The Best Things In Cookery

Are always made with the ROYAL BAKING POWDER. It imparts that peculiar lightness, sweetness and flavor noticed in the finest rolls, biscuit, cake, etc., and which the most expert pastry cooks declare is unobtainable by the use of any other raising agent.

The ROYAL BAKING POWDER, besides rendering the food more palatable and wholesome, is, because of its higher leavening power, the most economical.

The ROYAL makes more and better food than any other baking powder because it is the purest.

New Orleans Citizens Indignant Over the Verdict.

THE HENNESSY JURY HISSED.

The Prisoners Remanded to Answer Another Charge of a Trivial Nature.

The Jurymen Will Not Discuss the Case. The Committee of Fifty Hold a Secret Meeting—Lynch Law Openly Advocated by Some of the Dead. Chief's Intimate Friends.

New Orleans, March 13.—The trial of nine Sicilians for the assassination of Chief of Police D. C. Hennessy at 11:23 o'clock on the night of October 10, which has occupied the time of Judge Baker's division of the Criminal District Court since February 16, was concluded last evening, the jury bringing in a verdict of not guilty as to six of the accused, and failed to agree upon a verdict as to the other three.

When the jury handed in their verdict Judge Baker looked at it for some moments before he handed it over to Minute Clerk Screven. There was apprehensive silence while these preliminaries were going on. The prisoners stood up and square where they were in the courtroom on the face of Machena and some of the others.

The Jurymen Looked Concerned. The jury looked more concerned than anyone in the room. Their faces were deathly pale and showed plainly the effect of their deliberations. Chief Clerk Screven read the verdict in a firm voice. As the verdict was read there was an audible expression of surprise and dissatisfaction. Judge Baker immediately discharged the jurymen and ordered the prisoners remanded, as there was still another charge against them. The court then adjourned.

Jeered at by the Crowd.

When the jurymen left the court room they were surrounded by reporters, but none of them would discuss the case or how they reached a verdict. They kept together until they reached Lafayette Square, where they were jeered at by a crowd who had already learned of the verdict.

Great Indignation Over the Verdict.

There is great indignation throughout the city over the verdict. There is another indictment against the accused, but it is for a lesser offense, and as it concerns the same transaction the district attorney will have to enter a nolle prosequi.

The Committee of Order, known as the Committee of Fifty, organized by the mayor soon after the killing of Chief Hennessy, held a secret meeting, and it is known that another conference of the intimate friends of Hennessy was held somewhere else.

It is impossible to learn what was done at these secret meetings, but the popular excitement is so intense that lynch law is openly advocated as the solution of the matter, on the ground that repeated trials have proved that it is impossible to convict Italians of murder.

DANGER IN THE FOG.

Several Serious Accidents on the Water Around New York.

New York, March 14.—The very thick weather which prevailed during the night and morning on the rivers and bays rendered navigation dangerous and all vessels were forced to proceed with the utmost precaution. Despite this precaution several serious accidents were reported.

Pilot boat Hope No. 1 ran ashore at Sandy Hook at 1:30 o'clock. Her crew were rescued by the crew of Life Saving Station No. 1. The boat of the rescuing party was stove in and the belated mariners had considerable difficulty in reaching the shore.

The Hope lies about fifty feet from the shore, just abreast of the fishing smack Scotia, which went to pieces last year. She is lurching heavily and her rudder is gone, as well as a portion of her keel. While the deck boat has been washed off and smashed on the rocks.

THE PRESIDENTIAL OUTLOOK

Ex-Senator, Legally Thinks Cleveland and Harrison Will Head the Tickets.

Boston, Mass., March 14.—Ex-Senator Ingalls of Kansas when asked who would be the opposing candidates in 1892, replied: "Cleveland will be the next nominee of the Democratic party no matter what views he may express on the tariff, the silver or other questions. I believe that Mr. Harrison will be renominated and that he is entitled to it by the unwritten laws of parties and by the precedent of our political system. Hill is not mentioned in the West as a candidate."

