

THE PLAINFIELD PRESS

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., MONDAY, JULY 23, 1894.

TWO CENTS A COPY. $5 A YEAR.

LAST SPECIAL OFFER

For the Season at

MADAM KNIGHTS,

Agent.

112 West Front Street.

Call and see for yourself. None such prices.

TRUNKS?

Here's some special values in Steamer Trunks. Ladies' dress trunks, 2 and 3 trays, canvas telescopes, canvas and leather suit cases. Want one?

HALLOO, HATTER.

109 West Front st. opp. Somerset.

WEST END COAL YARD.

Having purchased the Coal Business of John M. Hetfield, I am prepared to furnish the best quality of

Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal

In the market. Also Hickory and Oak Kindling Wood, 6 barrels for $1.00. Now is the time to order your winter supply of coal.

CHARLES W. DODD,

Yard—686 South 2d st.

140 Park avenue.

REDUCED

Are the prices of Dry Goods in all our departments this week. Why is it we can sell goods so cheap? We have two good reasons. 1—Because we have no high rents to pay. 2—Because we buy our goods for cash and give our patrons the benefit of the cash discounts.

We have on sale today 500 yards outing flannel at 6c, all new designs, sold elsewhere for 8c; 500 yards duck suitings at 10c, worth 12 1/2c; 15 pieces dotted Swiss 8c, sold formerly for 10c; fast colors and pretty patterns; a fresh lot of Irish lawns, 1 yard wide, 10c, reduced from 12 1/2c; French satines 10c, former price 12c; white lawns from 8c upward; a special sale of fine linen towels, 50 inches long, 25c, sold elsewhere for 35c; this price for one week only; percale shirts 30c, worth 50c; outing flannel shirts from 25c up; satine shirts in fine stripes 40c, worth 60c; 24 dozen gent's fine Tuck shirts at 15c, worth 25c. The 2 are only a few of our specialties this week. All we ask is to call and examine our immense stock and be convinced. No trouble to show goods. We guarantee polite attention.

BOEHM'S, 113 West Front St.

Fruit Jars, Stone Ware, Flower Pots, Novelties in Fancy China and Glass.

GAUDET'S

Masons ore quart fruit jars 54c dozen; 8 quart stone preserving kettles 20c; Royal tooth powder, guaranteed unexcelled 10c; Royal Remedy for moist and tender feet, chafing, etc., sure cure, 25c, sample free. This is a luxury for bicyclists and pedestrians. Try it just once. The 5 and 10c store.

ALLEN'S, 202 West Front Street.

BE ON HAND EARLY!

7 P. M. IS WHEN WE CLOSE.

Why at 7 p. m.? For many reasons. Here are two of them. 1—We have some regard for our clerks. 2—We save our light bills and take it off the price of butter. There is where it benefits you. Of course you see the point and the price of butter too.

Best Elgin Creamery Butter 21c.

Butter is not the only cheap thing we have. There are lots of them. For instance potatoes 75c bushel; Imperial flour 40c bag.

J. F. MACDONALD,

UPTOWN GROCER.

186 East Front Street

Majestic Bicycles $25 Down

Balance on Easy Terms

U. B. CRANE,

Hats, Shirts and Trunks.

120 West Front Street.

DROP

Us a postal or call at the office and secure information regarding our new system of delivering

COAL

No Dust, Noise or Waste of Coal.

PACKER'S

FINE FURNITURE.

CHEAP.

PARK AVE. AND SECOND ST.

SEA-FOOD MATINEES.

Special Sales of Fresh Fish for Cash. Every Wednesday from 2 to 6 p. m., and every Saturday from 2 to 10, we will sell fish at greatly reduced prices. This is no post-humous street-stand stock, but fresh fish. These sales are for cash; no delivery.

STRICTLY FIRST-CLASS

Cheaper Than You Can Catch 'Em.

Rogers, 232 West Second Street.

SCHOONER FOUNDERED.

The Crew Rescued From the Rigging by Life-Savers.

SANDY HOOK, N. J., July 23.—The name of the schooner which foundered yesterday afternoon two miles east of the Sunlight life-saving station was Robert H. Mitchell, of Baltimore. Capt. Benjamin Pratt, from New York, with a cargo of salt for Norfolk. She sprang a leak and went down a short time afterward. The crew was rescued from the rigging by life savers.

Catholic Summer School.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., July 23.—The second week of the Catholic Summer school opened most auspiciously. A solemn pontifical mass was celebrated in the morning by Bishop Michael, of Burlington, Vt. Father Elliott, of the Paulist order, preached a powerful sermon, urging missionary work among non-Catholics. The sermon was well received. Among the prominent visitors were the Right Rev. Monsignor Farley, and the Hon. M. Gorman. Every train and boat brings more students, and the hotels and boarding houses are crowded.

Sherry Wine Industry Threatened.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The Phylloxera plague has appeared in the sherry wine district of Spain, and the United States consul at Cadix in making the announcement to the state department says some of the principal vineyard proprietors are discussing the advisability of importing American stocks upon which to graft native vines in case the ravages of the parasite should destroy the vines. This remedy was successfully applied at Bordeaux. The sherry wine industry is said to be seriously threatened.

STRIKERS SENTENCED.

Receiver's Action in Discharging Malcontent Employes Sustained.

SANTA FE, N. M., July 23.—The fourteen strikers arrested at Raton two weeks ago for contempt of court have been found guilty by Judge Seels and sentenced to terms varying from 15 to 30 days in jail. Judge Seels also issued an order approving the actions of the receivers of the Santa Fe road in discharging striking employees and in filling their places with new men.

State Dispenaries To Be Reopened.

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 23.—It is rumored that Governor Tillman has announced that the state dispenaries would be reopened on August 1, and that the law would be rigidly enforced. Also that he will issue a proclamation to that effect today.

MANY Starve TO DEATH

while using beef-tea, calves-foot jelly, and various beef extracts made by application of heat. They contain no nutrition whatever, and cannot restore vitality.

BOVININE

The Original Raw Food

holds in solution the albumoids and salts of lean raw meat, prepared by a cold process, containing the life-sustaining and tissue-building properties of meat itself, yet in the most condensed form.

Endorsed by 25,000 physicians. For sale by all druggists. THE BOVININE CO., NEW YORK.

