EVIDENCE

Dr. Lighthill's Success.

A Flattering Testimonial From Col. John Dietrich, One of Plainfield's Oldest and Best Known Residents.

16 ARLINGTON PLACE, Plainfield, N. J., July 17, 1894.
I am profoundly grateful to Dr. Lighthill for his speedy and radical cure of a most painful malady of over ten years standing.

I deem it proper to say to all afflicted to place themselves under the care of this skillful physician and be permanently cured.

I will cheerfully impart any information I possess when called upon.

JOHN DIETRICH.

A HAPPY EXPERIENCE.

The Interesting Testimony of Mr. W. E. Dilts, the Popular Passenger Conductor of the N. J. Central.

ROSELAND, N. J., July 17, 1894.
My Friends and the Public:

I take pleasure in calling public attention to the remarkable cure which Dr. Lighthill effected in my case. For the past ten years I had been afflicted with a severe form of piles which finally gave me the greatest pain and distress nearly all the time, and from which I could not obtain any relief, in spite of all my efforts.

Hearing of a number of cures which Dr. Lighthill effected in similar cases, I placed myself under his care, and I rejoice to say he effected a complete cure in my case and gave me my life in doing so, for I am sure that I could not have endured my misery much longer. And it was a matter of importance to those who are suffering from this disease to learn the happy fact that Dr. Lighthill effected my cure without giving me pain or detaining me from work.

W. E. DILTS.

A Card from Mr. J. R. Van Zandt, Of No. 304 and 306 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

I certify with pleasure that Dr. Lighthill has effected a complete cure of a most painful case of piles. For some time past I had been subject to its attacks but the last attack was so exceedingly painful that it completely upset my whole system. The pain extended to my legs and in many other directions, and made me so nervous that I could not sleep, sit, or move without severe discomfort and pain. I was very much distressed when Dr. Lighthill effected a radical and permanent cure in my case, and I am sure to say that as soon as he cured me, I began to live in a short time I found myself completely cured. Dr. Lighthill effected a radical and permanent cure in my case, and I am sure to say that as soon as he cured me, I began to live in a short time I found myself completely cured.

T. R. VAN ZANDT, 304 and 306 Park Avenue.

Piles of the most aggravated nature radically and permanently cured in a few weeks, without pain or detention from business, and all other rectal diseases are treated with equal success.

Mental and Nervous Derangements, Epilepsy, Diseases of the Skin and Blood, Rheumatic, Neuralgic and Scrofulous Affections.

Diseases of the Heart, Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys and Bladder are successfully treated, even when other medical skill has failed.

A FAMILY OF ROBBERS

Mother Arrested; Father and Son Escaped.

The Woman Captured After a Long Chase and a Hard Fight With the Officers, in Which One Constable Was Badly Clubbed—The Arrests Made Near Trenton, N. J.

Trenton, N. J., Aug. 21.—The arrest of a woman and the escape of her husband and son after a fight with the officers of the law, in which Constable Phillips, of Bennington, was badly clubbed, has thrown into a state of great excitement the little village of Bennington, ten miles from this city.

The robbery last winter of the summer home of ex-City Attorney S. S. Spencer, of Jersey City, at Middleburg, near Morristown, was traced to the woman and the two men who, with a little girl, have been living at Glenwood for the past two months as city people in the country for the summer under the name of Clark.

The woman was captured only after a three-mile chase. She had over $1,000 in her possession, and was sent to the Bennington jail, while the little girl has been taken charge of by the authorities.

The men are still at large, but efforts are being made to capture them. At Clark's home over thirty articles of wearing apparel, silverware and household goods were identified as having been stolen from the Wirt residence.

A Brussels carpet belonging to a professor at Princeton, where the Clarks also lived for a while.

The robbers are believed to have operated extensively, and more thefts are expected to be traced to them. Their real name is said to be Johnson.

Fatally Injured in a Runaway.

New York, Aug. 21.—A horse attached to a carriage containing Miss Emma Schaffner and Mrs. Beatrice Graham, was frightened in Central Park last evening and ran away.

While making a sharp turn on the East drive the carriage was dashed against a tree, throwing the occupants violently to the ground and both sustained serious injuries. They were removed to the Presbyterian hospital, where Miss Schaffner died shortly after her admission. The physicians say that Mrs. Graham will recover unless complications arise from the injuries she received internally.

Seven Hundred Rum-Sellers Indicted.

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 21.—The Shelby county grand jury found 200 more indictments against liquor dealers in and near Memphis yesterday, making a total of 700 up to date. Indictments have also been found against a score of real estate dealers, and more are expected to follow, ruling the total up to 1,000, all for fault to pay privilege taxes. The disclosures of this grand jury show that $1,600,000 have been lost by the state, county and city in the last eight years.

Business Picking Up on the Reading.

Reading, Pa., Aug. 21.—The Reading company has issued orders to work four days a week in this city. Recently there has sprung up a great demand for box and gondola cars and in order to supply the trade it has been found necessary to work overtime.

Bank Clerk Locked Up.

Altoona, Pa., Aug. 21.—Mayberry Miller, a former clerk in the Second National bank of this city, was placed under arrest last night, charged with falsifying the books of the bank with intent to deceive the examiner and assist Cashier Gardner in defrauding the depositors. He failed to get bail and was placed in the city lock-up.

