

THE BODEN MYSTERY.

Testimony of Bridget Sullivan, the Servant Girl.

NOT VERY DAMAGING TO LIZZIE.

She says that Anthony might have been in the house, but she does not know. Knowledge of the family relations was always pleasant.

New Bedford, Mass., June 8.—At the opening of the third day of the Boden murder trial, the jury heard the testimony of the female portion of the community was entered to, and nearly one-half of the spectators were women. Their benches were crowded one by one as Miss Boden entered the room, looking as unharmed and fresh as any young girl could under such trying circumstances. After she took her seat, Miss Sullivan, the servant girl, testified that she had been in the kitchen at the time of the murder, and that she had seen the body of the deceased.

Mr. Kline, the civil engineer, was recalled by the first witness, and was followed by John V. Moore, who was a friend of the Boden family. The latter testified that he had seen the body of the deceased.

On re-examination Miss Boden took her seat for the first time. She was asked by the first witness, and was followed by John V. Moore, who was a friend of the Boden family. The latter testified that he had seen the body of the deceased.

Then there was the greatest interest manifested as Bridget Sullivan, who was the first witness, testified that she had seen the body of the deceased.

Miss Sullivan testified at length her memories on the day of the murder. She said that she had seen the body of the deceased.

THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1893.

THE OWNER WANTS HER RENT.

In the event of its not being paid, the Crescent League will be forced from the Club House.

A meeting of the Board of Governors of the Crescent League was held last evening for the purpose of deciding whether the League would continue to occupy the club house or not. Judge John Ulrich was present in the interests of the owner. No definite result was reached. Another meeting is to be held to-morrow night, at which time Judge Ulrich will make a formal demand for possession of the building. In the event of the rent, which is now due for three months, not being paid, proceedings will be at once instituted. It is thought that the building will be given up, in which event the League will disband.

THE MOSQUITO PEST.

Never before have we had so many mosquitoes in Plainfield as at present, but Plainfield is not alone a sufferer in this respect. The insect pest is reported as present all through the State. Immediately after the storm of Tuesday a cloud of the pests hovered over Elizabeth, and finally swooped down upon the inhabitants.

It is believed that they were away from the Sound, first having attacked the unfortunate residents of Elizabeth. In many instances the electric lights on the streets were very much obscured by the dense body of pests. Many business men closed their stores early in the evening so as to escape the insects.

North Plainfield to Do So Too.

There is some talk of numbering the houses in the Borough. Should the Council decide to do so, the same plan as is in use in Plainfield will be adopted.

Safe, Sure and Speedy.

No external remedy ever yet devised has so fully and unquestionably met these prime conditions as successfully as Alcock's Forams Tablets. They are safe because they contain no deleterious drugs and are manufactured in accordance with the principles of medicine. They are sure because possessing the power to then existing humors which are directly adapted to the purposes for which a plaster is required. They are speedy in their action because their medicinal qualities go right to their work of relieving pain and restoring the natural and healthy performance of the functions of muscles, nerves and skin. Do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Alcock's and see no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

WINFIELD SCOTT AND GARFIELD POSTS MEET AGAIN AT THE MERE.

Winfield Scott Post accompanied by the Women's Relief Corps, and headed by Guttman's Band went last night to Newark to pay a fraternal visit to Garfield Post. They were met at the railway station by a full delegation and the Drum Corps and escorted to the banquet hall where they were received and welcomed in an able speech by the President of the Ladies Auxiliary of the local post. Covers were laid for 250 people. After contemplating the feast, the evening was given up to speeches, music, vocal and instrumental, and recitations.

After the opening speech by Commander Morris, Commander Dobbin of the visiting Post gave an address, and called upon several of his Post. Past Commander L. V. P. Randolph made a ringing speech which was warmly received. J. B. Atwood, of Trenton, also spoke. Confidante "Bob" Mattox gave two recitations in his peculiar style which called for encores. Past Commander Smith gave two vocal selections which were appreciated. Miss Ella Haybert, who always has something new in the way of dialect selections redolent with good effect, and was encored as usual. Several others from both Posts were called upon and altogether the evening was spent most enjoyably.

PLAINFIELD YOUNG LADIES BELIEVE

LAST night the wedding of Miss Harriet Milligan who was well known in this city, and F. S. Rodin of Brooklyn was solemnized in the First Reformed Church in this city. The family to which Miss Milligan belonged has been accustomed for some years to spend the Summer in Washington Valley where they have a residence, and the Winter in New York. A number of the young lady's friends from this city and the Valley were present at the wedding. A large congregation greeted her in the church, and attended her reception afterwards at No. 153 Pierpont street, Brooklyn. After the congratulations were over the guests were invited to an elaborate supper, and dancing followed later. The bride of course was charming in her wedding dress and indicated by her perfect behavior over the occasion, that her future path was strewn with roses.

Those present from this city were Mr. and Mrs. Truman Blyden, Theodore Bartel, Miss Rosa Bartel, John Bicknell, Henry Rogers and Ephraim Compton.

LOOKING FOR RIDGES CAKE.

The Elizabeth Journal appreciates the political strength of James E. Martin in this county and speaks thus of the talk that he might be a possible candidate for State Senator: "Doubtless there are a number of prominent Democratic leaders who would be glad to endorse Mr. Martin with the Senatorial nomination, but unless he is best shown than his friends assume him to be, he will not let such small game draw his powder when there is a possibility of big game a little further on."

Two patients were received at the hospital to-day, William Stewart of East Front street, suffering from lung trouble, with pulmonary symptoms and one case of intertrigo over.

