

NEW EVIDENCE

Of Dr. Lighthill's Success.

A Flattering Testimonial From Col. John Dietrich, One of Plainfield's Oldest and Best Known Residents.

16 ARINGTON PLACE, Plainfield, N. J., July 17, 1894.

I am profoundly grateful to Dr. Lighthill for his speedy and radical cure of a most painful malady of over ten years standing.

I deem it proper to say to all afflicted to place themselves under the care of this skillful physician, and be permanently cured.

I will cheerfully impart any information I possess when called upon.

JOHN DIETRICH.

A HAPPY EXPERIENCE.

The Interesting Testimony of Mr. W. E. Dilts, the Popular Passenger Conductor of the N. J. Central.

ROSELIE, N. J., July 1, 1894.

My Friends and the Public:

I take pleasure in calling public attention to the remarkable cure which Dr. Lighthill effected in my case. For the past ten years I had been afflicted with a severe form of piles which finally gave me the greatest pain and distress nearly all the time, and from which I could not obtain any relief, in spite of all my efforts.

Hearing of a number of cures which Dr. Lighthill effected in similar cases, I placed myself under his care, and I rejoice to say he effected a complete cure in my case and gave me new life in doing so, for I am sure that I could not have endured my misery much longer. And it will be a matter of importance to those who are suffering from this disease to learn the happy fact that Dr. Lighthill effected my cure without giving me pain or detaining me from work.

W. E. DILTS.

A Card from Mr. T. R. Van Zandt,

Of No. 304 and 306 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

I certify, with pleasure, that Dr. Lighthill has effectively cured me of a most painful case of piles. For some time past I had been subjected to its attacks, but the last attack was so exceedingly painful that it completely upset my whole system. The pain extended to my legs and in many other directions, and made me so nervous that I could neither sleep at night nor move about without serious discomfort and distress. Such was my condition when I applied to Dr. Lighthill for relief, and I am glad to say that as soon as he took hold of my case I began to improve, and in a short time I found myself completely cured. Dr. Lighthill has also effected a radical and permanent cure in a most terrible case of piles on my cousin, Mr. J. V. Z. Griggs, of Rocky Hill, N. J., from which testimonial is in Dr. Lighthill's possession.

BRECKINRIDGE SCORED

No Mercy Shown to Him at the Owen Barbecue.

Twenty Thousand People Listen to Speakers at Lexington Denounce the Disgraceful Congressman and Point Out With Bitterness His Evil Life.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 23.—At the great Owen barbecue here yesterday Judge J. R. Morton, of this city, made a thrilling address, introducing Hon. George B. Kinkead, Judge Morton said that it was unfortunate that there was a division of the strength opposed to the renomination of Breckinridge. He thought that the people would finally triumph in the defeat of Breckinridge, and that Mr. Settle, the third man in the race, would not receive much support as soon as it is found out that Owens is the contending man against Breckinridge. He said that the 20,000 people leaving their homes to-day and turning out in one mighty protest against the re-election of Breckinridge would seal his doom.

Judge Kinkead's arraignment of Colonel Breckinridge was one of the most brilliant ever heard. He told of the inconsistencies of Breckinridge, reviewing his entire life and putting in a dramatic way the proceedings of Judge Bradley's court in Washington.

"See him as he introduces his mistress into the school at which your daughters are taught, and of which he was a trustee," he said in a burst of eloquence, assuming the role of Marc Antony. Judge Kinkead told of the deception practiced by Breckinridge on Mrs. Blackburn, "the widow of a man whom Kentucky was proud to honor."

He was followed by Professor C. M. Albert, a local politician, who, after Colonel Breckinridge for intimating that he was the only man in the district fit to represent it in congress.

"What a calamity would befall us if he should die," said the speaker, and the applause which followed lasted for several minutes.

Owens' arraignment of Colonel Breckinridge was the most scathing that has yet been delivered in the campaign. He told how the colonel would disguise when in battle, completely disfigure his war record, referring to Breckinridge's repentance for his nine years of dual life, he said that should he commit a crime for which a negro would be lynched in Kentucky to-morrow, he would tell his friends he was penitent and declare to those who disapproved of the deed that he was a subject of the congress and defy them to say anything against him.

