NEW EVIDENCE Of Dr. Lighthill's Success.

A Flattering Testimonial From Col.
John Dietrich, One of Plainfield's
Oldest and Best Known Residents.

16 ARLINGTON PLACE,
Plainfield, N. J., July 17, 1894.
I am profoundly grateful to Dr. Lighthill for his speedy and radical cure of a most painful malarial fever of over ten years standing.

A Card from Mr. T. R. VanZandt,
Of No. 304 and 306 Park Ave., Plainfield,
N. J.

I certify with pleasure that Dr. Lighthill has effectively cured me of a most painful case of piles. For some time past I had been subject to its attacks but the last attack was so exceedingly painful that it completely upset my whole system. The pain extended to my legs and in many other directions, and made me so nervous that I could neither sleep nor move about without serious discomfort and distress. Such was my condition when I applied to Dr. Lighthill for relief, and I am glad to say that as soon as he took hold of my case, I began to improve, and in a short time I found myself completely cured. Dr. Lighthill has also effected a radical and permanent cure in a most terrible case of piles on my cousin, Mr. J. V. Z. Griggs, of Rocky Hill, N. J., whose statement is published below. I can personally vouch that every word which it contains may be relied upon as absolutely true and correct in every particular.

A HAPPY EXPERIENCE.

The Interesting Testimony of Mr. W.
E. Dilts, the Popular Passenger Conductor of the N. J. Central.

ROSELIE, N. J., July 1, 1894.

To My Friends and the Public:

I take pleasure in calling public attention to the remarkable cure which Dr. Lighthill effected in my case. For the past ten years I had been afflicted with a severe form of piles which finally gave me the greatest pain and distress nearly all the time, and from which I could not obtain any relief, in spite of all my efforts.

Hearing of a number of cures which Dr. Lighthill effected in similar cases, I placed myself under his care, and I rejoice to say he effected a complete cure in my case and gave me new life in doing so. For I am sure that I could not have endured my misery much longer. And it will be a matter of importance to those who are suffering from this disease to learn the happy fact that Dr. Lighthill effected my cure without giving me pain or detaining me from my work.

Dr. Lighthill

can be consulted daily (except Thursdays) on all CHRONIC, OBSTINATE AND COMPLICATED diseases of the human system of whatever nature and nature, at his office and residence,

No. 144 Crescent Avenue.

Deafness, Catarrh and Diseases of the Head, Throat and Lungs successfully treated.
Piles of the most aggravated nature radically and permanently cured in a few weeks, without pain or detention from business, and all other rectal diseases are treated with equal success.
Mental and Nervous Derangements, Epilepsy, Diseases of the Skin and Blood, Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Scrofulous Affections, and all other diseases of the Heart, Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys and Bladder are successfully treated, even when other medical skill has failed.

SENATE WILL INSIST

The Tariff Bill Must Go Back to Conference.

The Sugar Schedule May Be Changed—
Coal and Iron Ore Will Not Be Changed—Mr. Smith Warns Senators Vilas That He Is Trifling With a Weighty Subject.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—If the action of yesterday's democratic caucus is obeyed to-day will witness an end of the debate on the conference report of the tariff bill and that measure will go back to the conference without instructions.

The caucus met promptly at 3 o'clock and the first speaker was Mr. C. C. Corbin, who counselled unity of action and said he hoped that the result of the meeting would be that all proposed motions looking to instructions to the conference would be withdrawn and the bill sent back with a simple insistence of the senate upon its amendments. Several other speeches were made in this strain by Senators Gray, Farwell, Lindsay, Walsh and others.

The first step in this direction necessitated the ascertainment of what Mr. Vilas intended to do in regard to his motion to strike out the differential duty placed upon refined sugar. In response to a direct question put to him Mr. Vilas said that he was in favor of striking out the differential duty because he believed by so doing much of the opposition that was manifested against the bill would be removed and the way would be paved for the adjustment of the differences between the two houses.

Mr. Vilas spoke in reply to this and again urged that the differential duty be struck out. This called Mr. Smith, of Jersey, to the floor and he made a speech in tones that even the marble rooms of the building could not keep from penetrating the outside. Mr. Smith said that he was very much pleased to see Mr. Vilas at the head of the tariff committee and that he was very much pleased to see Mr. Vilas at the head of the tariff committee.

