MR. FINCH'S ENTHUSIASTIC WORDS.

He Believes Hoke Smith Will Make One at Mr. Cleveland's Abolition Address and Frank to Say So.

The World of this morning prints the following interview with N. P. Finch, of this city, who was formerly the editor of the Atlanta Constitution, in reference to Hoke Smith, who will be appointed Secretary of the Interior under Mr. Cleveland.

The Atlanta Constitution, formerly editor of the Atlanta Constitution, but now a resident of Plainfield, N. J., was very indignant about the attack upon Mr. Smith in an interview given by Congressman Barnes (Comptroller) of Maryland.

"The Congressman asked, apparently with a sneer, 'Mr. Finch, who is Hoke Smith? He has asked one of his colleagues about the Virginia law he would have quickly gotten the information he claims to lack. Not a man is better or more favorably known in the South.' Smith is a man of the industry and industry."

"He possesses more force of character than any man I know in the State of Georgia. He commands a large law practice than many of those who so unjustly criticize him. As a politician he has been clean, conscientious, worked steadily where many another has failed. He is a lawyer, editor, and in the same sense as Singler, of Philadelphia."

"Smith is a man of culture and clear conscience. The educational system of Georgia owes much to him and to his father, who is still living. His only brother, Harrison, married Senator John B. Gordon's daughter."

"I cannot explain Congressman Compton's attack. Four years ago Mr. Smith participated actively in the movement to overthrow protection in Georgia, and drove its disciples out of the party. He repeated the process two years later, and held back from protection. He joined hands with Hillman and demagogues in general, he led the old Jacksonian Democracy and scattered its disciples in all directions. The next secretary of the Interior will prove one of the brainiest and most courageous of Governors. He will be a man of his side. The country has seen how and appreciate the brave tariff-reform leader of Georgia."

SOCIETY CHATTER.

A most delightful social event occurred at the residence of Mrs. Alexander Martin, on No. 12, 12th Avenue, yesterday morning from three to six o'clock. It was a pink tea at which only ladies were present. The house was beautifully decorated in pink. The floral decorations were very fine and the table scene was very pretty. Mrs. Martin was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Charles Foster, Jr., and Mrs. Henry McCue. Mrs. John Clark, of New Brunswick, and Mrs. David E. Williams, Mrs. J. W. Murray, Mrs. W. M. Sullivan assisted with the service in the dining room. About fifty guests were present.

Society leaders in town are considering the advisability of a more gracefully held society affair. In case they decide to do so, it is quite likely the Crescent-Hill will be selected. The committee on their part offered makes it possible to run the affair at a profit.

MORE DOGS THAN MEAT WARE.

Residents of Verona complain that they are overruled with dogs and that the government rather than the law is the rule. They say they pay taxes and are subject to law, but no ordinance governs the rest of the city and yet are denied protection in many ways. They have no police protection, and no police protection and are their locality is overrun with a lot of worthless vagrant cur who snap at passers-by and well guard territory. It is quite common to see a dog barking at a person on a fair-sized lot. It is quite common to see a dog barking at a person on a fair-sized lot. It is quite common to see a dog barking at a person on a fair-sized lot.

The leak in the water main on the corner of Commercial and Madison streets North Plainfield, has been repaired, and the people of that locality are just the same. The water pipe being broken, it is impossible for the flow of water to flow. A few minutes work with a heavy hammer would put an end to all the trouble.

Maintenance Trip will meet tomorrow evening, at which time three ladies will be only initiated into the mysteries of the order. The new ritual is now being used, and it is worth, which requires the services of twenty-one members as a working team, necessitating twenty-one changes being carried out in the adoption of the ritual.

THE PLAINFIELD COURIER.

At the Trinity Episcopal Church, Princeton, last evening, the first of the Lenten course of sermons was delivered by Rev. E. M. Rodman, rector of Grace Church, this city.

The First National Bank of Westfield was formally open for business yesterday. The Leader says that "Cashier Cook does the honor handsomely."

Much sympathy is expressed for Telephone Manager Charles W. Rayson for the illness of his wife, who has been obliged to keep her room for two weeks. His friends are anxious that the doctor's wishes for her speedy restoration to health.

Zimmerman will start for the South on Saturday where he will appear as he starts for England.

Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis will preach on Sabbath morning upon "Temperance" at the request of the W. C. T. U.

Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis is in Harrison, N. J., on his way home.

The condition of City Collector Johnson does not improve as his friends hoped it might. He is still confined to bed and is not allowed to see visitors.

In the individual records of the Journal Bowling League contest, John Kenney, of the C. Y. M. C. L., ranks eighth. His record in seven games played is 19 strikes, 25 spares and his average is 156.

Conductor William E. Haynes, of the Central Railroad, a nephew of Senator Joseph Haynes, of this city, has been elected the General Chairman of the Grievance Committee of the New Jersey Central Railroad.

Headquarters in Jersey City, Conductor Haynes has been railroaded since 1881, when he started in breaking. In 1884 he was made baggage-master and later he was conductor of the fast train between Atlantic City and Philadelphia. He is well known in this city, and is very popular.

A very entertaining party was given at the residence of Mr. Higgins on Spooner avenue last night. A goodly number of guests were present and the evening was well spent.

The tour through Egypt and the Holy Land which A. V. D. Honeyman, of this city, arranged to start this month has been delayed to postpone for a year. The prevalence of cholera abroad made the postponement necessary. Many people anticipated their trip to the Holy Land, but they were so disappointed that Mr. Honeyman made arrangements for their departure last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnard, who were married Tuesday are now on their wedding trip. Florida will be one of the points in their trip.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Second-Street Baptist Church held a very pleasant social last evening at the residence of W. H. Rogers on Central avenue. About seventy-five persons were present and refreshments were served during the evening.

A stage load of young people from this vicinity went to Watchung Hotel at 12 o'clock, last night, where they were joined by merry-makers from Dumont, Bound Brook and South Plainfield. The evening was spent in dancing and the playing of games, and early hours were sleepily rousing their eyes before the members of the party reached their homes.

THE SOCIETY OF FRIENDS AND THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

The Society of Friends, through the following memorial to the Legislature, adopted by the Temperance Committee at a meeting held in Plainfield, protests against the continuance of the liquor license system:

TO THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY.

The Temperance Committee of the shrewdness and Plainfield Hall Year's Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends records its deep conviction of the great evil of the liquor license system, and especially protests against the infamous County Commission law, and hereby earnestly asks for the repeal of all license laws, and for the legal prohibition of the manufacture and sale of all intoxicating liquors for drinking purposes.

In urgent of the Committee, John H. Shaw, Jr., Clerk.

"This is the only winter in some years when the streets have been flooded with water after a thaw. Commission or Mayor has done good service and has not spared the tax-payers' money or day to keep the streets in good condition, but occasionally the water gets the best of him, as for instance West Front street, near Plainfield avenue last night."
