

WORK QUICKLY DONE

Grand Army Boys Break All Previous Records.

Adjourned sine die after two days—Col. Lawler, of Illinois, Elected Commander-in-Chief—Next Year Mason and Dixon's Line Will Be Crossed by the Vets!

Pittsburg, Sept. 14.—Breaking all previous records, in beginning and ending its business within two days, the 58th annual assembly of the Grand Army of the Republic adjourned sine die last night. A year from next Monday the boys in blue, crossing Mason and Dixon's line for the first time in the history of the service will strategize with their opponents of the demitasse and thus make visible demonstration of the oft-repeated assertion that there is no longer a north and a south, but one country from end to end, and that it but a title of the pledges and promises made by the visiting Kentuckians are redeemed the veterans that are fortunate enough to be among the participants.

The encampment transacted its business yesterday with electric speed. When the noon recess was taken all the national officers had been elected. Col. Thomas H. Lawler, of Illinois, was elected commander-in-chief of the G. A. R.

Maj. A. P. Churchfield, of this city, was elected vice-commander. Charles H. Shupe, of New Orleans, junior vice-commander.

The council of administration was also elected, those in the eastern states being: Vermont—Benjamin J. Ormsbee, New Jersey—Emmanuel S. Rhodes, Idaho—Charles A. Harpner, New York—David S. Brown, Pennsylvania—Chas. W. Gerwitz, Connecticut—C. A. Darrow, Maryland—Dr. Hugh A. Maughlin, Massachusetts—Samuel M. Brown, New Hampshire—Samuel M. Brown.

Equal dispatch was manifested in the afternoon, so much so that Gen. Nickles was moved.

He steadied himself on his crutches in front of the footlights:

"You have held more business on the table in the last two minutes than congress has in the last two months."

Nearly half an hour was occupied in reading the reports of the committee on resolutions, and which dealt with more than 100 items of subjects. One resolution called the attention of state departments and posts to the character of certain school books used in some of the public schools.

Another resolution called for the department of Pennsylvania setting forth that many text books used in schools are works of southern sympathizers containing references to the late war relating to the war.

This was adopted and also a resolution requesting department and post to financially assist poor soldiers' orphans destitute of securing a high school education. Heartily applauded the resolution directing the incoming commander-in-chief to endeavor to secure the release of soldiers' orphans as may have been unjustly discharged from government service, and also to protect such veterans as yet remain in office.

A resolution expressing sympathy with the family of the late count of Paris was unanimously adopted by a rising vote, and a letter of sympathy was also ordered sent to Andrew Curtin, the venerable war governor of this state, and who has been unable to attend the encampment owing to his serious illness.

THE CHAIRMAN HAD AFFECTED.
Prayers for His Recovery Have Been Ordered.

Vienna, Sept. 14.—It is reported from St. Petersburg that the czar is afflicted with cerebral trouble arising from a serious ailment of the kidneys, and prayers for his recovery have been ordered twice a day.

He suffered from mental depression. When he went to Belovensk recently he was carried on a bed the whole journey. He became fatigued after the shortest period of effort. It is said, however, that he has been much benefited by his stay in the desert.

For Stealing Another Man's Wife.
Cornwall, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Frank T. Spencer, of Kanana, Steuben county, is under arrest charged with abduction and enticing away the wife of Charles J. Schultz, a wealthy farmer of that place. Spencer formerly worked for Schultz and he enticed Mrs. Schultz to leave with Lorenzo Bellinger, a farm hand, and took her from home to the place where Bellinger met her. Spencer was held for the grand jury in $2,000 bail. The case created great excitement in Bath and the surrounding towns. On account of the prominence of Mr. and Mrs. Schultz, Bellinger and Mrs. Schultz are in parts unknown.

Preferred $1 To Paying Alimony.
Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Robert B. Stickney, a man of a good deal of property, was jailed a year ago on refusal to pay alimony to his wife after a divorce suit. Judge Werner has just released him, it being shown that his property was tied up in various ways. For the past year Stickney has passed up and down the jail wearing that if he had a million dollars his wife would never get out of court, but not even if he were compelled to stay in jail until he died.

Trainers and Jockeys Punished.
Race Track, Gravesend, Sept. 14.—The stewards of the Jockey Club in respect of the running of the horse Rusty R. on Friday, Aug. 11, rule off the turf along with John J. Johnson and George Quaintrell for their connection therewith. In respect of the running of Rusty on Friday, Aug. 11, the license of John J. Johnson was revoked, and Edward Barry is ruled off the track.

Convicted of Purchasing Slave Girls.
Calo, Sept. 14.—Hassan Wazir, a retired general of the Egyptian army, and Ali Chaf, president of the legislative council, have been convicted on the charge of purchasing slave girls, for which they were arrested on Aug. 20.