Mr. Vilas spoke in reply to this and again urged that the differential duty be struck out. This called Mr. Smith, of Jersey, to the floor and he made a speech in tones that even the marble rooms of the building could not keep from penetrating the outside.

NATIONAL LEGISLATION

Debate in the Senate Without Excitement.

Tariff Discussion Creates Little Interest—
Senators Daniel and Hutton
Correct an Error in Mr. Gorman's
Speech—Several Bills Passed—
Proceedings in the House.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—The debate in the senate yesterday on the question of agreeing to the request of the house of representatives for further conference on the tariff bill was not of an exciting or interesting character as was the debate on the first three days; and there was not an illusion made, except a very remote one, to the president's famous letter to Mr. Wilson.

The tariff discussion created little interest in the senate yesterday. The only speeches of importance were those of Senators Daniel and Hutton, who corrected an error in Mr. Gorman's speech of Monday last which represented the tariff bill as a measure of protection.

Several bills were passed yesterday. The bill for the relief of the estate of the late John D. Rockefeller, which was introduced by Senator Sherman, was passed by a vote of 72 to 20.

ONLY RUMORS OF WAR

No Authentic News of Battles at Korea.

There May Be an Amicable Settlement of the Affair—Great Britain Says She Will Not Interfere Unless Her Rights are Infringed Upon—Russia Keeping Her Hands Off.

LONDON, July 26.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Central News says: "Numerous rumors of further fighting at Seoul are current here, but none can be confirmed. The Koreans continue to menace the Japanese of the Seoul garrison. Intelligent native opinion here is that there will be an amicable settlement in which the Europeans will have no share."

There is a strong impression at the Japanese legation here that fighting is in progress in Korea, although no official notice to that effect has been received. The officials at the Chinese legation have heard nothing of the reported sinking of a Chinese transport by a Japanese vessel. They say that their information indicates an improvement in the situation, and they are hopeful that peace will be restored, if it has been formally broken. It is understood that the British squadron in Chinese waters has been ordered to defer its cruise northward.

The Central News says: "Great Britain has informed China and Japan that in case they infringe upon her interests, she will take whatever steps are necessary, but otherwise will not interfere in the present dispute. Important cables were sent last night to Admiral Fremantle, commander of her majesty's squadron in Chinese waters."

WASHINGTON, July 26.—The Japanese minister has received no further advice in regard to the firing by Korean forces (instigated as was alleged by the Chinese representatives) on the Japanese forces now encamped in Seoul. The capital of the Korean empire is in a state of confusion, and the Japanese minister has received no further advice in regard to the firing by Korean forces.

JAMES CANNON DEAD.

THE WHOLE TOWN KNEW HIM AS "UNCLE JIMMY".

He was the oldest man in the city limits, and a local landmark—his famous cane for rheumatism, and his story of the battle.

James Cannon died in his 93rd year at his home, 402 East Third street, last evening at 8:20. He had gradually wasted away since he was stricken with apoplexy six months and a half ago.

In 1847 Mr. Cannon came to Plainfield from County Mayo, Ireland. He lived at first on East Fourth street, but 25 years ago he built the house on East Third street where he lived until he died. He was a tailor by trade, and worked steadily at it, being employed by various establishments in Plainfield. He was industrious and saving. For the past ten years he had not been able to work, except at odd jobs.

Decedent was twice married, bringing his first wife with him from Ireland. Their children, four daughters and a son, are Mrs. Owen Smith, Mrs. John Morgan, Mrs. Catherine Cannon and James Cannon, Jr. His first wife dying, Mr. Cannon married Miss Margaret Sullivan, who survives him. Their only daughter, Miss Annie Cannon, has always lived with her father and mother. The other children, those by his first wife, have left Plainfield. Other relatives are nephews and nieces living in Junction, Hackettstown and Brooklyn, and those related to his family in his Irish birthplace.

Mr. Cannon was a devout Catholic, being a member of St. Mary's Church. He was interested in all of the doings of the church people, and it is said of him that up to the time of his last illness, he never missed attending the funeral of a Plainfield Catholic.

