

THE PLAINFIELD COURIER

PUBLISHED DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAYS.

F. W. BAYSON, Editor and Proprietor.

NO. 1 EAST FRONT STREET, SECOND FLOOR.

Entered at the Post Office as second-class matter.

DELIVERED BY CARRIERS IN ANY PART OF THE CITY.

Subscriptions, five dollars a year, or fifty cents a month. Single copies, ten cents.

Advertisements in West Column, one cent per line for first week, two cents for each succeeding week.

Advertisements in East Column, one cent per line for first week, two cents for each succeeding week.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1892.

THE CITIZENS of Plainfield will be called upon to-morrow to elect a City Judge who will occupy the office for the term of three years. The office one which will directly effect to a great extent the security of the peace and morals of our city. Two candidates have been nominated for that important office. The Democratic candidate, William A. Coddington, asserts in print that he is not a politician but an upright man. Granting this to be so, the fact of his never having held an office demonstrates that he has never been tried in an official capacity. With up to the other hand the Hon. John Ulrich, who has been nominated by the Republican party, is not only tried but has proven himself worthy to fulfill any trust that might be imposed in him.

Judge Ulrich needs no introduction to the citizens of Plainfield; he has resided here since boyhood. He carries in his biographical sketch with him where ever he goes, and the people who know him fully trust him. He has filled two official positions to which the people of Plainfield have elected him, that of Assessor and City Judge. How well he served the people other people can testify. As an Assessor he was faithful, honest and capable. No better citizen can beget than that expressed by the Hon. Eugene Cole, of Cape May County, who in writing of Judge Ulrich said:

"As a prominent member of the most bigoted and partisan Legislature that has ever gathered at the Capitol of this State, Judge Ulrich has constantly been a most conspicuous example of the controlling influence which a calmly judicial bearing, coupled with the most thoroughly known and unquestionable probity, can exert on men, and to him the party has instinctively turned in cases of cases of cases and political expediency, and his leadership has ever been of the highest type of statesmanship."

No reference need be made to the manner in which Judge Ulrich conducted the office of City Judge. His reputation which Rowland Cox, Esq., introduced in the Common Council in 1888, sums it all up in the manner following:

"Resolved, That in accepting the resignation of Judge Ulrich the Common Council desire to give expression to their appreciation of the intelligence, courage and ability with which, during his incumbency of the office, the duties of City Judge have been performed."

If you are desirous of seeing the office of City Judge conducted on the principles of intelligence, courage and ability, then vote for John Ulrich for City Judge.

The local campaign now closed, though short has been a lively one. The Democratic candidate for City Judge focused the attention of the city upon him when he called attention to his upright character and professed to be no politician. Unfortunately for his entire self-possession his protestations of his fitness for the office are looked upon largely as a huge joke. Such professions as he has so loudly proclaimed are usually left to one's enthusiastic supporters. In this case, fearful lest his rosters might not root with sufficient energy, Mr. Coddington has himself sounded the key-note. His claims are likely to prove most effective boomerangs. For this no one is to blame but himself. "Behold me," said he, and the voters have formed an opinion that is perfectly natural when a man "toots his own horn." Vote for Ulrich and his record, not for Coddington and his "I."

One final word to that all too frequent stay-at-home Republican. Exert yourself to an unwonted degree, lest you prove yourself recreant. You approve of Mayor Gilbert and his record. You are proud of them; so you say. Then prove your approval and voice your pride by a Republican ballot to-morrow. You can boast of approval now but no one will believe your professions if the poll books show that you failed to vote. Vote and vote right.

From Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher.

"40 ORANGE ST., BROOKLYN, N. Y., Feb. 11, 1890."

"I have used ALLOCO'S PLASTER for some years for my self and family, and as far as able, for the many sufferers who come to me for assistance, and have found them a genuine relief for their aches and pains which flesh and bone are weary of, and which no other remedy for rheumatism, neuralgia, and all kinds of lameness and acute pains, and by frequent experience, find that they can control many cases not noticed in your circulars."

"The above is the only testimonial I have ever given in favor of any plaster, and if my name has been used to recommend any other, it is without my authority or sanction."

MRS. HENRY WARD BEECHER.

PERSONAL.

Invitations have been issued by Henry L. Salomon, captain of the Elizabeth Athletic Club Cyclists, for a dinner, to be given on December 15, at the Elizabeth Hotel, to the members of the club, and to the captains of the bicycle clubs in Union county, a number of prominent wheelmen and representatives of the principal papers in the county.