In regard to the attitude of the parties on the silver question Mr. Ingalls said: "If the Republican party nominates an anti-silver candidate in 1892 and accepts a plank of the same character in its platform, it is doubtful if it could carry two States west of the Alleghenies. The gravity of the situation is not fully appreciated or appreciated in the East."

BEGGED TO BE KILLED.

A Man Ran Over by a Train Attempts to Beat Out His Brains.

East Madison, N. J., March 14.—While passing the station on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad last night, Samuel Morner, a blacksmith, fell from a train on which he was a passenger and disappeared beneath the wheels. The train was stopped and efforts were made to find the man dead, the train hands ran back.

When they reached him they found he was still conscious, but so badly hurt that he was unable to speak, and was attempting to kill himself by beating his head with a large stone. He inflicted several wounds upon his scalp before he could be picked up, and when he was moved he implored the men to kill him. He was placed in a hospital and taken to St. Michael's Hospital in Newark.

LINGO ON THE STAND.

He Explains to the Jury About the Blood on His Clothes.

CLARK, N. J., March 14.—The feature of the day's session of the Miller murder trial was the taking of the stand by Lingo in his own behalf. Prior to being called Robert Jones, a ten-year-old colored schoolboy said he saw him washing blood from his hands at a pump in Merchantville on the morning of the murder.

"When called Lingo appeared cool and collected, and answered the questions without confusion. Witness showed the jury how he had cut his hand with the stalk knife on the day of the murder and admitted that he went to the pump near the school to wash the blood from his hands. He said his clothes came from his hand."

A Saratoga Man Murdered in Peru.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 14.—Miss C. M. Kline of Saratoga has received news of the murder of her brother, Samuel Whitely Kline, near Lima, Peru. Mr. Kline is the son of Samuel Kline of Herkimer County. He is an engineer and went to Peru last July as assistant superintendent on a large construction job in the employ of the Eastern Bridge Company, to work on a bridge about fifty miles from Lima. Five other men accompanied him, two of whom died of fever. The other three men and Kline were on their way home when the latter was stabbed by a native and soon afterward died.

More Trouble for Barons.

New York, March 14.—Joseph Barondine, the leader of the dockmen's strike, now confined in the Jamaica jail for the riotous outrage, has been charged by Mr. Fokkens and Mr. Fischel, cloak manufacturers of this city, with having asked and obtained of them $100 each to settle the strike in their respective establishments recently. Warrants have been issued for his arrest on charges of extortion.

Hotel Burned by an Incendiary.

Quebec, Pa., March 14.—An incendiary fire, at 3 a. m., was discovered in the Grand Hotel, a three-story frame structure. In less than an hour the hotel and several adjoining buildings were burned, causing a loss of $25,000. Twenty-five guests in the hotel barely escaped with their lives, some jumping from the second-story windows. Two weeks ago an unsuccessful attempt was made to set fire to the hotel.

PARNELL ASKS AID

He Appeals to Irish-Americans to Help His Envoy.

FULL TEXT OF THE DOCUMENT.

He Says the Patriotic Party is to be Entirely Reconstructed.

He classifies the Seceders and Will Lope Off the Rotten Branches—For some, He Says, Has Unveiled the Danger. The Irish Leader Hopes to Win Freedom by Constitutional Means.

LONDON, March 14.—Mr. Parnell has made public his long-expected manifesto. The full text of the document follows:

TO THE IRISH PEOPLE OF AMERICA.

Fellow Countrymen—In 1880 and subsequent years you assisted me powerfully for your independence, and for the freedom of Ireland, and with your generous financial support to create the great movement of the Land League. Without your aid, no freely given and constantly maintained, Ireland could be for one moment have made head against her oppressors.

Still less could she have attained the singular position of power, and the promise of success, which she has occupied during the last five years.

At the instant when victory seemed near and certain the hasty and modish interference of the English politicians in the complex organization of our party, led by a sudden movement among some young raw recruits, eagerly seconded by a few discontented, office-seekers and envious persons, who creep into our ranks, temporarily destroyed the unity of our force, and sapped the independence of many Irish representatives.

His Task to Restore Unity.