Chief Sanchez Dead.

Denver, Col., Aug. 21.—General McCook has received telegraphic information of the death of Chief Sanchez, of the White Mountain Apache tribe. He was killed in a drunken quarrel at Cedar Creek, Ariz., Saturday. Sanchez was a tall, handsome Indian, and was 42 years of age at the time of the most forgotten Cibola battle, in 1881.

Gardner Stricken With Remorse.

Altoona, Pa., Aug. 21.—The district attorney has received information from a source, he refuses to disclose, that Gardner, the absconding cashier of the Second National bank, was stricken with remorse and would give himself up to justice. Gardner is expected to return to-day.

Peterson and Marshall Matched.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 21.—Peterson and Marshall were last night, right to fight for $1,000 a side at catch-weights. If Marshall defeats Peterson Dixon is to fight Marshall at 120 pounds for $2,000 a side, the toughest purse offered and the featherweight championship of the world.

Death of a Well-Known Doctor.

Charlottesville, Va., Aug. 21.—William C. Dabney, professor of obstetrics and medicine at the university of Virginia, is dead. He was 45 years of age, and was well known in medical circles.

Leeds-Ziegler Fight a Draw.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 21.—The four-round fight between the lightweights, Horace N. Leeds, of Philadelphia, last night, resulted in a draw, neither man having any decisive advantage. Leeds, however, was the strongest at the finish.

Congressman Mercer Resigns.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 21.—The republican congressional convention for the second district nominated David Mercer to succeed himself.

HOW TO KEEP COOL.

If You Carefully Act Upon the Advice Given Below You Will Be Pleasant With the Results.

"Keep cool!" Excellent advice in summer time, but not very easy to follow. Apparently, it would be just as reasonable to say "keep strong, healthy and vigorous amid the sweltering heat of this trying season." And yet this is not only possible but it is something that every person can do if the right means are adopted.

Keep cool! When you feel tired out on a hot day, have no appetite and feel scarcely able to work, don't rush off for a drink to "brave up" on or swallow other injurious stimulants. Follow common sense principles.

You are languid and lack energy because your system is in a low condition. You are not because your body does not throw off the extra warmth that is generated. You are weak because you do not get sufficient nourishment. There is only one way to overcome these unhealthy conditions and that is by supplying what the system lacks, by restoring healthy action.

The best way to do this is to take the newly discovered pre-digested food at least once daily. This food known as Paakola is not a drug or a concoction but a pure starchy food, in liquid form, delicious to the taste and exceedingly refreshing. Being pre-digested it is absorbed by the system the instant it is swallowed. Paakola gives tone to the system, it prevents dyspepsia, it perfects the digestion. It imparts strength and vigor to those who are weak and debilitated. As a health giver it is unsurpassed.

Keep cool! Loss of health means loss of a great many other things also. It pays to be well. If you would feel cool, strong, well, vigorous and ambitious in spite of summer heat, try Paakola. You will like it; everybody does who has ever taken it. You are sure to recommend it after taking it as others have done. Paakola is popular because it has merit.

A pamphlet giving full particulars about Paakola will be sent on application to the Pre-Digested Food Co., 30 Beads street, New York.

Fired at a Burglar.

Babylon, L. I., Aug. 21.—The residence of Joseph T. Thompson, on South road, was entered by burglars at midnight. Mr. Thompson, who is a member of the New York Stock exchange, heard noise in the dining-room, and hurrying down stairs fired two shots at a man running across his lawn.

The would-be burglar escaped. None of the valuables are missing.

Business Society Convention.

Baltimore, Aug. 21.—The annual convention of the Business National society of North America was called to order at Harigar hall yesterday and will continue its sessions until to-morrow night. The society is for benefit and purposes to work overtime.

Dr. James Kitchen Dead.

Philadelphia, Aug. 21.—Dr. James Kitchen, who for many years was a prominent physician in this city, died last night, aged 84 years. He was graduated from the university of Pennsylvania in 1822. After practicing allopathy for fifteen years he changed to homeopathy.

Takes Command of the New York.

New York, Aug. 21.—Captain Robley D. Evans, who was recently assigned to take command of the United States steamer New York, formally took charge of that vessel yesterday, relieving Captain Phillips. The New York is now lying at the navy yard in Brooklyn.

THE STRIKE PROBLEM

As President Eugene Debs Would Solve It.

Testimony Before the National Labor Commission—Has Always Opposed Strikes, But Believes at Times the Condition of Employees Demands Some Such Action.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—President Eugene V. Debs, of the American Railway Union, occupied the stand for nearly four hours yesterday before the national strike commission. He advocated a co-operative commonwealth, the abolition of the wage system and the government ownership of railroads. He told his side of the strike as a connected narrative which was frequently interrupted by applause from the laboring element.

T. H. Morrissey, first vice grand master of the order of Railway trainmen, and grand chief clerk of the order of Railway conductors also testified.

President Debs said if there had been a revolution it would have been directly chargeable to the press of the country, which has been writing all over the country, he asserted, based on matter sent out by the Western Associated press, the editorials in every case attacking the R. U. on information which was absolutely false.

"Do you charge the general managers with being responsible for the strike?" asked Commissioner Wright.

