LAST DAY OF TRAVEL

Washington Will Welcome the President To-Night.

A NON-PARTISAN RECEPTION.

The President Cordially Received at Indianapolis.—He Makes an Eloquent Speech

—Refers to His Boyhood Days and Says

When His Tour is Over He Will Gladly

Return to His Old Home.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Preparations

are being made to receive the Presidential party this afternoon about 5 o'clock.

Several of the leading political clubs

composed of the Republican State association were the first to suggest the idea,

but it did not take very well, as the prominent men spoken to on the subject

at once said that such a demonstration

should be entirely non-partisan.

The officers of the Board of Trade were consulted and they took the matter in hand and have prepared to give the President and his party a cordial greeting.

The President at Home.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 15.—The approach of the Presidential train to this city was heralded by a battery salute. From every window and housetop on the principal streets the Stars and Stripes were unfurled, and large-sized pictures of the President were conspicuous everywhere.

In Jackson place, near the Union station,

a speaker's stand was erected, but the rough-hewn planks were concealed from view by a mass of bunting and Stars and Stripes. Arriving at this stand Mayor

Sullivan delivered an address of welcome.

There was a perceptible moistness in the President's eyes, and his voice almost failed him as he acknowledged the welcome. Continuing, he said:

"My mansion has known no other home but this. It was the scene of my early struggles. It has been the scene and instrument and support of my early success in life. I come today down before you to-day my offering of thankfulness

for your helpful friendship. I come after two years to confess many errors, but to say to you that I have but one thought in my mind—to use what influence I have for the general good of all the people.

My stay is so brief that I must deny myself the pleasure of taking all these friends by the hand. God bless you all!

I have not forgotten. I cannot forget Indianapolis. I look forward, if my life is spared, to this as the city where I shall rest when the hard toil is done. I love its houses and rejoice in its commercial prosperity. Pardon further speech and allow me to say God bless you, every one.

The party immediately returned to their train and were soon on the last stage of their journey to Washington.

CORTE MADE A MISTAKE.

The New Orleans Grand Jury Calls for the Names of the Plotters.

NEW ORLEANS, May 15.—A committee

of the grand jury called on Consul Corte

and asked him for the names of the plotters whom he alleged had intended to assassinate the mayor and others, but whose lives were saved through his mediation.

The Consul informed the committee he had been misinterpreted by the newspapers. He said there was a strong feeling among the Italians here, as in all other places in America, and he, like other

Consuls, had been making his best efforts

in the interest of peace and quiet.

Consul Corte will take his departure

from this city this evening.

The Committee of Fifty has just made its report. It is of a startling nature.

The report says that Honesty was murdered because he endeavored to trace out

brigands; that Chief of Police Bertrand

of Rome, who promised him aid, also died by the assassin's hand; that even the Italian Consul says an attempt was made to poison him; that he promised the committee evidence, but evidently dared not give it. The committee recommend that Stellians and residents of lower Italy be treated as the Chinese are now treated.

MURDER IN A TENEMENT.

A Drunken Debauch Wins a Terrible Tragedy.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 15.—William

Kerrigan and his wife, aged 33, came from Haverstraw, N. Y., three days ago to visit Mr. and Mrs. Carson at 101

Steuben street, this city. The two women are sisters.

The quartette have spent most of the three days in drinking and frequent quarrels have occurred, which culminated last evening in the murder of Mrs.

Carson.

A violent quarrel took place in the Carson apartments, and when the police were finally called in they found Mrs.

Carson dead on the floor with her throat

cut from ear to ear, while her husband had two terrible gashes on the head.

Mrs. Kerrigan was slightly out about the face, and her husband is missing, he having fled.

Carson says that Kerrigan attacked his wife and cut her throat, and that he was stabbed while trying to defend her.

From statements made by Mrs. Kerrigan and neighbors, who were called by during the quarrel, it would seem to be a case of wife murder.

Carson and Mrs. Kerrigan were locked up, and the police are looking for Kerrigan.

THE ALLEGED RIPPER HELD.

The New York Coroner's Jury Decides that

Frenchy No. 1 is the Murderer.

