

UP-TO-DATE CRESCENTS.

THEY PLAN FOR FOOTBALL AND A LANTERN PARADE.

Increase of Membership in the Board of Governors, and a New Board Meeting—Members to Graduate Ticket Sales.

The Crescent, Wheelmen met in annual session in the Board of Trade Building last evening. It was the first meeting of the club since the building of the track, and the members present were much interested in learning what the Board of Governors had to report. A general satisfaction was expressed with the work of the officers, and the spirit of the members showed that they intended to make the next year a great one in the history of the Crescent.

President William H. Rogers opened the meeting at 8, starting a busy session which lasted till 11. Of the 150 members of the club, 95 attended. In the absence of Secretary Ted. John Petrie acted as secretary pro tem, beginning his work with the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting.

A communication from the New York Times addressed to George Taggart of the United Press was read. The Times offered a $50 gold medal to be contested for in the novice race in the next meet with no conditions attached except a request for mention in the programme.

The report of the secretary and treasurer was then read. The lengthy financial report gave all the details of the expense of constructing the track and holding the meet. The total cost of the track, with grandstand and bleachers, was given as $5,881.18. According to the cash account the receipts during the year, November 1, 1893, to August 31, 1894, amounted to $4,004.62 and the expenditures to $4,797.03, leaving a balance of $107.59.

By vote the number of members in the Board of Governors was increased from seven to 11. Thirteen nominations were made as follows: W. H. Rogers, L. B. Woolston, J. F. Buckle, J. A. Haynes, C. S. Teel, A. V. Kites, Dr. D. C. Adams, R. D. Dunham, F. L. O. Martin, R. D. Williams, John Petrie, Harry Coward and Lon Titworth. By ballot the following were chosen: Messrs. Rogers, Woolston, Buckle, Haynes, Teel, Kites, Dunham, Petrie, Coward and Titworth. F. L. O. Martin and Dr. Adams being tied, another vote was taken, resulting in the election of Mr. Martin. The following committees were appointed: To arrange a lantern parade—F. L. O. Martin, R. D. Williams, Lon Titworth, John J. Kenney, Thomas A. Cuming. To form a football team: Nate Titworth, R. D. Williams, Thomas A. Cuming, John Petrie, A. T. Heinrichs. It was unanimously decided before adjourning that each member should pay for five tickets of admission for each meet.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Superintendent States represents the Sunday-school of the First Church of Christ in the county convention.

Rev. P. H. Gibson of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Plainfield, will preach in the New York Avenue Baptist Church, Westfield, tonight.

At the meeting of the Ladies Christian Work Society in Trinity Reformed Church yesterday afternoon Mrs. J. K. Arnold stated that she found it impossible to serve as president of the society any longer, as she could not give the office the time it required. She therefore presented her resignation, which was gratefully accepted. Mrs. O. Schenck, wife of the pastor, who has been serving as first vice-president, was unanimously chosen as president; and Mrs. C. Frank French was also unanimously elected as first vice-president. The approaching storm caused an adjournment to next Tuesday afternoon, when the regular Fall work will be taken up.

Rev. Ralph Gilliam will commence a series of Gospel meetings in Hope Chapel on Thursday evening, September 20. Services will be held every afternoon and evening. Mr. Gilliam was associated with Rev. P. Fay Miller for nearly a year, and the Lord has wonderfully blessed his labors. Hope Chapel has recently been enlarged and will now seat 700 persons. Extensive preparations are being made for these services. The hearty singing that has been marked as a feature at Hope Chapel will prevail at the special services. In addition to this Mr. Gilliam will be accompanied by an assistant who has great power in song. All the seats are absolutely free at all times.