Frauds

Exist in many forms, but there is no fraud that is more contemptible than the one of substitution. Of all the substitution frauds there is none which perpetrates a greater outrage upon the consumer than the substitution of

Imitations

for Cottolene, which is the only reliable, wholesome and healthful shortening upon the market. Don't be induced to purchase of Cottolene, or you will be heartily disappointed in the results. Cottolene is a shortening is endorsed by physicians and cooking experts. Be sure that your cook uses Cottolene.

Counterfeits

Sold in three and five pound pails.

Made only by N. K. FAIRBANK & CO., CHICAGO, NEW YORK.

Produce Exchange, NEW YORK.

TARIFF IN MORE PERIL

Democratic Senators Hopelessly Divided.

Danger To-Day of a Move To Postpone Consideration of the Bill—History of Importance to the Whole Country Expected To Be Made by To-Morrow Night.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—All interest in congress the coming week centers about the move where the fate of the tariff bill may be decided by the vote to be taken on the conference report which is now before that body for action. By to-morrow night history of importance to the whole country will probably have been made, and events, fraught with great results to the democratic party, will have transpired. The tariff bill called upon their colleagues and endeavoring to get some light upon the situation.

Tariff Bill Doomed.

A prominent democratic leader, chairman of one of the most important senate committees, and who does not belong to the so-called conservatives, told a United Press reporter this morning that unless something altogether unexpected happened before another day—something to which no one looks forward—all hope of tariff legislation at this session of congress would be doomed to disappointment.

This view comes from a senator honest and earnest in his efforts to secure a bill of some sort, and was candidly expressed only after a consultation he had last evening with some of the members of the senate finance committee.

Say There is Nothing To Discuss.

There will be no caucus to discuss the situation and it is known that thus far the dissatisfied elements, the men who insisted that the compromise bill should be passed on or before August 1, and that the law would be rigidly enforced. Also that he will issue a proclamation to that effect today.

The Conference Report.

When the conference report comes before the senate again to-day it will be with four motions bearing upon its disposal. The first of these is the one which was the two of Mr. Hill to instruct the conferees to recede from the senate amendment placing coal and iron ore on the dutiable list. The second is the one which was the two of Mr. Hill to instruct the conferees to recede from the senate amendment placing coal and iron ore on the dutiable list. The third is the one which was the two of Mr. Hill to instruct the conferees to recede from the senate amendment placing coal and iron ore on the dutiable list. The fourth is the one which was the two of Mr. Hill to instruct the conferees to recede from the senate amendment placing coal and iron ore on the dutiable list.

Vilas' Motion May Prevail.

A motion to recede from the sugar amendment in its entirety would be in order, but it is at least doubtful if it would prevail. If Mr. Vilas can secure a vote upon his motion it is believed it will prevail. Mr. Vilas and Mr. Palmer announced in their remarks Friday that they would support it. So would Mr. Hill and Mr. Miller. Mr. Berry would also vote that way, and these votes, with the republicans' would give a majority.

Mr. Hill's Motion to Instruct the Conferees to Recede from the Amendment Putting Coal and Iron Ore on the Dutiable List is in Order.

Mr. Hill's motion to instruct the conferees to recede from the amendment putting coal and iron ore on the dutiable list is in order. Mr. Hill's motion to instruct the conferees to recede from the amendment putting coal and iron ore on the dutiable list is in order. Mr. Hill's motion to instruct the conferees to recede from the amendment putting coal and iron ore on the dutiable list is in order.

What the Democrats Fear.

After all, however, it is none of these matters that managers of the bill most fear. According to the democratic information before Mr. Vilas gets a chance to put his motion striking at refined sugar, or if he does make it, before the motion can be voted upon, the managers of the bill will be warned this morning might be made early in the day, and they have some reason to apprehend that it may secure five democratic votes. Of course, the republicans would vote solidly for it. A motion of this kind was about to be made Friday, when Mr. Cockrell hurriedly moved to adjourn over until Monday in the hope that the two night might improve the situation.

It Would Mean Defeat.

Should the motion to indefinitely postpone the conference report prevail, the tariff bill will be defeated so far as the senate is concerned, for it would be a refusal on the part of the senate to agree to a further conference.

Mr. Gorman, Mr. Miller and Mr. Gorman will reply to some of the statements made by the president in his letter, and it is said that the statement that Mr. Cleveland knew before the public did what concessions the senate committee had to make. Mr. Gorman will also, it is said, quote from Mr. Cleveland's interview about the time the Jones amendment were prepared and was this an going to show that Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

the administration knew the difficulties in the pathway of the senate, and gave the committee its support in its arduous task.

PARIS CYCLE RACES.

Zimmerman's Performance the Finest Ever Seen in the French Capital. PARIS, July 23.—The contest for the Baden prize was the principal event of the bicycle tournament at the Velodrome de la Seine. A. A. Zimmerman led throughout the first heat of 5,000 metres and won it without an effort. He won the final heat of 1,000 metres with equal ease and carried off the prize. Harry Wheeler was second, Medinger third.

In the one-mile handicap Zimmerman rode from the scratch. Harry Wheeler, Barden, Jacquelin and others had 20 metres start. It was a big field, but Zimmerman overtook all in the first lap, riding at a pace which brought round the spectators. He finished five lengths ahead of Jacquelin, who was second. Mercer, who had 50 metres start, was third. Zimmerman's performance was one of the finest pieces of riding ever seen in this city.

BEGGING FOR A THRONE.

Prince Ferdinand's Sickening Exhibitions Before the Court.

BERLIN, July 23.—Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria is still at Kladsko. The last instalment of his interview, as given to the editor of the Novoe Vremya, shows him prostrate before fear. "All Bulgarians love Russia," he said, "to me the czar is the sacred redeemer of my country. If Russia recognizes me, I shall accept the gracious act with bowed head."

Not content with this nauseating exhibition, the Czar's son-in-law, not content with his old pretence, Stambuloff, but for whose aid he would have tumbled long ago from his shaky pedestal in Sofia.

The St. Petersburg journals agree that Ferdinand's bid for recognition and a crown can do him no good, as Russia would be satisfied with nothing short of absolute control of Bulgaria.

