It was a Fortunate Escape.

This morning Bert Little, son of D. W. Little while working at some plumbing in Mr. Cox's new house at Northwood was badly injured.

The accident was that he was not injured worse.

He was working on one of the floors and his saw was stuck in the floor. A heavy cast iron pipe was loosened from overhead by the saw, and it fell vertically, the end striking him full upon the head.

The man was so badly injured that he was taken to the hospital.

The accident was a very serious one, and it is hoped that the man will recover.

ANOTHER DEFECTIVE FLUE.

Hathfield Saw on Arlington Avenue in Plainfield this morning by a fire. The flames were hard to get at but the East Engine is now at work.

A fire broke out this morning just before eleven o'clock in Hathfield's saw on Arlington Avenue, which for a time retarded efforts of the firemen to put it out.

The blaze first started in the house occupied by Mrs. Lewis Dunn and will become an assistant teacher in Irving School, Miss Margaret E. Cory, an assistant in Franklin School and Miss Lucy V. Benson, an assistant in Bryant School.

When the flames first reached the fire nothing but dense smoke could be seen pouring out of every crack and crevice.

The fire was made with the hydrant at the corner of West Fourth Street and Arlington Avenue, as well as at Madison Avenue and West Third Street.

Four lines of hose were soon stretched and the fire was attacked both front and rear.

Just as the fire seemed to be under control, it was seen coming out of the adjoining house, occupied by Mrs. Garity.

Large holes were made in the roof of the building from which the smoke poured in dense volumes, and at one time it seemed as if the entire row was doomed.

After an hour's hard work the fire was extinguished and the real work began.

In addition to the damage which the houses occupied by Mrs. Dunn and Garity received, those on either side, occupied by G. B. Allen and Mr. Cooper, were damaged by smoke and water.

The entire loss will be about $1,000 which is fully covered by insurance.

The Fire's Birthday.

Our dog is 116 years old today, and the display of the national colors by some few of the citizens is done in commemoration of that fact.

Up to June 14, 1777, the patriotism of the country gave vent to itself by the display of flags of different designs, but on that date the national emblem as we have it now with seven red and six white stripes, making thirteen stripes for the thirteen original states, and a star for each state was adopted.

The case against L. Paoli for alleged illegal selling of spirituous drinks on Sunday morning was tried Friday has been adjourned again.

The case of Martin vs. Miller is on trial this afternoon before Justice Nash.

F. L. C. Martin brings suit against the late Annie Miller for damages resulting from imperfectly warming the building in which his office and wheelman's headquarters are located.

BIG DEFALCATIONS.

Officers of the Irving Savings Institution.
New York, June 14.—Defalcations of $100,000 have been discovered at the Irving Savings Institution, 60 Warren street, New York. The shortage was found by the stock brokers examining the books, and the officers of the institution are now endeavoring to make good the loss.

The officers implicated by the statement of the examiner are: President, J. H. Hutton; Vice-President, J. H. Hutton; Secretary, J. H. Hutton; Treasurer, J. H. Hutton; and the state bank superintendent, Charles H. Hutton. The facts in the case are being investigated by the district attorney.

Meese, Starn and Hutton, counsel for the Irving Savings Institution, last night gave out a statement in which they said that $20,000 of overdrafts made by W. J. Hutton were made good by him by the payment of that much cash, and he also gave a full and complete statement of the facts in the case.

It is stated that the defalcations were made by Hutton in the name of the Irving Savings Institution, and that he was the only person who had access to the funds. The defalcations were discovered by the stock brokers examining the books, and the officers of the institution are now endeavoring to make good the loss.

Tompkins is 60 years of age and has been married to Mrs. Hutton for about thirty years. Superintendent Hutton says that the defalcations had been made for two years, and that he had used the money he abstracted for living expenses, and Hutton said that he had used the money for the same purpose. Lawyer Cohen, who was associated with the case, broke news of the defalcations.