The King's Messengers of the First Presbyterian Church held a semi-annual meeting yesterday afternoon and elected the following officers: President—Miss Gertrude Conover. First Vice-President—Miss Mabel Pruden. Second Vice-President—Miss Evelyn Searing. Secretary—Miss Mabel Conover. Treasurer—Miss Miriam Wilcox. The report of Miss Wilcox showed that the fund has about $40 in the treasury. The society is composed of girls from ten to fifteen years of age who are engaged in home mission work under two superintendents, Mrs. J. J. Olson and Miss H. A. Pope. The Messengers are connected with the Women's Executive Committee of the Presbyterian home mission movement. At present the girls are sewing for Dr. Dordland's school for poor white and three young ones on Sandford Avenue last night. They have a scholarship in a freedman's school which costs $40 a year. They will discontinue this and instead have a room for use as a headquarters. The dues are $4 cents a year for regular membership and 50 cents for honorary. Collections are taken up at the public meeting and the tea which are held annually.

Ought to Be Done. While the owner of the Stells Building is having the sidewalk platform lowered at Leggett's Pharmacy, he ought to have it lowered all along the building, making the improvement uniform throughout. The public would appreciate it.

The merchant who grumbles and sighs, and turns up the white of his eyes in sorrow and pique because trade is very quiet, is the fellow who won't advertise!

CLOSE SHAVE FOR THE HORSE.

It Took a Notion to Try Its Speed on the Railroad Track.

Baker George Wolff sent a boy with his bay mare to Peter McDonough's blacksmith shop yesterday afternoon. The horse broke loose from the boy on Liberty street, climbed the railroad bank, and turned towards home.

People at the North Avenue station at 4:45 were astonished to see the horse coming down the track on a brick trot. The Park Avenue bridge was crossed in safety and then the horse was headed off by men at the freight-house and taken from the track just as the Blue Line express from New York passed on the track the animal had taken.

A Dramatic Classic.

Lewis Morrisroe will present his famous comedy and dramatic version of "Faust" at the Grand Hall Friday evening. Mr. Morrisroe is an actor of established merit. He has a voice both commanding and penetrating, and a personality that takes on the wardrobe and makeup of Mephisto in an ideal way. His impersonation adheres closely to Goethe's familiar and interesting story. Satan as represented by him is a smooth-faced, plausible person, who mixes with mortal mankind with a cheerful abandon that makes the character easy to comprehend; the lines in Mr. Morrisroe's version are bright and sparkling, and his rendition of them is delightfully sardonic. He is in short as engaging a devil as one could wish to see.

Breaks the Circuit.

Just after the storm, a county official dropped into the law office of a celebrated counsellor, and, finding the air somewhat close, asked why the windows were all closed.

"Afraid of the lightning!"—was the reply.

"Fah! I never heard of lightning striking a lawyer!"—said the official.

"We were afraid the type-writer might attract it."

"Ah! I noticed—she is very attractive!"—galantly smiled the official, and just then the lightning burned out the electric lamps.

Attempts to Be His Wife.

"Jane," which is to be presented in Music Hall, Thursday night, is the most successful and funniest of the Frohman comedies yet presented. The character of "Jane" is that of a calculating and shrewd English housemaid, who pretends to be her master's wife, so as to deceive the trustee of an estate conditionally paying money to the man in question. The cast is in every way a competent one, and includes among its members those who have made the play famous.

Wants Plainfield Police Help.

Alex. Shields of Bound Brook reports by telegram that a grand thief, his air-year-old trotter, 15½ hands in height, has been stolen. A white dot marks the forehead. The horse "Logan" is well-known in sporting circles, and is valued by his owner at $15,000.

Tree Twisted.

A tree on Park place between Duer and Grove streets was twisted and split in two by the wind yesterday afternoon. Another at the corner of Grove street and Linden avenue was broken off about seven feet above the ground.

Inter-Club Tennis.

The Inter-Club Tennis of the Bergen Point, Jersey City and Hillelde Tennis Clubs will take place on the Hillelde courts Saturday, Sept. 22. Plainfield now occupies second place, and will strive to reach first.

Deigned by a Cloudburst.

So tremendous was the rainfall of a few minutes yesterday afternoon that Park Avenue, Front street, and other thoroughfares, became for a time running rivers, and the boys had great fun in the lakes under the railroad bridges.

Women May Vote.

The county superintendents of schools have been notified that the State superintendent of schools has decided that any school election at which women are denied a vote is void, and the county superintendent may proceed as if no election had been held.