SHERIFF EXPECTS TROUBLE.

Effort To Be Made To Resume Work at Glen Campbell Coal Mines.

INDIANA, Pa., July 23.—The night workings of the Glen Campbell Coal company, at Glen Campbell, this country, will resume operations to-day. Sheriff Mack has thirty deputies armed with Winchester on the ground. There are about 800 men in the town, a number of whom are willing to go to work, but the larger portion of them are in an ugly mood and threaten those who attempt to open the mines as made. His deputies have orders if they have to use their guns to shoot to kill.

ALBANY PRINTER KILLED.

Fell from a Bridge While Trying To Assist a Little Girl.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 23.—Thomas McCloskey, a well-known printer, while trying to assist a little girl to cross a bridge, fell from the bridge and was killed. His head struck the projecting stone of the bridge, and when his body was recovered from the water a few minutes later, life was extinct.

NEW SOUND RECORD.

City of Lowell Steams from New York to New London, Six Hours.

NORWICH, Conn., July 23.—A new steel steamer City of Lowell made her trip from New York to New London Saturday night in just six hours. This is the fastest time ever made between these two ports. The Boston has held the record of 6 hours and 5 minutes for thirty years.

Killed by Lightning.

BRIDPORT, Pa., July 23.—The barn of J. B. Graybill in Woodbury township, was struck by lightning Saturday evening and burned. Thomas Noel and William Barkman who were in the barn were killed by the lightning and their bodies cremated. Another man, name unknown, was also seriously stunned and badly burned.

Cholera at Adrianople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 23.—Four cases of cholera and three deaths have been reported in Adrianople. An order has been issued against trains stopping within ten miles of the city. A five days quarantine has been declared against all vessels arriving here from European ports.

Effort To Settle Mine Trouble.

PHILADELPHIA, July 23.—At a meeting of miners in Houtdale yesterday afternoon, a committee of the Herwind-White coal mining company's employees was selected to go to Philadelphia to-day and try to effect a settlement. If possible, with that company. They were instructed to accept less than 45 cents a ton, the Altoona scale.

Mine Troubles Settled.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., July 23.—A compromise of 66 cents a ton was made yesterday by a committee of coal miners and operators representing the New Lebanon, Washington, Leontina and East Palestine districts.

140 Persons were Lost.

ODessa, July 23.—It is now certain that 140 persons went down with the Italian steamer Columbia, which collided with the Russian steamer Vladimir in the Black Sea a few days ago. All the evidence has been taken from the Russian steamer, who deliberately abandoned the Columbia and her crew and passengers to their fate, although the vessel floated an hour and a quarter after the collision.

Drank Two Gallons of Water and Died.

MURKIN, Ind., July 23.—Word reached Muncie yesterday of the strange death of W. Martin, a glassworker, at Dunkirk. On a wagon he drank two gallons of water without stopping for an instant, and he died a few hours later in frightful agony.

Marquis of Headford Dead.

LONDON, July 23.—Thomas Taylor, third Marquis of Headford, is dead after a long illness. He had been a high sheriff of Meath and of Westmeath; also state steward to the last Hanoverian king of Ireland. He was 73 years old.

Long on Name.

BERLIN, July 23.—Sundermann's new comedy entitled "Schmetterlingschachtel" will be produced at the leading theatres in September.

DEBS' HEARING TO-DAY

Strike Leaders Map Out Their Defense.

An Appeal to the American Public To Boycott Pullman Cars Issued from the Jail—Alleged Warns Pullman To Resume Work or State Troops Will Be Withdrawn.

CHICAGO, July 23.—The line of defense of Debs, Howard, Kellier and Rogers at the hearing in the contempt proceedings which came up in Judge Grosscup's court to-day was decided upon last night. Messrs. Erwin and Gregory will open their side with a vigorous attack upon the functions of the Pullman company, charged with willfully disobeying. Charges will also be made, it is said, that the federal court has been deceived by corporate lawyers employed by the Michigan Central.

It is claimed that the attorney for the company mentioned drew the injunction granted by Judge Grosscup and Woods and that Mr. Mitchell adopted it as the bill for the federal government.

Mr. Debs said yesterday that when the injunction was served on him he, to act in good faith, immediately called a hall meeting and declared that no more meetings to consider the strike should be held by the directors. He then consulted Clarence S. Darrow.

"I explained to Mr. Darrow just what we had been doing before the injunction was granted," said Mr. Debs, "and after considering the matter he advised us to go right along in the same line. He assured us that we could not possibly be declared in contempt. The injunction is a piece of nonsense and is admitted to be wrong by the lawyers for the government. I have no doubt that it will be knocked out completely."

An Appeal to the Public.

Debs, Howard, Kellier and Rogers issued their first manifesto from their new headquarters in the county jail yesterday. The document, prepared by the president of the organization in the seclusion of his cell calls upon the traveling public to stop passing money to the Pullman company, means of bringing the company to terms. The manifesto is in part as follows:

"We propose that the Pullman company shall be brought to justice, and this in a way that will not mean a strike with its attendant ills. It may be suggested that this should have been thought of before the great strike was inaugurated. In that case, if it was, it is a pity that it has not been done. We have been paid to the appeal that we are about to make.

"As one of the results of the strike the country is suffering from a proper appeal will command attention. The Pullman company, still defiant and as cruel to its former employees as it is indifferent to the public we, is determined to strike the employees into submission. As remorseless as a man-eating tiger it waits complacently until their last penny is gone and they are thus forced to crawl back into the hands of the Pullman company.

"We have faith in the American people. They uphold justice and they love fair play. And now, in the name of justice and fair play, we appeal to the great American public to exercise their every good woman, not to ride in a Pullman car until the Pullman company does justice to its employees. Let the cars run absolutely empty. No friend of labor, no friend of humanity, will support a man or woman in a Pullman car. Let this policy be inaugurated and we will then see how long the railway company will be able to keep their contracts, as they have induced the public to believe to haul Pullman cars.

"Persons desiring to contribute money and supplies to the Pullman company will please forward the same to David W. V. Gidman, treasurer, Pullman, Ill.

"It is requested that all papers throughout the country, to justice, to humanity, copy this statement and keep it standing in their columns as long as possible."

