signal may be displayed in its proper position.

The warnings so distributed are for the period mentioned in the telegram, and the flags indicating the same will be lowered at the expiration of that time, unless a second warning, or a continuation of the previous one, is received by the displayman.

An Orange Man Starts Out to Find a Certain Article and Prosecutes His Search Unsuccessfully Until he Reaches Plainfield.

W. H. Rogers, the cyclist of West Fifth street, was surprised a day or two ago to see a mud-spattered and perspiring bicycle rider jump off a wheel in front of his place of business and coming in ask for a baby holder for a bicycle. The bicyclist said that he lived at Orange, and that he was in need of a baby holder so that he could take his baby out riding. He had started early in the morning for Newark where he expected to buy one. He was unsuccessful in his search, nor did he succeed any better at Elizabeth. He therefore came on to Plainfield, feeling that he was certain that he could find one here. His want was quickly supplied and he was soon pedaling for home, bent on giving his baby a ride before night.

One Year of Our City's Healthfulness and Other Interesting Statistics.

Plainfield covers an area of 3,791 acres and contains a population of about 11,900. A little more than half of this number (say 6,000) live in the older and more thickly settled part of the city, occupying nearly one-fourth of the territory lying between Sixth street on the East and Green Brook on the West, at Richmond street, and the city limits at Plainfield avenue on the South. The last official census of 1890 showed 1,963 dwelings within the corporate limits. Of the inhabitants 6,025 are females and 5,234 are male, including all native born and those of foreign birth. The total number of legal voters is 2,295 (253 being colored).

During the past twelve months, ending October 1, 1892, there have been reported to the Board of Health and recorded as follows the following vital statistics:

Marriages performed	131
Births registered	229
Deaths registered	187
Classified according to ages, the mortality record may be described as follows:
Under one year	40 deaths
One year to sixteen years	22 deaths
Sixteen years to 60 years	49 deaths
60 years to 70 years	18 deaths
Over 70 years	38 deaths

The principal causes of death have been among adults. Disease of the lungs, 48 deaths; heart, 13; intestinal, 11; accidents, 6; and with children cholera infantum, 6; convulsions, 7; scarlet fever, 6; mumps, 6; diphtheria, 5.

This showing makes a death rate lower than for several years past. It has been the best year, commercially for matrimonial alliances, and no preceding twelve months in the city's history have surpassed this year's record of births.

Over Two Inches of Rain Falls.

The weather for the past two days has been peculiar. Tuesday it was a Spring-like tendency, the extremes being 53 and 43. During Tuesday night it grew colder and yesterday afternoon, whatever prospects the Republicans may have had, were snowed under. Yesterday morning the thermometer stood at 32. Snow fell to the depth of 2-3-10 inches. This amount melted, showed the precipitation to have been 7-8 of an inch. From 8:45 last night to 10:30 this morning, the rain fell was 4.13, making the total precipitation, of the past twenty-four hours, of 2 and 1-13 inches.

Forecast for the Weather.

Rain, followed by fair Thursday night, warmer weather.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS.

The special wire run into the Crescent Club to receive the return on Tuesday was cut out again yesterday. One thing is certain and that is that the weather is in sympathy with the defeated party.

—The Democratic camp on all the way from Washington, D. C. to vote here on Tuesday, and then found that they were not registered.

—Just three months half a dozen of the biggest of these trout, said a citizen to the fish dealer.

—"They throw them" queried the dealer.

—"Yes, and then I'll go home and tell you that I caught 'em. I may be a poor fisherman, but I am no liar."

—There is something queer about the bicycle business. A high wheel that once cost $150 can be bought now for $50 or less. Price and value evidently do not lift each other.

—Now the "blasted bondholder" will be compelled to disgorge; the workingmen will live in royal palaces and will be clad in the finest raiment; the whole population will take an annual trip to Europe; the North will spend the winter in the South and the South will spend the summer in the North. No more strikes, boycotts, riots or that sort of thing. Everything lovely. Joy and plenty in all corners of the land. Be satisfied and wait for it.—Newark Advertiser.

—Belle Peterson, of this city, has been sentenced to five months in the county jail at Somerville. She pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny.

—The fourth triennial gathering of the New Jersey State School Association will take place next week, Wednesday and Thursday, November 16 and 17, at Roselleville. This will be the thirty-fourth anniversary, and a gathering of great interest to all Sunday School workers.

—The breakfast fair of the Elizabeth wheelmen opened last evening under most favorable auspices.

—Our local sportsmen have been after game the past week, but the majority returned with nothing.

