SOME WORDS ABOUT
THE ARTHUR KULLS.An Elizabeth Correspondent Denies Their Actions. When the Plainfield Team Played Against Them, the Courier Has Yet to Find a Plainfield Man to Refute the Communication.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COURIER.

As a constant reader of your paper I have been pleased with your fair reports of all the bowling games held in the Journal League.
In your report of the game, held on Friday night between the C. Y. M. L. and A. K. A. your disparaging remarks towards the A. K. A. were unjust. The young men defeat is bitter; but it is better to bear it manfully than to seek to lessen its pang by unfair attacks upon the victors. The game was won upon its merits. The "Young Men" made a splendid finish, but the Arthur Kulls had too much of a lead and came out ahead in a fair and square manner. But your free indulgence of the "Young Men" does not at all prove that it was a friendly rivalry. Towards the end of the game the excited crowd naturally came near the score board, but there was no unjust or intentional interference with the bowlers.
When the game was finished both clubs separated with the best of good feeling existing between them. Do not go to the extent of involving the different clubs in this bowling series, so cause unjust attacks upon the standing of a reputable club, but take the result whether victory or defeat in a sportsmanlike manner. SPECTATOR.

Elizabeth, N. J., Dec. 19, 1892.

[The Courier wishes to inform its correspondent that the criticism passed upon the actions of the Arthur Kulls was not printed and the Courier was satisfied that it was just and fair. No member of the Plainfield team feels that the actions of the A. K. A. were either fair or gentlemanly. In the when the Elizabeth men were in Plainfield a short time ago it is said by those who are not inclined to be over-critical, that their extreme anxiety to win led them into actions which in their calmer moments it is not possible they would justify. It is easy to assign "the sting of defeat" as the basis of complaint on the part of the losers, but such a reason should not blind the A. K. A. to the fact that they themselves forgot their gentlemanly instincts in their desire to win last Friday's game. There is no one to say that the Young Men of Plainfield attempted to "quench" the bowling of an Arthur Kull. There are plenty to make and sustain such a charge against the Elizabeth men.]

citing and the contest was close at times when particularly good plays were made. The E. F. C. took the lead at start and held it throughout the entire game. Here's the result:

SOMETIMES LAWYERS GROW ANGRY.

This afternoon while the case of Moret vs. Getti was being tried before Justice Nass, Lawyer McClure took umbrage at some remark made by Lawyer Stillman and called him a liar. In return, Mr. Stillman slapped Mr. Mc-Clure's face. The trial went on and although there is a perceptible coolness between the two lawyers, nothing further has been done about the matter.

Reynolds Manning.

The marriage of Miss Sarah E. Hey-niger, daughter of L. Heyniger, of Grant avenue, to Lebbeus Lathrop Manning, of West Seventh street, took place yesterday afternoon at the resi-marriage was private, only the immeent. Rev. Dr. J. W. Richardson, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, performed the ceremony. The presents were handsome and costly. Later in the day the bride and groom left for a brief bridal tour which will include Niagara Falls and the western part of New York State. They expect to return next Saturday evening.

asked for a little time and the time for the hearing was postponed until January 16. In the meantime the injunction will remain in force and the sale

It is said that new shoes can be worn with as much ease as old ones if they are stuffed to the shape of the foot with cloth or paper, and then protected with cloth or paper. Or, if they are stuffed in some particular spot, a cloth wet with hot water and laid across the place will cause immediate and lasting relief.

A recent government report shows that during the past thirty years no less than $8,000,000 have been accumulated in the United States Treasury of unclaimed interest on Government bonds. There is said to be also over $2,000,000 value in overdue and unclaimed money-orders.

This morning early a snow-storm set in soon after two o'clock, and was preceded by quite a fall of rain. At that time the thermometer sank to 40. Yesterday morning the mercury went down to 27 and the highest point it reached during the day was 46 degrees.

A Third Ward girl, it is said, has ordered some mistletoe from Florida for Christmas. As last year is nearly over she evidently proposes to look out for number one.

ON EARTH PEACE, GOODWILL TO MEN.

In the New Year Christmas Song as they burst forth the words of the hymn, "On Earth Peace, Goodwill to Men," and as the children of the different kindergartens of the City will sing around their Annual Christmas Tree.

From present indications the Christmas festival in the different kindergartens of the City will be one of unusual interest to Sunday School scholars. As Christmas falls on Sunday every church will devote either the morning or evening service entirely to exercises appropriate to the day, while during the following week the usual Christmas festivals will be held.

Three churches will hold their Christmas festivals on Tuesday, December 27. They are the Congregational, First Baptist and Methodist churches. The exercises in the Congregational church will consist of a tree, the singing of carols by the Sunday School scholars and the presentation of gifts. In the First Baptist church the scholars of the primary department will enjoy their tree in afternoon, while in the evening the older ones will present a dramatic programme, consisting of a cantata, recitations and speaking. The Sunday School scholars of the Methodist church will enjoy a tree and have a good time in the evening.

On the evening of Thursday, December 29, the School of the First Baptist church will have a special Christmas programme will be provided. Several other Sunday Schools will have Christmas festivals at the same time. The Warren Mission School will require the afternoon and evening of their festival.

In the evening the Sunday School of the Mt. Olive Baptist church will have a good time around a tree, and the children of the First Presbyterian church school will do the same.

In the Seventh Day Baptist church the Christmas Endeavor Society will hold their Christmas service on Saturday, at which time the Sunday School children will look out for the musical part of the programme. Their exercises will be held on Wednesday evening, December 28.

At the Trinity Reformed church, the Christmas tree exercises for the Sunday School scholars will be held on Thursday afternoon and evening of next week. The Primary Department will receive their visit from St. Nick in the afternoon and in the evening the older scholars will be treated to a stereoscopic entertainment and have a good time in the evening.

The Sunday school of the Park Baptist church will present a special service, prepared by the Rev. Dr. Richardson, on Sunday evening, and on Tuesday evening they will enjoy a Christmas tree. At the Church of the Holy Cross, the Christmas tree festival will be held on Sunday afternoon, at which time a musical programme will be presented, and on Wednesday evening, the scholars will have their annual Christmas Eve service.
