

THE CHAPEL KITCHEN.

ITS COMPLETION MARKED BY A HARVEST SUPPER.

Monroe Avenue Methodist Church. The Good Things of Life are Wholesomely Prepared for the Women of the Congregation.

The completion of the addition to the Monroe Avenue Chapel which gives the Ladies Aid Society of the chapel the convenience of a kitchen was celebrated last night. The women cooked a harvest supper to test the accommodations of the improvements, and then started to dispose of the supper to help defray the expense of constructing the addition. It was the first social affair held in the chapel since the finishing of the kitchen and the opening of the new building.

The women began to serve supper at 6:30. The tables arranged in the classrooms were soon surrounded by hungry people who had left their homes to eat supper with the society and rejoice with the members over the improvements. Those that met ready to serve them at the tables were Mrs. I. P. Lallier, Mrs. Brouard, Miss Hall, Miss Fugh, Miss Grace Palmer, Miss Elsie Ackerman, Mrs. A. D. Pearson, Mrs. R. L. Hayes and Mrs. J. H. Rogers.

The general management included the officers of the society.

President—Mrs. Stephen Hall. Vice-president—Mrs. A. D. Pearson. Secretary—Miss Brower. Treasurer—Mrs. William C. Burt.

The New England style of supper was followed in the preparation of the bill of fare, among the more prominent dishes being Boston brown bread, beans and pie-crust was a modern addition which Mr. Brouard attended to. Mrs. Wenzel and Mrs. Fulton showed their skill in making coffee. The lighting was in keeping with the New England idea, the electric lamps having been rendered useless by the wire-breaking wind of Monday. In their places were kerosene lamps of all sizes and shapes.

But the customers in the chapel were not limited to the delight of the supper table alone. Other departments were included in the festival. In the center of the building a candy booth decked with American flags and patriotic draperies of bunting was a fine attraction. Here the Misses Wenzel were in charge.

In front of the pulpit Miss Aldrich and Miss Beckman sold fruit from a long table ornamented with flowers and lighted with tapers. Nearby was the fancy table with Mrs. Burt and Miss Hall in charge. By the front door Miss Summ was kept busy serving lemonade. The Misses Daisy Brouard and Fannie Hayes were together at a table where they sold all the pleasant enjoyment to be drawn therefrom on condition that when the gait has been run his soul shall belong to Mephisto.

Faust is dazed and held spellbound by a beautiful vision of Marguerite, wrapped in an angelic halo, which fades away as he passionately rushes upon it. He accedes to Mephisto's demand and a compact is drawn between them. The aged and senile philosopher transforms into a handsome young burning with passion and eager with anticipation. From this time forward he is one thought in his heart. There follow his meetings with her, their mutual love; his betrayal of her confidence, the poisoning of her mother, while seeking only to make her sadder more deeply the return of Valentine her soldier brother, whose anguish and rage know no bounds when informed of his blasted home. He meets Faust, and by the devil's aid is killed.

Insidious Mephisto excited the justice loving neighbors of Marguerite by informing them of the seeming unnatural murder of her mother, and she is carried off to prison. Faust finds his way into Marguerite's cell through the intervention of the devil, only to find poor Marguerite partially demented. He proposes to carry her away to escape the dread consequences of her supposed crime; but at this time the gentle spirit goes out, and Mephisto claims Faust as his own, but he is saved by the intervention of the spirit of repentance and remorse. This story, made famous by the immortal Goethe, the Shakespeare of Germany, is a standard, and it will be produced in matchless style on Music Hall stage Friday night.

Assemblyman Coddling Fights a Swindler.

A. H. Wilcox was arrested yesterday at the St. Denis Hotel on an order issued by Justice Lawrence of the Supreme Court in a civil suit brought by P. J. Shanley of Ohio, and Assemblyman Charles M. Coddling of Westfield, administrators of the estate of the late Rev. George Stanbery of Lexington, Ky. The suit is to recover $15,000 alleged to have been fraudulently obtained by Wilcox in 1890, from Rev. Mr. Stanbery in real estate transactions. A co-plaintiff in the action is Frederick S. Fussy of Philadelphia, who alleges that he was also taken in by Wilcox. The arrest is the result of clever detective work by Mr. Coddling.

Deaths Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedial. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is cured you hear. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; also cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

They will give $100 for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sent for circulars free.

PLAINFIELD'S PRISONERS.

Industrious inmates of the State Prison interviewed by Policemen Who Met Them There.

Policemen Frederickson and Flynn went to the State Prison Monday and watched a thousand convicts at work. They found Burglar Elston, who stole jewelry from O. M. Dunham four years ago, painting. His five-year sentence is nearly up, but he does not rejoice very much at the prospect of becoming a free man, as his health is poor.

To the Plainfielders it appeared that one-third of the prisoners were Negroes. Among these was Alonzo Randolph, who is just fairly started on a fifteen-year stay. The two other Plainfield criminals, John Winger, the burglar caught on Crescent avenue by Frederickson and sent down for 15 years two years ago, and Augustus VanEngle, who went to Trenton a year ago on a three-year sentence for assaulting Marshal Fagnborg, were not found. The keepers were new and could not place the two men.