"Well, I could hardly go as far as that. I believe, however, they had much to do with keeping it up."

"How would you gain the demands of the laborers on a quasi public corporation?" asked Judge Worthington.

"There are two ways. One is the way adopted by the old brotherhoods. That is, getting a schedule of wages gradually from the companies. There has been little good in this mode of procedure. The other way is to strike, but I don't believe the railroad employees of this country could win a strike to-day if they were all organized in one brotherhood, because the courts are against labor. I can show in twenty years of writing that I have always been opposed to strikes, but I think there are times when they are justifiable. How now must the public be disappointed."

Mr. Debs said he did not think the general managers were always to blame in reducing wages, because their orders came from a higher source. He believed the A. R. U. could never be crushed, and that the spirit of organization among the railroad men was strong. He predicted that more serious troubles would occur than ever before.

"Now," continued Mr. Debs, "you have asked me how I would exert railroad strikes. I believe the government ownership of railroads would be far better than the railroad ownership of the country. The government would have the right to regulate the rates, and I do not think the government supervision of railroads would answer the purpose. In such a case as this, the government should take the compulsory arbitration would be of benefit. A state court might be of some good for ordinary labor troubles. I would in such a case believe in the differences by jury. I am in favor of some system, however, that will result in mutual good feeling and neither strikes nor compulsory arbitration or result in anything but ill feeling. I am in favor of licensing railroad employees."

President Debs was cross-examined by Commissioner Kernan, who sought to bring out the point that a state board of arbitration would be of benefit in adjusting labor troubles. Mr. Debs admitted that he was in favor of a co-operative commonwealth, but he believed in anything but ill feeling. I am in favor of licensing railroad employees."

YALE'S FOOTBALL ELEVEN.

Candidates To Begin Regular Training on September 8.

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 21.—Final orders have been given the candidates for the Yale football eleven by Captain Hinkey. They will meet at Travers Island on September 8 and will at once settle down to regular training. The coaches have not been decided on, but Captain Hinkey will direct the work for a fortnight. Much attention will be given to the changes in the new style of play necessitated by the new rules. The backs will report first and the forwards a week later.

Walter Camp, the Yale coach, of this city, said to-day, in speaking of the coming season: "Yale's policy this year will be to work the candidates much less than heretofore. The directors of the team realize that the course of work has been too exacting, and will lighten the training materially this fall."

Mr. Camp also said that the newly adopted rules would eliminate many of the rough features of the game previously prominent.

LEWIS CASE.

A New Warrant To Be Issued So the Bennington May Come In.

San Francisco, Aug. 21.—The tug Sea King, with Lieut. Stoner, of the United States navy, on board, started at noon for the Bennington. Whether any papers went out was not known.

General opinion was that there was not, and the tug took out a large quantity of provisions, which seemed to indicate that the Bennington was to remain in the vicinity of the island.

It is not known yet whether the papers from Washington will be sufficient to land Eszta or whether a new warrant for him will be sworn out here. Assistant District Attorney Knight said to-day that a warrant would be issued here so that as soon as that was done, the Bennington would come in. It would be necessary only for the vessel to come within the jurisdiction of the federal courts, then Eszta would be taken from her. Habes corpus fight will probably be made before Commissioner Rescorder.

GORMAN GIRLS TO WED.

The Engagement of Two Daughters of the Senator Announced.

Baltimore, Aug. 21.—The engagement of Richard Johnson, of Washington, to Miss Gorman, daughter of Senator Gorman, was announced to-day. Miss Gorman is the second daughter of Senator Gorman, and Mr. Johnson is the son of Kurtz Johnson, the well-known banker of Washington. The Johnsons are an old Dorchester county family and have been prominent on the eastern shore for many years. Miss Daisy is considered the handsomest of Senator Gorman's daughters, and is very popular in Washington and in the local society of Howard county.

Another engagement in Senator Gorman's family just made public is that of his daughter, Miss Madie, to her cousin, Stephen Gambrell, Jr. Mr. Gambrell is the son of Stephen Gambrell, of Laurel, his daughter, her husband and two children were shocked, and an infant child in the bedroom overhead was buried beneath the falling plaster, but escaped unharmed.

RENEWING ITS WORK.

To Those in Need, This Society is a Friend Indeed.

The District Committee of the Charity Organization Association met in the Crescent Avenue Church last night, to prepare for Fall work.

It was reported that 18 applications for work had come in to the Superintendent, Mrs. Woodruff, since Aug. 9, and 4 cases of need had been presented since Aug. 13.

In each case of need provisions were given, 338 cases have been relieved since organization to date.

The applications for work ought to interest those looking for help, and the need of relief ought to appeal to those able to give funds to the treasury, which is low.

Those wanting work or help should apply to the Charity Organization rooms, corner North and Park avenues, or to the Relief Association rooms, Madison avenue and Second street.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—O. A. Baynon of LaGrande avenue is enlarging his front piazza. Carpenter Stimpson is doing the work.

—Work was begun this morning by Wm. Hand excavating for the extension which L. H. Boehm is about to make on his building.

—Ocean Grove Asbury Park, ocean and beach; if you never have been, go. If you have been, go again. Warren Chapel excursion next Thursday.