Senator Bob Adrian, of New Brunswick, is mentioned as a probable successor of Chancellor McGill.

At the annual conference of the Union County Christian Endeavor Union which is to be held at Springfield on December 15, Miss Alice J. Langbecker, of this city, will conduct the consecration service.

The Rev. Dr. Harbut, of this city, will address the Sunday School of the New York Avenue Reformed Church, at Newark, to-morrow evening, on the occasion of the dedication of their new church building.

Professor Maxson on Friday was present at the Teachers' Institute for Bergen and Passaic counties, which was held at Hackensack, at both the morning and afternoon sessions he delivered addresses on the subject, "How to Save Time in School Work."

Mr. and Mrs. M. Schell, of West Third street, are rejoicing over the advent of a young son, born on Saturday.

The wife of Connelman Neal, of North Plainfield, is convalescent from her recent serious illness.

Among the passengers on the disabled steamship, Spruce, which was towed back to port last week with her main shaft broken, were Alfred H. Carrio, of this city. Their escape from death was remarkable. The steamer will come over on the Haver.

Weather Observer John Neagle, of East Fifth street, has been confined to his home for the past week with an attack of "La Grippe."

H. Thornton, of Williams' Pharmacy, has been absent for several days past in attendance at the funeral of his father, who died at Moonstown, near Philadelphia, on Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Randolph Dunham, who was knocked down by a passing team, on Park avenue, a few evenings ago, is still confined to her bed. The pole of the wagon struck Mrs. Dunham on the right hip and inflicted several severe bruises. Dr. Tomlinson, who is attending her, says it was a miracle if she escapes leaving hip disease as the result of the accident.

William D. Murray will give, next Thursday evening, an illustrated talk on Japan, at the J. M. C. A. Room.

The funeral of young Michael Brady, who was killed by the cars on Friday, took place from St. Mary's Church yesterday afternoon at one o'clock. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery.

A nine-year-old son of Joseph Bogert, of East Second street, is lying dangerously ill with diphtheria.

Mrs. A. B. King is dangerously ill at her home on Chatham street, North Plainfield. Dr. Tomlinson is the attending physician.

"Freddy" Jones, late of the Crescent League ball team, is now employed as clerk at the Hotel Grand.

Rev. Dr. Houston and his son Jesse, have gone to Washington.

G. H. Babcock, of West Eighth street, has come to Chicago on business.

Would you care to have Mayor Gilbert know you failed to vote for him?

Here it is in a nutshell.

The Republican say, "Look at Mr. Ulrich's record." Mr. Coddington says, "Look at me."

Zimmerman Never Made a Match with Sanger.

The Ashbury Park Journal says that "there is not a speck of truth in the dispatch dated last week, which appeared in all the metropolitan papers last week, to the effect that Sanger, of Philadelphia, and Zimmerman, the champion of the world, were matched to race for $5,000 a side, and that a dog had already been made. T. A. Zimmerman, Arthur's father, says that his son has never considered a match for a cash purse. His record showed that he was faster than the Milwaukee boy, hence there was no reason for a match."

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Meat that is pleasurable is made known by the announcement that those admirable artists, Barry and Fay, have again united their forces and that they are to be seen at Sullivan Music Hall to-night. This will be their first joint appearance here in almost three years. Mr. Fay having been absent from the cast each of the last two times that "McKenna's Flirtation" was presented here. During his absence he has been in the principal cities of the European continent, in search of that greatest of all blessings, robust health. He returns to professional life very much benefited by his lengthy vacation, and he seems to find as much enjoyment in the excitement of the stage, as a high-spirited boy does in playing truant.

Of "Fadette," the comic opera which the Mapleson-Shirmer Company is to produce in Music Hall on Thursday night, the London Times says: "Fadette is the best Opera Comique that has been produced in England for the public require. It possesses all the public require. A strong comedy plot, harmonious and romantic in character, and brilliant and melodious music. The success was instantaneous, and the scores, although unduly eulging the artists, were too numerous to mention."

Thousands of Miss and Wrenn, suffering from Nervous Debility, Lost Vitality, and all the many ailments which are commonly referred to by the name of "Nervousness," have been cured by using Dr. D. W. Allen's "Nervine."