THEY BORROW A BABY.

Jane Acts a Part to Delude the Old Man into Paying Money.

The attraction in Music Hall tomorrow night will be the best of all the Frohman comedies, "Jane." His success last year is well remembered by theatre goers, and the engagement there was most prosperous and pleasant. The company that will be seen in this comedy will no doubt be warmly welcomed, as it has among its members those artists that have made the comedy famous.

The story of the play can be profitably recalled at this time. A gay young London bachelor has been living for three years on the interest of an estate bequeathed to him on condition that he marries. This estate is in the hands of a trustee who pays the young man the income because the latter has informed him that he has taken a wife. The young man is unduly extravagant, and one fine day the trustee resolves to go to London and remonstrate with him. When the young fellow learns of his coming, he is in a dilemma. He has no wife but he bribes the housemaid Jane to impersonate her. Jane has married William a man-servant, whom she persuades for material reasons to consent to the deception. A baby is borrowed, and all manner of absurd devices are employed, to deceive the confiding old trustee. The fun is fast and furious through three acts, and finally explanations are made and all ends happily.

A Plainfield Voice for Woman Suffrage.

The ample parlors of the Channing Memorial Church, Newport, were filled Saturday with a large and attentive audience, including many of the Summer residents. Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, her daughter, Mrs. Florence Howe Hall of this city, and Dr. Henry Blackwell of Boston, made addresses on the question "Should Women Have the Ballot?" Great interest was manifested in the occasion.

It is especially interesting to Jersey people to learn that this very successful meeting was chiefly gotten up by a woman from our State, Dr. Mary D. Hussey of East Orange. She is an indefatigable worker in the cause of suffrage, not only in her own State but wherever she goes. Dr. Hussey is Secretary of the New Jersey Woman Suffrage Association, and Mrs. Hall of Plainfield is its President.

Her Second Attack.

While walking on West Front street near Liffke's Bakery, last evening about 8 o'clock, Mrs. Mary Howard was taken with a fainting fit, falling to the sidewalk. Two men who gave their assistance, and carried her to a drug-store near by. Dr. Carman was called, and administered a hypodermic injection in her left arm. In a short time she regained consciousness, and was able to accompany her mother home. She had a similar experience this summer in Asbury Park while on an excursion.

A Distinguished Family.

The current issue of The Woman's Journal contains portraits and biographies of Mrs. W. M. Jones and her husband, the late Dr. Samuel Gridley Howe, and their five children, all of whom have been writers like their parents. They are the late Mrs. Julia Robinson Anagnos, Mrs. Florence Howe Hall of Plainfield, Henry Marion Howe, Mrs. Laura E. Richards, Mrs. Maud Howe Elliott.

Forced to Celebrate.

Charles Foroe will always remember the twenty-sixth anniversary of his birthday in a very pleasant manner. Last evening about 15 of his intimate friends surprised him, and it was complete for he knew nothing of it until the guests arrived. The evening was spent in social games and dancing, and refreshments were served.

Bergen's a Public Banquet.

After two months of bitter fighting the Board of Commissioners of Somerville has granted the right of way through the main street of the town to the New York and Philadelphia Traction Company by the vote of four to three. Ex-Speaker James J. Bergen, president of the board, voted yes, thus breaking the tie and giving the company the franchise.

MORE SCHOOL ROOM.

EDUCATIONAL FATHERS RELIEVING THE OVER-CROWDING.

Say They Must Have a New Building—Apartment Being Fitted Up in the Wadsworth Building.

A special meeting of the Board of Education was held last evening to provide accommodations for the overflow from the primary classes of Bryant and Franklin schools. All the members were present except Mr. Lounsbury. It was decided to prepare a room in the Wadsworth house by a slight change of partitions and to transfer to it the seventh-year grade that was transferred from the Franklin to the Bryant two years ago, and unite with it some of the pupils now in the overcrowded seventh-grade at the Franklin. The room thus vacated in the Bryant will be used for the children that are now attending but half a day. The Board members unanimously and emphatically insist that they must have a new building.

NEWS OF NEAR NEIGHBORS.

Scotts Plains and Fanwood.

Mrs. Edward Hand is spending two weeks in Keyport.

Laura Walpole spent yesterday fishing for bass in the Passaic.

Miss Minnie Hoisinger is visiting friends in Morrisania, N. Y.

Rev. J. S. Braker joined the Arcanum line at their meeting last night.

The Misses Hayes moved today to their new dwelling on Park avenue, Fanwood.

Miss Cora Lovens of Front street is in New Providence, spending a week with friends there.

The outdoor meetings of the Baptist Church will probably be continued throughout this month.

The plays in Music Hall, Plainfield, attract each time quite a number of the young men of the place.

The opening of school has evidently put a stop to the afternoon ball games of the boys of the twin villages.

The choir of the Baptist Church will have but one practice meeting this week. It will be held tomorrow night in the Manse.