It now becomes my task to restore this unity and to direct our movement, looking off all unbecoming material, taking effect in preparations against the admission in the future, into our ranks of any weak, treacherous self-seeking element.

Fortune has unveiled this danger, and given space for this reconstruction before the general election, and after the disclosure has brought about a reformation of the party, and a new organization of our party, led by a sudden movement among some young raw recruits, eagerly seconded by a few discontented, office-seekers and envious persons, who creep into our ranks, temporarily destroyed the unity of our force, and sapped the independence of many Irish representatives.

I commend them to your hospitality and I am confident that you will extend to them the most favorable reception and help. They are such and all well tried soldiers who have constantly distinguished themselves in our war against oppression and British misrule, and who have been the mainstay of our party, and the most unscrupulous and far-reaching character, have bravely defended me during their dark and trying moments.

With a confidence even greater than in 1880, I appeal to you once more to assist me in quelling this mutiny and disloyalty which tend to help me in securing a really independent Parliamentary party, so that we may make one more even though it be our very last effort, to win freedom and prosperity for our nation by constitutional means.

SHADOWING PARNELL.

The McCarthyites Engage a Detective to Follow the Irish Leader.

LONDON, March 14.—The McCarthyites are making every effort to defeat the object of the visit of Mr. Parnell's deputation to America. For about two weeks past a private detective has been engaged, and is now shadowing Mr. Parnell in England with the view of getting up additional scandal about Mr. Parnell and Mrs. O'Shea, to be telegraphed to America about the same time as the arrival of the deputation.

It is said that the detective has gathered evidence showing that Mr. Parnell has kept up his relations with Mrs. O'Shea the same as before the divorce suit. Mr. Parnell's friends deny this, and say that Mr. Parnell is in England with the view of getting up additional scandal about Mr. Parnell and Mrs. O'Shea, to be telegraphed to America about the same time as the arrival of the deputation.

It is said that Mr. Parnell played the issue of his manifesto until after an interview with Thomas Power O'Connor, who went to Brighton to meet Mr. Parnell directly upon landing.

Comment on the Manifesto.

LONDON, March 14.—The fact that it will require deeds rather than words to open the purse of the American household to Parnell. When he is shown to be still dictator of electoral Ireland he may succeed in getting money from Irish-Americans, but for the purpose of faction fighting his delegates are unlikely to secure much assistance.

O'Brien Adjudicated a Bankrupt.

DUBLIN, March 14.—William O'Brien, M. P., has been adjudicated a bankrupt on petition of Lord Salisbury. Mr. O'Brien sued Lord Salisbury for libel and slander, lost his case and incurred costs amounting to $8,500. Lord Salisbury has been pursuing Mr. O'Brien for many months for these costs.

Here Conductors Discharged.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 14.—Ten more Michigan Central passenger conductors have been discharged, making 15 in all. The discharges were brought about by "spotters," who obtained free rides by claiming to be poor and out of work.

Slaves Strike for Freedom.

LONDON, March 14.—A dispatch just received from Zanzibar says that the slaves of the Comoro Islands have revolted and the Sultan of the Islands has fled for safety. The slaves have declared their freedom.

Two Miners Crushed to Death.

CENTRALIA, Pa., March 14.—Samuel Cook, a miner, and his laborer, Thomas Corriani, were crushed to death at the Morris Ridge Colliery, near this city, by a fall of coal.

GREAT POOL PLAYING.

The Finest Game on Record Played at the Syracuse Tournament.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 14.—The greatest game of pool on record occurred in the National tournament last night between Powers and Deoro. The championship was at stake and also a $300 wager made by Kough and the Cuban. The score was evenly until after the fifth inning when Powers struck a bad streak and went rapidly behind Deoro, who took advantage of every mislay until he was 34 points ahead.

Then came a nifty up-hill game, the champion getting the best of every frame to the fourteenth inning, when, by a run of 15, he crept two in the lead amid the cheers of 1,200 spectators.

The score ran neck and neck, standing 140 to 145 in Deoro's favor in the 30th inning. A bad shot by the Cuban gave Powers the game. Score, Powers 150, Deoro 146.