—A load of hay upset in front of Thorpe & Ivins' coal yard in Watchung avenue yesterday noon, and all the children in the neighborhood made it a playground. Later in the afternoon it was loaded onto another wagon and carted away.

PRISON PREACHING.

PLAINFIELD PEOPLE PROFIT BY EVANGELIST ELGAR'S ELOQUENCE.

This Famous Interpreter of the Gospel Tells of His Experiences Among Prisoners, and Vibrates the Strings of the Human Heart into Responsive Accord.

The pulpit of the Park Avenue Baptist Church was supplied Sunday by Rev. Thomas Elgar, Prison Evangelist, of Williams Bridge. The congregations were large.

In the morning he preached on "A Ten-Stringed Instrument," taking for his text the second verse of the thirty-third Psalm, "Praise the Lord with harp; sing unto Him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings," and said in part:

"John at Patmos saw twenty-four elders praising Christ, in his vision of heaven. In the temple the musical service must have been inspiring. I believe in the consecrating of our voices to God. David was a cunning player; his ten-stringed instrument drove the evil spirit out of Saul. Mercy, salvation, joy, strength, and contentment, are five of the strings with which we should praise Him today. The first string is mercy; we live in a day of mercy, and our mercies are without number."

"Working among the prisoners, I find it so hard to obtain any mercy for them. Look at what was done to obtain mercy for Caryl, Harris. Another case that comes to mind is that of a young man about 22, named from a work-house. After several weeks he was captured, accused of attempting the life of a keeper, and given a sentence so severe that it seemed to all terrible. He was to remain two years more in the workhouse, and finish his term of imprisonment, then go to State Prison for twenty years, and finally serve one year more in the workhouse for carrying firearms. He was not allowed at service for fear of violence. I went to his cell—and such an interview! He said all the wickedness he knew he had learned at the work-house. His friends and I asked that he might be sent to State Prison immediately, where he would be better treated. He was at last sent, and had a promise of something else being done if he did well for the next five years. But only recently I received a letter from his sister saying he had died in the hospital, but, thank God! believed in Christ."

"How hard it is to obtain human mercy! But our God is not like that. He responds immediately to our call. What a wonderful Saviour!

"Salvation is the next string. A man saved from fire or from shipwreck tells every one the tale of his deliverance, and we rejoice. A prisoner pardoned is so happy; and yet we are not thrilled as we should be at the wonderful mercy of God who gives us salvation."

"Three other strings: Joy, strength, and contentment; how they vibrate! But fullest contentment comes not here but when we awake in His likeness. We long to be like Him, and see Him and the home not made with hands."

"This instrument has ten strings, of which I have given but five; the sixth is the storm string. We all enjoy storm music, and every organ and pianist has some storm piece; but there are storms in our lives—illness, and financial troubles—that are not so enjoyable. See the hard times during the past year; they come from the storm of error we have allowed to sweep over our land. We have worshipped and thought more of Columbus than of God. We bow to the almighty dollar, making a god of it. Then there are the storms of doubt and fear. In this, let us turn not to books nor men, but fly to God. Go to Getsemane or Calvary."

"In Sing Sing there was a young man who had fallen from high places. Imprisoned for years, melancholy seized him. Fond of nature, he wrote a song, which I will read:

"The roses bloom in the garden,
The bees come wooing the flowers,
The song-bird pipes to her nest-mate
Through all the golden hours.

"The breeze is freighted with fragrance
From forest, and field, and sea;
But youth has fled, and hope lies dead:
So what are they all to me?"

"The blue-bird sings in the tree-tops,
Swings and sways and warbles
With never a flutter of care.

"Memories never haunt him,
No thought of the morrow has he,
But the guarded wall like a sombre pall Overshadowed all for me."

"I sit in the glowing twilight,
And gaze on the evening sky,
On the glorious sunset banners
That athwart the hill-tops fly."

"Till the diamond eyes of heaven
Look down on the bond and the free—
But I see the stars through prison bars—
So what are they all to me!"

"Ah! the flowers have lost their perfume,
The summer breezes are chill,
The bees are naught but gutters,
And harsh the songbirds' trill."

"For the mighty voices of nature,
Of heaven, of earth, of sea,
Have naught of cheer for the prisoner's ear:
What, what, are they all to me!"

"A song from an instrument out of tune, hopeless, despairing! Oh, young men here this morning, may you never have to write such a song as that!"

"Another string—that of tears. In Springfield, Mass., I met a man who for years had wept from God. His children died, and he had no God to comfort him."

"Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by restoring the hearing power to the natural condition. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are induced by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces."

"We will give $100 for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hays' Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars."

INGERSOLL MANIA.

Suicide Result from the Colonel's Destinations.

(Special to The Press)

New York, Aug. 21.—A policeman walking in Central Park shortly after 6 this morning, found the bodies of a man and woman in the ramble opposite Eighth street. That of the woman had a bullet wound in her breast and the man's was shot through the heart.

Letters found on the bodies indicated the names of the persons, Juliet Fournier, twenty-six years old, and Julius de Marcus.

From the position of the bodies when found it was apparent that DeMarcus had shot the woman before killing himself. She lay on her face on the ground and his body had fallen across her also face downward.

The police say that premeditation in the act was plain. The man was seen about the neighborhood as early as ten yesterday, and it is supposed that the woman met him at a much later hour. The bodies were still slightly warm when found.