The best and most reliable remedy for the loss of nerve and vitality, and for all the ailments which are commonly referred to by the name of "Nervousness," is Dr. D. W. Allen's "Nervine."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

THIRD NOVEMBER WEATHER.

Killing Frosts and Rain Storms Follow Each Other in Rapid Succession—Rain and Frosts are now at hand, and a remarkable snow storm is threatened.

According to the report of Weather Observer John Neagle, the past month has been remarkable for its number of killing frosts and rain-storms. On every eight of the month, with the exception of the second, third, fourth, eighth, eleventh, sixteenth and eighteenth, one or more frosts have fallen, while rain fell on November 3, 4, 7, 9, 10, 15, 16, 18, 21, and 28. Besides the rain, snow fell on November 3, 22, 24, 28 and 30, and its total fall for the month amounted to 4.1-10 inches. The total precipitation during the month, of rain and melted-snow, amounted to 8.25 inches of this amount the greatest precipitation in 24 hours took place November 15 to 16, when 3.2 inches was recorded.

The month will also always be memorable for its magnificent meteorological shower which took place November 22 at 11 p. m. On November 15, a rain fell with a well defined mirage was noted and on November 4 a lunar corona was seen. Lunar halos were also seen on November 15, 16, 18, 21, 22, 24, 28 and 30. The prevailing direction of the wind during the month was northwesterly and a small hurricane was recorded on November 5, when the wind blew at the rate of 15 miles an hour. The highest temperature was recorded on November 3, when 55.5 was reached, while the lowest was reached on November 27, when 19.5 was recorded. The mean temperature of the month was 40.00. The range of the thermometer for the past month has been: Thursday 38.5 and 42, and yesterday 43.3 and 28.5.

Every Republican reader of the Courier will vote a straight Republican ticket.

A Remarkable Prospect.

We have received from the publishers of The Youth's Companion its announcement for 1893. They promise an unusually brilliant volume. Among its notable features is a series of articles entitled, "Your Work in Life," written by persons experienced in the different trades and professions and designed to help young men and women in choosing what to do.

Another series, entitled, "The Bravest Deed I Ever Saw," is a narrative of personal heroism seen by United States Generals and War Correspondents. There is also a series of articles entitled, "Child Housekeeping," which will be of much interest to ladies. Some new stories are contributed by William Clark Russell, the famous novelist, and several articles on India by Sir Edwin Arnold. Special correspondents will write of the World's Fair, and of war and what to see in a given time.

General Lew Wallace narrates the origin and growth of his famous novel, "Ben Hur," while Frank R. Stockton tells the history of "Buddie Brown." There will be eleven serial stories this year, besides more than one hundred stories. At the same time successful short story writers, besides many stirring tales and adventures.

The Companion aims to be a favorite in every family, and its circulation of nearly six hundred thousand copies a week testifies how widely it is appreciated. New subscribers sent now will receive the paper to January 1, free, including the double holiday numbers. Use dollar and seventy-five cents a year. Boston, Mass.

SPARES, STRIKES AND BREAKERS.

This evening, the game in the Journal bowling league series will be rolled at Elizabeth. The contesting teams will be the Y. M. C. A. and the Aleyones.

To-morrow night, the Arthur Kull bowling team of Elizabeth will play the sixth game of the series on the alleys of the Crescent League. As the visitors have the reputation of being a very strong team, a close and exciting game is looked for. The game will be reserved for all ladies who are interested in the sport and the visitors, it said, will bring a number winner.

An individual handicap bowling tournament is being contested on the alleys of the Park Club in which twenty-seven members are taking part.

This evening a game will be bowled on the alleys of the Park Club between ten men teams of the club and the Union County Country Club. The following are the men's part: Park Club, Evans, Penne, Brown, Townsend, Murphy, McQuinn, Lenoir, Worth, Thomas, Sanford, W. G. C. C., Stells, Kingston, Fleming, Deper, Wrenn, Herring, Jackson, Booth, Wearon, Burnett, Sub.

In three acts, by Mallard, to appear in:

FADETTE.

Laurens, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Carl, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

Prime, Mr. Chas. J. Campbell.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS.

ONE SESSION AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.

CRANFORD'S BIG FIRE

THOSE COAL TRAIN NUMBERS

The Women's Friendly Society of

Everything in the Way of PROK'S

ALEX. WILLETT, 7 Park Ave. Dated November 20, 1922.