—There were only seven applicants for third grade certificates at the Somerset teachers' conference on Saturday, and six certificates were granted.

—The Street Commissioner's men are now engaged in cleaning out the gutters and water ways in the various parts of the city. When the storm is over the Street Commissioner will begin to repair East Front street and cut down some of the high places in the road near the First Presbyterian Church.

—There are fashions even among children. Just at present button-downs are all the rage with the small boys, who lay no other fancy.

—The storm of yesterday afternoon and last evening was hard on the street cars motored, who were obliged to face the snow and sleet, but making their usual trip. It was not so bad for the drivers, who were not so much inconvenienced by the weather, but they had occasion to go inside the car.

—The musical comedy, "The Kid," by Henry Wadsworth and Laurence Howard, was presented at Music Hall, before a very small audience, last evening. The play abounds in funny situations, and was deserving of a much larger house.

—The school was closed yesterday, owing to the street railway wires. The storm did not interfere with the service in any way, however.

—A poll of the boys in one of the classes in the High School was taken yesterday, and it resulted in a total of twenty-eight for Harrison and eight for Cleveland.

—The boys yet a good many people on the anxious seat over the election, especially those who had money on the result, but they might just as well fork over the cash.

—Even the news-boys about the streets, yesterday, were discussing the political situation.

—The Crescent League did not have their special meeting, last night, owing to the unpropitious weather. It will be held next week instead.

—Somerville will be overrun with schoolmen on November 21, 22 and 23, as on those days the teachers of Somerset and Burlington counties hold an institute there. North Plainfield will be represented at the institute.

—The pound party announced for this evening at Evona, under the auspices of the Woman's Friendly Society, has been postponed to November 15.

—The sale of Ragas seats begins to-day.

If a thing is Worth Having

The patronage of Courier readers is certainly worth asking for.

DRUGGIST MILLER IS SENTENCED.

Dr. Francis M. Miller, of the Second Case, and Sent a Total Fine of $25.—The Judge was Repentive to the City.

The second case of the city against Frederick W. Miller, on complaint for illegal sale of liquor, came up this morning before the city court. To-day had been set for imposition of sentence in the first case. The defendant appeared with counsel, Charles A. Reed, withdrew the plea of not guilty, and second case and entered a plea of not guilty. His counsel then addressed the court urging light sentences in both cases. Corporation Counsel Marsh called attention to the fact that it had cost the city $100 to have the whiskey analyzed by a chemist, which expense was rendered necessary by the disappearance of the first jury.

The Judge said that but for the recommendations of the jury he would probably have imposed something more than a fine, but would regard the wish of the jury in the first case and at that charge imposed a fine of $25 or twenty days imprisonment. It is to be noted that in the second case the sentence was $60 fine or twenty day imprisonment in default of payment of fine.

PERSONAL.

Manager Pucci, of the Postal Telegraph Company, has been constantly on the go for a week or more past running in "shows" for the company's main line into many political headquarters throughout the State. The service gave entire satisfaction.

Arthur Rehan and Buckley Platt, managers of the company playing Lord Tenney's Great Poetic Comedy "The Foresters," were in this city yesterday, and called on some of the prominent citizens in relation to the production of "The Foresters" at Music Hall on Monday evening next, November 14.

Aram C. Correll, of Dunellen, is expected to the house by illness.

It is gratifying to note the popularity of the Hon. George K. K. In the face of the Democratic avalanche, which swept over this entire country on Tuesday, he is returned to the Assembly by the handsome majority of 60.

Horace D. Noyes, of Princeton College, is the guest of Dr. R. J. Shaw, of this city.

At her home, No. 55 West Third street, yesterday, occurred the death of Mary, wife of Frank Lynch, aged thirty years and eight months. The cause of death was consumption, and she had been an invalid for a long time. The funeral will take place from the house, to-morrow, at 9:30 o'clock, and from St. Luke's Church a half hour later. The relatives and friends are invited to attend.

George W. Moore, as one of the Democratic State ticket, was named by the Commander on tour of inspection to the Soldier's Home at Kearney, on the 14th instant. The visit was a success, and the Commander was very much pleased with the results.

Mrs. John W. Dodge, of No. 39 East Front street, is visiting relatives in East Bridgeport, Connecticut.

The snow yesterday was the first to track for several days. James Babbitt says the rabbits are no more plentiful than before the snow. This is evidently an old year for game.

There are several cases of sore throat of a diphtheritic nature in the city, but the doctors say that there is nothing alarming about the matter.