NEW YORK, May 15.—The jury in the

"Carrie Brown" inquest after hearing all the testimony, and being out 20 minutes,

found that Annie Brown came to her death by strangulation at the hands of

Amer Ben Ali, alias "Frenchy No. 1."

Only one bill was taken.

Frenchy, when the verdict was explained to him, thought he was already doomed, and believed he would be taken out at once and put to death. The judicial was explained to him and he expressed great relief.

There was an immense crowd at the doors of the coroner's office to see the alleged ripper taken away to the Tombs.

DR. GRAVES TO BE INDICTED.

He Will Be Held for the Murder of Mrs.

Barnaby.

DENVER, Col., May 15.—It is pretty generally understood here that Dr. Graves will be indicted for the murder of Mrs.

Barnaby to-day or to-morrow. Judge

Belford, who has been employed to assist

District Attorney Stearns in the prosecution of the case, was asked last night:

"Does the State suspect Dr. Graves?"

"The State has its eyes upon Dr. Graves and proposes to have its hands upon him

in a day or two," the lawyer replied.

In to-morrow's issue, THE PRESS will publish a portrait of Dr. Briggs, the noted Presbyterian who is to be tried for heresy, and also a sketch of his career and of the teachings for which he has been criticised.

The members of the Holy Cross choir are working hard towards raising the amount needed for their camping expenses, and they hope their friends will remember the entertainment to be given in the Sunday-school room the evening of May 27.

The annual sale of fancy and useful articles, with strawberries and leed cream, in aid of the Sunday-school of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, will be held at the Union Sunday-school rooms, corner of Front street and Clinton avenue (near Evans station), on Thursday of next week from four to ten o'clock p. m.

The people advocating the opening of North Broadway will ask 5 court at Somerville next week to appoint commissioners to see that equity is done to all in the development of the new thoroughfare. To-night at seven o'clock the Bible normal class of the Young People's League, conducted by Chas. B. Brown, meets in the parlors of the First Baptist church. Subject: "An introductory study in the book of Numbers." Any of the young people of the city will be cordially welcome either as visitors or members of the class.

People who saw the collision at North and Park avenues, Wednesday night, between Adam Blir's buggy and Fred Hockridge's bicycle, say that neither party was to blame more than the other. The affair seems to have been an entirely unavoidable accident, and witnesses exonerate Mr. Blair from the charge that he was driving recklessly. The courteous and obliging mail carrier does not deserve to be censured for carelessness of which he was not guilty.

The third anniversary of the Warren Union Mission Christian Endeavor Society will be celebrated in the chapel this evening. The celebration will be begun at 7:45, with a service of song from "Temple Songs." The programme has been carefully arranged, and the address of the evening will be made by the Rev. Mr. Outberry. A general social time will follow. Representatives from other societies are expected to be present, and a good time is anticipated.

Captain W. E. Fuller of the Brooklyn Bicycle Club, and Captain Frank E. C. Martin of the Plainfield Bicycle Club, made a run to Philadelphia, last Sunday, over the route to be taken by the Great Century (100 miles) run on June 13. They left here at 5 o'clock in the morning. They report the roads in excellent condition with the exception of about two miles between Dunellen and Bound Brook, and ten miles between Trenton and Bristol, which they found quite heavy owing to the dry weather. A good rain would put these in good shape. The prospects are that about 400 wheelmen will participate in the Century run this season. The run is open to all wheelmen, and Plainfield should be able to send a good many of her riders.

PLAINFIELD TO HAVE THE BEST.

The Street Railway Company Investigating Every Improvement in Motor and Machinery.

The extract below, taken from a certain very unreliable paper of this city, shows how an innocent bit of news of little moment can be twisted by a false head into conveying testimony directly contrary to the fact it records.

DISCARDING THE TROLLEY.

The Evening Wisconsin, of May 8th, says that the Villard syndicate will introduce a new motor on the electric lines in that city. It is known as the Edison Single Reduction Motor, which does away with much gearing, simplifies the machinery, and reduces the noise to almost nothing.

The item itself merely states that a new motor is to be introduced. The head line asserts that the trolley is to be discarded. Councilman Spangenberg of the committee on streets, was shown the above by a reporter of THE PRESS. He said that the very motor spoken of was being investigated by the Plainfield Street Railway company, and if it proved to be the best would be adopted for this city.