This document practically contains the admission that there is no longer a strike by authority of the A. R. U., and that the efforts which have been made by the union and other organizations of labor to force the Pullman company to treat by means of strikes have failed, necessitating a change of tactics in the plan of anti-Pullman campaign.

GOMERS APPEALS FOR DEBS.

Calls on All Labor Organizations for Funds To Assist in His Defense.

NEW YORK, July 23.—President Gomers, of the American Federation of Labor, has written over his signature an appeal to all labor organizations for aid in the defense of Debs. The appeal opens with the statement that Eugene V. Debs stands as one of the most conspicuous figures before the country.

Then it says that none doubts his honesty and fidelity to the cause of the wronged against the wrongdoer, and yet he is in jail awaiting the action of United States courts upon a charge of contempt of its injunctions, and is required to appear before four different courts situated hundreds of miles apart at one and the same time. Law is being straitened and distorted, it says; corporate power is exerting its efforts to incorporate this of unfairness, against and over of humanity. Then it continues:

The corporations have now their claws ready to fasten them upon the body of Debs, not simply to try and crush him, but they hope to awe the men of labor into silence and slavish submission. That purpose cannot, dare not, and will not succeed. Debs must be defended, and they defend him. In his person they represent the rights of labor before the law to organize, to quit work in defense, protection and advancement of its interests.

The corporations have now their claws ready to fasten them upon the body of Debs, not simply to try and crush him, but they hope to awe the men of labor into silence and slavish submission. That purpose cannot, dare not, and will not succeed. Debs must be defended, and they defend him. In his person they represent the rights of labor before the law to organize, to quit work in defense, protection and advancement of its interests.

The corporations have now their claws ready to fasten them upon the body of Debs, not simply to try and crush him, but they hope to awe the men of labor into silence and slavish submission. That purpose cannot, dare not, and will not succeed. Debs must be defended, and they defend him. In his person they represent the rights of labor before the law to organize, to quit work in defense, protection and advancement of its interests.

The corporations have now their claws ready to fasten them upon the body of Debs, not simply to try and crush him, but they hope to awe the men of labor into silence and slavish submission. That purpose cannot, dare not, and will not succeed. Debs must be defended, and they defend him. In his person they represent the rights of labor before the law to organize, to quit work in defense, protection and advancement of its interests.

The corporations have now their claws ready to fasten them upon the body of Debs, not simply to try and crush him, but they hope to awe the men of labor into silence and slavish submission. That purpose cannot, dare not, and will not succeed. Debs must be defended, and they defend him. In his person they represent the rights of labor before the law to organize, to quit work in defense, protection and advancement of its interests.

The corporations have now their claws ready to fasten them upon the body of Debs, not simply to try and crush him, but they hope to awe the men of labor into silence and slavish submission. That purpose cannot, dare not, and will not succeed. Debs must be defended, and they defend him. In his person they represent the rights of labor before the law to organize, to quit work in defense, protection and advancement of its interests.

The corporations have now their claws ready to fasten them upon the body of Debs, not simply to try and crush him, but they hope to awe the men of labor into silence and slavish submission. That purpose cannot, dare not, and will not succeed. Debs must be defended, and they defend him. In his person they represent the rights of labor before the law to organize, to quit work in defense, protection and advancement of its interests.

The corporations have now their claws ready to fasten them upon the body of Debs, not simply to try and crush him, but they hope to awe the men of labor into silence and slavish submission. That purpose cannot, dare not, and will not succeed. Debs must be defended, and they defend him. In his person they represent the rights of labor before the law to organize, to quit work in defense, protection and advancement of its interests.

The corporations have now their claws ready to fasten them upon the body of Debs, not simply to try and crush him, but they hope to awe the men of labor into silence and slavish submission. That purpose cannot, dare not, and will not succeed. Debs must be defended, and they defend him. In his person they represent the rights of labor before the law to organize, to quit work in defense, protection and advancement of its interests.

NEW EVIDENCE

Of Dr. Lighthill's Success.

A Flattering Testimonial From Col. John Dietrich, One of Plainfield's Oldest and Best Known Residents.

16 ARLINGTON PLACE, Plainfield, N. J., July 17, 1894.

I am profoundly grateful to Dr. Lighthill for his speedy and radical cure of a most painful malady of over ten years standing.

I deem it proper to say to all afflicted to place themselves under the care of this skillful physician and be permanently cured.

I will cheerfully impart any information I possess when called upon.

JOHN DIETRICH.

A Card from Mr. T. R. VanZandt.

Of No. 304 and 306 Park ave, Plainfield, N. J.

I certify with pleasure that Dr. Lighthill has effectively cured me of a most painful case of piles. For some time past I had been subject to its attacks, but the last attack was so exceedingly painful that it completely upset my whole system. The pain extended to my legs and in many other directions, and made me so nervous that I could neither sleep at night nor move about without serious discomfort and distress. Such was my condition when I applied to Dr. Lighthill for relief, and I am glad to say that as soon as he took hold of my case, I began to improve, and in a short time I found myself completely cured. Dr. Lighthill has also effected a radical and permanent cure in a most terrible case of piles on my cousin, Mr. J. V. Z. Griggs, of Rocky Hill, N. J., whose statement is published below. I can personally vouch that every word

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Publisher and Proprietor.
WALTER IRVING CLARK, Managing Editor.

CIRCULATION EXCEEDS THAT OF ALL OTHER PLAINFIELD
DAILIES COMBINED.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., JULY 23, 1894

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

The case on contract of Rockfellow against Miller, and others, will be tried by Justice Nash, July 30.

Wall papers and wall papers, at four cents a roll and up at E. Love's North avenue. Cars stop at the door.

The full brass band that played at Windham's Saturday night went to the hotel in a car from the North Avenue station, entertaining the other passengers and the passing public with familiar selections.

Tickets for the Baptist excursion may be had at U. B. Crane's hat store, 120 West Front street. Mr. Crane says he will give a lunch-box and small shawl-strap free to every purchaser of a ticket at his store.

TELEGRAPH TICKETS.

Five men were hurt this morning at 8 by the breaking of a scaffold from the second story of a new building at 608 West Forty-second street, New York. One may die.