There's nothing like celebrating a victory in a proper manner, and it is no more than right that it should be done. There are times and places for celebrating, but the rear platform of a public street car is not one of these places. Yesterday's spectacle of one of the conductors of the electric car, brandishing a white Democratic flag and calling out sacrilegious remarks to passengers, was spoken of by many and did not tend to popularize the service of the road.

There is much well-grounded complaint on the part of the farmers that their premises are now routinely invaded by gunners. These latter have been engaged for some time past in anything else for that matter. They are accused of shooting poultry when smaller game is not plentiful.

The Journal of Elizabeth says that better roads throughout the State of New Jersey seem now to be more assured than ever. As soon as the various assembly conventions had been held throughout the State, the Governor and the Legislature will be able to make a letter to each and every one of the assembly candidates, asking him to do his best for the people, and to improve roads. Nearly all the candidates replied, some of them at considerable length. A very few refused to reply, but a few more were favorable to the improvement.

Theodore F. Morris, Jr., the representative in Jersey City, of the League of American Wheelmen, is responsible for the statement that at the next session of the Legislature an effort will be made to have repealed the so-called "liberty bill" which now gives wheelmen the same rights on the road as the drivers of other vehicles.

The Elizabeth Journal calls Tuesday's election a "decisive landslide." It was worse than that. It was a combined earthquake, cyclone and Johnstown flood.

During the performance at Music Hall, last evening, some young men, who occupied one of the boxes, disturbed the audience to such a degree that they had to be told either to stop their noise or leave the building.

The local Democrats, yesterday, were permeated with what Francis Wilson calls "one gigantic jag of joy."

The Rev. B. Pay Mills, the evangelist, is about to leave for his holding meetings in San Francisco, and as usual great crowds go to hear him. Three meetings are held daily. He is accomplishing what he says he has been some thousands persons have joined the evangelical churches on the coast since last March.

—If we were well, did you tell God how naughty you have been? Lily—No, I was ashamed. I thought it had better not get out of the family.—Brooklyn Life.

THE CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW.

It will be brought to a close this evening and to-morrow the city will be seeing the handsomest display of the beautiful flowers ever shown in the city.

Now that election is over and the excitement incident thereto has somewhat subsided, it may be well to again remind the readers of the Courier of the magnificent display of chrysanthemums which is to be seen at No. 17 Crescent avenue.

These beautiful flowers, it will be remembered, are the ones which took the highest prizes at the recent exhibition at Madison Square Garden, New York. They were secured for this show through the efforts of Florence Titworth. Considerable expense has been incurred in getting these flowers here and the Ladies Society of the Seventh Day Baptist Church, under whose supervision the show is being held, deserve to be liberally patronized.

The show will be open from two o'clock this afternoon until 11 o'clock, when it will be brought to a close. A large lantern hangs by the window to designate the right place to view the show, and the display is overflowing with chrysanthemums and pretty girls, there can be found no better place in the city to pass this evening.

It is nothing that nothing that will cheer up a person quicker than music, flowers, and congenial company. Therefore, those who are disappointed at the result of the recent election should make it a point to be present. They will be cheered up, their minds will be diverted, and they will come away feeling well repaid for having visited the show and seeing as fine a display of chrysanthemums as ever was shown in this city.

MANY WIRES DOWN.

Chief Doane Says That It's a Wonder no One Was Injured Last Night From Contact With Wires of the Broken Ropes Live Wires Which Alighted on the Street.

Chief Doane and his assistants while at work, last night, trying to locate a break in the fire alarm system, found an unusual number of live electric light, telegraph and telephone wires down, and he had them put in places of safety.

In speaking of the matter, this morning, the Chief said that it is a wonder that no one was seriously injured by coming in contact with some of these live wires. They seemed to be down everywhere. As soon as one of his men would climb a pole, in hunting for a broken wire, he would find one down, and he would discover that other wires had been torn from their fastenings and had been on the ground, and in many instances had fallen over the shoulders of passengers who were apt to come in contact with them. The night was unusually dark and it was almost impossible to see any of the wires and directly on top of them. So far as he could learn, this morning, no one had been injured and he considered it a great luck that no accidents had taken place when so many invitations were scattered around.

DAMAGED BY WATER.

The Crescent League Sustains a Heavy Loss by Leakage in the Club House Roof.

The Crescent League Club House sustained damage to the result of several hundred dollars last night's storm, owing to the heavy fall of snow. Two of the pool tables were flooded with water, and the carpet and flooring on the floor were almost ruined.