"Jimmy" Cannon had all of the humor and jolly spirit of his race. There were two stories which he always delighted to relate. One was of a joke at a rally when he assisted in removing the works from a clock which was put up to be changed off for the benefit of a friend. The rally proceeded without any unusual incident until a number was read and "Jimmy" Cannon was called. He was finally found and brought up to the table, and told that it was his turn to take a chance. He was not anxious to risk a rally on a clock-works and dial, and his reply, "Jimmy Cannon's here, but his 50 cents is not," brought forth a roar of laughter. The words, used in reply to the calling of his name, remained a catch-phrase in connection with him all his life.

Another incident of his life which "Jimmy" was fond of telling about was his marvelous cure after suffering for years from rheumatism. The treatment consisted in the stepping him down to a platform and making thirteen marks with a red-hot poker upon his back, searing a checker-board pattern in his flesh. It was subsequent to this, and "Jimmy" never suffered from the disease thereafter.

Always full of fun, he would often of recent years stop into The Press office on his way about town with his tailor-work, to tell his friends of his condition, and prove how well he felt in spite of his advanced age by carrying an Irish jug just as he had done in his youth, and when he had not yet brought his influence to bear upon his agility. Known by all the town, and a friend of every one, was "Jimmy" Cannon, for he had come to Plainfield when it was a hamlet at the crossing of two cowpaths, as he described it when he got into the mood and used to recall the appearance of the place when he came from Ireland 57 years ago.

The funeral will be held at the house Saturday morning at 9:30. Mass will be said in St. Mary's Church for the repose of the soul. The interment will be made in St. Mary's Cemetery.

A PLAINFIELDER'S FRENCH.

It is set up as a model for New York newspapers.

(The Standard in French Topics.)

I recommend to the police of The Herald the mastery knowledge of French possessed by the contributors of The Century magazine. There is George Wharton Edwards, for example, who has occasion to write the following phrase in a sketch contained in The Century for July:

"I leaned out of the window as the train started, to make him a chase, if ironical, salute. 'Tenez, tenez!' ('Hold, sir!') said a guard, rapidly running along the footboard. 'You must not put your head out of the window. C'est dangereux!'"

Now, you see, The Herald would not have known what 'Tenez, tenez!' meant, and it did it would not have told the readers in parentheses. And I ask The Herald staff to carefully note the fairly brilliant translation of this French phrase by Mr. Edwards. "Hold, sir," said a guard, rapidly running along the footboard. 'You must not put your head out of the window. C'est dangereux!'"

BELVIDERE MAY LOSE HER GREATNESS.

Proper Place for Important Institutions, Along the Jersey Central.

A Phillipsburg dispatch says: "There is a strong feeling here in favor of moving the county seat from Belvidere to this place, and the probabilities are that the matter will be agitated the coming Fall and enter very largely into the Assembly election. Hackettstown and Washington both favor Phillipsburg. The people here will agree to contribute $100,000 in money and land for the county buildings."

Two stages started from the home of Mrs. William A. Freeman of East Fifth street, this morning, conveying the members of the Grace Church choir with the organist to Boynton Church for a day's outing.

NEWS OF NEAR NEIGHBORS.

Dunellen and New Market.

The changing of the class of the borough is being considered.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shells are now housekeeping on High street.

Mrs. Robert Marshall of Newark is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. D. Taylor.

Dr. Brakely went yesterday to Phillipsburg, to visit relatives there, returning this evening.

Frank Covey now drives a new horse and carriage which together compose a fine looking rig.

David Blackford, leader of the New Market Band, is erecting a new building in New Market to be used as a steam saw mill.

Dr. M. J. Whitford of the borough will probably be chosen clerk of the new board of school commissioners at their organization meeting.

Editor Elston Lowrie of the Call is enjoying a vacation of two weeks from his duties in the office of the Central Railroad Company. A part of his time he is employing in the painting of his front fence.

Two other Dunellenites will be invited in Holton Council, J. O. U. A. M., at their meeting next week, following the example of Charles Tilton and Mr. Shervley, who joined the council Tuesday evening.

Rev. Frank Fletcher conducted funeral services over the remains of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Heizer at the house Tuesday evening at 8. Yesterday morning the interment was made in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn.