A part of a man's body was in front of the Brighton Hotel in Long Branch at 7 this morning. Nothing that might lead to identification remained. It is thought the man was one of those who sank with the tug James D. Nicol, June 24.

The steamboat Favorite which makes trips on the Passaic between Newark and Rockaway Beach, was almost totally destroyed by fire at her pier in Newark early this morning. She was reputed to be the speediest craft on the river.

In racing over the Royal Munster Yacht Club course off Queensbury today, the Vigilant was favored by a fresh breeze and was considered a sure winner until just after the second round, when she became becalmed. The Britannia passed her in the third round at 3:27.

A DELIGHTFUL TRIP.

A Sail Up the Hudson and a Walk About West Point.

A most enjoyable excursion was that composed of about 150 Plainfield society people who went to West Point Saturday. They left by train from the North Avenue station at 8:15, and sailed from Jersey City on the steamboat Favorite, reaching West Point at 2 in the afternoon. After three hours spent about the fort and the Point, they returned, arriving in Plainfield at 10:30. Those in charge were John M. Whitton, O. G. Waring, J. P. Munn, and Irving West. An orchestra led by George Rogers furnished music on the trip.

NO ELECTION THERE.

Small Attendance at the School Meeting in the Valley.

Four citizens of the township of North Plainfield ventured put in the drizzling rain of Saturday evening to vote in Washingtonville for school trustees under the provisions of the recent act of the legislature. When they met and found how few there were, they decided that no meeting could be held, and accordingly the election was postponed indefinitely.

Recovered Through The Press.

A school containing valuable books and papers, lost last Friday afternoon between Hightstown and Plainfield, and advertised for in The Press of Saturday, was immediately returned by the Press reader who had found it. The finder was a son of H. M. Demarest of Park avenue, and the owner was Agent Jacob S. Jones of the Mutual Aid Union Beneficial Association, with offices at 402 West Third street.

Early Feast of Stolen Helms.

A number of boys were discovered by a freight car on the side-track near the North Avenue station at 6 last evening. They had broken open the car and begun to feed on the load of watermelons consigned to O. B. Clifton. Six of them were arrested by Chief Grant. They were all small lads, and claim that they had larger assistants. The hearing will be in the City Court tomorrow morning.

In the City Court.

Martha Armstrong, charged with assault and the use of abusive language, did not appear in the City Court this morning, so the complainant returned home without having obtained satisfaction.

Three young men arrested by Police-man Vandenberg for disorderly conduct and with insulting him Sunday morning were dismissed with a reprimand.

Investigating the Incendiarism. Chiefs Grant and Doane went to Evans to examine the barn of Lewis VanNest of Duer street which someone attempted to set fire to while VanNest's son was in the fire cleaning it out. It was apparent that the fire was not caused by accident, but no clue to the criminal was in sight.

Return of the Cadets.

The Third Regiment Cadet Corps, in charge of Captain George F. Edwards, returned Saturday from Roosevelt, Staten Island, where they spent last week camping. All report having had an enjoyable time.

Will Pay His Taxes.

John Deady of Liberty street was arrested Saturday on an order from Collector Nash for non-payment of taxes. He agreed to pay and was discharged today.

A Hopeful Case.

In Justice Nash's Court this morning a summons was issued in the landlord and tenant case of Hope against Hope, to be returned July 30.

THAT BRIDE FROM BRAZIL.

THE STORY, NOT THE "MATCH," A ROMANCE.

The False Tale of the Coming Wedding of W. Lee Simmonds of Plainfield to President Peixoto's Daughter—Complete Denial by the Simmonds.

It was a story of romance, the young Plainfielder's trip to Brazil, his meeting with the beautiful daughter of the president of the republic, the rapid realization of love, the hurried engagement, the announcement to surprised society. The Daily Courier said Saturday:

The engagement of W. Lee Simmonds, of Washington avenue, to the daughter of President Peixoto, of the Republic of Brazil, is announced.

The news must be sent to New York, of course, so The Courier man who is the correspondent of The Herald decorated the somewhat dry statement with a few additional "facts." Yesterday The Herald announced "details" of the "engagement" in the following manner:

PLAINFIELD, N. J., July 23.—The latest international engagement has just been announced. Mr. W. Lee Simmonds, a popular member of the best set here, has just made public the news of his betrothal.

His affianced bride is the daughter of President Peixoto, ex-chief executive of the Brazilian republic.

There is quite a romantic side to the story. Young Simmonds is the son of Mr. Hermann Simmonds, for many years a well-known coffee importer in New York, with large interests in the South American trade.

The young man is engaged in his father's business here. A short time ago he was sent upon a business trip to Brazil. While there he met the daughter of the ex-president.

Occupied though he was with the details of business, he nevertheless managed to improve his acquaintance which soon ripened into friendship and finally the young couple exchanged their vows and became engaged.

The Simmonds have for the past six years occupied a handsome home on Watchung avenue here and have moved in the best circles.

It is not known where the pair will live after the marriage. Mr. Hermann Simmonds went to New Orleans early in January and opened business there. His family will follow him in the fall, and after that young Mr. Simmonds will take charge of the New York branch of the firm.

The future bride is said to be very beautiful.

The World, supplied from the same office, told in fewer words of how "society people in Plainfield were startled yesterday by the announcement that Herman Simmonds of that city was engaged to marry a daughter of President Peixoto of Brazil."

Mr. Simmonds is described by The World as a young man who is in the export trade to Brazil, and one who knows high in social and business circles. The paper evidently mistrusted the truthfulness of its source of information, as it printed the paragraph under the heading "May Wed the President's Daughter."

The family were very indignant today over the publication of the story. They emphatically denied every statement of alleged news in the articles. W. Lee Simmonds, much less his father, as The World had it, has not "made public the news of his betrothal." He never made the trip to Brazil alluded to. He never met "a daughter of President Peixoto of Brazil." The family are not to go to New Orleans. The family, in short, state positively that the story was manufactured from whole cloth.

The only incident of interest to the public in which the Simmonds have been concerned recently was the return of Herman Simmonds from a business trip to New Orleans, noted in The Press of Saturday.

TO AID THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL.

Talent of the Craig Place Church will Entertain in August.