It is the intention of the company to go even further than that—they will be the first in the country to discard the trolley as soon as any more practicable, economical or serviceable system shall be perfected. The franchise they officially accepted last Monday contains this requirement:

Section 17. That when any improvements or other method of furnishing the power for the propulsion of cars by electricity shall have been determined to be a practical success by a commission consisting of three electrical engineers, to be selected by the Common Council, one by the said company, and the third by the two so chosen, such company shall within six months after the passage of a resolution by the Common Council requiring the same to be done, and notice thereof given to said company, adopt such improvements or take down their overhead construction, and substitute therefor such improvements or new methods of propulsion.

The officers and directors of the company all signed the acceptance of this and the many other wise provisions for the interests of the people that the franchise embodies. The company from the outset will strive to please the community in every particular. The material for the construction of the road is all ordered, and the surveyors are already at work. The cars are being built by the Fulmin company. They are of mahogany, vestibule and upholstered in light gray broad cloth such as is used in the Blue Line cars.

THEIR HONESTY BEYOND QUESTION.

Men of such Social and Professional Standing in the Community Cannot be Harmed by Vicious Papers.

Dr. Wm. F. Gaston and Dr. Vincent W. Baker visited the office of THE PRESS, this morning, and denied any connection with the calling of a meeting for the organization of what the news says was a bogus insurance scheme. They say—as does President Smith of the Council—that their names were signed to the advertisement without their authority or knowledge.

Both gentlemen were naturally very indignant at being publicly drawn into the matter. The article in the news gave the date of the advertisement, and everybody who looked through the files of THE PRESS could see who were the signers of the "swindle" that the news said it had brought to the attention of the Secretary of State and had put "ex-Chief" Carey on the track of.

The entire community know that men of such standing in social and professional life as Dr. Shaw, Dr. Baker and Dr. Gaston, do not lend their names to, or even countenance, dishonest or unfair projects of any sort. The calling of public attention to an advertisement with the names of such reputable men attached, and branding it as a swindle without first investigating the truth of their connection with it, was a contemptible trick.

But, as THE PRESS said yesterday, these men are only additional victims added to the long list of those who have been slandered by the sheet that blackguards but that cannot harm.

Plainfield Knights of Honor Institute a Lodge at Somerville.

Bridgeview Lodge, Knights of Honor, was instituted in Somerville, Wednesday evening, with appropriate ceremonies in which many Plainfield Knights took part. The new lodge starts with a charter list of 37 members. It is composed of prominent men of Somerset county, and promises to be one of the best lodges in the State.

It is well officered as follows: C. S. Hoffman, Dictator; W. F. Bergen, Vice Dictator; G. Jenkins, Assistant Dictator; H. C. Adair, Reporter; J. E. Garretson, Financial Reporter; T. J. Vanderhoff, Guide; Jacob Kline, Jr., Guardian; Louis Noll, Sentinel; Jacob Klotz, Past Dictator and Representative to Grand Lodge; Dr. Wagoner, Medical Examiner.

The instituting officers were: R. C. Jones, Grand Dictator; G. W. Housman, of Wetumpka Lodge, 3407, Acting Vice Dictator; S. E. Flower, of Wetumpka, Assistant Dictator; C. V. Feytel, of Wetumpka, P. G. Dictator; J. M. Mayher, Grand Reporter; W. J. Cadmus, State Medical Examiner, Chaplain; J. Van Middewater, of Wetumpka, Guardian; T. S. Little, Deputy Grand Dictator, instituting Deputy; L. J. Van Alstyne, of Wetumpka, Grand Guide.

Religious service will be held this evening at Monroe Avenue chapel, at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be led by J. Brit. Martin.

A QUAKER WEDDING.

Bride and Groom Solemnly Declare Themselves Man and Wife.

A very pretty Friends' wedding ceremony took place at the residence of Mrs. Aris L. Laing, 53 Broadway, last evening, when Miss Frances S. Mosher, daughter of Mr. Laing, became the wife of Arthur T. Stryker. Promptly at the appointed hour, half-past seven o'clock, the bride and groom took their position in the room, with the "best man," Horace Huff, and the maid of honor, Miss Ida M. Lorton, beside them. When the bride and groom had clasped hands the groom said:

"In the presence of the Lord and this assemblage, I take thee, Frances S. Mosher, to be my wedded wife, promising, through Divine assistance, to be unto thee a loving and faithful husband, until separated by death."