If the white horse that wanders I away from its keeper, George Smith of Placerville, Monday night, and was found near Dunellen by Howard Woolson of North Plainfield, had waited until the next night before going astray, the person who waited until the 3:30 train in the morning would not have been delayed so long.

A horse owned by F. F. Hazard of Johnson avenue, Plainfield, ran away with a rag wagon yesterday morning at 11, starting from in front of the Park Hotel, Dunellen, and taking the road to the right to New Market. The animal turned into a cross street, and returned to the place whence it started by way of the other road. When the wheels struck the sand near the track on the return trip the horse became tired of running, and walked slowly back to the driver.

County Superintendent of Schools William of New Brunswick called the school meeting of Tuesday for an election in the afternoon. Both parties, the boroughites and the "down country" people, claim that they would have had more voters present had it been called for the evening. The Dunellenites refer to the number of citizens resident in the borough who are at work in the city or on the railroad during the day, and therefore could not possibly have attended. The farmers talk about how difficult it was for them to leave their crops.

WEST END NOTES.

Miss Essie Smith of West Front street is visiting in Hackettstown.

Alex. Muir has returned home after spending a few weeks in Ocean Grove.

Miss Law and Miss Howard of Newark are visiting Mrs. Dwyne of West Third Street.

No. 2 car will be out in a week with its new coat of yellow paint. No. 3 will be painted next.

Miss Alice King of New Brunswick is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kitchen of Lafayette place.

Harry Sharley of the Potter Press Works is at work again after six-weeks illness of pneumonia.

P. O. Smith is preparing to erect a new paint shop in place of the one destroyed by fire the night of July 4.

Large numbers go to the camp meeting every evening. Sister Wilson of Flemington will preach tonight.

Harry Fosse of Poughkeepsie is visiting his parents on South Second street. His old companions are glad to see him back again.

LIKE OLD TIMES.

Plainfielders May Take the Ferry from Elizabethtown Again.

Arrangements are under way for establishing a new passenger and freight ferry between New York city and Perth Amboy; the boat to make stops at Elizabethport, Staten Island and Bergen Point. Eastern capitalists are interested in the project, and the steamboat which will be placed on the route early next Spring is now under charter in the east. It is a large steamboat, new, and well adapted for the business. It has accommodations for passengers and freight.

THE OLD MAN IN HARNESS AGAIN.

Somerville's Heart Stirred by a Return of Her Favorite Harkins.

John Harkins played last Saturday with the West Ends for the first time this season, and the ovation he received when he first went to the bat showed that he still has the grip on the heart of the Somerville base-ball team. John hit the ball hard every time he tried, and fielded in good shape. Townley, from Plainfield, played centre, but the Somerville Messenger says the chances are against his winning further laurels as a West End.

NEWS OF THE PNEUS.

CYCLING CHAT GARNERED FOR PLAINFIELD ENTHUSIASTS.

A store town gone bicycle crazy—flirtation on wheels—tournaments to come—determination of class B into professionalism.

The postponed meeting of the Board of Governors of the Crescent Wheelmen will be held this evening.

George Taggart will go to Denver, Col., to represent The United Press at the races to be held there August 7.

Dwight S. Miller has purchased a handsome pneumatic wheel, and now finds riding a pleasure during his spare time.

It is expected that Charles Brown of the Elizabeth Athletics will come to the Crescent track in search of fame at record breaking this afternoon at 4.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has posted notices along the Delaware and Raritan Canal forbidding the use of the towpath as a highway by pedestrians or cyclists.

Miss Edith Lane and Nathan Lane, Jr., of Sycamore avenue, rode on their wheels yesterday to Brooklyn, where they will visit relatives. They expect to return this evening.

July 25 having passed, the cycling regulations in the borough are uniform with those of the city. No arrests have been made in the borough yet under the new ordinance.

Miss Ella Francis of Scotch Plains, accompanied by her friend Mr. Haral, passed through town this morning on their wheels. They will spend the day with friends in Ecops.

A wheelman in New York city has received a letter from a prominent Class B wheelman offering to sell him a wheel, which he won, for $50, and yet Class B is said to be composed of amateur riders. Another case is known where a local Class B man offered to sell a prize won by him in less than twenty minutes after the race.