In one of the man's pockets was found a newspaper clipping concerning a recent letter by Robert G. Ingersoll declaring the right to commit suicide.

Pateron, Aug. 21.—Rudolph Gloor committed suicide at George Britt's Cedar Cliff Hotel Haledon sometime last night or early this morning, by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. He was 79 years of age, and unable to work.

He had lived with Britt, through the kindness of the latter for two years. He was an early riser, and when he did not appear at breakfast this morning, Britt visited his room to find him dead. Gloor spent Sunday reading the New York World's sensational articles on Ingersoll's claim that suicide was justifiable.

Plainsfield's Sewers.

No Provision for Home Labor in the Form of Contract Adopted.

The Plainsfield Common Council in special session last night rescinded its former resolution fixing August 21 as the date for opening sealed bids, for sewer construction, and set Wednesday, September 5, as the date.

A form of Sewerage contract was adopted, against which Mr. Frazer spoke because it contained no provision for giving home laborers the preference; and Messrs. Frazer, Millington and Westphal voted against that form of contract.

Those voting for it were Messrs. See, Bird, Glina, Erickson, Dumont and Stockton.

The clerk was instructed to procure 200 printed copies of the proposed specifications and contract, and to advertise the call for bids.

A PLAINFIELDER CHOSEN.

Miss Spangenberg Accepts a High Honor in C. E. Work.

Plainsfield is to be congratulated on the high honor which is hers in having one of its daughters chosen for the management of a great and noble work.

The young woman is Miss Alice Spangenberg, daughter of the ex-Councilman. She has been a most faithful District Secretary of the Christian Endeavor cause, and has shown such remarkable qualities in managing and building up the work that she has been bestowed to accept the high and important office of State Superintendent of the Missionary Department in New Jersey. After long consideration and constant urging she has accepted. Her decision will bring much joy to Christian Endeavorers throughout the State, and is another laurel wreath for Plainsfield.

Trinity Reformed Church will be closed next Sunday, it being in the midst of its annual house cleaning.

The pulpit of the Crescent Avenue Church will be filled Sunday by Rev. Dr. Raymond, President of Union College. The Doctor has truly a host of Plainsfield friends, who will be glad of this opportunity to hear again the preaching of this former Plainsfield pastor.

"I am no fanatic, I hope, as to Sunday," said Joseph Cook—"but I look abroad over the map of popular freedom in the world and it does not seem to me accidental that Sweden, Ireland, Scotland, England and the United States, the countries which best observe Sunday, constitute almost the entire map of safe popular government."

Editor Fearless says in The Westfield Standard: "When our preachers have the courage to teach a broader humanity from the pulpit, and to welcome the mechanic with the threadbare coat to as high a place in the synagogue as the 'elder' in his silks and diamonds, their congregations will increase vastly, and labor will come to see that religion means something for it beside the dried bones of dogma and the skeleton of a soulless theology."

Reception to Firemen.

The Committee on Soldiers and Sailors Work of the W. O. T. U., under the direction of Mrs. M. C. Dobbin are arranging for a reception to be given the firemen of the city Tuesday evening, August 28, in their rooms on Watchung avenue. A literary and musical programme will be rendered, followed by a collation.

The Plainsfield Ice and Cold Storage Company has bought out the local retail business of the Hygiene Ice Company, supplying 125 customers. The Hygiene Company will continue to manufacture ice and sell it at wholesale all along the road, and will supply the Cold Storage Company with the purest and best of ice for Plainsfield people.

A grand subscription concert will be given in Hotel Netherwood Thursday night.

PLAINFIELD.

THE GLORIES OF COUNTRY.

and peaceful
Good-Enough
Notes of holder, hasn't country and proved by a
into what
New Jersey's
which Plainfield's

headquarters the farm
Allen, Peapack, Somerset
and a most congenial home it is.
The office is postmaster now, and held the office during Cleveland's first administration. He is also a director of the First National Bank of Somerville, a stockholder and director of the Rockaway Valley Railroad, and a director in the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Somerset County. Besides supervising the care of his large farm, he makes yearly western trips and buys largely of Indiana sheep, bringing them to his fertile Jersey fields and turning them loose to graze and grow fat for the market. He is eminently a man of honor, and his wisdom and uprightness in all his dealings
make him a source of advice and counsel for the many who go to him. During Mr. Allen's absence from home (and he is necessarily away a part of nearly every week day) his farm is looked after by a competent and careful steward, Elias Trimmer, who keeps everything in fine trim indeed.

Peapack progresses. Several fine dwellings are in course of construction.
A stage line makes quick trips to and from Somerville under the personal operation of its sociable and accommodating owner, Charles Orator. We found the trip of 12 miles a very enjoyable one, and hope soon to make it again.

The stage is not the only local transit.
For Peapack has two railroads, the celebrated Rockaway Valley, and the D. L. and W. The country is beautiful with its diversity of hills, all under a high state of cultivation. It is a lovely, thrifty, prosperous community.

Our visit to the Peapack farm was a splendid rest amid home comfort and Nature's beauties. The hospitable treatment of Mrs. Allen and of her daughter Miss Sarah are a treasure of memory, and the good things of their bountiful table were a continual delight to appetite and good digestion.

