PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS.

"Cradle Songs of Many Nations" is the title of an entertainment which is to be given at the Casino on the evening of Thursday, Nov. 17, for the benefit of the New York, corner of Fourth street and Broadway.

It was a laughable sight, yesterday, to see an East Fifth street resident chasing his animal round Madison street. The animal was finally caught and carried home on the owner's shoulders.

A new Knight of Honor Lodge was organized at Butler, N. J., a few nights ago, at which Grand Director of the State of New Jersey, C. J. Feyel, of this city, was present, and directed the organization. There were twenty-seven charter members.

Six comets are said to be in sight now. They have probably come around in an attempt to see what on earth the people turned down the Republican party for.

Woman was made after man, but man has been after woman ever since.

When a wife hears a tall tale on the door-step, she knows that the judge has adjourned.

All election bills should be in the hands of the Board of Freeholders before the 22d instant, when the Board will meet to pass on the election claims.

Not a rig of any description could be hired at the lively saloons, yesterday. The day was a pleasant one, and almost everything had been hired out in advance.

Lord Tennyson's "Poetic Comedy," "The Foresters," will be the attraction at Music Hall this evening. Tomorrow night the "Midnight Alarm," will be presented with a special cartoon of seamy, seamy effects, etc.

The Frisbie Kelly case will come up before Judge Codrington and a jury on Wednesday morning. Frisbie Kelly, who was remembered, arrested one of Kelly's horses some months ago alleged to have been roving on the streets, and it was in this account that the lawsuit was started.

The street cars did a paying business yesterday, and last evening before the stormy persons were transported over the road.

Turkeys were seldom before known to be as plentiful as they are this Fall. Large flocks are to be seen on almost every turn, and the holiday season will find an abundance of these fowls for its proper celebration.

There is something wrong with the father who will sit up his child at night and let his boy run the streets.

It is a sharp man who can tell the age of a saw by looking at his teeth.

On Thanksgiving evening the Catholic Young Men's Union will produce in Music Hall an Irish drama entitled "Ellen O'Grady, or Dark of the Hour before the Dawn." The play is being thoroughly rehearsed under the direction of J. J. King.

The work of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association is presented in many of the city churches last evening. The addresses were all favorably received and much interest aroused as to the necessity for the people of our land to aid in every way possible the work which is being done to save the young men.

A banana peel on the sidewalk is to be unaccounted until somebody tumbles to the fact.

Cranford gave the Republican ticket a majority for every candidate, and a heavy majority at that. Good for Cranford.

The tax rate for Fanwood this year is $2.15 on the one hundred dollar valuation.

A new Catholic Church is soon to be erected at Fanwood.

Fifty miles may be over, says an exchange, but in the boarding house trust the fly is still current.

A few persons in town use fly-cans on their horses yet. It would be far better if they would put medicated blankets over them.

The head-lights on some of the street cars are beginning to burn very dimly.

The Thanksgiving crop of turkeys is being dried up, and it is necessary to gather them into the butcher shops.

Milkmen and others reported a heavy white frost early this morning.

DIED FROM APOPLEXY.

Guastella P. Ross, of Plainfield Avenue, receives an Apoplectic Stroke While on His Way to Church and Dies Before He Can Reach His Home.

For the past twenty-two years Cornelius P. Ross has been a resident of Plainfield. During that time he and his family have resided at 113 Plainfield avenue. Until recently Mr. Ross was identified with a prominent gas light company of New York, but of late he has lived a quiet, retired life.

Last evening Mr. Ross and his daughter, Miss Kittie, started to walk to the Crescent Avenue Church as was their custom. They had been present at the morning service and had been very pleasantly. During the day Mr. Ross was in his sixty-third year had remarked about his feeling so well.

On the way to church Mr. Ross complained about an unusual feeling of oppression and when Madison avenue was reached, it was thought best to turn back and rest. When within sight of the house, without a word, he suddenly sank to the sidewalk, dead.

The cause of his death has been pronounced by the doctors who were hurriedly summoned, to be apoplexy. He died within a few hours, and was buried on the morning of Wednesday at the residence of his late wife, Mrs. Ross, at Evergreen Cemetery.

Through the agency or assistance of Senator McPherson, Louis Sirag, of North Plainfield, has been granted a pension.

Mrs. Henry Middlemarch, of 224 North Plainfield, is visiting her daughter, Charles Foster, of Communipaw avenue, Jersey City.

The Rev. G. L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational Church, preached an interesting and instructive sermon to young men and boys yesterday morning. His text was: "My sons, be not negligent, for God hath chosen you."

The Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, pastor of the Seventh-day Baptist Church, left this morning for Alfred Center, N. Y. on business. He expects to return Thursday morning.

Charles Hand, of Sanford, Florida, son of John Hand, who formerly resided at Scotch Plains, and a nephew of Captain William Hand, of Plainfield, will be married to Miss Mattie Beatty, of Sanford.

Mrs. James P. Northrop, of this city, has been visiting friends at Westfield.