A two-days bicycle tournament will be given by the Asbury Park Athletic Association, August 10 and 11. Diamond, bicycle, etc., will be given as prizes. The programme for the two days is as follows: August 10—One mile novices, class B, two-thirds mile open, class B, one mile handicap, class B, one mile open, class A, one mile handicap, class A, one third mile open, class A, one mile open, New Jersey riders only, class A, one-third mile, open to Junior Athletic Association only; August 11—One mile novices, two-thirds mile boys' race, under sixteen years, class B, one mile handicap, class B, one mile open, class B, five miles open, class A, one mile handicap, class A, two-thirds mile open, class A, two-thirds mile handicap open to Junior Athletic Association only. Entries close with W. M. Perrett, Ocean Hotel, Asbury Park.

Asbury Park has gone bicycle crazy. Nearly every man, woman and child in the place owns one, while the Scotch Plains have hired wheels from the large bicycle repositories till these places now look like vacant warehouses. Little bicycles, big bicycles, tandems, tricycles of every description, and even velocipedes, swarm the ocean drive day and night.

The boys and men wear blue knee breeches and sailor caps, while the pretty maidens don their newly purchased "bloomers" with all the modesty and unconcern becoming a sweet miss of sixteen, and having mounted the wheels with all the skill and precision of an old equestrian, speed away, followed by the admiring gaze of many a gallant youth.

Filtrations on wheels are all the rage, and the ocean drive between Asbury Park and Long Branch is crowded every night with sportive and noisy maidens. The cyclists of Long Branch and soda water at each end of the route, and many a miss who has made the run to Long Branch comparatively alone rides back with an infatuated youth by her side.

The Good Roads bicycle tournament, which takes place at Asbury Park, August 30 and 31 and September 1, has caused a widespread interest. The Asbury Park Athletic Association will have extensive improvements made on the track immediately, so that the flyers may have an opportunity of lowering records and fighting out the championships. All the prominent cyclists of the East have written to the secretary that they will be present. Among the prominent riders who will attend are Johnson, Tyler, Scherger, Bliss, Bell, Q. Marshall, W. Wood, champion of Canada; Titus and MacDonald, Blauvelt and Brown of Elizabeth, Murphy, Boyce, Taxis, Lumbden, Gibbons, Edwards of California and other noted riders.

The list of events is as follows: Thursday, August 30—One mile novices, two-thirds mile open, class A, one mile handicap, class A, two mile handicap, class A, open to New York and New Jersey riders only, two mile handicap, class B, one mile open, class B; Friday, August 31—One mile novices, two mile handicap, class A, one-third mile, class A, open to New Jersey riders only, one mile tandem, class B, two-thirds mile open, class B, five mile open, class B; Saturday, September 1—One mile novices, one mile open, class A, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania riders only, two-thirds mile handicap, class A, one mile open, class B championship, one mile handicap, class B, one-third mile open, class B. The class B mile championship will be run in heats. The winner of each heat to receive a special prize. Entries for races will close Thursday, August 29; other events, Monday, August 27. Races will commence each day, 2:30 p. m., sharp. The "Good Roads" Tournament will be given annually, and the proceeds applied by the Executive Committee to further and extend the agitation for better roads. The promoters intend to make this tournament the best possible success, and have secured reduced rates for parties and individuals, from the Ocean Hotel, (League Headquarters), Brunswick Hotel, and other hotels. Address all communications to W. M. Perrett, American Wheelman's office, 23 Park Row, New York.

—W. B. Mattex has been appointed deputy sheriff.

SNAG FOR THE TELEPHONE SCHEME

Investor Buell Points Out Difficulties in the Way.

Charles E. Buell, who was in charge of telephone and telegraph statistics in the Tenth Census, and who has given special attention to the legal side of the question of telephone rights, informs The Press that it will be risky to enter into the scheme that is now being offered to Plainfield for a new telephone exchange.

He says that while the telephone itself can be used, as the patent thereon has expired, there are various supplemental features that are still patented and controlled by the present users, or by others.

There are certain devices that must be used to complete an exchange system, and these, Mr. Buell says, are owned by a syndicate that is preparing to enter the field, and which has just completed the organization of a company that has opened its general office at 250-253 Broadway, New York, and will control the exchange patents necessary to successful operation.