And the bride responded: "In the presence of the Lord and this assemblage, I take thee, Arthur T. Stryker, to be my wedded husband, promising, through Divine assistance, to be unto thee a loving and faithful wife, until separated by death."

The bride and groom then signed the wedding certificate, and the "best man" read it aloud, as follows:

Witnessed by Arthur T. Stryker, son of John G. and Almira Stryker, of the city of Plainfield, county of Union, and State of New Jersey, and Frances S. Mosher, daughter of James H. and Aris L. Mosher, of the city of Plainfield, county of Union, and State of New Jersey, who have declared to me that they are desirous of being united in marriage.

These are to certify, that for the accomplishment of their intentions, this fourteenth day of the fifth month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety one, they, the said Arthur T. Stryker and Frances S. Mosher, met at the residence of Aris L. Laing, in the city of Plainfield, county of Union, and State of New Jersey, and in the presence of friends assembled, the said Arthur T. Stryker, taking the said Frances S. Mosher by the hand, did on that solemn occasion declare that he took her to be his wife, promising, through Divine assistance, to be unto her a faithful and loving husband until separated by death, or words to that effect. And then the said Frances S. Mosher did in like manner declare that she took the said Arthur T. Stryker to be her husband, promising, through Divine assistance, to be unto him a faithful and loving wife until death should separate them, or words to that effect.

And they, the said Arthur T. Stryker and Frances S. Mosher, did, according to the custom of marriage, assuming the name of her husband, as a further confirmation thereof, did then and there to these presents set their hands.

ARTHUR T. STRYKER, FRANCES S. MOSHER.

And we being present have subscribed our names as witnesses thereof.

[Here follow the signatures of all the witnesses.]

After the reading of the certificate the groom saluted the bride, as did all present. Then the witnesses were invited to sign the wedding certificate, which they did.

The bride looked charming in a costume of white cashmere, trimmed with brocade silk. The happy couple received a great many handsome gifts.

After the ceremony a very enjoyable wedding supper was served.

A Journey With Pastor Schenck.

At the sociable of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Trinity Reformed church, last night, the Rev. Mr. Schenck kindly consented to give an account of his tour in the great city of London. There was a large attendance, and all highly appreciated his interesting description of the various places of note in that largest of cities. Among the places he pictured were St. Paul's cathedral, interior and exterior, Bank of England, interior and exterior, Tower of London, Westminster Palace, interior and exterior, and Westminster Abbey, interior and exterior. He also took his hearers to the great docks and warehouses, and gave an interesting description of the great shipping port.

Miss F. Mattison sang a solo very acceptably, accompanied on the piano by her sister, Miss J. Mattison. At an appropriate time refreshments were served. The committee of young ladies having the sociable in charge were Miss F. Mattison, Miss Minnie Force, Miss Mabel Woodruff and Miss Phoebe Mills.

Gentlemen need not wear gloves at dinner parties, that is, if they don't have clean ones; but under all circumstances they must take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup when they get a cold or sore throat.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

The congregation of Dr. Ketcham's church tendered a reception to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Hatch, last evening.

Robert C. Gibson, the Mounted Letter-carrier of New London, Conn., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Wm. Wright, at her home, 32 West Fifth street, this city.

An unusually pleasing and artistic entertainment was given at Hope chapel, last evening, by the Young Women's Christian Temperance Association. Miss Mabel Potter, Miss Gussie Holmes and Miss Amy Green sang sweetly; Miss Barber, Miss Dewey and the Messrs Newman rendered charming instrumental selections, and Miss Morrison recited, displaying much talent and good taste.

I HAVE not used all of the money yet. I suffered from catarrh for twelve years, experiencing the most agonizing dropping in the throat peculiar to that disease, and most blood almost daily. I tried various remedies without benefit until last April, when I saw Dr. J. C. Brown's advertisement in the Boston "Herald." I secured a bottle, and since the first day's use have had no more bleeding, the secretions have ceased, and I am now well. With the Boston "Herald," formerly with Boston "Journal."