Preparing for Bowling.

The House Committee of the Board of Trade met last evening and arranged to open the bowling season. Another meeting will be held in about a week to pick a team from the 30 good bowlers who are practicing on the alleys.

No Champignons.

Two young men of Plainfield went out into the country for mushrooms yesterday and today, on each occasion having a policeman arouse them at 4 in the morning for an early start. Neither had yet seen a single mushroom when they returned today.

A Driving Storm.

The furious rain yesterday afternoon beat through the cracks of the big show windows in the Stells Building, damaging goods in Leggett's pharmacy and Collier's jewelry store.

R. R. Hope had a narrow escape from one old drunk and three young ones on Sandford Avenue last night. They had evidently been loaded out of their home near the brook.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed. However, it can be cured, and is cured by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give $100 for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

A beautiful christening service was held in the Episcopal Church, New Market, Sunday afternoon, when the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Barker was christened. The name given was Edith Constance. Rev. Mr. Phelps conducted the service.

Residents of Dunellen saw a very bright light Sunday evening about 8, in the direction of the Brunswick. Yesterday morning a citizen started investigating, thinking perhaps a house had burned. After driving a considerable distance he gave up the idea of pursuing the matter.

Mrs. Brennan who suffered considerably from the effects of scots boiling water which she claims Mrs. Cronan threw at her, intends seeking redress through the courts. She secured the services of Lawyer Winfield S. Anglemans of Plainfield yesterday, and he went to New Market and made demand upon Justice Cronan that he issue a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Cronan. The warrant was served today by Constable Huff. Lawyer Winfield S. Anglemans, representing Mrs. Brennan, went to New Brunswick today for the purpose of bringing suit against Mrs. Cronan.

There has been more or less of a feeling between Paul Kratzel and his tenant, Alexander Sander, ever since Alexander moved on the property. The trouble has been chiefly about a barn on the premises, which Mr. Sander rents for his horses and wagons. At different times disputes have arisen over the number of wagons Mr. Sander was to place in the barn. Yesterday afternoon when Mr. Sander came home he met his landlord and the trouble revived. It ended in Mr. Kratzel breaking open the lock on the barn and running the wagons into the yard. He then put several things belonging to him in the barn, and Mr. Sander, who was angry, exchanged, until both finally sought Justice Huff, who heard the story, and decided that he had no authority to arrest on the evidence. Mr. Kratzel declares he will have Mr. Sander arrested, while Mr. Sander at once sought his lawyer, George DeMars, and says he intends having the matter settled for him. Recently the same man had trouble over the breaking of a pump, but that matter was settled satisfactorily last week, Lawyer DeMars will bring suit against Mr. Kratzel for damages. The matter is represented by Reed & Oodington.

Mrs. Charles Manir and family returned today from a visit to the city. The condition of Mr. Slape has gradually been growing worse and the physicians have given up hope of his recovery.

A large number of people interested in Sunday-school work are preparing to attend the annual meeting of the Middlesex County Sunday-school Union to be held in Perth Amboy Thursday.

The four-year-old son of William Liable was bitten in the arm by one of two large dogs while he was playing in the yard Sunday morning at 11. The dogs ran on the piazza where the child was. The boy became tangled between the contestants and was bitten by one of them, probably unintentionally.

The Ladies Circle of the Baptist Church will soon have a fruit festival in the chapel.

Miss Sadie Walpole will not act as assistant postmistress during the absence of Miss Baker, who is about to go on a two-weeks trip to the city.

The Choral Union began the work with about $40 the proceeds of the stereopticon lecture. There are 66 members and more are about to join. Sunday-school members under 15 will be charged 75 cents for the ten lessons, the charge to adults for the course being $1. Regular attendance is requested. WINNING A WIDOW.

"Jotham" quoth Mr. Wiggleton to his chief farm hand.

"Well, who's wantin'?" lastly responded Jotham Hardcastle.

"The Widow Palmeist has taken the cottage at the foot of the lane."

"Tell me something I didn't know afore," said Jotham, irreverently.

