

LOOKS VERY WERLKE.

But the Kansans seem determined to Avoid Bloodshed.

REPUBLICANS ARE IN THE LEAD.

Governor Leavelle Presents a Comprehensive Proposal to the Republican House and is Met by a Committee of Progressives.

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 17.—John Brown would have been immensely interested. However, if the former president of the "badly" state, who is still marching on, had been there they might have been more of waiting and waiting in arms.

The militia guarded the capitol grounds, the deputy sheriffs were on duty, and the police were everywhere—staked up in the corridors of hotels, in the hands of militia and in the hands of the police. The militia were in every section of the state. There was no fighting nor even a shot fired. Men felt the responsibility of the hour, and no one was anxious to see anything that would start a battle.

The Republicans are in the lead in the situation. The Populists realize that they cannot depend upon the militia to attack the Republicans. The Populists are doing anything with their own hands or with the hands of the militia. The Populists are in the lead in the situation. The Populists realize that they cannot depend upon the militia to attack the Republicans.

The Populists met last night, but did not do anything. They are in the lead in the situation. The Populists realize that they cannot depend upon the militia to attack the Republicans. The Populists are doing anything with their own hands or with the hands of the militia.

COMPROMISE PROPOSED.

The Supreme Court Will Probably Settle the Question.

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 17.—The Populists have practically abandoned the field. The Populists are in the lead in the situation. The Populists realize that they cannot depend upon the militia to attack the Republicans. The Populists are doing anything with their own hands or with the hands of the militia.

AN APOLOGY DEMANDED.

The London Times' Editor is Humiliated by the Committee.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—In the house of commons yesterday Sir Thomas Stansfeld, vinturist, called the attention of the house to a letter published by the London Times, in which the editor of the London Times had apologized for the publication of a letter from a member of the house of commons, in which the member had apologized for the publication of a letter from a member of the house of commons.

The speaker said that he was unable to interfere in the matter, as a statement in which objection was offered had been made outside the house.

Mr. Stansfeld stated that the Times had made the assertion of Viscount Wolmer that the association of the Irish was a slur on the Irish.

Mr. Stansfeld suggested to Count Wolmer that unless he was prepared with proof of the statement he should apologize.

HONORS TO CARLISLE.

Given a Party Dinner by His Late Senatorial Associates.

A PRESIDENTIAL POSSIBILITY.

This is Hinted by Senator Manderson, and Senator Sherman Gives a Word of Kindly Warning—Senator Voorhees Replies to President Harrison.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The party dinner given to Senator Carlisle last night by his late associates in the senate at the Arlington hotel was a memorable occasion in more ways than one. The dinner itself was the best that could be served, and the company included almost the entire senate.

PENNSYLVANIA'S BUILDING.

It Will be Dedicated to World's Fair.

HAARLEM, Feb. 17.—There was a busy and exciting session of the executive committee of the World's fair board yesterday. To ask for aid to the legislature for an additional appropriation was the question. It was discussed in all its details, and the committee was unanimously in favor of more money, notwithstanding the opposition of Governor Pattison and General Robinson, who were strongly opposed to the $500,000 originally appropriated. The governor introduced a resolution to the effect that no additional appropriation in necessary, but it was defeated.

Lieutenant Governor Waters was particularly emphatic in his remarks concerning the danger of a serious building in with holding money at the risk of changing the people of a great state. There was no demand that the board should do anything of this kind. Other gentlemen spoke in the same vein. Executive Commissioner Farquhar stated that $100,000 additional could be used to advantage, as there was less than $10,000 for dedicatory purposes at the completion of the state building for nine months.

There were frequent exciting scenes during the evening, and the board was finally caused to call for an appropriation of $500,000 to be used for the state building. The board was unanimously in favor of the appropriation of $500,000 to be used for the state building.