During our visit we were treated to a ride to Mendham and Barnardville. Mr.
Allen, we regretted, had made a previous business engagement, and could not go with us, but his right-hand man Mr.
Trimmer guided the mettlesome horses over the smooth hard roads. The three-seat wagon was easy riding, the driveways were superb, and the speed was brisk. Soon we reached Mendham, Morris County, and thanks to the courtesy of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company were enabled to talk to Plainfield and ask for further leave of absence
in order to drive around the beautiful settlement of Mendham and then continue to that charming Jersey resort, Barnardville, a queen among the rare green hills. Space forbids giving a list of the elegant country seats there. If you have never been, go as soon as you can revel in your surprise and wonder at the vastness of the display of wealth and the glory of the scenery.

You can depend on cordial greetings from the people, and delight and wonder at the scenic splendor that awaits
among these nearby hills.

Sunday pleasantly with Mr. and Mrs.
William VanMiddleworth.

A large number of Dunellen people went to the picnic given by the Protective Association in Randolphville yesterday.

Henry M. Woods, who has been stopping at Elias Milliken's, returned to his home in Jersey City yesterday morning, and his brother Robert E. Woods came out for a few days visit.

Four cyclists from out of town visited Dunellen Sunday, and evidently had a nervous attack caused by tarrying too long at the bowling brook. The exhibition was painfully amusing to the spectators.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the New Market Baptist Church will give a peach and ice-cream festival on Dr. W. J.
Nelson's lawn this evening. Friendship Cornet Band will furnish the music. All who go are promised a good time.

Mrs. George Measer and daughters are greatly incensed at the false story of the New Brunswick Home News, and will tomorrow visit the office of that paper and demand a retraction. This family lives quietly, peaceably and happily, and it is a shame that their quietude is disturbed by such false reports.

COMMUTERS COLUMN.

The Central Railroad Company of New Jersey has made special reductions in the rates to Washington, on account of the convention of Knights of Pythias. The convention will be held at the National capital from August 27 to September 5 inclusive. The tickets will be sold at a special rate from August 23 to 28 inclusive, and will be good for return until September 15.

A commuter who "crosses the Jersey Central ferry twice a day says that he would be contented with his lot if Congress would pass an act driving out of the country the bootlickers who have a monopoly of the business on the ferry-boats, and against whom The Press has so repeatedly directed attention. "These boys," he said, "are all energetic Italians, with sharp, ringing voices.
From the time the boat starts until she makes fast to the slip they keep up a continual screaming. They won't allow passengers to get a word in edgewise."

For protection. They get their shined when they reach New York, and have declared an uncompromising policy against the Italians.

Attend Their Comrade's Funeral.
Hand Camp, No. 28, S. of V., attended considerable business at their last evening.

Arrangements were made to take the funeral services of their brother, Fred L. Walker, which takes place Thursday afternoon.

First Lieutenant W. G. Dobbins and Second Lieutenant Willard Sutton, who were elected last week in consequence of the resignation of First Lieutenant George J. Martin, were installed by Past
Senior Vice Commander Theodore Jones

A delegation from William Meeker
Camp, No. 19, Sons of Veterans, of New Providence, was present, and was very much pleased with the progress of Camp 28.

It is earnestly requested that every member who can will be at the rooms Thursday afternoon at 1, to attend the funeral.

An Old Shirt for a New.
A crowd of men and boys were attracted to Hop Lee's laundry on West Front street, last evening, about 7:30 by loud talk. It seemed that Fritz Coude had left a new shirt to be launched, and after getting his package home found an old shirt. This angered him, and back he went. It all ended in talk, however.

Talk about self-sacrifice! Just read what Hillier & Co. are willing to do for you.

For a real relief and cure of a cold in the head
there is more potency in Hillier's Cream Balm than in anything else it is possible to prescribe.
This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, croup, whooping cough, etc. The initial stages of these complaints Cream Balm prevents any serious development, and in cases where almost dangerous cases are on record of radical cures of chronic catarrh and any other ailment other treatments have proved of no avail.

antique tablet that was placed in the

When Will Watching avenues are opened is a question one frequently hears. As quaintances look the taxpayers about $7,000 and the street has not been opened it will be pretty safe to say that it never will be, unless the costs are saddled on the taxpayers at large. That part of the street already opened went through unimproved property which is improving every day, and if the ones who should move in the matter would only take up the question, they certainly would hear some loud talking. Call a meeting and face the subject at once.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

The officers of the Christian Endeavor society are trying to secure a $75 round-trip rate from New York to the convention which meets in San Francisco next year.

New Jersey Christian Endeavorers are hopeful that the great convention of 1895
will come to Asbury Park and Ocean Grove. Ten thousand dollars will be needed for the expenses. Senator Brady has pledged $500, and other pledges for nearly $2,000 have been secured. At the Cleveland convention over 40,000
delegates registered. Were the convention to come to the "twin cities by the sea" there would be thousands more in attendance.

The plan adopted by the New Jersey
State Union of having a State Endeavor flag has found many followers in other unions. The Philadelphia union recently selected an ensign of red and blue, and thousands of these will be seen at the next convention. The New Jersey flag of orange and black is very handsome, made of silk, mounted on a rubber staff, which can be disintegrated and carried in the pocket. Every one of the 225 delegates at Cleveland carried this State emblem.