Early this morning when two scrub women went into the building to clean up and scrub the alleys they discovered that water was leaking in through the roof. The water was reported to the officers of the club. During the forenoon the water continued to run in, sometimes in a stream, and boys were put to work shoveling the snow from the roof.

The water in the club cannot be estimated, but it will be heavy, and the owner of the building will probably have to bear the expense.

Discussing the Servant Question.

The women of Jersey City are deeply discussing the servant question and are holding their views in the columns of the Evening Journal. One sensible woman writes as follows:

"I will give you my opinion on misdeeds of American women. I think it is a pretty hard one to solve. I think it would need a little reform on both sides. First of all, ladies who hire should look out for their own interests, where they lived last, and if satisfactory. Then, if they find a trustworthy servant, they should treat her with respect. An Holy Scripture says, 'Do to others as you would be done by.' If servants love and respect their mistresses, they would not be any trouble for a faithful servant will always perform her work well. But the trouble is there are too many ladies who do not understand their work, but servants who do not understand their business, but if ladies would have a little more patience and teach their servants who do not understand their work, perhaps they would learn to do their work better, and they would not have to change help so often as they do."

All Citizens Are Invited.

An adjourned meeting of the Borough Council will be held to-morrow evening, when the matter of allowing the Field Street Railway to extend its tracks into the Borough, will come up for consideration again, and tax-payers can be heard. At the last meeting, on Wednesday night, there was considerable opposition to running the road through Somerset street, but otherwise there was no direct opposition.

A NOVEL BICYCLE RACE.

Mr. Ben from the N. E. C. of Newark, has been the first to start a bicycle race, and their headquarters are at Newark. A novelty in bicycle racing was introduced by the Business Men's Cycling League, of Newark, over the Irvington-Millburn course on the afternoon of election day. Six of the fastest riders of the club took part and the distance ridden was ten miles.

As the racers approached the starting point they were informed by Starter Kirkpatrick that each man was to ride over the course at his best speed and at the end of the race their positions would be determined according to their individual handicaps. These handicaps had been made out by the racing committee, sealed up and placed in the hands of the referee.

The race was then ridden, and E. L. Blauvelt finished the ten miles in 34.75 with W. E. Bink a second and J. W. Still a third. At the conclusion of the race, the referee opened the sealed envelope and announced the handicaps. Just how well the men's abilities had been judged by the racing committee occasioned a surprise according to the handicaps. Bink and Blauvelt were tied for first place, while G. T. Wilson was but two seconds behind. It was agreed to draw lots for first prize, and Bink won. The prizes were an order for a new pair of trousers to the winner, an order for a silk hat to the second, and a bottle of cologne to the third contestant.

Changes in Borough Realty.

The following are among the transfers of real estate recently made in North Plainfield Township, and deeds for same have been recorded with the clerk of the county, together with the consideration paid:

William H. Calkins to Edward S. Sine, $2,700; Mary Calkins to Frances C. Calkins, $1,100; Gertrude T. Hallowell to Ida H. E. Musgrave, $1,600; Wm. White to Edmund E. Pope, $400; Abraham C. Correll to Martin H. Miller, $350; Alfred I. Smalley et al. to John N. Johnson, $450; Howard E. Turner to Martin L. Bickmore, $1; Abraham C. Damaged by the Storm.

The wires of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company were badly prostrated by the snow storm, yesterday. Manager Raynor reports that some fifty or sixty wires were knocked down and rendered useless by the snow. The manager of last night and most of to-day, the manager has had a force of men at work repairing the break, so that the service was only temporarily crippled.

The telephone companies in this section suffered to some extent from the storm. Strangely to say that at Elizabeth, New Brunswick and other near by places the wires were not interfered with, and both the telephone and telegraph services were in working order all night as usual.

Break in the Fire Alarm Circuit.

The storm storm yesterday caused a break in the fire alarm circuit, and Chief Doane and Assistant Chief Murray were out from half past six o'clock, with their lanterns, looking for the break. During this time the system was practically out of use. A fireman was, however, on duty in No. 1 engine house, and the bells were not notified to summon him in case of fire.

Pause this in Your Hat.

The fall style in knitting (for ladies, of course) is one on each side of the neck, a narrow advice state that since the germ theory of disease is so universally recognized it is likewise well appreciated that the cold season of winter is an unnecessary exposure to the transmission of disease.

—Leda's football eleven played an exciting game on the Crescent grounds on the afternoon of election day, against a team from the Columbia High School of New York. The result was a score of 16 to 10. The noticeable features of the contest were the fine playing of Paul Back Snyder, and the running of Stinson and McKee.