The connecting of the several exchanges, which is going to be so deftly accomplished in this new plan, would find itself deep in trouble on account of patents relating to connecting exchanges, in a so-called long-distance system.

Mr. Buell feels confident that the persons offering the new scheme do not control, or possess, the requisite devices, for the reason that the use which are patented and must be used, cannot be so used without his signature, as he is a part owner in the patents.

Low Rates to Denver, Col. The Baltimore & Ohio R. Co. will sell round trip excursion tickets to Denver, Col., from all points on the line east of the Ohio river, August 8, 9 and 10, valid for return passage on trains leaving Denver August 19, 25, and September 13.

The rate from New York will be $47.75; Philadelphia, $47.75; Baltimore, $47.40; Washington, $47.40, and correspondingly low rates from all other points.

Passengers taking the B. & O. have a choice of routes going, via Pittsburgh, Akron and Chicago; via Grafton, Ballaire and Chicago, or via Parkersburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis; double daily service of express trains, with Pullman sleeping and dining cars on all routes.

For more detailed information, address C. F. Craig, G. E. P. A., 415 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

Repairing Music Hall. Carpenter Charles Stimpson of East Sixth street began this morning to take measurements in the dressing-rooms in Music Hall, under the direction of Stage Manager Mattox and the Music Hall Association. He will first wainscot the rooms, and will then take up the work of improving other parts of the house as directed by the Association.

Want Plainfield Identification. (From The New York Mail and Express.) A petition, signed by numerous residents in the neighborhood of Evans Station, has been presented to General Superintendent Olhausen, of the New Jersey Central Railroad, asking him to change the name of Evans Station to Clinton Avenue Station.

BASE-BALL. The Carlton club will play the Arlington on the Harned Academy field Saturday afternoon at 3:30.

The Eagles of Plainfield defeated a team of Scotch Plains ball-players in a game in the Plains yesterday afternoon. The score was 17 to 14. The batters were: of the Eagles, Carney and Doyle, and of the Scotch Plains, Allen and Robinson.

WORKING WOMEN. THEIR HARD STRUGGLE. Made Easier by the Timely Intervention of One Woman.

(OFFICIAL TO OUR LATE READERS.) All women work. Some in their homes, some in church, and some in the whirl of society. Many in stores, mills, and shops, tens of thousands are on the never ceasing treadmill of their daily food.

All are subject to the same physical laws; all suffer alike from the same physical disturbance; and the nature of their duties in many cases quickly drifts them into the horrors of all kinds of female complaints.

—ovarian troubles, inflammation, ulceration, falling and displacement of the womb, leucorrhoea, or perhaps irregularity or suppression of "monthly periods"—causing severe backache, nervousness, irritability and lassitude.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the unfailing cure for all these troubles. It strengthens the proper muscles and displacement with all its horrors will never crush you.

Backache, dizziness, fainting, bearing down, disordered stomach, moodiness, dislike of friends and society—all symptoms of the one cause—will be quickly dispelled, and you will again be free. Accept the truth.

You can tell the story of your pain to a woman, and get the help that only a woman can give. Her address, Lydia E. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

of the Blue Ridge. From its elevation are compassed views of great extent and beauty, embracing the gorge through which the river winds, the Upper Delaware Valley to the north, and Cherry Valley westward. From the Pioneer Walks, through hundreds of acres of forest, charming vistas are opened, affording frequent surprises for the alert pedestrian. The quiet and lake-like repose of the Delaware is very attractive to carmen and from the boat fine views of the great pass are obtained. The drives in every direction throughout the neighborhood are diversified and interesting. The hotel is large and complete in every detail, with broad verandas, a well-lighted billiard room, bath room, electric bells and mountain spring water in bed rooms. Superior table.

Good bass fishing in season on the Delaware, and trout fishing in the adjacent tributaries. For the accommodation of business men a daily train leaves the Water Gap at 7:02 a. m., and arrives in New York at 9:30 a. m. Weather, cool. Breezes, delightful.

KATE JORDAN'S CHAT

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO THE UP
TO DATE WOMAN.Fashion, Fads and Follies—A New Trade
For Women—A Woman's Specialty.
Sketch of Mrs. Kendall—Her Housekeeping.