The address of Mr. Owens was heartily received, and the women present expressed much enthusiasm.

Major H. C. McDowell, speaking of the crowd last night, said that he believed Breckinridge had met his Waterloo. Should Breckinridge get the nomination, the republicans will run McDowell against him.

ALL MILLS TO CLOSE

Rumor of Startling Importance at Fall River.

Manufacturers' Association Believed to Have Decided Upon Positive Measures to Force the Operatives Into Surrendering—A Surprise at Suncook, N. H.

Fall River, Mass., Aug. 23.—The manufacturing situation is decidedly mixed. The cloth market has advanced from 2 1/2 cents to 2 3/4 cents for 64x4s since yesterday noon, and this amount is more than sufficient to equal the gain, as compared with yesterday, to manufacturers by reducing the cost of production by reducing wages 10 per cent. At the latter figure there is very little demand, and treasurers are not anxious to dispose of goods.

Figures carefully prepared show that 25.6 per cent. of all the looms in the mills were in operation to-day. The gain, as compared with yesterday, is set down as between 1,300 and 1,500.

Rumors of startling importance were afloat here this morning to the effect that all mills in this city have been ordered to close to-night at 6 o'clock and that the order will include every mill in the city, except those controlled by the Fall River Iron works. Secretary Routledge was asked what foundation there was for these rumors, but contrary to his usual custom, he declined to answer negatively or affirmatively. One other manufacturer adopted the same course. It has been learned beyond question, however, that the executive committee of the Manufacturers' association met secretly and voted to order all mills under their control to close to-night for an indefinite period, probably for four weeks, or until the operatives feel like returning to their looms. The order comes wholly unexpected on the part of the operatives, and was not looked for by many manufacturers.

The great event of the past few hours, outside of the advance in the cloth market, has been the strike and consequent shut-down at the Globe yarn and the Sanford mills. These strikes are the direct outcome of the erratic course adopted by Arnold B. Sanford in dealing with his spinners. Mention of this course has been made from time to time in the press dispatches, and the outspoken anger of operatives and manufacturers is even greater than it was yesterday.

Mr. Sanford says the affair is a result of a misunderstanding and may be a long explanation in the evening papers.

When this statement was read by more than a dozen manufacturers, they were emphatic in denying that they knew of any reservations attached to Mr. Sanford's signature to any agreement. There were many who alone knew of them. The attempt to bring in Mr. Kerr, of the Thread company, and Mr. Chase, of the King Philip, has stirred up much feeling, as the spinners have a satisfactory agreement with Mr. Kerr and with Mr. Chase, while the Globe and Sanford mills are out of the strike.

The strike reaches Suncook, N. H.

The outcry against the menhaden fishing fleets along the New Jersey coast is louder this season than ever, and apparently with good reason, for, in the words of a correspondent, "it is no uncommon thing to count on a clear day from twelve to fifteen of these steamers plying their trade within a radius of two or three miles, either at Barnegat Inlet or anywhere along Island or Equus Beaches. With the utmost assurance they stand right in the mouths of the inlets and scoop the waters of the teeming millions of fish that have always made the bays their spawning ground." The purse net used by these vessels takes everything from the smallest menhaden or "mackerel" to the largest blue fish, weakfish, sea bass, and rock fish. In one week during July the carcasses of a menhaden steamer, landed at New Gretna, were estimated at 712,900 fish. When, some years ago, an effort was made to obtain congressional relief for the local fishermen, the western and southern representatives could not be interested, and the New England representatives, acting in behalf of the capital invested in the fish factories, were strong enough to shelve the legislation proposed. The menhaden fishermen are not the only enemies of the propagation of food fish. The fish ponds from Manokong up to Sandy Hook—says an observer—"are becoming almost as much a destroyer of the food fish as are menhaden steamers. The ponds are built in the very lines of travel always pursued by the food fish, and with long outcroppings wings take in whole schools. At Elberon and Sea Bright this summer between 300,000 and 400,000 pounds of fish have been caught in two days."