An entertainment for the benefit of the German Reformed Church Sunday-school will be given in Saengerbund Hall, Thursday evening, August 23. The programme will consist of a vocal duet by Mrs. George Hauser and Miss Attehnah; baritone solo by Charles Dreeselt; acrobatic feats by Charles Meyers and Mr. Schroeder, and a play entitled "The Lieutenant," under the direction of M. Scholten, with the following cast: Rudolph Schroeder, Lieutenant; A. Wolff, Baronet; J. Schleich, Jew; J. Ratzel, Servant.

There will also be several additional solos and recitations, and the entertainment will conclude with some beautiful tableaux, in which several young women of the church will take part. Ice-cream, cake, and lemonade will be served.

Pleased With Plainfield. M. F. Connett, from the far West, left Plainfield today, after a very pleasant visit with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Connett, of Watchung avenue. Mr. Connett has travelled extensively and been in almost every State in the Union. This is his first visit to New Jersey and he is in love with his praises for Plainfield and the people he has met while here.

THE SECRET ORDER.

John Hand Camp, No. 28, Sons of Veterans, will meet tonight for the installation of the camp council. Past Commander Asa Collier of Post 109 will be the installing officer. Other important business to be considered demands the attention of all the members.

Constipation

is the most common form of Dyspepsia.

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills

(white wrapper), one after each meal, cure the most obstinate cases. They contain no mercury, do not purge nor grip, and impart a natural healthy tone to the stomach and bowels.

DR. J. A. DEANE CO., Kingston, N. Y.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Chief Marshal Pangborn has gone on his ten-day vacation.

School Trustee-elect George F. Brown of Grove street is kept at home by illness.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of East Second street, this morning.

Councilman and Mrs. V. L. Frazee of West Front street spent Sunday in Rahway.

Henry Drake of Brooklyn is spending a few days with Proprietor Windham of Hotel Arlington.

Miss Minnie Smith of West Front street returned Saturday from a visit with friends in Bayonne.

Miss Lottie Smith of 150 Market street, Newark, is enjoying a few days vacation with friends in town.

Robert Wyckoff of the Wheelman's Headquarters is spending a few days in Asbury Park this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shepard of The Gables went Saturday to Long Branch to spend a few days by the sea.

Asa Collier returned from the National Retail Jewelers Association Convention in Cincinnati Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Hardy of Brooklyn were in the borough Sunday, visiting relatives on Duer street.

Frank Dodge, William Morrison, William Kitchen, and Harry Coddington, will spend the last week in August in Asbury Park.

William Todd of Martinsville is lying quite ill at his home on Main street. He is the father of Mrs. John VanNest of the village.

Winwell Drayton of East Ninth street started today in the insurance business in New York city, having accepted a new position.

Miss Mollie Bohl ended her visit with relatives on West Front street and returned to her home in Hoboken Saturday afternoon.

Miss Carrie Randolph of Central avenue one of Plainfield's most efficient teachers, left this morning for Watch Hill, R. I., to spend a vacation.

Leslie Tingley of Orchard place began this morning to learn the drug business, starting as an apprentice at A. D. Mallinson's North Avenue pharmacy.

The friends of J. Hervey Doane regret to hear that he suffered another severe chill this morning. It is thought that this will be the last of his illness, however.

A portrait of Colonel J. A. Hinchman of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Co., illustrated an account of social life at Hotel Netherwood in the New York Herald yesterday.

The family of D. M. VanVleet of Grove street left Saturday for Spencertown, where they will be joined later by D. N. Groendyke and family, after their drive to Williamstown, Mass.

Wednesday next John Spencer will be united in marriage to Miss Emma Bannister at her parents' residence in Washington Valley. Mr. Spencer is a builder and resides at Mt. Horeb.

Miss Addie Weaver and her friend and visitor, Mrs. J. H. Passmore, rode their wheels to Boynton Beach Saturday. Miss Weaver will return with Mrs. Passmore to Norristown, Pa., for a short visit.

Among the members of the new Thousend Island Club which is achieving success this season as a social organization with residents of the St. Lawrence River homes is James W. Jackson of Crescent avenue, whose summer resort is Keewauwin, Alexandria Bay.

Helen, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore of New York, who are visiting Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Towpny of New Street, is much improved from the attack of illness of last Friday, when her life was despaired of by the physician.

Frederick Jacobus, of Newark, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George L. VanEmburch of East Second street. Mr. Jacobus is a polished Greek and Hebrew scholar and has just accepted a position as instructor in these branches in the Lenox Academy, New York city.

CHURCH CHIMES.

What delightful, cool weather to complete our arrangements for going on the First Baptist excursion!

Rev. Dr. Raymond, formerly pastor of the Trinity Reformed Church, will preach in the West End Avenue Congregational Church, corner of 77th street, New York city, July 29 and Aug. 5.

The camp-meeting of the Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church began in Vall's grove yesterday, the attendance being small on account of the inclemency of the weather. The colored people are not discouraged, however, by their unfortunate beginning.

BASE-BALL.

Snedes, who used to play ball with the Crescent League, is to join Berry on the Morristown Asylum team.

Promoted by a Woman.

Miss Lucy Smith, who in 1893 was superintendent of public schools in Raccoon county, Tenn., is credited with first suggesting the idea of the American Temperance university at Hampton, in her report to the county court for January, 1893, she stated that this part of Tennessee ought to have a first class institution for the higher education of young people, and that Harrison was the place for it. This led to talk, consideration and effort, and the result that Harrison has a university which ranks well with other colleges in the state, and with a prospect that is full of hope. It recently had its first commencement and graduated a class of 10, equally divided in number as to sex.

A Moral.

There was a man in a faraway town Who thought his mind was sound when he He swore by all the fabled gods He'd never advertise.

His goods were advertised at last, And thereby gave a tale That he was not in good luck, And headed "Sheriff's Sale."

Go by the book on Beecham's Pills.

TUBERCULOSIS DISCOVERED.

THE DISEASE ATTACKS A PLAINFIELDER'S COW.

The Animal Was Killed and Precautions Were Taken to Prevent Further Contagion—No Danger to Milk-Consumers.

A post mortem examination held Saturday afternoon by Dr. Pocock confirmed the suspicion of a certain Plainfielder that one of his cows had tuberculosis.