"OUR MARY'S" DEBUT.

HER FIRST ROMEO TELLS AN IN-TERESTING STORY.

A Ridiculous Rehearsal. Followed by a Four Month's Campaign for the Sale of Tickets. Proceeds Her Debut making Debut as Juliet.

W. M. Griffiths, an actor who played Romeo to Mary Anderson's first Juliet, tells the Louisville Courier-Journal the story of her debut. Perhaps a few grains of salt should go with the story, but whether all fact, or part fact and part romance, it is thoroughly interesting.

"I can well remember," Mr. Griffiths said, "the first time Mary Anderson ever recited to show professional people what she could do. It came when I was on the stage with her. I was then a member of Barney McAuley's stock company here and was the leading actor. After the performance of one night
I was just going out the stage door when Johnny Mackay, now dead, called me back.

"Hold on," he said, "you don't want to miss the fun. We've got a stage-struck girl here and she's going to recite."

"I walked back into the theatre, and there on the stage was a girl of an undeveloped girl who couldn't have weighed one hundred pounds. There was but one thing about her to attract attention, and that was her eyes. I never saw eyes which seemed so large and lustrous. In the front row sat Barney McAuley and a lot of newspaper men. Soon she began to recite from 'Romeo and Juliet,' and when she came to the part where the love-lorn lass refers to her ancestor's bones, she got down on the stage and rolled all over the stage. She wore a dark dress of the cheapest material. The stage was never scrubbed and not swept with any great regularity. The result was that she caused quite a cloud of dust, and Barney

and the newspaper men applauded unrestrainedly, laughing, inconsiderately, and shouted 'Bravo!' with such intensity that her words could scarcely be heard.

"When she had finished the newspaper men insisted on having more, and she stood in a frightened way, with her large eyes glancing timidly from one to another, apparently willing to retire further actions. Her dress, which had been dark, had become perfectly white with stage dust, and Barney concluded the gang had enjoyed enough for one evening, and told the girl that would do. This was Mary Anderson's first appearance as an aspirant for dramatic honors.

Later she came to Barney McAuley
and said she wanted to make her debut in theatricals.

"My child," said Barney, "you can have my theatre if you will pay me $400 for it if whenever you are ready to appear."

"But where am I to get that much money?" she asked in despair.

Barney then suggested that she go around and get the money by maintaining the performance. If they didn't want to pay tickets, he would accept the pledges of business men in good standing. So out she started, trudging the streets from place to place. For four weary months
she kept going daily.

"Finally she raised the amount and went to Barney, who had never dreamed the girl would succeed. Only Barney and Mrs. McAuley were present when the delightful girl told of her success. After Barney realized the girl had actually raised the sum he had fixed, he asked what play she had chosen for her debut.

"Come and Juliet," was his answer.
"But, my dear," he remonstrated, "the costumes will cost you at least $150."

"At this the poor girl flinched. She felt she could not raise another cent. When she had retired, Mrs. McAuley said the aspiring girl should wear her costumes.

The idea of a strip of a girl in Mrs. Mc-Auley's costumes was absurd, but she was too happy to think of it. When we came to rehearse the part, she was utterly unfitted for it. My greatest difficulty was in showing her how to act
when she came to the line 'I love, my love, my soul.' At the first, Juliet seemed greatly embarrassed, and 'my love,' her arms should be thrown passionately about his neck, and when 'my soul' she reached, Juliet should fairly throw herself at Romeo. She was afraid even to put her arms coldly about his neck.

"Have you ever been in love?" I asked.
"No, sir," was the timid reply.

"Didn't you ever put your arms around a man's neck?"

"No, sir."

"Then how in the world did you happen to select 'Romeo and Juliet'?"

"I don't know, sir. That was what I recited."

"Through it was Saturday night the house was packed. My wife a failure
she was! I never saw anything so awkward since I was born. She would go across the stage in three steps. I have never ceased wondering how she managed it. This put a stop to her career for the time. Ben Dille, of St. Louis, wrote Barney McAuley, stating he had an open-date, and would like to have an attraction.
Barney responded that there was a girl
here who had packed her boxes, principally on the claim that she was the daughter of a Confederate General, though he didn't know whether her father had been in the army at all. By working up Southern sentiment, Barney thought St. Louis people might be worked, too. This was tried with capital results.

"John Norton attracted by this, and undertook to star her, with the result that he lost every copper he had. Prior to this Dr. Griffiths had persuaded his brother to put up $1,000 to take Miss Anderson and her company through small Kentucky towns. They came to me and I refused to go, saying it was pure madness. The brother backed out then. Miss Anderson has since thanked me for my action, saying that but for my good sense
she would never have become famous.

Mrs. Putnam, Forristadale, Mass., says:

"That Bearing-
Down
Feeling
and dizzy, faint,
gaping attacks left me as soon as I began to take Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am like one raised from the dead. I was sick with womb troubles
so long I thought I never could get well."

NO MORE SPEECHES

Republicans Have Heard Enough Tariff Talk.

Several Democratic Senators Ready With Campaign Speeches, But Any Attempt To Deliver Them Will Be Met With Opposition—Congress Now Only Awaiting Adjournment.