By this victory Powers retains the championship. Deoro will have to play a tie with Clearwater for second place.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Fifteen Employees of a Brush Factory Fall to the Floor Unconscious.

READING, Pa., March 14.—Fifteen employees in the brush factory of Charles B. Miller, in Shoemakerville, this county, had a very narrow escape from asphyxiation about noon.

While the hands, numbering 23 in all, were at work on the second floor a sickening odor pervaded the building and in a few minutes 15 young men and women fell to the floor unconscious. The others managed to reach the windows and let in some fresh air. After much difficulty all were revived.

The deadly sulphur which had overcome the men and women came from the boiler, where the gas had exploded, shutting the damper. It is believed that but for the fact that some of the hands had strength enough to open the windows all would have been suffocated.

ACQUITTED THE BOY.

A Judge Says that Killing With a Baseball Bat Is No Crime.

ALBANY, March 14.—Boyd Gilmore, 16 years old, who was arrested in this city and taken to jail at Hollidaysburg for killing his uncle, Hugh Stewart, on Nov. 13, 1890, by striking him on the head with a baseball bat, was tried yesterday. After listening to a few witnesses Judge Dean refused to hear and Gen. Chase, dismissed the case and acquitted the boy.

The judge held that if the man had been killed with a knife or a revolver it would have been murder in the second degree, but as the killing was done with a baseball bat, which, he said, was not a deadly weapon, no case could be made against Boyd.

The Negro Orator to Go to England.

Boston, March 14.—Rev. John S. Smallwood of Virginia, the young negro orator, has signed a contract with Right Hon. W. H. Bryan and Gen. Chase, H. Clanton of England, who were sent to this country to see Mr. Smallwood by the United Literary and Lecturing Society of England, to go to Europe in October of the present year to deliver lectures on "The Race Problem in America," and "The Negro in American Politics." The contract is for six months; price, $6,980. The association will pay all expenses and also provide a secretary.

Arrest of a Publisher.

New York, March 14.—Paul M. Richards, a publisher, has been arrested on order from the Supreme Court for falsely representing, as alleged, that he was worth $50,000 over his liabilities to the East River Bank, which discounted his note for $5,000. He failed shortly after with $50,000 liabilities and $50,000 assets. He was admitted to bail.

Arrested for Stealing Letters.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 14.—Eddie P. Schuneman and John Clark, both of this city, have been arrested charged with stealing letters containing checks, drafts, and money from mail boxes in the streets. The persecutions extend over a period of several months. The men were held in $3,000 bail each.

Denver Without a Mayor.

DENVER, Col., March 14.—This city is without a mayor. The Supreme Court has denied a rehearing in the mayoralty case. The present mayor, Wolfe Landoner, was a few weeks ago declared to be illegally elected, after holding his office nearly a year.

Charged With Embezzlement.

DANIELSONVILLE, Conn., March 14.—W. F. White of Putnam has been arrested, charged with embezzling $2,900 from the estate of the late Thomas J. Evans of this place. He admits a shortage of $1,900, but says he can make it good.

Fritchard Challenges Fitzsimmons.

New York, March 14.—A cablegram from London says that Fritchard has issued a challenge to Bob Fitzsimmons to fight him for the Police Gazette championship belt in any club in England or America that offers the largest purse.

Young Mitchell After Fritchard.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—Young Mitchell, who defeated La Blanche, in speaking of the Burke-Fritchard fight said: "I am anxious for a go with Fritchard. If he will not come to America I will go to London after him."

Sarah Althea Again in Trouble.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—C. G. Sayle, the administrator of the estate of David S. Terry, yesterday began a suit against Sarah Althea Terry, his widow, to recover personal property valued at $967, consisting of law books, a phonograph, dog cart, harness, horses, nine geese and ducks and a double carriage. He alleges he is entitled to the property and has demanded possession and been refused.

JAKE KILRAIN WINS

He Knocks Out Godfrey in the Forty-Third Round.

BOTH MEN WERE IN FINE FORM.

They Fought Violently and Did Some Clever Drunken and Stopping.