The man, who owns a number of cows, called the attention of the veterinarian last Friday to the cow which was finally killed, and said he feared the cow was suffering from the disease. He examined the animal, a fine, thoroughbred Jersey, according to the Koch system and decided that the disease actually existed in her.

The owner was anxious to have the matter settled for certain, and the cow was accordingly killed Saturday.

The examination was made in a field near Netherwood. Present with Dr. Pocock were Board of Health President George W. Hookfield, Inspector M. M. Dunham, Dr. George W. Radclott, Dr. J. T. Fritts, and a number of interested citizens.

The lungs of the animal were found to be badly affected by the disease, the tubercles ranging in size from that of a pin head to nearly that of one's fist. It was one of the worst cases the doctor had ever seen.

The owner thinks that, perhaps another of his cows is affected. The milk from the cows in question has not been given to customers for a considerable time past, and it is not thought by those of experience that there is any danger of the disease having been communicated to any other animals or to any milk-consumers.

MUSLIN GOWNS.

They Are All Made Full and Are Lavishly Trimmed.

Striped muslins, gingham and nainsooks have appeared in wonderful profusion this season. Pink, blue lavender and black stripes of varying widths on a white ground are seen everywhere, and a peculiar shade of sea green has also lately been brought out which, in combination with white, looks refreshingly cool. Thin gowns are all made very full and are lavishly trimmed, even if it be only with the same goods. Ribbons and lace are much employed, however, and as an expensive variety of lace is not required a very pretty gown may be produced at slight cost, at least for the materials. Of course the dressmaker's bill is large whether she does her work well or ill, but it is a good plan for everybody to have at least a little knowledge of dressmaking, enough to allow of the venture of making thin summer gowns at home, even if more expensive goods are put into recreational hands. To pay $15 for the making up of materials that cost less than $5 seems scarcely a reasonable outlay when the purse is only moderately supplied.

The home dressmaker will find that skirt and sleeve patterns are more to be relied upon than corset patterns unless she has the latter cut specially to measure. If she has not and doubts her ability to adapt one selected from the general catalogue, she may make the skirt and have a regular dressmaker cut and fit the bodice, which she herself can advantageously trim to match the skirt. If it is intended that much dressmaking shall be done at home, the easiest way is to go to a good tailor, a good pattern, a hot stick in the dressmaker's best aid to the achievement of a workmanlike result. Seams, hems, facings and buttonholes should be conscientiously pressed as soon as they are finished—not allowed to wait until the garment is all completed. This advice has more particular reference to heavy goods, although muslins will look the better for each treatment.

A picture is given of a green muslin gown trimmed with applications of butter-colored guipure. It has a round skirt and full, round bodice gathered in at the throat and waist. The puffed elbow sleeves, which are finished with a frill, are trimmed with two diagonal bands of guipure, the corsages with two horizontal bands.

JUDIE CHOLLEY.

MUSLIN GOWN.

variety of lace is not required a very pretty gown may be produced at slight cost, at least for the materials. Of course the dressmaker's bill is large whether she does her work well or ill, but it is a good plan for everybody to have at least a little knowledge of dressmaking, enough to allow of the venture of making thin summer gowns at home, even if more expensive goods are put into recreational hands. To pay $15 for the making up of materials that cost less than $5 seems scarcely a reasonable outlay when the purse is only moderately supplied.

The home dressmaker will find that skirt and sleeve patterns are more to be relied upon than corset patterns unless she has the latter cut specially to measure. If she has not and doubts her ability to adapt one selected from the general catalogue, she may make the skirt and have a regular dressmaker cut and fit the bodice, which she herself can advantageously trim to match the skirt. If it is intended that much dressmaking shall be done at home, the easiest way is to go to a good tailor, a good pattern, a hot stick in the dressmaker's best aid to the achievement of a workmanlike result. Seams, hems, facings and buttonholes should be conscientiously pressed as soon as they are finished—not allowed to wait until the garment is all completed. This advice has more particular reference to heavy goods, although muslins will look the better for each treatment.

A picture is given of a green muslin gown trimmed with applications of butter-colored guipure. It has a round skirt and full, round bodice gathered in at the throat and waist. The puffed elbow sleeves, which are finished with a frill, are trimmed with two diagonal bands of guipure, the corsages with two horizontal bands.

JUDIE CHOLLEY.

variety of lace is not required a very pretty gown may be produced at slight cost, at least for the materials. Of course the dressmaker's bill is large whether she does her work well or ill, but it is a good plan for everybody to have at least a little knowledge of dressmaking, enough to allow of the venture of making thin summer gowns at home, even if more expensive goods are put into recreational hands. To pay $15 for the making up of materials that cost less than $5 seems scarcely a reasonable outlay when the purse is only moderately supplied.

The home dressmaker will find that skirt and sleeve patterns are more to be relied upon than corset patterns unless she has the latter cut specially to measure. If she has not and doubts her ability to adapt one selected from the general catalogue, she may make the skirt and have a regular dressmaker cut and fit the bodice, which she herself can advantageously trim to match the skirt. If it is intended that much dressmaking shall be done at home, the easiest way is to go to a good tailor, a good pattern, a hot stick in the dressmaker's best aid to the achievement of a workmanlike result. Seams, hems, facings and buttonholes should be conscientiously pressed as soon as they are finished—not allowed to wait until the garment is all completed. This advice has more particular reference to heavy goods, although muslins will look the better for each treatment.

A picture is given of a green muslin gown trimmed with applications of butter-colored guipure. It has a round skirt and full, round bodice gathered in at the throat and waist. The puffed elbow sleeves, which are finished with a frill, are trimmed with two diagonal bands of guipure, the corsages with two horizontal bands.

JUDIE CHOLLEY.

variety of lace is not required a very pretty gown may be produced at slight cost, at least for the materials. Of course the dressmaker's bill is large whether she does her work well or ill, but it is a good plan for everybody to have at least a little knowledge of dressmaking, enough to allow of the venture of making thin summer gowns at home, even if more expensive goods are put into recreational hands. To pay $15 for the making up of materials that cost less than $5 seems scarcely a reasonable outlay when the purse is only moderately supplied.