"And if she sends up to borrow the rake or the hoe or the spade—"

"Well, what then?"

"Tell her she can't have 'em."

"All right," observed Jotham, philosophically.

"Jotham," said Mr. Wiggleton about two days afterward, as he came in heated and out of breath from a walk.

"Well, what now?"

"I wonder if that was the Widow Palmeist I saw gathering blackberries by the cottage garden?"

"Kind o' slim and tall?"

"Blue eyes and hair as shiny as satin?"

"And a little white parasol lined with pink?"

"Yes."

"Jotham likely it was," said Jotham.

Mr. Wiggleton was silent for a moment or two.

"Jotham!" he finally said.

"Has she sent to borrow anything?"

"Sent yesterday forenoon—asked if we had a screw-driver to lend—the hinge was comin' loose on the garden gate."

"And what did you tell her?"

"Said my order was contrary wise to lendin' or borrowin'."

"Jotham, the next time she sends let her have whatever she wants."

"Said something 'bout wantin' a man to come and hoe them early potatoes. Be it to go!"

"Certainly—of course. Neighbors should not like neighbors, especially in the country."

And Mr. Wiggleton sighed and wished that he was not so corpulent and unused to labor to hoe the Widow Palmeist's early potatoes.

But he did the next best thing, he went over to look at the field after Jotham had hoed it, and gave the widow good advice concerning a certain rocky, up-hill bit of sheep pasture.

"I'd advise you to turn the thing all over in your mind, Jotham," said Mr. Wiggleton.

"Yes, I will," said Jotham.

The next morning Mr. Wiggleton at tired himself in his best suit and went to the cottage.

Mrs. Palmeist received him in a charming wrapper with ribbon to match.

Mr. Wiggleton wasted no time in useless preliminary chitchat.

"Mrs. Palmeist, ma'am," he began, a little nervously, "I have concluded to change my condition."

"Indeed!" said the widow, smiling like an open rose. "I am so glad to hear it."

"And I am here this morning to ask you to be my wife!" pursued our hero, boldly.

"You are kind, sir," said Mrs. Palmeist, blushing, and looking prettier than ever, "but I—I really couldn't."

"And why not?" demanded Mr. Wiggleton, fairly taken aback by this unexpected answer.

"I am engaged," owned up the charming widow, playing with the ribbons at her belt.

"Might I dare to ask—that is—"

"Oh, certainly. It's Jotham Hardcastle."

Certainly. You might live in the little house beyond the peach orchard; it wouldn't take much to fit it nicely, now that paint and paper are so cheap."

Jotham stared reflectively at the fire.

"And your wife could take care of the cream and butter, and all that sort of thing, for us. It isn't likely Mrs. P.—ahem!—it isn't likely, I mean, that my wife will care for such things."

"Humph!"

"I'd advise you to turn the thing all over in your mind, Jotham," said Mr. Wiggleton.

"Yes, I will," said Jotham.

The next morning Mr. Wiggleton at tired himself in his best suit and went to the cottage.

Mrs. Palmeist received him in a charming wrapper with ribbon to match.

Mr. Wiggleton wasted no time in useless preliminary chitchat.

"Mrs. Palmeist, ma'am," he began, a little nervously, "I have concluded to change my condition."

"I am engaged," owned up the charming widow, playing with the ribbons at her belt.

"Might I dare to ask—that is—"

"Oh, certainly. It's Jotham Hardcastle."

Mr. Wiggleton stammered out a sentence or two of congratulation and took his leave.

When he was "spring wined" reared its green tresses on the hillside Jotham married the pretty young widow, and to give it its full name, he always felt as if he had been ill treated, but he never could tell exactly how.—True Flag.

FRESH FOREIGN COSSIP

Japan's Emperor Going to the Front.

Will Direct War Operations—Premier Crisp Makes a Notable Speech at Naples—The German Imperial Family Threatened With Violence at Marenburg.

Washington, Sept. 11.—A telegram was received from the Japanese legation announcing that the emperor would take up his residence at Hiroshima on the 15th inst., and that the headquarters of the army and navy would be moved to that place from Tokyo.