HERE is a new trade in the market that is as exclusively pretty and which is very popular. It is a trade called butter colored hair and comes with enormous to match. This will be especially becoming to pale brunettes.

It seems that women are not the only ones who devour sensational literature. There must be a tremendous audience of men and boys throughout the country for writers of the dardoff books where the hero, unnamed, easily vanquishes 30 outlaws and where the detective surprises one by stopping from Europe to the Rocky Mountains just in time for an important case. How he manages it is a mystery to us. Hadrian Page Halsey, better known as Old Sleuth, has made a fortune of almost a million out of stories of this sort. He has an office in one of the lower business streets of the city, where he literally grinds out these stories, so many words an hour.

The artichoke is a great crole dish. It is particularly beloved in New Orleans and occupies about the same place on the table as asparagus does with us. It is eaten when very cold with French dressing and is certainly worth the bother of cooking.

Sweet pea luncheons, dinners, etc., abound at this season. The pretty variegated flowers so deliciously fragrant have sprung glamour to them.

If you would be quite correct and very English, get a rough straw walking hat to go with your street gown. They are trimmed with moire ribbon and have quills or black cock feathers at the side.

What will be done next in "sweet charity's name"? Private theatricals are voted thrice and charades old, so that the belle of this advanced day turns her attention to amateur circuses. There was one in a small, aristocratic settlement not a thousand miles from New York only the other day. Around and around the ring went the pretty girls on horseback, striking at rings on bars, sitting sideways on a horse. "Do you like this?" asked a disapproving man of a little blond who looked tawdry lovely in a jockey cap and red satin coat. "Well, you see," she answered, "when I was a little girl, I thought the circus riders the most beautiful things in existence and registered an oath in my baby brain to wear garze skirts some day and jump through a hoop. So you can understand that this is partly a realization of a long cherished dream. Besides, although it's risky and maybe a little bold, it's for charity, so it goes!"

How much does the rich trousseau of a rich bride cost? Have you ever thought about it? I went into a shop on upper Broadway the other day where a French woman manufactures lingerie for those who trend on the velvet and lilies of life. The underwear for the freest of a banker's daughter was displayed to longed for eyes. It was all of finest linen, sheer as a butterfly's wing, with lace and ribbon so dainty they had the effect of frosting upon it. There were a dozen of everything. The cost? Seventeen hundred dollars. That's all!

No dessert is as grateful in hot weather as a cold fruit. If you make pineapple sorbet once you will be sure to make it again. Take a quart of grated pineapple, 2 heaping spoonfuls of gelatin dissolved in hot water, a quart of water, a quart of sugar, the juice of a lemon and the beaten whites of 2 eggs. Put in just before freezing.

Onida, who was very much in advance of her times when she wrote "Strathmore" a good many years ago, is very much behind the times now. She not only decries the idea of women being privileged to vote, she loathes the women who are fighting for it. She says: "So long as woman wears dead birds as millinery and dead seals as coats, so long as she invades literature without culture and art without talent, so long as she shows herself without scruples at every debasing spectacle which is considered fashionable, so long as she is unable to keep her sons out of the shambles of modern sport and her daughters out of the miasma of modern society, she has no title or capacity to demand the privilege or the place of man."

More trinkets are worn now, even with severe cloth gowns, than ever before. They are all in good taste, though, and each has a reason. There is the brooch at the high collar; the sleeve links, just visible in the cuffs; the long simple chain having a vinaigrette, or little silver purse or watch at the end of it, then the chaste belt, from which trifle in silver are strung. I know a girl who carries on her belt a silver powder box, bonbon box, mirror, case for nail scissors and file and—yes, indeed—a dainty cigarette case!

Tremendous revers are worn on coats.