T. J. Carey will sell two book cases and a roll top desk tomorrow afternoon at his auction.

The pet girl "Annie" which with her mate has been a habit of Eugene Lohr's barber shop, died last night. The little animals were much prized for having come a long distance from the south as a present by a relative to Mr. Lohr.

WAS THIS DOG MAD?

It was at least in a biting mood and that made him a fit subject for Mr. Frisbie's Gun.

Dog catcher Frisbie went yesterday afternoon to Evans to shoot a dog that was said to have bitten a man while in the hat factory earlier in the day. He found a dog supposed to be the one in Mr. Aggar's yard and drew a bead on him. When he shot he says the canine made a jump at him and snapped his teeth against the muzzle of the pistol.

James Bolmer was the man bitten. He and Leonard Darling, of High Bridge, left U. R. Crane's store where Darling had just bought a bicycle, and went to the hat factory to make a change of bicycle seats which Crane said Darling could do, with Frank Correll. While there they saw a black and tan dog moving about but did not give any attention to him until he ran up to Bolmer and bit through the leg of his trousers. Fortunately he did not touch the flesh. He afterward ran out toward the railroad passing a couple of ladies without attracting attention and was lost to sight, until Frisbie late in the day discovered him.

Office of A. G. Spaulding & Bro., 492 Broome Street, New York, June 8, 1892.

To W. H. Rogers, Plainfield, N. J.

In reply to your letter of inquiry, we most emphatically say that the prices of Victrola and Gramophones will remain the same throughout the entire season as at present. The sale of our wheels has been far in excess of any previous year and the wheels have given perfect satisfaction in every instance. You can order with perfect confidence.

Prices will be maintained and both your interests and the interest of purchasers will be protected to the fullest extent. We wish every agent to be firm in his prices and not influenced in any way by rumors that may be flying about of any possible reduction in the prices of our wheels.

Very truly,
A. G. Spaulding & Bro.

Ad. Tomlinson, of Le Grande avenue, is very quiet and unimpressed as a bicycle rider but when the season takes him he can do some fancy riding. His moments on the seat with his feet while under good headway, lie flat on the seat, raises himself by his hands resting on the handles so as to swing, both feet from one pedal to the other, and does various interesting tricks in fancy riding. One seldom sees him performing these feats, but he can give many a good rider points in keeping his wheel up.

Checkers for the Newark-Philadelphia century run, on Saturday morning, will be stationed at Social Plains Grant avenue and Front street, and Somerville. At Grant avenue L. O. Darling and H. S. Thomas will be stationed. The riders are expected to pass this point at 7:10 a. m.

In spite of sundry rumors, there will be no change in the prices of Columbia bicycles this year. This statement is made on the authority of the Pope Manufacturing Company.

Owing to the poor condition of Grant avenue, Captain Martin has decided to change the route of the century run in the western part of the city. The route will be Seventh street, to Plainfield avenue, to Front street, to Dunellen.

The Plainfield Locomotive Cycles will have a club run to Rahway this evening.

The members of the South Brooklyn Wheelmen will have a club run to this city on Sunday.

A lady cyclist while riding through Central avenue last evening was forced to dismount and walk home with her wheel. She had neglected to oil her machine for such a long time that she found it very hard work to make it go.

LOOK OUT FOR THE MERE.

A ball club has been organized by members of the Park Club. Their first game will be played Saturday afternoon, at four o'clock, on the Girard avenue cricket grounds. The opposing team style themselves "The Invincibles," and are composed of young men who reside on Rock View avenue and the neighboring streets.

The following will be the batting order of the Park Club base ball team, W. O. Chapman, p; L. S. Darling, c; R. Erickson, 1b; C. Ooley, 2b; P. Sanford, 3b; Brooks, c; H. Megon, c; G. Murphy, c; f.

Notice

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals will be held at the Metropolitan Hotel, New York City, on Monday, June 13, 1893, at 10 o'clock. The object of the meeting is to discuss the question of the abolition of the dog show, and the question of the prevention of cruelty to animals. The meeting is free and open to all.

CHARLES PLACER, Secretary.

Plainfield, June 1, 1893.

Special Notice!

Mr. Miller, of Scotch Plains, for over three years a contributor to Plainfield exchanges, has made arrangements with J. F. MacDonald at East Front street, to sell her home-made cakes in every variety, pickles, preserves and jellies. Cottage cheese a specialty.

They Charmed the Dog.

A merry party of young people left this city, yesterday afternoon, for Orange. There were sixteen all told, of which over one-half were of the gentler sex. Their destination was the residence of A. L. Varvold, which was reached about eight o'clock. Soon after they arrived, what parties were made up, and the honors of the evening were captured by O. Titworth, Mr. Powers, and Miss Hampton, of this city.

Refreshments were served later in the evening, and the return trip was undertaken about midnight. On the way home, the night was made so much, that a houseless canine was induced to join the party. He followed the stage to Plainfield, and joined in all the choruses. This city was reached about three o'clock this morning, and the last seen of the dog, he was hunting around for Frisbie, to secure a night's lodging.

The members of the party were: Miss Louise Wood, Miss Alice Wood, Miss Louis N. Wood, M. M. Boney, Miss Ida Boney, M. M. Boney, Miss Grace Hampton, A. A. Lee, H. P. Miller, Miss Dodd, at Bloomfield; G. Stow, W. H. Howard, J. F. Howard, W. W. Wren, S. Hampton, Mrs. Clawson, G. Titworth, Mr. and Mrs. Cadmus, of Bloomfield.