FRENCHMEN AROUSED.

A Dastardly Outrage Discussed by the Deputies.

A VIOLENT PLOT OF ANARCHISTS.

An infernal machine intended for the destruction of the general assembly of the French Republic, was discussed by the deputies of the French Republic, who were assembled in the Chamber of Deputies. The explosion occurred in a police station in Paris, Nov. 10.—Tuesday's explosion was the subject of an excited discussion in the Chamber of Deputies. The explosion occurred in a police station in Paris, Nov. 10.—Tuesday's explosion was the subject of an excited discussion in the Chamber of Deputies. The explosion occurred in a police station in Paris, Nov. 10.—Tuesday's explosion was the subject of an excited discussion in the Chamber of Deputies.

At two policemen, who were passing along the Avenue de l'Opera, arrived in front of the office of the Carmaux Mining company, they saw a curious iron chest, resembling a safe, lying close to the building in which the company's office was located. They picked the vessel up and carried it to the police station, where they and other officers began to examine it. They had been investigating only a few minutes when the vessel exploded with terrific force. The explosion of the building was blown out, the plastering was torn off, and the building was scattered in every direction. In fact the whole interior of the building was wrecked. The explosion was the work of the anarchists, who were seeking revenge against the Carmaux Mining company, whose long continued struggle with their employees was amicably settled a few days ago.

SHORT STOPS.

A short tale.—The zebra's. Rather shaky—All earthquake. A ton of coal yields nearly 10,000 feet of gas. No boy is thoroughly satisfied unless he owns a stick. The Persians have themselves as a sign of mourning. All things come to those who wait—for something else. Big Glimet is the name of a winding stream in Missouri. When a man gives his poor kin a dollar, he always calls it three. The Chinese are occasionally in line with both parties are right. Measure 200 feet on each side and you will have an acre with a good deal of room. The Chinese are occasionally in line with both parties are right. MISSING LINKS.

Chicago handles 1,200 trains daily. America produced ten million barrels of steel last year. A Florida man grows four cabbage heads on one stalk. The magic lantern was the invention of Roger Bacon in 1290. The marriage of widows are six per cent of the whole number. China's emperor had 200 pairs of boots made for himself some time ago. The circular saw was invented by Benjamin, an Englishman, in the year 1790. The Swedish mile is 11,000 yards long and the Vienna post mile is 3,590 yards. The sailing was practiced in China more than 1,600 years before it was known elsewhere.—Good News.

APHORISMS.

Mind is the great lever of all things.—Daniel Webster. The use of money is all the advantage there is in having money.—Franklin. Magnificence cannot be cheap, for what is cheap cannot be magnificent.—Johnson. An excuse is worse and more terrible than a lie; for an excuse is a lie disguised.—Pope. Modesty seldom resides in a breast that is not enriched with noble virtues.—Goldsmith. Little minds are lamed and subdued by misfortune, but great minds rise above it.—Washington Irving. Frequent change of price are good reasons. Valuable before price are good feelings.—Hugh R. Havelis. It is happiness to be perfectly contented. Happiness is to have so much merit that nobody inquires whether we are so or no.—La Bruyere.

ON A BUNT.

Judge. Licker votes are reliable. Congressmen air born, not made. One who is congenial to everything a man is in politics for. Don't say nothin' to a man that ain't sayin' his own. Nothin' says Gabriel's trampin' kin git some people out o' office. A candidate's love for his fellow citizens is not a sign of his election. Winman has more influence on politicians than the men air willin' to acknowledge. Even a United States Senator has a sneakin' notion to favor legislation that favors him. I wouldn't give a peanut for all some statesmen know about the right kind of law makin' and how to do it.—Detroit Free Press.

SNAP SHOTS.

The kites is a touch and go engagement. The original man was made of clay. Man is a brick. "A stitch in time saves nine," and prevents a highly illustrated episode. Education is a stimulant that is more to make an ambitious person restless. Demand do not wait for to come. They rush forward to meet us. To people who spend their time taking whether life is worth living it is not. The fool killer has thrown away his club and now uses flattery in broken blades to seduce the pretentious. We say that a man is a small potato because he refuses to hop into our half bushel.—Dallas News.

ARABIAN WISDOM.

The tongue often cuts off the head. There is no wealth in borrowed talent. When your friend is made of honey do not eat up at one time. If your friend's heart is grown it is time for you to share your chin. The mother of a murdered man sleeps, but the mother of a murderer remains awake. THE BEST PLAGIAR.—Dampas a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it over the seat of pain. When the lumps are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy.