There is a new trade for women, and one as dainty and fitting as it is remunerative. On Broadway, at a good distance apart, there are three windows which "bloom like the flowers of spring." As you approach them you fully believe that you are gazing at the most beautiful growth of nature in a florist's window. Lilies, Gladioli, Daffodils, ranunculus, are all there in a color harmony against the smoky, blue-gray street. But are they flowers? Only when you have gained the window do you see that you are looking at nothing more nor less than a score of paper lamp shades, each heavy with a mass of paper blossoms so artistically true to the real thing that you stand dumfounded to watch half a dozen little Japanese women smiling around a table at which they were making the pretty things. How their fingers flashed! How the flowers grew under them as if by point of magic! They were like flowers themselves in their long robes of gold and blue, the pointed sleeves dropping back displaying the very prettiest arms and wrists to be found under the sun. Farther down the street in an American shop there were as many trim, brown haired girls quite as proficient. One bunch of pansies was so perfect a customer fell in love with them, waited until they were finished and bunched them coolly pinned the bouquet in her dress.

"Oh, you'll never go out on the street with them there! That's not good taste at all," said her friend.

"Only until I meet Charlie," she replied. "I'd like to bet you a pair of gloves he'll think them real. Men are so confiding!" Then they went out to waylay Charlie.

"I suppose it is very difficult to make these?" I said to one of the girls as I examined a bunch of really lovely tiger lilies.

"Any one who has learned how to make the usual kind of artificial flower can make them," she answered, "only these are so much nicer. They don't stain your fingers at all. There's one thing extra you have to learn," she added, "how to paint just a little—enough to make stripes on a lily like that or give the proper shading to the heart of a rose."

Paper lamp shades are the fad at present. If you despise them because they are paper, you are behind the times. If you think them cheap or common, you will find out your mistake when you go to buy "a perfect beauty."

He was a lawyer, and what he did not know about this poor human world of ours you may rest assured was not in the least known. He sat at his big desk, and a woman's daintily monogrammed letter fluttered in his hand. He read it with a smile upon his face.

"Here is a woman man up of dashes," he said, raising his eyebrows. "The way woman punctuate is one of the most curious things in the world!"

"No, not in the least. Men do try to punctuate their letters according to the standard taught them by their grammar; but, however correct and painstaking a woman may be with manuscript, she lets herself go in a personal letter. I have among my correspondents a woman who uses a period all the time—this is in whatever she writes—and a real black period too. That woman knows her own mind and is as obstinate and patient as a spider in gaining her point. Then there is the woman whose specialty is the semicolon.

She is the sort who halts between two opinions and is apt to recantable. She is not one of your positive sort, although she is not flabby of will either. But oh, this woman of dashes! Impulsive, uncertain, hasty, malleable! As an example, this particular client, being consistent with her temperament and her dashes, married in haste and now is bent on moving heaven and earth to get free. I shouldn't be surprised if she fell in love with her ex-husband a year after the divorce. Pin not your faith on the reliability of the woman who uses many dashes for pauses," he said sagely.

Mrs. Kendall has been voted an excellent actress. All the world knows she is a good wife and a loving mother. Indeed she stands out as a shining figure that the people of the stage might well try to emulate. She believes in the old views. She has no use as being for the "new woman" who is all featured at present.

"My dears," she said at a young woman's tea lately. "I have never taken a single important step in my life without consulting my husband and obeying him. Why should women and obey? Is it not a happiness to fulfill the wishes of those we love? Obey, then, in a spirit of sympathy and faith. Love your husband first, and the rest will come easy."

PARK PENNYROYAL PILLS

the celebrated female regulator, are perfectly safe and always reliable. For all re-gularities, painful menstruations, suppression, etc., they will afford relief.

Put a scientific and positive relief, and the time—this is in whatever she writes—and a real black period too. That woman knows her own mind and is as obstinate and patient as a spider in gaining her point. Then there is the woman whose specialty is the semicolon.

She is the sort who halts between two opinions and is apt to recantable. She is not one of your positive sort, although she is not flabby of will either. But oh, this woman of dashes! Impulsive, uncertain, hasty, malleable! As an example, this particular client, being consistent with her temperament and her dashes, married in haste and now is bent on moving heaven and earth to get free. I shouldn't be surprised if she fell in love with her ex-husband a year after the divorce. Pin not your faith on the reliability of the woman who uses many dashes for pauses," he said sagely.

Mrs. Kendall has been voted an excellent actress. All the world knows she is a good wife and a loving mother. Indeed she stands out as a shining figure that the people of the stage might well try to emulate. She believes in the old views. She has no use as being for the "new woman" who is all featured at present.