Mrs. William M. Buckman, of Linden Avenue, Plainfield, presented her husband with a beautiful baby boy yesterday morning. Her condition is most dangerous.

The body of the late James O'Neill, who died at Port Jervis, Va., on Friday, was brought to this city, yesterday morning. The funeral will take place from his sister's residence, No. 179 South Second street, at 3 o'clock, p. m., and from St. Mary's Church half an hour later.

The members of the Crescent League will have a smoker at their club house on Wednesday evening. It will be for members only as it is to be a social gathering.

It is a sharp man who can tell the age of a saw by looking at his teeth.

HOW WILL SNEEDER LIKE IT.

According to the Chicago Which the National League of Base Ball Clubs Will Consider at Their Annual Meeting in Chicago, the Position of the Pitcher is to be Put Further Back, and the Distance to be Increased. The Pitcher's Box Will be About 60 Feet.

At the annual convention of the National League of Base Ball Clubs which will be held at Chicago, on Wednesday, the question of making the national game more interesting, will be talked over. A number of necessary changes will undoubtedly be adopted, but the principal one which will affect the pitcher, practically taking the game out of his hands as at present, will be to place the pitcher's box back.

It is proposed to make the distance between bases 93 feet instead of 90 feet, as at present, and to put the pitcher's box back to the distance of 60 feet from the pitcher to the home plate, 65 feet 9 inches instead of 50 feet, 65 feet 9 inches. It is held that the putting back of the pitcher would do away with the distressing accidents now so numerous, and which are due to the closeness of the pitcher to the home plate. This would make the distance from the pitcher to the home plate 65 feet 9 inches instead of 50 feet, 65 feet 9 inches. It is held that the putting back of the pitcher would do away with the distressing accidents now so numerous, and which are due to the closeness of the pitcher to the home plate.

Another suggestion to be considered will be the abolition of the foul ball and the bat, and that every foul ball be called a strike. It is argued that if a player can be retired on a foul ball, he should in justice have an opportunity to run upon the same. Under the proposed changes, the distance from home to second base would be 131 feet 9 inches, which would give base runners a better opportunity of reaching.

THERE'S NOTHING IN IT YET.

The Freight House May Be Moved, and Then Again It May Not Be—Let's Wait and Wait.

After some years of toil and trouble on the part of the property-owners, a determined effort is now being made by the Central Railroad Company to remove the freight-house. No definite site has been decided upon, but it is understood that John D. Bunyon, acting for the B. & O. R. Co., has been offered for the land on Park avenue where the lumber yard fire took place over a year ago.

The property-owners, however, refused to speak this morning when approached by a Courier reporter.

Superintendent O'Hausen when asked about the matter this morning, said through his private Secretary, that a deal was likely to be made, but there was nothing definite yet. Plainfield Courier that first suggested the burned district as a good location for a new freight house. This suggestion was made the day after the fire last summer. Its desirability is in every way most pronounced.

BUT A TURKEY SUPPER.

The Boarders in an East Front Street House Agree Among Themselves That the Wasteful Dinner Paid by a Turkey Supper—About Twenty Participated.

A novel and interesting turkey supper was given at Mr. C. Neighbour's lodging house, at No. 59 East Front street, Saturday evening, at which there were about twenty present. The supper was given in accordance with a bet made among the boarders, to the effect that the winners should furnish and pay for the supper. Those interested were about evenly divided, but the Cleveland and Stevenson advocates had to put up their "dust" for the supper.

The evening was very pleasantly spent, and among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Corey, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Neighbour, Mr. Robert Dabovich, the Misses Reynolds, R. Thorne, A. Thorne, William Titusworth, Mr. Love, Robert Ryle, Dr. R. L. Tucker, Mr. J. C. Neighbour, Mr. John and his wife and family, C. E. Butt, George H. Cook, J. H. Cooley and Charles Jenkins.

Another Case of Diphtheria.

The death of Elizabeth Caulfield, daughter of Cornick and Mary Caulfield, of West Third street, reported from malignant diphtheria. She died last night, and the funeral will take place this afternoon without religious ceremony. The child was two years and three months old.

The Caulfields have been in hard luck of late. One of their children, aged six years, died from the croup, about two weeks ago, and another son is just now recovering from a spell of sickness.

They Finally Get Her In.

Two of the policemen chased a drunken woman about the streets on Saturday evening, and they finally caught her near the Richmond street railroad bridge at three o'clock, yesterday morning. It was Mrs. Keatch, and she was drunk and disorderly.

The morning Judge Codrington committed her to the County Jail for sixty days.

It's Evidently Seen There Before.

It is a question which is the more ludicrous, says the bright young writer of the Westfield Standard, the kiss of a policeman, or the kiss of a girl? However is more preferable as there is generally more of it.

The weather yesterday was lovely and it became almost impossible to realize that the temperature of the day was almost the same as that of the preceding day. The thermometer yesterday was 42 and 26.5, while yesterday they were 47.3 and 28.5.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Journal Publishing League was held at Elizabeth on Saturday evening, which was presided over by President Charles Leggett, of the Crescent League. But little business of importance was done, and the committee adjourned to meet at the headquarters of the Crescent League to-morrow evening.