Connecticut has a woman mail-carrier in the person of Charlotte Waldo, who drives her wagon every day over the worst routes in the State, lying between Ashford and Bolton. She covers 26 miles in all, going on duty as early as 6 in the morning and stabling her horse at about the same hour in the evening. In the course of her travels she passes through Ashford, West Ashford, Mansfield, Four Corners, North Coventry, Quarryville and Bolton. "The route," says the Hartford Times, "is controlled under government by Dwight Shurtliff of illicit distillery fame, who receives $600 a year for it." Charlotte Waldo gets for her services $150 a year, Shurtliff furnishing the team. In early Spring the roads of the Ashford-Bolton route are almost impassable, and after a snowstorm they are seldom broken out for a day or two. Last winter the woman, although obliged to shovel a road through heavy drifts at times, never missed a mail-train. Her personal appearance is thus described by one who accompanied her over the route recently: "She was of medium height, and although not flashy her entire build suggested great strength and endurance. Her face and hands were as red as a boiled lobster, from the exposure to all kinds of weather. Her hair cut short and parted in the middle, huge black eye-goggles, a black sailor hat with a white ribbon and a huge bow much the worse for wear, a pair of large men's shoes on her feet, and the resolute determined look on her face, all gave her a decidedly masculine appearance as she stood there with one hand on the carriage ready to get in, and the other holding the mail bag."

The refusal of Grand Master of Exchequer, Col. C. V. N. Wilson of Long Branch, to accept a reelection has created an unusual interest in the nominating officers of the Grand Lodge of New Jersey Knights of Pythias, which takes place in the subordination lodge the first meeting in September by the several Past Chancellors. Several names are discussed in connection with the nomination, among whom Capt. A. Lincoln Bailey of Phillipsburg, the efficient Adjutant of the Second Regiment, seems to be a favorite and will be the choice of a large number of lodges.

OBITUARY.

Chas. Schenck, Jr.

Manager Charles Schenckhorn of the Western Union Telegraph office, and his wife, were sadly afflicted today by the death of their son and only child, Charles Schenckhorn, Jr. The young man was 24 years of age. He was born in Burlington, and brought to Plainfield by his parents when a babe in arms. He learned civil engineering, and became skilled and proficient in the work. He was for two years with the Government Survey on the Red River, and accompanied Gen. Delafield to Austin, Texas, where for one year he was in charge of construction of sewers.

While at the head of water-works construction in Newberne, N. C., he was stricken with pneumonia, which left his lungs so affected that his parents sought him to Saratoga. He improved there for a time, but again began to fail, and was brought home to be under the personal care of his mother.

The devoted parents used every means to save the life of their loved one, but at 5:30 this morning he entered peacefully and calmly the sleep which is as happy as life eternal.

He died in the faith, a member of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, and was spiritually prepared for the end he felt to be near. The only other society to which he belonged was the Sons of the American Revolution, New York City.

Services will be held from the residence of the bereaved parents, 147 East Fifth street, Friday evening, and interment will take place in Hillside Cemetery Saturday morning.

Every heart feels a deep sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. Schenckhorn in their affliction, and the host of friends find consolation in the thought that his end was peace and in the faith that he has gone to partake of the joys of the redeemed.

Mrs. John D. Moore.

Mrs. Mary E. Moore, wife of John D. Moore, passed away this morning at 7:15, at her home on Chatham street, after an illness of five months. Death was caused by inflammation of the lungs, which had developed within the past few days.

Mr. Moore was born in Washington Valley 74 years ago. Her younger days were spent at home, and when she was married to Mr. Moore they took up their residence on Chatham street, in which place they had lived thirty-three years. Three brothers and one sister survive her. The brothers are George and Nathaniel Taylor, who live in North Plainfield, and Andrew Taylor, who lives in Illinois. Mrs. W. H. Coombe, her sister, is also a resident of North Plainfield. Mr. Moore was a regular attendant at Warren Chapel services, accompanying her husband. She was open to him in his slightest condition, and the present affliction leaves him in sorrowing night. The couple were inseparable and a model of happiness.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon from Warren Chapel.

Hiram B. Mulford.