The home dressmaker will find that skirt and sleeve patterns are more to be relied upon than corset patterns unless she has the latter cut specially to measure. If she has not and doubts her ability to adapt one selected from the general catalogue, she may make the skirt and have a regular dressmaker cut and fit the bodice, which she herself can advantageously trim to match the skirt. If it is intended that much dressmaking shall be done at home, the easiest way is to go to a good tailor, a good pattern, a hot stick in the dressmaker's best aid to the achievement of a workmanlike result. Seams, hems, facings and buttonholes should be conscientiously pressed as soon as they are finished—not allowed to wait until the garment is all completed. This advice has more particular reference to heavy goods, although muslins will look the better for each treatment.

A picture is given of a green muslin gown trimmed with applications of butter-colored guipure. It has a round skirt and full, round bodice gathered in at the throat and waist. The puffed elbow sleeves, which are finished with a frill, are trimmed with two diagonal bands of guipure, the corsages with two horizontal bands.

JUDIE CHOLLEY.

variety of lace is not required a very pretty gown may be produced at slight cost, at least for the materials. Of course the dressmaker's bill is large whether she does her work well or ill, but it is a good plan for everybody to have at least a little knowledge of dressmaking, enough to allow of the venture of making thin summer gowns at home, even if more expensive goods are put into recreational hands. To pay $15 for the making up of materials that cost less than $5 seems scarcely a reasonable outlay when the purse is only moderately supplied.

The home dressmaker will find that skirt and sleeve patterns are more to be relied upon than corset patterns unless she has the latter cut specially to measure. If she has not and doubts her ability to adapt one selected from the general catalogue, she may make the skirt and have a regular dressmaker cut and fit the bodice, which she herself can advantageously trim to match the skirt. If it is intended that much dressmaking shall be done at home, the easiest way is to go to a good tailor, a good pattern, a hot stick in the dressmaker's best aid to the achievement of a workmanlike result. Seams, hems, facings and buttonholes should be conscientiously pressed as soon as they are finished—not allowed to wait until the garment is all completed. This advice has more particular reference to heavy goods, although muslins will look the better for each treatment.

A picture is given of a green muslin gown trimmed with applications of butter-colored guipure. It has a round skirt and full, round bodice gathered in at the throat and waist. The puffed elbow sleeves, which are finished with a frill, are trimmed with two diagonal bands of guipure, the corsages with two horizontal bands.

JUDIE CHOLLEY.

variety of lace is not required a very pretty gown may be produced at slight cost, at least for the materials. Of course the dressmaker's bill is large whether she does her work well or ill, but it is a good plan for everybody to have at least a little knowledge of dressmaking, enough to allow of the venture of making thin summer gowns at home, even if more expensive goods are put into recreational hands. To pay $15 for the making up of materials that cost less than $5 seems scarcely a reasonable outlay when the purse is only moderately supplied.

The home dressmaker will find that skirt and sleeve patterns are more to be relied upon than corset patterns unless she has the latter cut specially to measure. If she has not and doubts her ability to adapt one selected from the general catalogue, she may make the skirt and have a regular dressmaker cut and fit the bodice, which she herself can advantageously trim to match the skirt. If it is intended that much dressmaking shall be done at home, the easiest way is to go to a good tailor, a good pattern, a hot stick in the dressmaker's best aid to the achievement of a workmanlike result. Seams, hems, facings and buttonholes should be conscientiously pressed as soon as they are finished—not allowed to wait until the garment is all completed. This advice has more particular reference to heavy goods, although muslins will look the better for each treatment.

A picture is given of a green muslin gown trimmed with applications of butter-colored guipure. It has a round skirt and full, round bodice gathered in at the throat and waist. The puffed elbow sleeves, which are finished with a frill, are trimmed with two diagonal bands of guipure, the corsages with two horizontal bands.

JUDIE CHOLLEY.

variety of lace is not required a very pretty gown may be produced at slight cost, at least for the materials. Of course the dressmaker's bill is large whether she does her work well or ill, but it is a good plan for everybody to have at least a little knowledge of dressmaking, enough to allow of the venture of making thin summer gowns at home, even if more expensive goods are put into recreational hands. To pay $15 for the making up of materials that cost less than $5 seems scarcely a reasonable outlay when the purse is only moderately supplied.

About Mineral Waters

We have them in great variety for both TABLE and MEDICAL USE, by the case, dozen or single bottle. Apollinaris, Quarts and pints; Buffalo Lithia; Londonderry Lithia; Congress, Hathorn and other Saratoga Waters; Imported Vichy, Rosbach, also Artificial Vichy, Selters and Carbonated Water, etc., of superior quality, in siphons, in cases of ten, or single, at 10c per siphon.

By special arrangement with the proprietors we are again enabled to supply the celebrated POLAND WATER, fresh from the spring, by the gallon or barrel at the company's prices.

REYNOLDS'S PHARMACY,

Park and North avenues.

TRY HENRY LIEFKES' GENUINE VIENNA BREAD,

The largest, the best and most wholesome bread made. On and after June 11, I will sell 2 lb. 2 oz. home-made loaves for 7c.

1 1/2 lb. " " " " 5c.
1 lb. 2 oz. " " " " 5c.

The weight of my New England Bread will also be increased in the same proportions. 2 1/2 lb.

YESTERDAY'S BALL GAMES.

National League.
At St. Louis—St. Louis 9, Chicago 11.
At Louisville—Louisville 9, Cincinnati 4.

Attendance.
Louisville 3,000 St. Louis 8,000

Standing of the Clubs.
CLUBS W. L. P. C. CLUBS W. L. P. C.
Baltimore 46 22 677 Pittsburgh 40 35 253
Boston 49 25 593 Cincinnati 33 38 479
New York 45 29 590 St. Louis 33 38 434
Cleveland 40 31 588 Chicago 28 44 289
Brooklyn 38 30 559 Louisville 24 50 384
Philadelphia 36 31 537 Washington 29 54 570

Eastern League.
At Troy—Buffalo 13, Troy 8.

STATE TROOPS TOO EXPENSIVE.
Fallman Must Resume Work or Employ His Own Guards.

CHICAGO, July 23.—Gen. Wheeler, in command of the Illinois militia now in this city, has it said, intimated very strongly to Vice-President Wilson that unless the Pullman company comes to a decision immediately in the matter of operating its works the state will order hands off.

