

FANWOOD LOSER.

Her Sixth Game This Season So. to the Lucky Park Club.

The Park Club six, Fanwood two.

That is the way the score stands in the bowling series between the two clubs.

The Fanwoods rolled a splendid game

on the Park Club alleys, last night,

but it was all to no purpose, as the Park Club's usual luck was with them and they won easily. The visitors were short one man, so in the seventh place

was inserted the name of "Fanwood,"

and each bowler on the team rolled one frame for the missing man. For a compulsive score it was a good one, 146.

Notable features of the game were the number of strikes made without hitting the head pin, and the "wind up" of the Park Club, which nearly every man finished with a strike or a spare. Appended is the score:

AMUSEMENT NOTE

One of the strongest attractions on the road this year, is Joseph Arthur's

"Still Alarm" and "Little Tuesday."

The play is well known, and very popular everywhere. Little Tuesday is indoubtedly one of the cleverest children who has ever appeared upon the stage.Her songs, dances and recitations are done with an originality that is her own. There is no imitation of Little Tuesday, because there is only one

LITERARY NOTES.

The movement lately started by the new patriotic magazine, Blue and Gray,

to develop closer fraternity between the North and South seems to be meeting with hearty approval on both sides of the line. Mr. John C. Calhoun, grandson of the great South Carolina statesman, says in the February issue of Blue and Gray: "When any person, I don't care who he is, aims a shaft of love and fraternity at his own kind, he is the heart of another, he seldom if ever misses his object—mark it is a pretty hard task to aim a shaft of hate at an old enemy, even be he a bitter personal one,

when it is offered in an open and manly way. We know that there is no longer any question of policy, but they have little

STRIKING PHOTOGRAPHS.

The last dance of the season takes place at Washington Hall, at Sebring's Mills tonight and it will be enjoyed by young people from Northville, Bound Brook, Dunellen and this city.

One of the daily papers yesterday had an account of the increase in the number of the Michigan people at the arrival of a little prophetess at the home of East Bethel Andrew J. Sigmund. Instead of being an addition to the Manitowishie it was an addition to the Iowa Council, Degree of Pocahontas, for the tribe has no prophetess.

Yesterday's temperature was maximum, 27, minimum, 23, Mean 25.

Michael P. Watson says he will never apply for another liquor license in Plainfield. It cost him $8.25 for advertising fees to show that the Council would not have it and he is satisfied with that.

During Lent, services will be held at the Church of Our Savior, at Northwood, during the week to follow. On Wednesday, evening prayer, sermon and penitential offering 7:30; on Thursday and Friday, evening prayer and meditation at four o'clock.

On Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, sharp, T. J. Carey will hold an auction sale of household furniture at the residence, No. 36 Washington street, corner of Third.

The excavation under the walk before the Sebring property on North avenue is nearly completed, and a temporary board walk spans the place.

The heavy wind of Sunday night blew in the show window of a store on West Second street. No further damage was done.

This evening an adjourned meeting of the Plainfield League Club will be held at which time several new members will be elected.

The National State and Bicycle Synod will give at the Crescent Rink to-morrow, February 23, a grand Washington's Birthday festival which will commence in the morning and continue through the entire day ending until 11 o'clock at night. A grand promenade concert will be given at the afternoon and evening sessions.

The Borough Council met last night in Spencer Hall, but the Clerk looks not being ready, no adjournment was taken till to-night at eight o'clock.

An oyster supper will be given at Mount Pleasant to-morrow night by P. J. Bowler, at which time a number of Plainfield people will be present.

On Washington's Birthday, (to-morrow), the hours at the Free Public Library are as follows: Reading room, 9 a. m. to 12 m.; 2 to 6 p. m.; 7 to 9 p. m. Art gallery, 10 a. m., 12 m., 2 to 4 p. m. There will be no circulation of books on Monday.

To-morrow being a holiday the post office will not be opened after 10 a. m. and the carriers will make but one delivery in the morning.

No Courier will be issued to-morrow on account of the holiday.

Councilman Frazer voted in favor of every liquor applicant last night. There were eighteen of them. From the ranks which he advanced in favor of the various applicants there was no reason to suppose he would have voted otherwise if there had been 180 of them.

Councilman Case and Marsh voted against every applicant.

The Board of Commissioners for the Borough met this morning and organized.

The house at the southwest corner of Front and West streets, belonging to Samuel Dreier, will soon be removed to the rear of the lot lying on New street, where it will be remodelled and in its place a three story brick block of flats will be erected.

William B. Browning of this city, has had Fred Yungert, for $77 worth of flowers which he furnished the gay young pair.

The cars of the electric railway were run in pairs yesterday. This was done because the cars which were prevented a perfect connection being established between the trolley wire and the rails.

The last one of the five trilled lectures which Rev. Dr. H. H. H. of the Methodist Church, has been delivered on the life of Christ, was given Sunday evening. The subject was "The Conversion of Christ." The conversations of Christ were shown which suggested topics for an excellent discourse.

The church was crowded, many being compelled to stand up. Another service will be taken up by Doctor Harbit the latter part of next month.

Interesting prayer meetings are being held at the Indian Presbyterian Church, which are doing much good. The meetings are attracting so much attention that on Sundays, the Sunday-school is given up in their favor.