A saddened household is that of Lewis B. Mulford, of the Park avenue firm of Hummer & Mulford, for the light of their home, their little 9-year-old son Hiram B., has gone forth into the great beyond, leaving his heart broken and aching, and his heartbroken desolate.

For two weeks that malignant disease, diphtheria, held the little boy a sufferer. Through all the tortures of his illness he has been brave and patient. His own playful, and the skillful medical and tender parental care accorded him, wrought improvement; but heart trouble developed, so seriously that Drs. Carman and Hodges were in consultation at 13 last night.

At 7 this morning the end came. With the solicitude such as parents alone can feel, he was being watched and tended. As the body lay in his father's soothing arms, there came the blissfullest of everlasting sleep; and the gentle little soul that had shone on earth so much sunshine and love, passed to the arms of the Saviour.

All during his illness, little Hiram had said "Don't worry, papa! Don't worry, mamma! I am only going to Heaven!" And his last word was "Mamma!"

At the funeral the stricken family will be alone in their grief, precaution against contagion compelling private services.

AT REST.

Fred L. Walker.

The funeral services of Fred L. Walker were held from his late home, 313 New street, this afternoon at 2, and from the First Baptist Church at 2:30. Rev. Arthur Crane officiating.

At the house, a short service was held. The attendance of friends and relatives was very large. Delegations from Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., and Women's Relief Corps, No. 10, were present. John Hand Camp, No. 28, Sons of Veterans, took charge of the service. They were accompanied by members of the Independent Drum and Pile Corps.

At the church Rev. Arthur Crane conducted the service and spoke in a fitting manner of the deceased. His remarks were especially helpful. Mrs. Stetler, Miss Etta Krymer, J. Townsend and Horace J. Martin sang two beautiful selections, favorites of the departed one.

At the conclusion of the service the funeral cortege marched to Hillside Cemetery, where the Sons of Veterans conducted their burial service. Those taking part were Chaplain Edward T. Bowman, acting Captain W. C. Dobson, acting First Lieutenant Charles Stephens and Second Lieutenant Willard S. Sutton.

They were assisted in the service by the drum corps. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Crane. Those acting as pall-bearers from Camp 26, were: Herbert C. McVoy, James M. Vall, Clifford Compton, George Bedford, and Theodore Kurthale and William Stewart friends of the deceased.

The local tributes were beautiful and consisted of a pillow red, white and blue flowers, with the inscription "Camp 26, Sons of Veterans, in memory of Fred L. Walker, a member of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist Church with the letters 'C. E.', a cross of roses from the Woman's Relief Corps, and a wreath from Winfield Scott Post, No. 73.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. It is not an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give $100 for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

RECKING RANAWAY.

A horse belonging to one of the boarders at the Hotel Netherwood was driven to Frank Hand's blacksmith shop this noon to have new shoes put on. The man in charge was hitching her to a sulky, when she became frightened and started to run toward Front street. The sulky collided with the curb and the wheels were completely wrecked.

WHEELS Great Alteration Sale!

We are now making extensive alterations in our building, and it will be finished about Sept. 15. We will then have 3 floors of 6,500 square feet of space to display the finest line of Dry Goods, Cloaks, Gent's Furnishings, and House Furnishing Goods ever brought to Plainfield, and ours will be one of the handsomest stores in the city.

To make room for our Immense Fall Stock, we are closing out our entire stock at surprisingly low prices. Every article in our store from a pin to a fine Brussels Carpet has been marked down. This is no catch penny sale, but a real fact, and only one way to be convinced is to price our goods before purchasing elsewhere; you can save money by buying from us.

We mention only a few articles that we are closing out at such low prices:—15 dozen ladies' chemisettes in all colors and sizes at 8c, sold elsewhere at 25c; 500 more of those fine Brussels mats at 3c, cheap at 50c; 25 dozen napkins at 5c; this is less than manufacturer's prices; 30 dozen fine linen towels, 50 inches long, closing out price 23c, worth 35c. We are displaying the finest line of table cloths in the city, from 49c up.

If you are in need of Housefurnishing Goods it will pay you to wait until we have placed in our store. We are positive we can save you money.