WELCOMING THE NEW PASTOR.

Supporters of the new pastor, Rev. J. W. Richardson, who arrived at Plainfield on Saturday morning, and evening services, yesterday, to listen to the eloquent sermon which the Rev. J. W. Richardson delivered, as well as to greet him.

The Park Avenue Baptist Church was crowded, yesterday, at both the morning and evening services. Rev. J. W. Richardson, the new pastor, conducted the services for the first time.

In the morning, he took his text from first Corinthians, second chapter and second verse, "For I Determined Not to Know Anything Among You, Save Jesus Christ, and Him Crucified."

Mr. Richardson handled his subject in a masterly style, and made a deep impression on his hearers. He is an earnest speaker, forcible and eloquent, but his language is so plain and simple that a child can understand him. His argument was that he had come to the church to preach the Gospel so plainly that all could understand the freedom of invitation which it held forth.

In the evening, the subject of his sermon was "We do all things as unto a Lord." He made the most valuable seasons which should be applied to the daily lives of all. The singing and the prayers were excellent. At the conclusion of the services, many remained to take the new pastor by the hand and bid him Godspeed in his new field of labor.

IN HONOR OF CLEVELAND'S ELECTION.

A Dinner Given at the Union County Country Club House Saturday Evening.

There was a gay time at the Union County Country Club House, Saturday evening, in honor of Cleveland and Stevenson's victory. The list of the managers and guests was as follows:

J. H. P. Mason, chairman, Mayor Saunders, C. W. Schipper, Mr. Lewis, Mr. Fleming, E. C. Flanagan, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Stockton, C. G. Barnett, C. J. Fisk, G. Wharton, Mr. Booth, and G. K. Thomas.

The menu follows:

KINGS COUNTY OYSTERS. Hunt Sauter's Michigan Caviar, Florida Oysters, South Carolina Potatoes, Indiana Fish Eggs on Toast, (in the soup).

The G. O. P. Fishery Amusements.

Western Lake Region Salmon, English Chops Labor Whitebait, Chicken Vermicelli, Potatoes, ENTREES.

New York Fresh Mushrooms, (Don't mind the cold wave), TERRAPIN—MARYLAND STYLE, (served in American style, made by W. C. Brown), Potatoes Canned.

SOBBET, Chili Sherbet, a la Pat Gen, Cigarettes, GAME—HOT.

Illinois Prairie Partridges, Perrier Fused, COLD, SO COLD.

High Tarriff Turkey Birds—Cleveland Style, SALAD.

Let us not despise the small things, ENTREMENT—CHAUD.

Fairchild Diplomatic Fudge, E. C. P. Sauce, ICES.

Baby Ruth Fancy Ice Cream, (True to the Flag. We are all Americans), DISHERTS.

California Fruits, Camembert, Roquefort, MOKA.

The price of cold likely will rise, but "Wests" I am sure is wise.

Take it quickly, don't get your food spoiled, and have the editor fix it up for you. This will be conclusive evidence that your service is good, even though your local papers say that as such a low bid and have the editor fix it up for you.

A Word of Advice.

If you want any job work done, or wish to advertise, always be sure to go to the office of the editor. It will show your enterprise and make your townspeople see the imprint of an outside firm on the work which a great deal of good can be done for the town.

Any association or society with which you may be connected should want a true puff or advertisement, go right to your local papers and have the editor fix it up for you. This will be conclusive evidence that your service is good, even though your local papers say that as such a low bid and have the editor fix it up for you.

See a Microscope to discover it. This we consider good advice, and it will be of great interest to the town.

What is Expected For a Brough Benefit.

According to the provisions of the contract granting the Plainfield Street Railway a franchise to maintain and operate a road on Somerset street, the company is to pay to the borough $50 a car for the third year, no license fee being charged for the first two years, and then $100 for the next year; $150 for the next, $200 each for the next five years, and $150 at the expiration of eight years.

At first the cars will only run from the eastern terminus at Peace street and North avenue to Johnston's Drive on Somerset street, but transfers will be allowed at Front and Somerset streets.

The Missing Man Returns.

Sylvester Deane, of Summit, Union county, who mysteriously left home several days ago and caused his relatives much anxiety, returned on Saturday morning. Mr. Deane, who has been suffering from the effects of the grip, which he had two years ago, wandered off, and through his wanderings reached Toronto, Canada.

A Post Without Advertisements.

An exchange truthfully remarks that when a man professes his readiness to serve an audience with the assertion that he did not expect to be called upon to make a speech you may put it down as a piece of bluff. The exchange further pointed out that he was not given the opportunity to speak.

Dundell's Parade.

The Democrats of Dundell celebrated their victory by holding a parade on Saturday evening. The line of march was from the depot to the new market and Dundell. The marchers were along the line of march and refreshments were served afterwards.
