

VICTIMS OF THE RAIL.

Four Killed at a Grade Crossing in Philadelphia.

A MAN AND WIFE DECAPITATED.

Their Little Son, Injured at His Parents' Home, Waiting at the Hospital For a Fatal Operation.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 23.—Philadelphia was the scene yesterday of one of the most appalling railroad disasters in its history. The first section of the Main line carrying President Harrison and his wife to New York, crashed into a local freight train, bound from West Chester to the temporary station at the Baltimore Central railroad at Thirty-first and Second streets. President Harrison was on the second section, and was therefore not in the accident. His section was, however, derailed by the first section, and the passengers were thrown from the cars. The first section was a passenger train, and the second was a freight train. The freight train was carrying a large quantity of lumber, and the collision caused a great deal of damage to the property. The passengers were all injured, and some of them were killed. The President's party was not injured, and they continued their journey to New York.

The local train consisted of two coaches, one mail car, a smoker and two passenger cars. The freight train was a local freight train, and it was carrying a large quantity of lumber. The collision occurred at a grade crossing, and the freight train was in the process of crossing the tracks of the passenger train.

McKINLEY'S FORTUNE.

All His Property and That of His Wife to Meet His Obligations.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 23.—Governor McKinley has been engaged all the week endeavoring to settle his estate. The following plan was decided upon. The governor's property is to be sold, and the proceeds are to be used to pay his debts. The remainder is to be divided among his family.

Mr. McKinley has considerable property of her own, which she has all along desired to turn over to be used in paying the notes that Governor McKinley must have. Her friends have urged her to retain an interest in the property, but she has steadfastly refused to listen to any argument, and yesterday executed a deed to Mr. M. A. Hanna, of this city, putting all her property in his hands. He is to do what he wishes in it, but he is bound to settle up the obligations incurred in the Walker administration.

Up to this point there has been anything to say the governor replied: "There is little for me to say about this unfortunate affair. I did what I could to help a friend who had been a friend to me. The result is known. I had no interest in any of the property, and I have no say in the amount of my indebtedness in its excess of anything I dreamed of. There is but one thing for me to do, and that is to pay my debts. I have no other resources." The result is known. I had no interest in any of the property, and I have no say in the amount of my indebtedness in its excess of anything I dreamed of. There is but one thing for me to do, and that is to pay my debts. I have no other resources.

HALL, N. J., Feb. 23.—A steamer from New York, bound for Philadelphia, was wrecked on the coast of New Jersey. Three sailors were drowned. The ship was carrying a large quantity of cargo, and the wreck caused a great deal of damage to the property.

The passengers were all injured, and some of them were killed. The President's party was not injured, and they continued their journey to New York. The collision occurred at a grade crossing, and the freight train was in the process of crossing the tracks of the passenger train.