Godfrey was hard on Kilrain's head, but his blows were not effective—Kilrain finished his Colored Rival Severely in Several Rounds—A Large Crowd of Sporting Men Saw the Battle.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—The fight between Jake Kilrain of Baltimore and George Godfrey of Boston for $5,000, $4,500 to the winner, drew a large but select crowd to the California Athletic Club last night. Among the prominent sportsmen present were Jim Hall and Milton, the champion bookmaker; Joe Harris, brother of Jim Hall; Parson Davies, Millionaire; Lucky Baldwin, Jim Corbett and Major Jack Slaughter.

Both men were up in fine form. Kilrain weighed 170 pounds and Godfrey 174. Kilrain's opponent was Jim Hall and Milton. Godfrey was seconded by Peter Jackson and Frank Seale of Boston. The mill began at 9 p. m.

First Round.—Godfrey started in on the aggressive, but his strong, left leads for Kilrain's head were cleverly dodged. In return, Kilrain was wise and let his opponent's head down, and followed this with heavy swinging of Godfrey's head. It was Kilrain's round.

Second Round.—This round was a fine exhibition of science. Godfrey clinched whenever possible. Third Round.—Opened by Kilrain swinging his left at Godfrey's jaw.

Fourth Round.—Kilrain narrowly missed landing a tremendous left-hander on the negro's head. He then rushed Godfrey repeatedly, the latter saving himself by clinching. Kilrain's advantage in reach was very pronounced in this round.

Fifth Round.—Again Godfrey led with his left, but he was not able to reach a successful clinch. The round was a succession of clinches, by the negro to avoid Kilrain's blows.

From the sixth to the ninth round the honors were about even, the men clinching several times.

Tenth Round.—Kilrain gave Godfrey a sharp downward blow on the chest, and secured a knock on the jaw in return. During the quick Godfrey used his right on Kilrain's head.

This struggle Kilrain and Godfrey began by clinching. Kilrain testily replied: "Three times you've been my partner, but you are aiming for the spot all the time."

The next six rounds showed some clever dodging and stopping by both men. Kilrain was the aggressor, however, by clinching at critical moments.

Twelfth Round.—The men went at it, hammer and tongs, and fought viciously. Kilrain got to Godfrey's face and neck, and hit him repeatedly on the face with both hands. Godfrey was now pretty weary.

When the bell was called for the 17th round both men were too tired for a few seconds to touch, but there was heavy fighting, with honors even, in the following round.

Eighteenth Round.—Kilrain started out to fight. A man, giving him a right-hander in the eye and jaw, Godfrey laughed, even though groggy, and scored several good blows. Then Kilrain hammered the negro on the mouth, chin and nose, but the punishment seemed to have little effect.

Nineteenth Round.—Kilrain fought Godfrey in earnest, hitting him on the head and body. Godfrey turned his back on him and made no return.

Twentieth Round.—Kilrain's exertions to knock him, and Godfrey scored two blows on Kilrain's jaw and one on the nose and eye over the heart.

Twenty-first Round.—Godfrey had a little better luck this time. He landed a right-hander on Kilrain's head, and punished him throughout the entire round. Godfrey stood up gamely, however, and took his medicine.

Twenty-second Round.—Kilrain and Godfrey were considerable punishment in both these rounds.

Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Rounds.—Stubborn fighting, with honors even. The next six rounds witnessed some dangerous rushes by Kilrain, which Godfrey repulsed, but he received terrible punishment. Kilrain knocked out Godfrey in the forty-third round.

There was great excitement after the fight, as the people having allowed their dogs to go to large on the streets, where they were shot by the police. Many families refuse to allow their children to go to school until the dogs are exterminated.

Many Injured by a Falling Wall.

PHILADELPHIA, March 14.—At 11:30 a. m. the wind storm blew down the east wall of the Fort Pitt glass works and many persons were injured by falling timbers and bricks. Mr. McCann was badly bruised and his leg broken; Joseph Morgan, one eye out and disabled; Harry Campbell, arm broken; Thomas Linnam bruised, and James Park seriously injured. Many others were more or less injured.

Death of Mrs. Hannah C. Paul.