Hiroshima is a large town on the inland sea about 550 miles from Tokyo. It has hitherto been used as the base of operations for the movement of troops and supplies to Korea and other points, and the action of the emperor in taking up his residence there has been taken as the indication of his intention of personally superintending active operations in the war at the point as near the scene of hostilities as practicable.

DEFIED THE CHINESE.

A French Captain Refuses To Have His Ship Searched.

London, Sept. 11.—The correspondent of the Central News at Shanghai telegraphs under today's date that the Chinese transport ship Chean, while proceeding for Formosa, with 1,400 troops on board, was wrecked at Cheung. The soldiers and crew were conveyed to the shore in safety.

A French mail steamship about to sail for Japan was boarded at her wharf in Shanghai by officers who insisted on searching the ship for Japanese passengers. It being alleged that a number of Japanese military officers who had been trained in Europe were on their way back to Japan to enter active service.

The French captain refused to allow his ship to be searched, and threatened to call a French warship to his assistance if the Chinese officer persisted. The threat was effectual, and the Chinese retired.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS.

Premier Crisp Makes a Notable Speech at Naples.

Rome, Sept. 11.—Premier Crisp inaugurated his Naples yesterday the memorial erected in honor of King Humbert's visit to the city during the cholera epidemic of 1884. He made a notable speech, beginning with the historical review of recent Italian politics and ending with a declaration as to the social problems of to-day, especially the revolutionary movement.

The social system was now passing, he said, through a momentous crisis. The situation had become so acute that it seemed absolutely necessary for civil and religious authority to unite and work harmoniously against that infamous band on whose flag were inscribed the words, "No God, no King." This band had declared war on the Let society accept the declaration and shout back the battle-cry, "For God, King and Country."

The motto of God, king and country was not new, Crisp said, but the logical result of Mazzini's declaration after the catastrophe of 1848. The motto of the king, king and country was not new, Crisp said, but the logical result of Mazzini's declaration after the catastrophe of 1848.

"Ten years ago, when the epidemic was moving down its victims the true and generous king hoped to see this city by his words of sympathy. I refer to Dr. Francesco, Emilio, Fris, Tomasson, Geo. W. Rockefeller and T. S. strong."

THREATENED WITH VIOLENCE.

The Imperial Party at Marenburg Closely Guarded.

Berlin, Sept. 11.—The Grandener Zeitung says that while the imperial party was at Marenburg, anarchists distributed revolutionary leaflets throughout the neighborhood. Besides stating the principles of anarchism, the leaflets threatened personal violence to the imperial party. The police around Marenburg have adopted the most elaborate precautions. Every stranger is obliged, as soon as he arrives, to sign a document giving details of his business, family and residence.

RELIEF FOR FIRE SUFFERERS.

About $70,000 Has Been Contributed in Minnesota.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 11.—The first report of the state commission for the relief of the sufferers from the forest fires has been issued. The citizens of the state have contributed about $70,000 in money and $30,000 in clothing, food and lumber.

Besides several thousand dollars have been contributed from outside the state, principally from New York and Chicago. The commission said the work of searching for and burying the dead was practically completed. Contributions of money are especially solicited. One lumber firm has made a proposition to care for twenty families and give them employment if the commission will build them houses.

Reacted Scientists on the Portia.

New York, Sept. 11.—The steamer Portia, from St. Johns, N. F., for this port, which ran down the schooner Dora M. French, sinking her, 112 miles east of Vineyard Haven, has on board the party of scientists who hoped to Greenland some time ago on the steamer Miran, which vessel ran into a iceberg and was lost. The Portia is due here today.

A Frontier Dispute Settled.

Berlin, Sept. 11.—The frontier dispute between Germany and Portugal in East Africa has been amicably settled, the mouth of the Ruvuma and Koonza rivers is awarded to Germany and Cape Delgado to Portugal.

Wrecked by Dutch Artillery.

Amsterdam, Sept. 11.—The Dutch artillery has wrecked Tjakra, Negara and Matara on the island of Lombok. The Dutch Minister Djilantak has fled to Bali.