No meeting of the new division Sons of Temperance was held Monday evening, the storm being the principal reason for the absence of a quorum.

Mrs. William D. Johnson closed the lunch room and stables business which she has been conducting on Park avenue, yesterday. Both of the stores in the building, owned by the Baptist Church, are now empty in consequence.

The Board of Trustees met in the school Monday evening and continued their investigation of the breaking of the windows in the building. It was decided to let the matter drop as it was thought that the boys had been careless in their shooting rather than malicious.

Mr. Froeligh's new horse was left standing by the house at 7:30 yesterday morning and ran away with the new buggy. Turning down Front street the rig struck Milkanas Cole's wagon at Park avenue, the horse becoming freed from the harness in the collision. The animal then went on toward Mountain avenue and was captured. The only damage to the carriage was the breaking of the whiffletree and four spokes.

Charles Correll or Amboy spent yesterday in town visiting friends.

Stanley Day, Jr., is putting up signs for Mr. Hatcher of Dunellen in Connecticut.

Mrs. Roff has returned to Newark after spending two weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. C. Fulton.

David Heston has a fainting attack at the Dunellen station Sunday evening, but regained consciousness in a few minutes.

One of the Lehigh engines had a mishap at the station tonight or two ago, and then was taken to the Lehigh Valley depot, where it was being repaired.

Last night about 1 a man riding at a terrific pace fell from a horse in front of Stanley Day's, and the horse went down, bruising itself considerably. It turned out to be a man after the doctor.

Sunday evening thieves entered the corner of Frank Farnes and took almost everything available in the line of cash. No attempt was made to gain entrance to the upper part of the house.

The concert given by the Vernon Brethren in the First Day Baptist Church last evening was the best of its kind ever seen here, and was pleasing to all. The brothers took their part well, and sang among the most skilled and wonderful child musicians in this country; they kept the audience, which was a large one, thoroughly interested, and all felt that it was a most pleasant manner. The receipts were about $30.

The concert given by the Vernon Brethren

Sandow Challenges Sandow.
Chicago, Sept. 12.—The famous Sandow, the strong man, who is filling an engagement here, has issued a challenge to Eugene Sandow for an athletic contest. Articles of agreement have been drawn up for an exhibition which will include all kinds of athletic contests, heavy lifting, calisthenics and a four-round glove contest if the challenge is accepted. The fight will be made to bring the men together in this city. Each claims to be the original Sandow.

For a Trial of Horse-power.
Washington, Sept. 12.—The navy department has completed arrangements for the horsepower trial of the first of the battleships, and it is expected that the Maine will make an official run on Long Island sound about the end of the present week. The trial will be exclusively for the development of power, no consideration of speed or maneuvering being involved, the hull being in the hands of the mechanic workshops at the New York navy yard.

Deafened Diamonds.
Washington, Sept. 12.—The treasury department holds that diamonds other than glimmers and engravers' diamonds are dutiable as precious stones, under paragraph 338 of the act of Aug. 28, 1894. This disposes of a supposed "loophole" in the new law, which by erroneous punctuation seemed to bring all diamonds under the free list instead of simply those intended for miners, glimmers, etc.

Berthed Stamford Policemen.
Stamford, Conn., Sept. 12.—At the common council meeting of the first of the town, an affidavit signed by Mrs. E. B. H. Hopkins, in which she made path that Policeman James O'Neill and William McMahon called on her recently and told her her son was in trouble for theft and offered to settle the matter if she would pay them $2, which she refused. Charges have been preferred against the men.

Killed a Man and Worried to Death.
Albany, Sept. 12.—W. W. Reed, who was under arrest charged with murdering Thomas Nason, in the former's orchard Sept. 2, died yesterday in the city hospital. Reed was 30 years of age and had long suffered from kidney trouble, but since his arrest he grew weaker till the end.

Senator Hill to Talk Agriculture.
New York, Sept. 12.—United States Senator David B. Hill arrived in this city last evening from Albany. He will deliver an agricultural address at Somerville, N. Y., on Thursday. On his return to Albany he will stop over in New York city for a couple of days.

Died of His Injuries.
Richmond, Va., Sept. 12.—Capt. John T. Turner, for ten years quartermaster of the Richmond & Petersburg railroad, in Maryland, who fell from the top of a car Monday night, died from his injuries last evening.

Local Weather Forecast.
Fair; slightly warmer; westerly winds, becoming variable.

A Shooting Story Discarded.
Philadelphia, Sept. 12.—Officials of the Pennsylvania railroad in this city stated last night that they knew nothing of the alleged shooting of Clarence W. Clark at Newark, N. J., on Sunday. His divorced wife, they discredit the accuracy of such an occurrence. The police authorities here have not heard of the case.

Bontelles Plurality Over 10,000.
Bangor, Me., Sept. 12.—Substantially complete returns from the Fourth Maine district elect Congressman Bontelle by the phenomenal plurality of 10,000 over his opponent, demonstrating to doubtless the largest plurality ever before in the district.

Seriously Ill Far Away From Home.