Washington, Aug. 21.—In explanation of the busy adjournment of the senate yesterday until to-morrow, Mr. Aldrich and Mr. Chandler, in discussing the matter after the senate had adjourned, said that they had learned that there were at least a dozen democratic senators who had prepared elaborate speeches, which it was the intention to have circulated by the democratic campaign committee in the congressional campaign. These speeches had been prepared without notice to the republicans so that they might reply; and, inasmuch as the democrats had been given every opportunity to speak during the long debate and had declined, the republicans were unwilling to permit the democrats to go into the matter and re-open the whole tariff question, presenting the situation as they viewed it in the light of recent events. Both Mr. Chandler and Mr. Aldrich declared that the republicans did not need these speeches, and that they would not permit them to be made. They said there was no quorum in the city, and as the senate had declared that it was impracticable to have any more extended legislation at this session, the republicans were also unwilling that there should be any speeches for the purpose of explaining how it all came about and what it all meant. The indications are that the senate will simply drift, pending the arrival of the tariff bill, with whatever action the president may see fit to make. Any attempt to take up the free raw material bill will prove futile and any effort on the part of any democratic senator to take the floor to make a speech will be the signal for the point of no return to be made. It is the present intention of the minority to prevent action looking to the correction of the mistake that may be found in the tariff bill, and if their policy should be carried out successfully the tariff bill as it stands will be put on file to remain until the next session of congress.

House of Representatives.

The house was in session but fifty minutes yesterday, and in that time transacted but little business of importance. A bill was passed providing $50,000 for additional clerical force in the bureau of internal revenue and $4,000 for the expenses of the commission to determine the amount of the claim of the Venezuela Steam Transportation company, of New York, against Venezuela. The question was asked of Chairman Beyer if the $50,000 appropriation was made necessary by the operation of the proposed income tax, and he answered that it was probable, but he did not certainly know. A bill was also passed to incorporate the society of American florists, also a joint resolution directing the secretary of war to return to the states with the flag of the Fifteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth and Fifty-eighth regiments of Massachusetts volunteers. Mr. Tamm's bill to amend the act relating to the secretary of the interior to grant rights of way and sites over and upon the public domain for gravel pits, canals and pipe lines, was presented by Mr. Lacey (rep., Ia.) and agreed to by Mr. McCreary (dem., Ky.) endeavoring to secure consideration for the substitute for Mr. Bonnell's resolution recognizing the Hawaiian republic, and reported from the committee on foreign affairs; but Mr. Payne (rep., N. Y.) objected on the ground that the minority members of the committee not present desired to discuss the matter. In response to Mr. McCreary's suggestion that there should be no further delay, Mr. Payne said the committee had waited so long before reporting the resolution that nothing would suffer by postponing action a day or two longer.

THE PRESIDENT'S PLANS.

After a day on the water he leaves to-day for Washington. President Roosevelt's plans for the trip down the bay yesterday. He was accompanied by Dr. O'Reilly and Captain Evans. They left the White House after 8 and after fishing most of the day for scup and tautog they made sail for Gray Gables. The wind had fairly died out but with a favorable tide Rush reached the landing at 7:30 p. m. It was a long, slow sail. Scup and tautog have been the bay and the president and his party had fairly good luck. The president's Cleveland changes his mind he will leave for New York on the John D. Rogers this afternoon, arriving in Washington to-morrow afternoon.

SMALLPOX AT NEWARK.

The Disease Spreading. Despite the efforts of health authorities. Newark, N. J., Aug. 21.—Despite the assertions of the health authorities that they are able to cope with the small-pox and prevent an epidemic, the disease is rapidly spreading. Eight new cases were reported during the past twenty-four hours, and the pest-house is so overcrowded it was found necessary to treat tents for the accommodation of patients. That fact is said to be the cause of an outbreak in the vicinity of the pest-house.

Tarnish Did Not Prosecute.

Colorado Springs, Col., Aug. 21.—The cases of the men accused of tarnishing and feathering Adjutant-General Tarnish were called yesterday afternoon in Justice McCracken's court at Colorado City, but the prosecutors failed to put in an appearance and the cases were dismissed.

Sudden Death of an Old Soldier.

Great Alteration Sale!

We are now making extensive alterations in our building, and it will be finished about Sept. 15. We will then have 3 floors of 6,500 square feet of space to display the finest line of Dry Goods, Cloaks, Gent's Furnishings, and House Furnishing Goods ever brought to Plainfield, and ours will be one of the handsomest stores in the city.

To make room for our Immense Fall Stock, we are closing out our entire stock at surprisingly low prices. Every article in our store from a pin to a fine Brussels Carpet has been marked down. This is no catch penny sale, but a real fact, and only one way to be convinced is to price our goods before purchasing elsewhere; you can save money by buying from us.

We mention only a few articles that we are closing out at such low prices:—15 dozen ladies' chemisettes in all colors and sizes at 8c, sold elsewhere at 25c; 500 more of those fine Brussels mats at 23c, cheap at 50c; 25 dozen napkins at 5c; this is less than manufacturer's prices; 30 dozen fine linen towels, 50 inches long, closing out price 23c, worth 35c. We are displaying the finest line of table cloths in the city, from 49c up.

If you are in need of Housefurnishing Goods it will pay you to wait until we have placed in our stock. We are positive we can save you money.
